

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	PAGES.
CHAPTER I.—A Father Disappears	5
CHAPTER II.—Seeking a Location	10
CHAPTER III.—Land of the Ista-Chatte	18
CHAPTER IV.—The Location is Made	25
CHAPTER V.—Preparing to Hold the Claim	32
CHAPTER VI.—The Wilderness by Night	39
CHAPTER VII.—A South Florida Land Grabber	45
CHAPTER VIII.—Salem Sandig's Scare	51
CHAPTER IX.—A Confusion of Tongues	57
CHAPTER X.—Here, There, and Gone Again	63
CHAPTER XI.—Ul-we Gets Even with the Trader	70
CHAPTER XII.—Mr. Algrove's Perplexity	76
CHAPTER XIII.—Young Beach Combers	82
CHAPTER XIV.—The "Skimmer of the Seas"	88
CHAPTER XV.—Hiram Receives an Offer	96
CHAPTER XVI.—"Lord Alfred, the Manertee"	103
CHAPTER XVII.—Allan's Plan and Bessie's	109
CHAPTER XVIII.—An 'Ology Scheme	115
CHAPTER XIX.—After Four Months	122
CHAPTER XX.—Practical Results of Education	129
CHAPTER XXI.—Discovered in a Bowery Museum	136
CHAPTER XXII.—A Case of Mnemonics	143
CHAPTER XXIII.—War Threatened and Averted	149
CHAPTER XXIV.—Ravelled Threads Reunited	158

“The Seminoles of the Florida everglades are the only inhabitants of these United States who have no legal rights that a white man is bound to respect.”

From an article in Scribner's Magazine.