	1950*	328	113	441
*1949 dues collected to 9/1/49		317	102	419

Building Fund. The Association solicited contributions in an endeavor to have the Cape Florida Lighthouse declared a National Monument. $33.27 was not used and was added to the Building Fund, together with individual contributions of $25. Further additions to this fund should be encouraged.

Miscellaneous Income. Of this, $40 was derived from the sale of former issues of Tequesta and $63.63 from profit on the sale of other publications.

Publication of Tequesta. The 1949 Tequesta was somewhat reduced in number of pages, with consequent savings. 1949—$676.67. 1948—$910.75.

The corresponding secretary is charged with stationery, stamps, P. O. box rent, and expenses for circularization for new members; the treasurer with bank service charges and expense of sending notices of dues; and the program meetings with notices of meetings, lights and janitor service.

EDWIN G. BISHOP, Treasurer.
