

The City of MIAMI, FLORIDA

The City Charter was adopted by the electors of the City of Miami at an election held May 17, 1921, and legalized and validated by Chapter 9024 of the laws of the State of Florida 1921.

The additional powers granted to the City and the amendments to the charter were authorized by an Act of the Legislature passed at its regular session in 1923 and filed in the office of the Secretary of State, May 12, 1923, and ratified by a vote of the qualified electors of the City held July 17, 1923, at an election duly called and held in pursuance of Section 11 of the said Act of 1923.

Further amendments to the Charter were authorized and additional powers granted by Acts of the Legislature passed at a special Session in 1925; the Regular Session in 1927; and Regular Session of 1929.
