SIDNEY WALTER MARTIN, author of the article Flagler before Florida, was born in Tifton, Georgia, in 1911. He took his A.B. at Furman University in 1932, then taught history for two years at Palatka High School, went from there to the University of Georgia to take his master's degree and remained as instructor in history. Dr. Martin received his Ph.D. from the University of North Carolina in 1942, is now Associate Professor of history at the University of Georgia, Assistant Dean of Administration in Charge of the Coordinate Campus, and, during the war years, was acting head of the History Department. Dr. Martin has contributed articles to the Florida Historical Quarterly, the Journal of Southern History, and is the author of the book: Florida During the Territorial Days, The University of Georgia Press, 1944. He is at present working on the biography of Henry M. Flagler.

THELMA PETERS has been head of the Social Science Department of Miami Edison High School, Miami, Florida, for a number of years. She took her bachelor's degree at Brenau College, Gainesville, Georgia, and her master's degree at Duke University. Mrs. Peters is vitally interested in South America, and has set herself the task and pleasure of visiting all twenty-one countries of the Southern continent. She has already achieved half of her goal, having visited in recent years eleven of our sister republics. She has put her first hand acquaintance with South America to good use by initiating in the public school system the teaching of South American history, a contribution of incalculable value.
