

PURPOSE

The Miami City Commission at their November 21, 1973, meeting directed the Administration to conduct a zoning study of Drug Rehabilitation Centers to determine their appropriateness within certain zoning classifications of the Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance.

To aid the Planning Department in its investigation, the City Manager appointed a committee representing key social rehabilitation organizations together with related City Department personnel.

This report titled "Drug Rehabilitation Centers Zoning Study" represents a joint effort of the Planning Department and the Advisory Committee on Substance Abuse.
