

April 23rd, 1937

Page 2 - Mrs. W. S. Jennings

tending to result in so comprehensive a plan, as it concerns the Everglades National Park project, that the Park as an eventuality will be a success in all that this word implies. Many others stimulated by the very prospect that this great National Park project might eventuate are equally fervent to lend their influence toward this end, and from among my acquaintances you are surely one of these in this class.

- Encs.
- Enabling Act
- Dr. Bryant's report (with notation attached)

Sincerely yours,

EFC/kj

Ernest F. Coe, Executive Chairman
Everglades National Park Commission

- cc:
- ✓ Shares
- ✓ Pancoast