

ROYAL PALM STATE PARK

Is owned by the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs;

Consists of 1920 acres of land:

960 acres ceded by the 1915 legislature;

960 acres donated by Mrs. Henry M. Flagler;

Over 300 acres in Tropical Jungle unlike any other in the United States;

Growth in the Jungle is, botanically, West Indian;

Including:

Royal Palms over 100 feet in height;

Stately Oaks buried in cascades of silver moss;

Rare Ferns and Orchids;

It is the hope of the women of the Federation to preserve the Jungle in its natural state as far as possible;

This plan is approved by many scientists of recognized standing who vouch for the scientific value of the Flora and Fauna of the Park;

The many trails provide a comfortable and pleasant access to the beauties of the Jungle;

Visitors are requested to register at the Lodge;

Tables and chairs on screened porches are for the use of the public;

Picnic grounds for those desiring out-door luncheons;

In preserving this wonder spot from the hand of the vandal; for the benefit of future generations, your moral support and financial aid are earnestly solicited;

Those desiring to study in the Park may secure accommodations at the Lodge by applying to

The Warden, Royal Palm State Park,

Homestead, Florida