The first thing you should know about Miami is how to get there.

(Jet National Airlines.)

Miami Beach Convention Hall has a seating capacity of 15,900 and along with being the scene of innumerable large conventions, has also been used each year for the opening of the famed Ringling Brothers Barnum and Bailey Circus; the Pan American Hotel and Restaurant Exposition along with such special events as the heavyweight world championship fight.

This Is Miami Beach

MIAMI BEACH, Fla.—Host to some 1,500,000 guests annually, Miami Beach attracts vacationers every month of the year from every part of the United States, Canada and Latin America.

Here are lodgings for 175,000 visitors in 380 hotels and 2,700 apartment buildings, all within a few minutes of ocean beaches, golf courses, fine shops, restaurants, deep-sea fishing, night clubs and numerous spectator sports ranging from horse racing to football, depending on the season.

SUMMER OR WINTER

In winter Miami Beach bases its appeal on its sub-tropic climate that permits swimming, tennis and other summer sports. In summer the great attraction is luxury at low cost, although climate also has its appeal in that heat waves in the high 90s are unknown, thanks to cooling sea breezes and surrounding waters. Air conditioning assures comfort in most hotels and places of business and in many apartments.

ON BEAUTIFUL BISCAYNE BAY

A SERIES OF ISLANDS

Miami Beach is built on a series of islands one to three miles off the mainland, with Biscayne Bay separating this city from Miami on the west and the broad, blue Atlantic stretching away eastward. Train and plane passengers disembark on the mainland, arriving here by bus or automobile across one of the four causeways spanning the bay. That the air and rail terminals are across the bay, along with all other industrial activity, pleases the officials of this resort capital devoted completely to the care and comfort of visitors.

SPARKLING CLEANLINESS

This maintains what always is one of the first impressions a stranger receives in Miami Beach — the sparkling cleanliness of the city. Smoke, smog and dust are pleasingly absent, as also are most of the pollens that cause hay fever. Many people come here in summer to escape the latter.

A VACATION PLAYLAND

Miami Beach was founded in 1915, designed from the start as a vacation playland. One of the results is the abundance of recreation areas, including eight oceanfront parks with nearly two miles of bathing beach, numerous playground parks with facilities for various games, and two 18-hole public golf courses, plus a par-three course. The city also operates a year-round program of music, dances, cards, study groups and related activities at four civic centers where visitors may enjoy themselves at little or no cost.

The community's growth, to use an overworked but still appropriate word, has been phenomenal. Of the existing hotels, those more than 30 years old can be counted upon the fingers. Sixty-seven have been erected since World War II, probably as many as in all other resort areas combined. If the present trend continues, there will be no vacant lots in another 10 years.

SWIM YEAR 'ROUND

Although blessed with nine miles of sandy, palm fringed beach, Miami Beach could be known as a city of swimming pools. There are more than 700 here, many of them surrounded by sundecks and cabana colonies and attached to hotels and apartment buildings. A before-breakfast swim adds zest to the vacation day; long lazy hours in the sun and sea breeze untangle nerves and bring relaxation. This is part of every vacation here, as close as the hotel coffee shop or the corner restaurants, winter, summer, spring or fall.

MOST MODERN CONVENIENCES

Convenience is a key to the advantages the visitor enjoys at Miami Beach. A permanent population of 67,400, doubled and tripled by vacationers, assures such big-city services as modern stores, hospitals, bus and taxi transportation, banks, brokerage houses, restaurants, night clubs, libraries and schools. Yet the out-of-doors is close at hand, deep-sea fishing 20 minutes away, golf courses no more than 10 minutes and the wilderness of the Everglades National park little more than an hour's drive from the luxury and fashion of the oceanfront hotels.

Modern department stores and exclusive small shops display the newest in fashions for the Miami Beach visitor. Standard merchandise sells at the same price as elsewhere. A feature of Miami Beach shopping is a walk along Lincoln Mall, picturesque pedestrian patio complete with palms, pools, fountains and flowers in bloom throughout the year.

Miami Beach is seasonal, but the seasons are more dependent upon the weather elsewhere than here, where the winter temperature averages 68 degrees and the summer reading is but 13 degrees higher at 81. Days above 90 or below 55 are rare.
