

Contributors

ADAM G. ADAMS, a past president of the Historical Association of Southern Florida, is now a member of the Board of Directors, and chairman of the Acquisitions Committee. He contributed an article on Vizcaya in the 1955 Tequesta. He came to Miami in 1925 and has been closely associated with the real estate business since that time. Portions of this paper were read at the annual meeting of the Florida Historical Society in Miami in March of 1957.

FLORENCE STORRS BRIGHAM, age 15, is a student at Southwest High School. She already has published over her name a historical account of the founding of Ochopee. In the preparation of this paper she exchanged 166 letters with 102 individuals and held 94 interviews with 75 individuals. Portions of this paper were read at the annual meeting of the Florida Historical Society in March of 1957.

MARY DOUTHIT CONRAD tells her own story in the reminiscences here printed. She wished to preserve the story of her pioneer days for her family. Mrs. Dan O. Patton, a daughter assisted in gathering the data and Mrs. Thelma Peters prepared the paper for publication.

WILLIAM J. SCHELLINGS, an M. A. graduate in history from the University of Miami and a doctoral candidate in history at the University of Florida, is teaching history at the State Teachers College, Troy, Alabama. He contributed "On Blockade Duty in Florida Waters," excerpts from a Union naval officer's diary, in the 1955 Tequesta. This paper was read at the annual meeting of the Florida Historical Society in Miami in March of 1957.
