VILLAGE COUNCIL

not recommended

~

VILLAGE OF MIAMI SHORES

LANDMARK FACT SHEET

WORK SHEET

CLASSIFICATION structure CATEGORY residential PERMIT NODATE CONSTRUCTED ⁺¹⁹²⁵ CONDITION fair ARCHITECT BUILDER ORIG. OWNER PRESENT OWNER & ADDRESS Mrs. Maude Murphy 128 N.E. 99th Street CURRENT ZONING R 18.5-residential Folio No. SICNIFICANCE: A - A physical (architectural or archeological) description of the site. Photograph should accompany this description SIGNIFICANCE: A - A physical (architectural or archeological) description of the site. Photograph should accompany this description of the site. Photograph should accompany this description contact of the site structure; masonry/stucco construction. Irregular floor plan. Roof is Spanish tile gabled. Central section- extends upward from rest of roof line. Large window in central section- originally was French doors; enclosed arched transom with keystone decora- tion. Eutry portico on west has been enclosed; originally had French doors; double unfluted columns retained. Roof over entry has exposed wood brackets. Low stucco wall encloses entry porch faced with terra cotta tile. Open masonry grillwork on projecting cast section. Side gables have round scuppers. Attached copies of carly pictures show original front window and porch. SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Mand Shores, Dade Courty, the State of Flori or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a
PERMIT NO. DATE CONSTRUCTED ^{±1925} CONDITION fair ARCHITECT BUILDER ORIG. OWNER PRESENT OWNER & ADDRESS_ Mrs. Maude Murphy 128 N.E. 99th Street CURRENT ZONING R 18.5-residential Folio No. SIGNIFICANCE: Λ - A physical (architectural or archeological) description of the site. Photograph should accompany this description. SIGNIFICANCE: Λ - A physical (architecture; masonry/stucco construction. Irregular floor plan. Roof is Spanish tile gabled. Central section extends upward from rest of roof line. Large window in central section- originally was French doors; enclosed arched transom with keystone decors- tion. Entry portico on west has been enclosed; originally had French. doors; double unfluted columns retained. Roof over entry has exposed wood brackets. Low stucco wall encloses entry porch faced with terra cotta tile. Open masonry grillwork on projecting east section. Side gables have round scuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original front window and porch. SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flori	NAME	DATE 5/16/83
PERMIT NO. DATE CONSTRUCTED ⁺¹⁹²⁵ CONDITION fair ARCHITECT BUILDER ORIG, OWNER PRESENT OWNER & ADDRESS Mrs. Maude Murphy 128 N.E. 99th Street CURRENT ZONING R 18.5-residential Folio No. SIGNIFICANCE: A - A physical (architectural or archeological) description of the site. Photograph should accompany this description SIGNIFICANCE: A - A physical (architecture; masonry/stucco construction. Irregular floor plan. Roof is Spanish tile gabled. Central section extends upward from rest of roof line. Large window in central section- originally was French doors; enclosed arched transom with keystone decora- tion. Entry portico on west has been enclosed; originally had French doors; double unfluted columns retained. Roof over entry has exposed wood brackets. Low stucco wall encloses entry porch faced with terra cotta tile. Open masonry grillwork on projecting east section. Side cables have round scuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original front window and porch. SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flort or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author or the nation.	LOCATION	128 N.E. 99th Street, Miami Shores, FL
ARCHITECT BUILDER ORIG. OWNER	CLASSIFICATI	ONCATEGORYresidential
ORIG. OWNER PRESENT OWNER & ADDRESS Mrs. Maude Murphy 128 N.E. 99th Street CURRENT ZONING R 18.5-residential Folio No. SIGNIFICANCE: A - A physical (architectural or archeological) description of the site. Photograph should accompany this description. Single-story Mediterranean Revival structure: masonry/stucco construction. Irregular floor plan. Roof is Spanish tile gabled. Central section extends upward from rest of roof line. Large window in central section- originally was French doors; enclosed arched transom with keystone decora- tion. Entry portico on west has been enclosed; originally had French doors; double unfluted columns retained. Roof over entry has exposed wood brackets. Low stucco wall encloses entry porch faced with terra cotta tile. Open masonry grillwork on projecting east section. Side gables have round scuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original front window and porch. SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flor: or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a	PERMIT NO	DATE CONSTRUCTED ⁺¹⁹²⁵ CONDITION fair
Mrs. Maude Murphy 128 N.E. 99th Street CURRENT ZONING R 18.5-residential Folio No. SIGNIFICANCE: A - A physical (architectural or archeological) description of the site. Photograph should accompany this description Irregular floor plan. Roof is Spanish tile gabled. Central section- extends upward from rest of roof line. Large window in central section- originally was French doors; enclosed arched transom with keystone decora- tion. Entry portico on west has been enclosed; originally had French doors; double unfluted columns retained. Roof over entry has exposed wood brackets. Low stucco wall encloses entry porch faced with terra cotta tile. Open masonry grillwork on projecting east section. Side gables have round scuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flor- or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a	ARCHITECT	BUILDER
Mrs. Maude Murphy 128 N.E. 99th Street CURRENT ZONING R 18.5-residential Folio No. SIGNIFICANCE: A - A physical (architectural or archeological) description of the site. Photograph should accompany this description Sigle-story Mediterranean Revival structure; masonry/stucco construction. Irregular floor plan. Roof is Spanish tile gabled. Central section extends upward from rest of roof line. Large window in central section. originally was French doors; enclosed arched transom with keystone decora- tion. Entry portico on west has been enclosed; originally had French doors; double unfluted columns retained. Roof over entry has exposed wood brackets. Low stucco wall encloses entry porch faced with terra cotta tile. Open masonry grillwork on projecting east section. Side gables have round scuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original front window and porch. SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flort or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a	ORIG. OWNER_	PRESENT OWNER & ADDRESS
CURRENT ZONING R 18.5-residential Folio No. SIGNIFICANCE: A - A physical (architectural or archeological) description of the site. Photograph should accompany this description Single-story Mediterranean Revival structure; masonry/stucco construction. Irregular floor plan. Roof is Spanish tile gabled. Central section extends upward from rest of roof line. Large window in central section- originally was French doors; enclosed arched transom with keystone decora- tion. Entry portico on west has been enclosed; originally had French doors; double unfluted columns retained. Roof over entry has exposed wood brackets. Low stucco wall encloses entry porch faced with terra cotta tile. Open masonry grillwork on projecting east section. Side gables have round scuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original front window and porch. SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flort or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a
Folio No. SIGNIFICANCE: A - A physical (architectural or archeological) description of the site. Photograph should accompany this description Single-story Mediterranean Revival structure; masonry/stucco construction. Irregular floor plan. Roof is Spanish tile gabled. Central section extends upward from rest of roof line. Large window in central section- originally was French doors; enclosed arched transom with keystone decoration. Entry portico on west has been enclosed; originally had French doors; double unfluted columns retained. Roof over entry has exposed wood brackets. Low stucco wall encloses entry porch faced with terra cotta tile. Open masonry grillwork on projecting east section. Side gables ave round scuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original Font window and porch. SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flort or the mation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a		128 N.E. 99th Street
Folio No. SIGNIFICANCE: A - A physical (architectural or archeological) description of the site. Photograph should accompany this description Single-story Mediterranean Revival structure; masonry/stucco construction. Irregular floor plan. Roof is Spanish tile gabled. Central section extends upward from rest of roof line. Large window in central section-originally was French doors; enclosed arched transom with keystone decoration. Entry portico on west has been enclosed; originally had French doors; double unfluted columns retained. Roof over entry has exposed wood brackets. Low stucco wall encloses entry porch faced with terra cotta tile. Open masonry grillwork on projecting east section. Side gables have round scuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original front window and porch. SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Florid or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a	CURRENT ZONI	NG R 18.5-residential of the site. Photograph should accompany this description Single-story Mediterranean Revival structure; masonry/stucco construction. Irregular floor plan. Roof is Spanish tile gabled. Central section extends upward from rest of roof line. Large window in central section- originally was French doors; enclosed arched transom with keystone decora- tion. Entry portico on west has been enclosed; originally had French doors; double unfluted columns retained. Roof over entry has exposed wood brackets. Low stucco wall encloses entry porch faced with terra cotta tile. Open masonry grillwork on projecting east section. Side gables have round scuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original front window and porch. SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flors or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a <pre>Irregular floor plan. Roof is Spanish tile gabled. Central section extends upward from rest of roof line. Large window in central section- originally was French doors; enclosed arched transom with keystone decora- tion. Entry portico on west has been enclosed; originally had French doors; double unfluted columns retained. Roof over entry has exposed wood brackets. Low stucco wall encloses entry porch faced with terra cotta tile. Open masonry grillwork on projecting east section. Side gables have round scuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original front window and porch.</pre>	SIGNIFICANCE	: A - A physical (architectural or archeological) description of the site. Photograph should accompany this description
<pre>extends upward from rest of roof line. Large window in central section- originally was French doors; enclosed arched transom with keystone decora- tion. Entry portico on west has been enclosed; originally had French doors; double unfluted columns retained. Roof over entry has exposed wood brackets. Low stucco wall encloses entry porch faced with terra cotta tile. Open masonry grillwork on projecting east section. Side gables have round scuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original front window and porch.</pre>	Single-story	Mediterranean Revival structure; masonry/stucco construction.
<pre>originally was French doors; enclosed arched transom with keystone decora- tion. Entry portico on west has been enclosed; originally had French doors; double unfluted columns retained. Roof over entry has exposed wood brackets. Low stucco wall encloses entry porch faced with terra cotta tile. Open masonry grillwork on projecting east section. Side gables have round scuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original front window and porch.</pre> SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flori or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a	Irregular fl	oor plan. Roof is Spanish tile gabled. Central section
<pre>tion. Entry portico on west has been enclosed; originally had French doors; double unfluted columns retained. Roof over entry has exposed wood brackets. Low stucco wall encloses entry porch faced with terra cotta tile. Open masonry grillwork on projecting east section. Side gables have round scuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original front window and porch. SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flort or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a</pre>	extends upwa	rd from rest of roof line. Large window in central section-
<pre>doors; double unfluted columns retained. Roof over entry has exposed wood brackets. Low stucco wall encloses entry porch faced with terra cotta tile. Open masonry grillwork on projecting east section. Side gables have round scuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original front window and porch. SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flori or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a</pre>	originally w	as French doors; enclosed arched transom with keystone decora-
<pre>wood brackets. Low stucco wall encloses entry porch faced with terra cotta tile. Open masonry grillwork on projecting east section. Side gables have round scuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original front window and porch. SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flori or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a</pre>	tion. Entry	portico on west has been enclosed; originally had French
<pre>cotta tile. Open masonry grillwork on projecting east section. Side gables have round scuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original front window and porch. SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flori or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a</pre>	doors; doubl	e unfluted columns retained. Roof over entry has exposed
<pre>have round scuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original front window and porch. SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flore or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a</pre>	wood bracket	s. Low stucco wall encloses entry porch faced with terra front window and porch. SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flort or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a	cotta tile.	Open masonry grillwork on projecting east section. Side gables
SIGNIFICANCE: B - A brief description of the site's relationship to the history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flori or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a	have round s	cuppers. Attached copies of early pictures show original history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flor or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a	front window	and porch.
history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flor or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flor or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a		· · · · · · history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flore or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flor or the nation. The Murphy family has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a		•
of several books on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a	SIGNIFICANC	history, development, architecture, archeology and/or culture of Miami Shores, Dade County, the State of Flori
	The Murphy f	amily has resided in the home since 1938. Thelma Peters, author short time during the depression.	of several b	ooks on the Northeast Dade area, lived in the house for a short time d	uring the depression.
	~

PAGE 2 - LANDMARK SUMMARY SHEET

HISTORICAL SUM	MARY (continued)

HISTORIC DISTRICT REPORTS WILL CONTAIN THE SAME INFORMATION AS THOSE FOR INDIVIDUAL SITES WITH THE ADDITION OF THE FOLLOWING:

1) DATA:

A. A map with the location of the district, property lines,

2) SIGNIFICANCE: A. A brief description of the relationship of the sites within the district to each other and the distric+'s relationship to the surrounding area and the Village as a whole.

PREPARED BY:

128 R. E. 99 Street Maini Shrie. Ala. 33/38 (Teleplane: 75-9-6546) specifica you would like. picture -- or what she if you would like a Flease let me know Screenely, More Marke Murphy (Jerone)

10050 N.E. SECOND AVENUE MIAMI SHORES, FLORIDA 33138 Lörn L. R. FORNEY, JR. (305) 758-8000 VILLAGE MANAGER 11 3206 2270 2 MIA SH. SE AmD. April 7, 1983 25'-10 11 a E 1/2-12 ¥ BL19 Mrs. Maude Murphy 128 N.E. 99th Street

Miami Shores, Florida 33138

Dear Mrs. Murphy:

I am pleased to inform you that your home at 128 N.E. 99th Street, Miami Shores has been nominated for designation as a Historic Landmark of Miami Shores Village.

The purpose of the landmark program is to protect those buildings which serve as visible reminders of the history and cultural heritage of the Village.

You are invited to attend the meeting of the Miami Shores Historic Preservation Board, Monday, May 16, 1983, at 7:30 p.m. at the Village Hall, 10050 N.E. 2nd Avenue, to discuss the nomination. Please bring any information, supporting data, abstract, records or photographs which you feel will assist the Board. The Preservation Board will review all information available to determine if your home qualifies for Historic Landmark Designation under the provisions of Ordinance No. 439-82 and the guidelines adopted by the Board.

The recommendation of the Board will be forwarded to the Village Council for final action. The Council will not award Historic Landmark Designation without the owner's consent.

A detailed explanation of the effect of this designation is provided in the Ordinance which is available at the Village Hall. Briefly it states that before any changes in the exterior appearance of the property are made, approval of the proposed alterations must be obtained from the Historic Preservation Board. It has no effect on the interior or areas not visible from public access.

If you have any questions in the meantime, please call me at 758-1957.

Sincerely,

marti

(Mrs.) Marty Stofik, MIAMI SHORES HISTORIC PRESERVATION BOARD

MS:gm certified mail