Contributors

ADAM G. ADAMS is a past president of the Historical Association of Southern Florida, and now heads the Acquisitions Committee of its Board of Directors. He has added a deep interest in the History of South Florida to an already well developed interest in the history of his native state of Tennessee where his family have lived for several generations.

CHARLES W. ARNADE is a member of the History Department of the University of Tampa. While he was a doctoral candidate in history at the University of Florida he worked extensively in the famous Stetson Collection of documents from the Spanish Archives relating to Florida. He held the coveted Doherty Fellowship for study in Hispanic American History.

RUBY LEACH CARSON came to Miami in 1916 to be a reporter on the Miami Metropolis, now the Miami Daily News. She has been an interested observer of the growth of Miami Beach and has known personally most of its pioneers. The Historical Association of Southern Florida was born at a meeting in the Carson home in 1940. She holds an M. A. degree in history from the University of Florida, and is the author, among other things, of the book, Fabulous Florida, soon to be reprinted.

WILLIAM J. SCHELLINGS is a doctoral candidate in history at the University of Florida. He did an M. A. thesis on the History of Tampa in the Spanish American War, and continues his studies in Florida History working in the P. K. Yonge Library of Florida History. He transcribed the Scofield diary and edited the portion here presented while a student at the University of Miami.

LIST OF MEMBERS

EXPLANATORY NOTE: The Society provides several classes of membership. Regular or "Annual" members at three dollars a year make up the great majority of the list. For those who wish to contribute more for the promotion of the Association's work, the other classes of membership provide the opportunity, and the publication of their names in the proper category of membership is a means of recognition. "Sustaining" members pay five dollars a year, "Patrons" pay ten dollars a year, "Donors" pay twenty-five dollars a year, "Contributors" pay fifty dollars a year, "Sponsors" pay one hundred dollars a year, and "Benefactors" contribute two hundred and fifty dollars or more a year.

*This printed roster is made up of the names of those persons and institutions that have paid dues in 1954 or in 1955 before September first, when this material must go to press. Those joining after this date in 1955 will have their names included in the 1956 roster. The symbol ** indicates founding member and the symbol * indicates charter member.*
