7. The premium charged in this Policy has been adjusted to the liability assumed by placing therein various conditions, exceptions and limitations, and it is the intention of the parties that each of these limitations, exceptions, and conditions are to be literally construed, that none of them are to be stricken out or ignored or disregarded in its interpretation, either on the ground that they are ambiguous or wholly or partially or substantially repugnant or for any other reason, but each is to be given its full and literal meaning, it being further understood by the parties that the said premium will buy only such protection as the terms of the Policy literally show.

8. The burden of proof shall be upon the person suing to prove that the loss or injury is covered by this Policy, and the burden of proof shall not be upon the Company to show that the loss or injury was occasioned by an excepted cause.

9. The Company may make any payment provided herein to the Insured, Beneficiary, husband or wife, or any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the Insured, or to any person appearing to said Company to be equitably entitled to the same by reason of having incurred expense on behalf of the Insured, or for his or her burial; and the production of a receipt signed by any of said persons, or in any other proof of such payment or grant of such privilege to any of them, shall be conclusive evidence that all claims under this Policy have been satisfied.

10. Premiums on this Policy are due and payable weekly, in advance, on each and every Monday, at any district office of the Company, but may be paid to authorized agents of the Company, in exchange for the Company's official receipt, which receipt and this Policy shall be exhibited to any agent or officer of the Company at any time upon demand. Failure of any agent to call for the purpose of collecting premium will not excuse payment thereof within the time provided herein and will not prevent the lapse of this Policy for non-payment of premiums, any custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

11. A grace period of four weeks shall be granted for the payment of every premium after the first, during which time this Policy shall continue in force subject to the terms thereof. If death should occur within the days of grace, the overdue premiums shall be deducted from the amount payable hereunder. If any premium on this Policy remains unpaid for four weeks after it is due, as herein provided, this Policy shall lapse and all liability hereunder shall cease and determine without notice of any kind.

12. This Policy does not cover disappearance or injuries either fatal or non-fatal of which there is no visible contusion or wound on the exterior of the body of the Insured of the injury causing death or disability, or injuries received by the Insured while engaged as a brakeman, switchman, conductor, fireman, or engineer of a railroad, or employed in the yards or the roundhouse of a railroad, or enrolled in the military or naval service in time of war, or while participating at any time, in aeronautic or submarine operation as Operator, Passenger, Guest, or otherwise, or loss or injury caused by the intentional self-inflicted act of an Insured, whether sane or insane; nor shall it cover any one who at the date of its issue shall be blind in either eye, deaf, dumb, or deprived of the use of either hand or foot, or loss or injury sustained by the Insured while he has physically present in his body alcoholic or intoxicating liquors or narcotics in any degree or during the period of time the Insured is committing some act in violation of either State, County or municipal law, whether having in his body physically present such liquors or narcotics or such violation of law has any casual connection with the accident, injury or loss or not.

2. No statement made by the applicant for insurance not included herein shall avoid the Policy or be used in any legal proceeding hereunder. No agent has authority to change this Policy or to waive any of its provisions. No change in this Policy shall be valid unless approved by an executive officer of the Company and such approval be endorsed hereon.

3. If default be made in the payment of the agreed premium for this Policy, the subsequent acceptance of the premium by the Company or by any of its duly authorized agents shall reinstate the Policy, but only to cover accidental injury thereafter sustained.

4. Written notice of injury on which claim may be based must be given to the Company within twenty days after the date of the accident causing such injury. In event of accidental death immediate notice thereof must be given to the Company.

5. Such notice given by or in behalf of the Insured or executors or administrators of the Insured as the case may be, to the Company at its Home Office, Birmingham, Alabama, or to one of the District Offices of the Company, with particulars sufficient to identify the Insured, shall be deemed to be notice to the Company. Failure to give notice within the time provided in this Policy shall not invalidate any claim if it shall be shown not to have been reasonably possible to give such notice and that notice was given as soon as was reasonably possible.

6. The Company upon receipt of such notice, will furnish to the claimant such forms as are usually furnished by it for filing proofs of loss. If such forms are not so furnished within fifteen days after the receipt of such notice, the claimant shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this Policy as to proof of loss upon submitting within the time fixed in the Policy for filing proofs of loss, written proof covering the occurrence, character and extent of the loss for which claim is made.

7. Affirmative proof of loss must be furnished to the Company within ninety days after the date of such loss.

8. The Company shall have the right and opportunity to examine the person of the Insured when and so often as it may reasonably require during the pendency of claim hereunder, and also the right and opportunity to make an autopsy in case of death where it is not forbidden by law.

9. All indemnities provided in this Policy will be paid immediately after receipt of due proof.

10. Indemnity for loss of life of the Insured is payable to the executors or administrators of the Insured. All other indemnities of this Policy are payable to the Insured.

11. No action at law or in equity shall be brought to recover on this Policy prior to the expiration of sixty days after proof of loss has been filed in accordance with the requirements of this Policy, nor shall such action be brought at all unless brought within two years from the expiration of the time within which proof of loss is required by the Policy.

12. If any time limitation of this Policy with respect to giving notice of claim or furnishing proof of loss is less than that permitted by the law of the state in which the Insured resides at the time this Policy is issued such limitation is hereby extended to agree with the minimum period permitted by such law.

13. If a like Train and Automobile Accident Policy or Policies previously issued by the Company to the Insured be in force concurrently herewith, making the aggregate indemnity in excess of $1,000.00, the excess insurance shall be void and all premiums paid for such excess shall be returned to the Insured.

14. Risks will not be accepted by the Company upon any one over the age of seventy next birthday. When the Insured becomes seventy-five years of age, the Policy shall expire, and there shall be no further liability under same. Any premium paid to the Company for any period not covered by this Policy will be returned upon request.
