Fair To Every Eye...

An aerial photograph of Key West, Florida, showing the island's layout, roads, and surrounding water. The image is in black and white and has a grainy, historical quality. The island is elongated and tapers to the right. A prominent road runs along the coast, and there are several large, rectangular structures, possibly military or industrial, in the upper left. The water is dark, and the sky is light.

Administration

HORACE O'BRYANT
Superintendent of Public Instruction

Board of Education

The administration of our high school, through the Superintendent of Public Instruction and Board of Education, strives to give to each child the very best in facilities and educational courses and instruction. Their main interest is in the student and how they can give him the opportunity to become a worthy citizen so that he can take his place in any community. The progress made in Key West High School is an indication of that interest.

The Social Studies Department courses include: civics, world history, American history and American government. These courses helped the students understand current events and prepare them to meet problems in adult living.

Civics is required of all pupils and is taken in the ninth grade.

In the tenth grade world history is required of pupils in the General Course.

Through this study pupils acquire a knowledge of the past as a means of understanding the present.

The changing civilization in which we live is difficult for us to understand, yet a study of our history, including the great changes that have already taken place, will make our social world more intelligible and help us to understand our present civilization. In order to learn these things American history is required of all pupils.

American government is required of all pupils, and is generally taken in the senior year. This subject emphasizes the dynamic nature of our government—its living, functional character as well as its structural development and growth. This study also provides a clear picture of what government is, how it works, and what it really means to us.

Sciences

Natural and physical science classes are well-equipped with modern physical facilities; but our more dependable resources were tradition of free inquiry; inspiration of excellent teachers; and the natural curiosity of young minds.

In March the science program was highlighted by the Annual Science Fair, which devoted its entirety to science students' contributions.

Three awards, a science award for the outstanding senior, a medal for achievement, and a book award for the outstanding student of natural science were given.

Home Economics is a planned program of activities which enables girls to assume some of the responsibilities of homemaking. The classrooms are designed to approximate a homelike situation, thereby providing a realistic laboratory in which pupils may gain experience in meeting present and future needs for home and family living.

Every girl must have one credit in Home Economics for graduation. A second credit is required of every girl in the general course.

Commercial

The commercial department of the Key West High School is geared to meet the needs of the community. Most of our commercial curriculum graduates remain in town; therefore, we concentrate on preparing them for work in local offices.

Every commercial major must take bookkeeping, two years of typing, two years of shorthand, business English, and business mathematics. In order to obtain a credit in typing, a student must reach the speed of 50 w.p.m. in the second year, and a speed of 100 w.p.m. in the second year of shorthand in order to receive the shorthand credit.

On Class Night the following awards are made to the outstanding commercial people: A bookkeeping certificate offered by the Southwestern Publishing Company; a pen from the Business & Professional Women's Club of Key West, a Smith-Corona portable typewriter from the Monroe Office Supply Company, and a Royal portable typewriter from the Roberts Office Machines Company.

DCT

Diversified Cooperative Training—usually called DCT—is a program of training offered in the junior and senior years of high school that has been designed to prepare students of employable age for job efficiency in a variety of occupations through utilizing the business and industrial establishments of the community as training agencies.

During the course of the year, employers provided jobs on which student-learners received planned and supervised training over a sufficient period of time to fix the requisite skills, and they cooperated with the school in setting up schedules of related study necessary to bring about the combination of skills and knowledge that makes the difference between a competent employee and the average worker.

This year the special objectives of the library staff were: to gather materials for a picture file; to place back issues of magazines in magfiles; and to build up a professional library section in the Florida Room.

These objectives were met and fulfilled with the aid of 21 student library assistants, and with the guidance of Miss Mary Trevor and Mr. Anthony Rivera. Each assistant was given a library manual which gives the duties of the assistants and the library processes. Among the duties: desk work; shelving of books; reading the assigned shelves; pasting, marking ownership in books; repairing books; typing cards; writing overdue notices; and keeping the library neat and attractive.

It is through the efforts of these people that the Key West High School Library met the year's objectives and made our library one of the finest in the state.

Music

We may all be proud of the Key West High Music Department sponsored by Mr. Higgins and Mrs. Whitley.

The purpose of this department is to give each member of the organization the ability to develop appreciation for music.

During the football season everyone looks forward to the exciting halftime show put on by the Key West High School Band. In the latter part of the school term the band participates in contests and performs several concerts.

The Key West High School Chorus has made a number of public performances including "Down in the Valley," as well as participating in district and state music contests.

Physical Education

At Key West High School, physical education students have a variety of activities in their yearly plans. In addition to the needed team sport to help students in developing a consciousness in group responsibilities and achievement, many individual sports such as gymnastics and archery are being emphasized in the program. These are not only fun, but help students in gaining qualities of poise and confidence which are important in the personal traits of mature and successful people. Co-ed classes in archery, social dance, square dance, and recreational activities for older students point out the social values of sports.

Driver Education

When the student has successfully completed a driver education course, he should have more knowledge than the ordinary person who has just received a driver's license. The course provides a good background of the safety factors of driving and a sound program of behind the wheel instruction for every student enrolled. The sincere student has an opportunity to win several thousand dollars in scholarships at the completion of the course.

Art

Art and crafts is an elective subject open to all students. A main requirement for this course is a sincere interest in art, rather than previous experience.

The academic learnings include: art history, color and composition theory, art vocabulary, and manual skills. Work is done from one group of materials to another in developing critical values of design, and in compositions existing in the other arts.

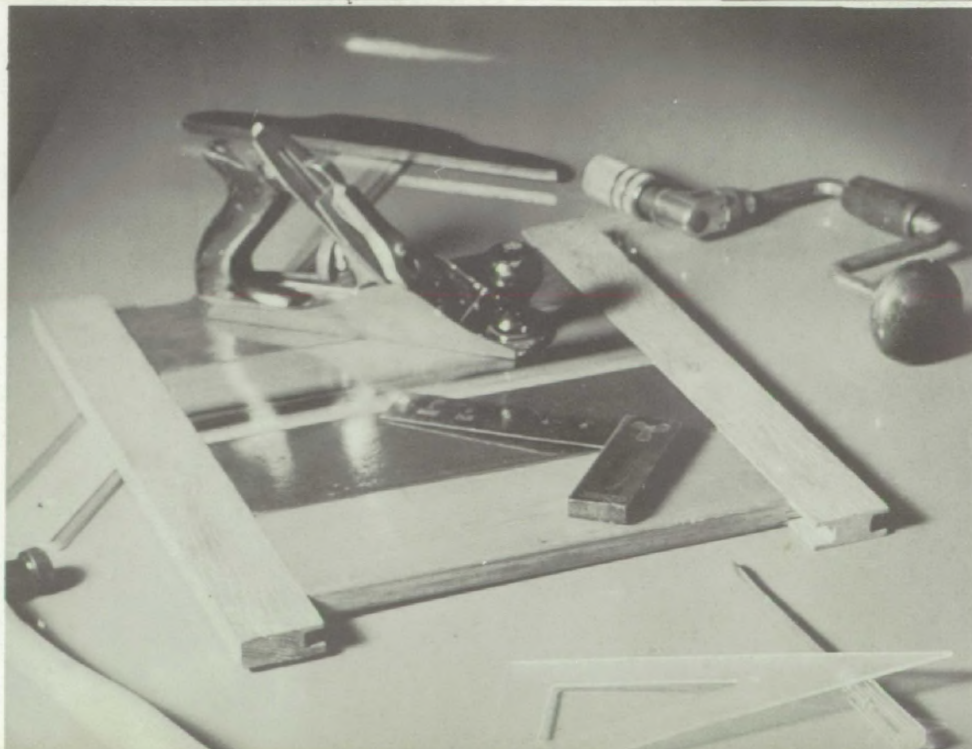

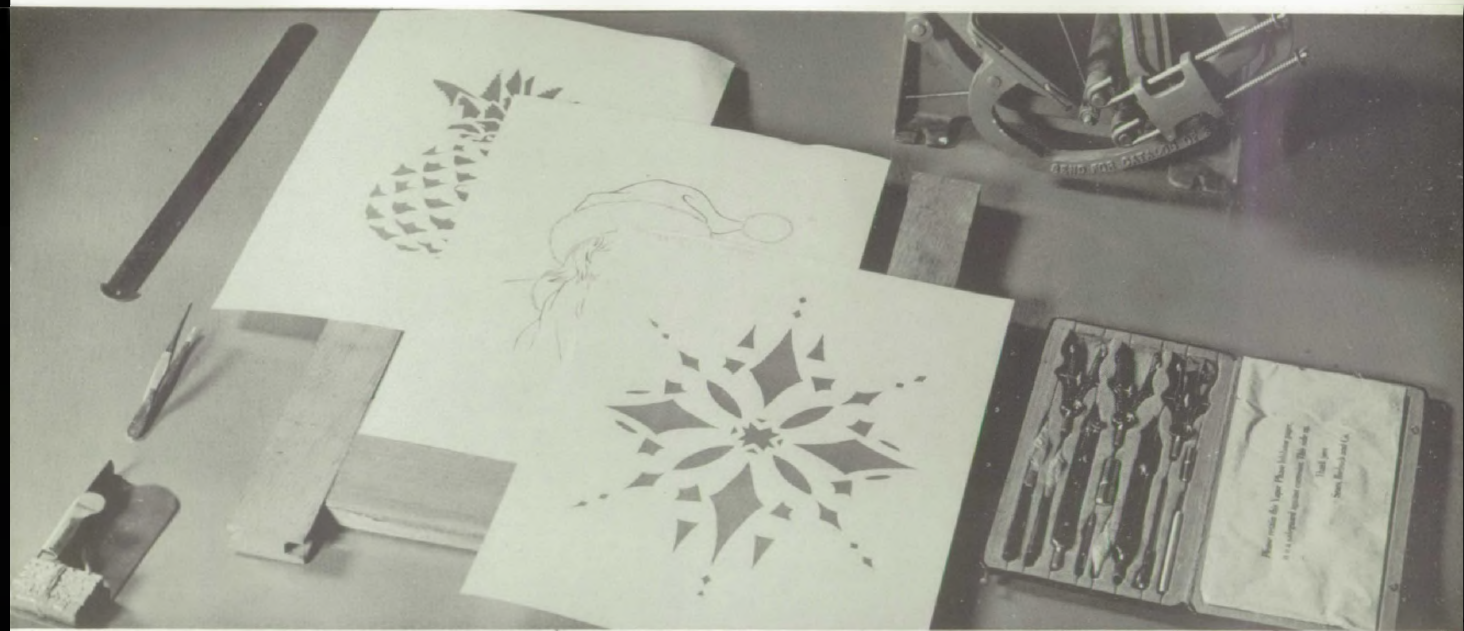

Crafts

Industrial Arts

The industrial arts curriculum consists of those courses, activities, or units of instruction designed to meet pupil needs which are outgrowths of the industrial aspects of American democracy. Emphasis in instruction is placed upon social and personal needs related to the use of industrial goods and services in home and community.

Seniors

The Senior Class schedule was a hectic one this year. After class elections, in which Jack Katz was elected president, Danny Garcia Vice-president, Peggy Haynes treasurer, and Sherry Parrish as secretary, the Seniors held two money making projects in order to secure sufficient funds for their activities at the close of the year.

Their first fund-raising project was the presentation of the comedy, "Best Foot Forward," on Oct. 27th & 28th and the second one was the selling of Christmas cards.

With the coming of May, their schedule became tighter. There was Conch Day, the annual excursion to Bahia Honda for a day of frolicking fun in the sun; graduation rehearsals, and, of course, the All Night Affair.

In leaving behind our beloved Alma Mater, we the class of '59 wish to express our deepest gratitude and appreciation to our sponsors for making this our last year, a most memorable and worthy one.

Play Forward"

The Senior class production, "Best Foot Forward" opened up the dramatic season at Key West High School on the nights of October 27 and 28.

The rollicking comedy was well received by the approximately 1,000 people who sat through the three mirthful acts.

The play took place in the boy's dormitory at Winssocki Prep School during their homecoming dance. The unusual situations which followed completed an enjoyable and memorable evening.

The successful production was under the direction of Miss Sara McClaren.

Girls' Day

Girl's Day at the City Hall kept our Senior girls busy as they took over almost all the offices in the city governmental setup. This worthwhile project gave the students a deeper insight into their city government and helped make them better citizens.

The girls held court proceedings, wrote out parking tickets, had a city commissioners' meeting and did every other item that arises in city government.

Julie Wallace, the Police Chief, and her patrolmen, Ida Pierce and Orchid Hernandez, arrested lawbreakers while Jane Gomez, the City Judge, tried and fined them.

Fire Chief Nancy Jamardo, Captain Linda Curry, Lieutenant Toby Stickney, and fire fighters Brenda Adams, Sandra McLean, and Patsy Roberts put out all fires occurring in the city.

Personnel Director Ledia Anti, and Recreational Director Esther Yarnall were holding discussions with our Finance Director Karen Best and Purchasing Agent Noelia Alvarez about the plans for the city in the coming year.

Peggy Hynes, Building Inspector, was proclaiming several buildings unsafe while Dianne Higgs, City Manager made sure all city matters were running smoothly according to rules set by City Commissioners Barbara Gaines and Christy Pinder.

This educational, as well as entertaining, day was under the sponsorship of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Key West.

A MESSAGE FROM COACH ALLEN

The 1958 season furnished plenty of interest and excitement for our school. Some of the best games were: South Broward, North Miami, Miami Senior, and Southwest.

I feel that this year's team was one of the best in our school history. Some of the outstanding players were: Capt. Sam Holland, Boog Powell, Jack Katz, Lorenzo Bancells, George Mira, Calvin Harris, Wayne Owen, Bob Daley, and Ronnie Young.

Due to injuries, two of our most promising players, Danny Garcia and Charles Stephan, were unable to participate in this season's games. However, they held the parts of supervisor of managers and manager, respectively.

The main goal this year was to bring back the old school spirit that has been lost over the past few years. We are happy to announce that it was finally accomplished this year. More students attended the games this past season.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Martha Rainer, the cheerleaders sold Conch dolls, pom-poms, and pennants.

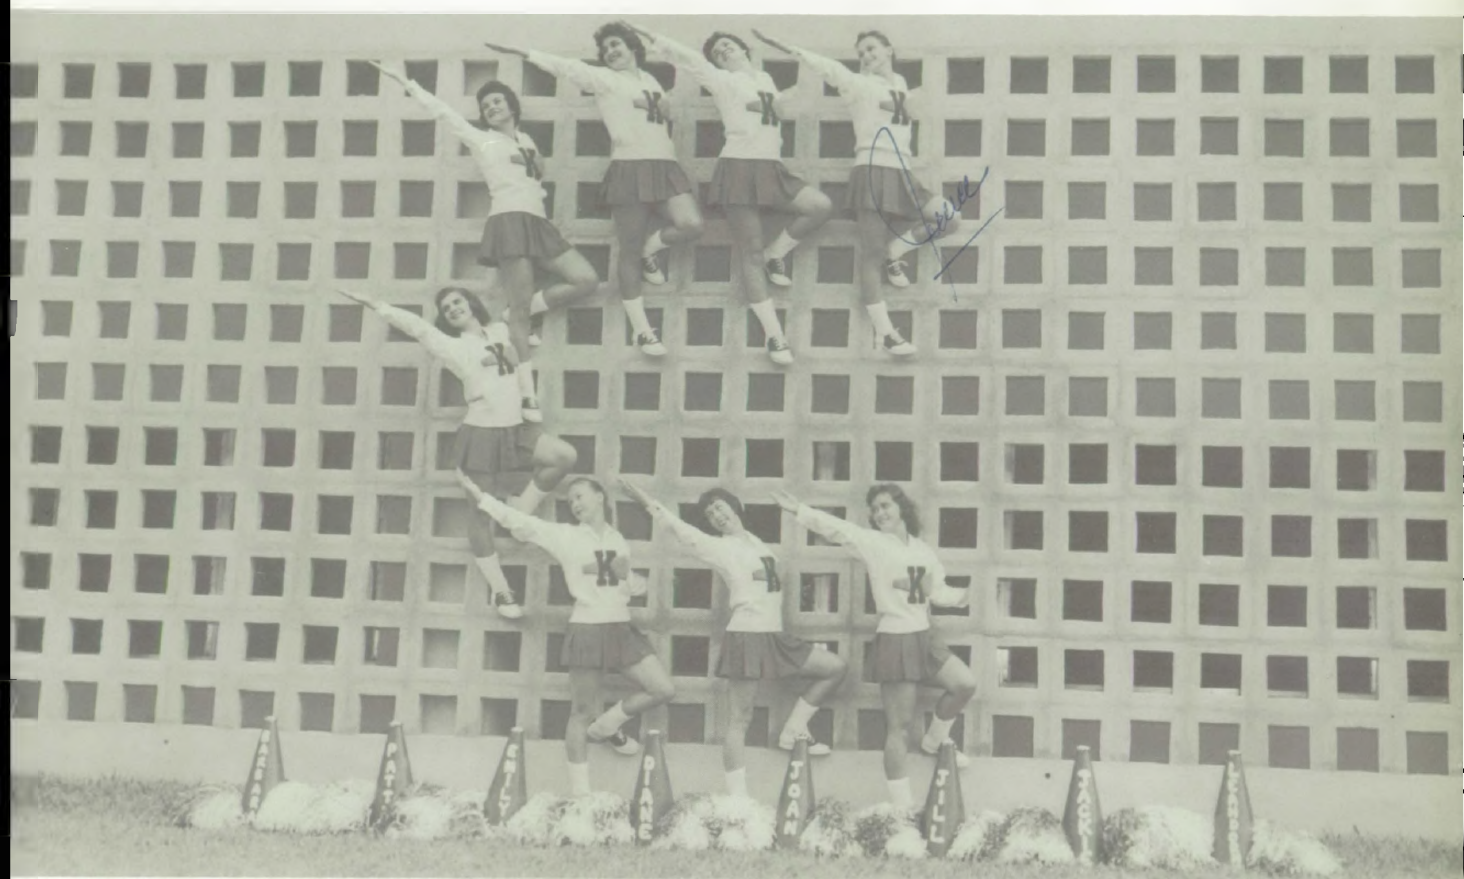

The usual custom has been to award the cheerleaders a letter, but this year they were awarded an emblem.

The Junior Varsity Football team is designed to offer the opportunity of playing football to as many underclassmen as possible. This also leads into the traditional purpose of Junior Varsity Competition.

This year's team record, from a won-lost standpoint, could have been better, but the competitive spirit of this group was very good.

GLORIA DAMERON
Captain

The J. V. Cheerleaders were founded about four years ago. In order to become a J. V. Cheerleader a girl must maintain a "C" average in all subjects, be able to do a jump, cheer, and cartwheel.

The captain this year was Gloria Dameron and the co-captain was Deanne Sawyer.

Under their sponsor, Miss Martha Rainer, their project was to supervise the Barefoot tryouts and teach them cheerleading techniques.

At the end of the year each girl was presented a cheerleading emblem.

The purpose of the Barefoot League is to provide an opportunity for boys and girls to participate in wholesome athletic activity, as well as to teach the fundamentals for future varsity participation.

It is basically an intramural program for 8th grade students which also endeavors to make the student a part of the total school program. This league is under the direction of coaches: Armando Henriquez, football, and Robert Stager, basketball.

Captain Powell with mentors

One of the biggest surprises of the sports season was the basketball team turned out by KWHS. A mediocre club was predicted, but a championships team was produced, when the Conch five, led by big Boog Powell, posted 13 wins against 4 losses to capture the Southern Gold Coast Conference title. In the play-off with Hialeah, the northern champ, KW dropped the big one 63-56.

Much credit must be given Head Coach Harold Haskin and assistant Jim Anderson in bringing a commendable basketball season to KW.

To start off the year, a frenzied campaign was held which resulted in the election of Omar Calleja as president of the class, Jayne Archer, vice-president, Rhoda Shaffner, secretary, and Wayne Lee as treasurer.

Their class play, "Ghost Train," was well received and provided a well-balanced mixture of suspense and comedy.

Climaxing the year was the Junior-Senior Prom and class picnic, which was a fitting finale to the year.

Sophomores

The Sophomores began their 1958 school year with the election of class officers. The election returns named John McCormick, president; Barbara Lenkerd, vice president; Bernadene Miller, secretary; and Linda Gregory, treasurer.

At their first event, a dance in the cafeteria, they met their new sponsors, Miss Everitt, Mr. Ekelund, Miss Elliott, Mr. Ishmael, Miss Rohalt, Mr. Simpson, and Mrs. Stark.

They were well represented among school activities with students in football, basketball, baseball, student council, and many belonging to school service clubs.

The Sophomore activities this year ranged from sponsoring dances during basketball season to having an "end of the year" picnic.

Each eighth grader in Key West High School is a member of the Eighth Grade Student Association, and each of the sixteen homerooms has a representative and an alternate in the Eighth Grade Student Council.

This organization was established in 1957, and it endeavors to meet the dual need of class government and service organization for the eighth grade. Purposes of the council are to establish higher and better ideals of conduct; to encourage student participation in all school activities; to create and foster a spirit of understanding between students and faculty; and to establish and promote a spirit of co-operation between students of this grade and students of the higher grades.

Officers this year were Mary Ramirez, president; Bonnie Brown, vice-president; Lorraine Colley, secretary; and William Ferro, treasurer.

The sponsors of this council were Mr. Floyd Cullop and Mr. Ross Moss.

The Key West School Student Council was organized in 1932.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Nellie G. Pantaleo, the Student Council has accomplished the printing of the Student Handbooks; organizing the monitor system; handling class elections; scheduling all assemblies, dances, and concessions; organizing the Inter-club Council; and various service projects.

Every year the newly elected officers are sent to the state convention. During the year representatives are sent to two district conventions.

Members of the Student Council are elected from each homeroom, one representative and one alternate. The officers are elected by the entire student body after lively campaigns.

Two seniors are selected by the council for awards; a bond for good citizenship presented by the Rotary Club, and a medal for the hardest worker awarded by the Student Council.

Girls' State

Barbara Gaines, Ida Pierce, and Diane Jenkins were the three girls selected to represent Key West at Girls' State held at Florida State University in July, 1958.

Each of the girls was chosen for their ability, leadership, and integrity. They were sponsored by one of the women's clubs of Key West.

At Florida State University they learned more about Florida's city, county, and state government by active participation. After a week of this extensive indoctrination the Key West girls returned home with a greater knowledge of Florida's government.

During the week of June 22-29, 1958, approximately 485 young men from all over Florida gathered at Florida State University for a week of fun and learning with the Florida Boys' State.

During the week, these young men learned the ways in which all government from state to city level work.

Each citizen of Boys' State was a member of either the Nationalist or Federalist parties. These parties were the backbone of the elections and politics.

The government was on three levels: city, county, and state. On each level officials were elected and appointed.

Throughout the year it has held the annual Tag Day; brilliant half time shows during the fall football season's games; entertaining concerts on Sunday afternoon; and has attended the District and State contests for bands in Florida.

A music lyre is given to each student after one successful year, and a service bar for each successful year thereafter. An outstanding band member award and an award for the most progress made were also awarded to deserving chair members.

Conchettes

"Practice makes perfect," yells Karen

The Conchettes were founded in the summer of 1955. Since then they have put forth a great deal of entertainment for the school and community.

Among other things their sponsor, Miss Ki Ki Cappony, has helped them through such activities as: football half-time shows, the Orange Bowl pre-game show, the annual Conchette show, and a banquet at the end of the year.

In order to be received into the Conchettes the student must have at least a "C" average and a sense of rhythm.

The awards given at the end of the year are: Conchette pins for the girls who have had two successful years; a chevron for every member; and the opportunity for the two outstanding girls of the squad to go to the Texas School of Dance for a two-week period during the summer.

Opening night and what a success!

Snapper

Sue Mobley, Editor

The Snapper for the year of 1958 - 59, maintained a policy of regular monthly publication featuring many journalistic varieties in its steady six-page layout.

Mr. Frank J. Pavalko acted as moderator for the fourth year in a row, and succeeded in keeping the publication on a sound financial basis.

Arthur Parrot edited the first two issues and was succeeded by Sue Mobley who carried on the job of publishing a newspaper that had high student interest and complete news coverage of KWHS. Marshall Strauss, with his artwork, gave the Snapper that added lift when it needed it most.

The Business and Professional Women of Key West again supported the Snapper with their handsome contributions in the form of ads, along with numerous clubs and classes here at school.

Mr. Pavalko and Mr. Conner confer on the financial situation of the annual.

"Is it really that funny?"

The work of publishing the '59 Conch was performed by the annual staff members under the direction of the sponsors, Mr. Vernon Conner and Mrs. Frank J. Pavalko. This work included layout, composition, soliciting, and picture scheduling.

For the first time, KWHS attended the Florida Scholastic Press Association's annual state conference for school publications. The staff members who attended gleaned much valuable information for the publication of this yearbook.

The goals of any yearbook — to improve public relations between the city and the school, and to keep a thorough record of the happenings of the school year—were successfully accomplished by this staff, with the cooperation of the administration, faculty and the student body.
