EDWIN ADAMS DAVIS is Professor of History at Louisiana State University.

WILLIAM A. GRAHAM is associated with Ernest R. Graham in the beef and dairy cattle industry at Pennsuco, site of the sugar growing and making experiment described in the article. Parts of this paper were prepared when the author was a student at the University of Florida.

MORGAN DEWEY PEOPLES was a student in history at Louisiana State University when he worked with Professor Davis editing the Times-Democrat Expedition account.

HENRY PERRINE prepared the article here reprinted in 1840 at the very end of his life. The same number of the Magazine of Horticulture carried an account of the Indian Key Massacre in which Perrine lost his life and brought to an end whatever chance there was that his dreams might some day be realized.

FRANK B. SESSA, Director of Libraries for the City of Miami, was a member of the history faculty at the University of Miami when his account of Miami in 1923 was written as one chapter in a doctoral dissertation for his Ph. D. degree in history at the University of Pittsburgh.

LIST OF MEMBERS

EXPLANATORY NOTE: The Society has recently provided for several new classes of membership. Regular members at two dollars a year dues make up the great majority of the active list. For those who wish to contribute more to the promotion of the Association's work the new classes of member provide the opportunity, and the publication of their names is a means of recognition. In addition to the existing "Sustaining" member with dues of five dollars a year there have been added "Patron" at ten dollars a year, "Donor" at twenty-five dollars a year, and "Benefactor" at two hundred and fifty or more dollars a year. The printed roster is made up of the names of those persons and institutions which have paid dues in 1950 or in 1951 before September first.
