

Historical Association of Southern Florida Membership List

The Historical Museum of Southern Florida and its parent organization, the Historical Association of Southern Florida, tell the stories of South Florida and the Caribbean. The museum promotes understanding of the past in order to inform the present and create a better quality of life.

Each year the Museum honors its members by publishing a list of supporters. Members support the museum through their financial investment, volunteerism and participation.

Membership Benefits

Members enjoy a wide variety of benefits, as well as educational and social opportunities. These benefits include free admission to the museum and Research Center, and subscriptions to South Florida History and Tequesta. Members receive discounts on adult tours and in the museum store, as well as invitations to museum events and participation in the Time Traveler's network, that provides reciprocal discounts at more than 100 museums nationwide.

Membership List Organization

The following membership list is organized in descending order by amount of financial donation. It includes members as of September 30, 2009. Any changes in a category or gift level transacted after that month will appear in the 2010 issue of Tequesta.

Your Story, Your Community ... Your Museum

Committee of One Hundred ($1,000)

The Committee of One Hundred is a vibrant part of the museum, and has a long legacy of supporting charitable and cultural causes. Each year these members provide a generous contribution that begins at $1,000.

The Comptie Constituency

The Comptie Constituency is a distinguished society established to honor donors who have supported the endowment in a significant way, or who have made specific provisions in their estate plans that will benefit the future of the Historical Museum of Southern Florida. The Comptie Constituency gets its name from the native cycad that was Miami's first cash crop and the backbone of South Florida's economy. Seminoles and pioneers used the starch of the comptie root for food and other purposes. We recognize the following donors, for gifts that will impact the museum in a positive way for years to come.

Afterword

In 1975 the Association published its first thematic issue of Tequesta to commemorate the U.S. Bicentennial. That copy took as its theme the years 1776 and 1876. It stands as one of the best sources on the Biscayne Bay region during the British Period and “the era of the bay.”

This issue of Tequesta, the first anthology of reprints and only the second thematic number in 69 years, will be just as useful when it is 30-some years old. Regretfully, a shrinking budget forced us to delete “Funky Nights,” much to the regret of all the editors. “Funky Nights in Overtown,” by Eve Reed, appeared in South Florida History, v. 21, no. 2, in Spring/Summer 1993. It became one of the most popular articles ever published in the magazine. Dr. George described it, thus:

“Eve Reed, who possesses a profound entertainment background and an abiding interest in Miami history, wrote [this article] on the music scene in Overtown, formerly Colored Town, in the post World War II era for a Miami/South Florida history class of mine. The article captured the excitement of Overtown’s rich musical offerings into the 1960s. So enthralled with the article was Stuart McIver, the late, longtime editor of South Florida History, that he insisted that this piece was his favorite among the scores of articles he had prepared for publication in the magazine.”

To read this missing masterpiece, as well as other articles from Tequesta about South Florida’s Black History, go to the museum’s web site. Back issues can also be read in the museum’s Research Center and various libraries, or purchased in the museum store.

Managing Editor and Curator of Research Materials
