INTERNATIONAL

The Independent Student Newspaper of Florida International University, Miami, Florida.

May 4, 1983

Christo, seen here talking to FIU students in the Fall of '82, begins his island wrapping project this week.

Editors

On May 4th The International will publish its last edition of the year. At this time virtually all of the editorial board and staff of the newspaper will be terminating their association with The International and embarking on new careers and developing new interests. This is where you, the members of the university community, are important.

Traditionally the editors and the majority of the staff are comprised of FIU students or recent graduates. At the present time no acceptable candidates for these positions have been found to assume control of the newspaper for next year.

What most people do not realize, is that The International is a privately incorporated, totally independent student newspaper. To our knowledge we are the only major student newspaper in the country with this status.

It would be a tragedy if FIU lost this independent student voice. Therefore, we ask all interested persons to send your name, address, phone number and brief biographical sketch to:

We particularly urge journalism students at the Bay Vista Campus to apply for these positions.

Folk Festival

"Many Floridians think the folk traditions and customs of Florida are threatened, dying, or dead. The annual folk festival continues to prove that this idea is mistaken and that indeed of our finest traditions are alive and well," said Secretary of State George Firestone in announcing Department of State preparatories for the 31st annual Florida Folk Festival.

The festival is scheduled for Memorial Day Weekend (May 27-29) at the Stephen Foster State Folk Culture Center, White Springs. It is coordinated each year by the Florida Folklife Program, a bureau of the Department of State, in cooperation with the Florida Park Service.

"Each year the Florida Folk Festival presents the varied traditions and customs of Floridians reflected in music, songs, crafts, and foods. The festival is a panorama of Florida's folk culture, much of it little recognized by the average Floridian," said Firestone.

Programs begin at 10 a.m., on Friday (May 27), Saturday and Sunday and will continue into the evening each day. Admission is $5 per day for adults and $1 for children (age 6-15); a weekend ticket is also offered at $12 per adult.

There is no provision for public camping within the park, but there are a number of state parks and commercial campgrounds within easy driving distance of the Center. Many national chain motels are located in nearby Lake City, Live Oak, and Jasper.

The Stephen Foster State Folk Culture Center is located on US 41, in White Springs, 12 miles north of Lake City and 3 miles east of I-75, via SR 136.

Rock 'n roll really stirs with the exciting taste of Seagram's 7 & 7UP. And so does country and western, and jazz, and disco—in fact, everything sounds better with 7 & 7. Enjoy our quality in moderation.
