

Mother's Day

MIAMI HERALD
SUNDAY, MAY 11, 1975

Purple Monkey On a Cookie

By ELEANOR RUSHING
Herald Staff Writer

"I've never seen a purple monkey, but if I do I hope it's on my mothers' dress," said Marie Symonds, 9, Saturday as she worked over a cookie monkey.

Marie, of 294 NE 40th Ct., in Oakland Park, and seven other children made dress pins for Mother's Day presents out of store-bought animal cookies at the Oakland Park Library on NE 37th St.

Marie, who says Mother's Day "is a special day when you celebrate mothers," added the final touches (gold glitter) glued to the back of the cookie.

THE SPECIAL gifts were supposed to be a surprise, but Marie said "Mom read it in the newspaper" but "she doesn't know what it's going to look like," Marie mischievously added.

Marie said she will also give her mother a small

Turn to Page 2BR, Col. 6

Susanne Merrit Fastens Pin
... to back of cookie present

OAKLAND PARK LIBRARY

1975

—BOB EIGHMIE / Miami Herald Staff

Elizabeth Merrit Puts Glitter on Her Cookie Pin
... Lori Wengatz watches during Oakland Park library session

I Forgot; I'm So Forgetful'

FROM PAGE 1BR

bottle of cologne, and said "It's going to be real exciting when she unwraps the pin."

The six girls — and one boy finished quickly and left — worked under the watchful eye of children's librarian Lois Staresina for almost an hour, eating more cookies than they decorated.

MISS STARESINA said each Saturday the library sponsors a special half-hour where children can do different things. The children themselves decided to make special gifts because of Mother's Day, Miss Staresina said.

Two sisters, Elizabeth, 7, and Susanne Merrit, 9, of 2616 NE 35th Dr., in Oakland Park, sat around a table littered with cookies and glue.

Elizabeth, with glitter, nail polish and a lot of patience, produced a miniature cookie elephant.

MUNCHING ON a zebra cookie Elizabeth explained that Mother's Day is a special day for mothers. "I don't know why — I think someone told me but I forgot — I'm so forgetful," she said with a sigh.

Big sister Susanne was having problems getting her glue and nail polish to dry quickly so that she could decorate her kangaroo.

"This one is for me," she said. "If I have time I'll make another for my mom. I've already bought her a recipe holder."

Even A Lowly Animal Cookie Can Be A Gift For Mother

By DAVE HEEREN
Staff Writer

OAKLAND PARK — In nine homes today, a dialogue something like this will occur.

"Happy Mother's Day, mom. Here's a present."

"Thank you, dear. Ummm, what is it?"

"It's a gorilla."

"It's, uh, beautiful, dear."

The unusual Mother's Day gifts are the result of an hour of work yesterday at the Oakland Park Library by nine girls ages 7 to 12.

Children's librarian Lois Staresina gathered the girls around a table and gave them two boxes of animal cookies, a bottle of clear nail polish, a bottle of glue, and some safety pins.

Beginning with these tools, the girls made pins for their mothers for Mother's Day.

The manufacturing process consisted of coating the animal cookies with nail polish and using glue to fasten the safety pins to the back of the cookies.

Some of the more industrious children managed to make two gift pins during the allotted time. Among them was Dew Symonds, 12, a sixth-grader at Nova Middle School.

"I like my walrus better than my bear," Dew said.

Elizabeth Merritt, 7, a second-grader at Westminster Academy, made a glossy elephant and ate several rhinoceroses and hippopotamuses while Miss Staresina wasn't looking.

"It's all right," said the librarian. "Most of the cookies are broken, anyway."

But she warned the girls, "Don't try to eat the cookies after you put nail polish on them."

The pin-making project was one in a series conducted by Miss Staresina Saturday mornings for children. She said she collects ideas for projects from a variety of magazines.

"Sometimes we have as many as 30 children, sometimes as few as two," she said. "It depends on the time of year and how much publicity we get."

In spite of the large appetites of some of the girls, there were still a few cookies left as they were finishing their work.

"If anyone wants to make another pin, we still have a gorilla and a kangaroo," Miss Staresina said.

There were a few dark moments for Elizabeth Merritt, above, yesterday as she contemplated what kind of special present she could make for

mom. It wasn't too long, though, before the bright idea struck, below.

Broward News

Whats' That? A Cat?

It's not bad news putting that look on the face of Karen Springsteen as she tackles the newspaper, above. Karen's troubled by the difficulty of tearing the big news of the day into strips small enough for papier mache. But as the picture at right shows, finally she was successful and, whoever was in the headlines turned into a fat cat when Karen completed her project at the Oakland Park library.

—TOM MOSIER / Miami Herald Staff

July 1975

Broward News

Cut, Stare and Tear For Cut-outs

It was cut, stare and tear time Saturday afternoon at the Oakland Park city library where young children tried their hand at the Polish art of paper cut-outs, called "Wycinanki." Paula Gabrielle, 8, above, Norma Flores, 8, above right, and Susan Torres, 13, right joined in the fun.

—BOB EIGHMIE / Miami Herald Staff

JULY 1975

Fort Lauderdale News, Monday, July 7, 1975

No July Doldrums

No reason for any of you Oakland Park kids to give in to boredom during the hot days of July.

For the entire month Mrs. Erma Fair will have on exhibit the collection of ethnic dolls she has accumulated for her granddaughter.

Every Monday at 2 p.m., starting today, youngsters from 7 to 12 are invited to a story hour: reading aloud, drama, book discussion and film strips. There's no admission charge. A papier mache class also meets Mondays at 2 p.m. for those 12 years or older, and at 4 p.m. for 9-12 year olds.

Children 7 or older can make tie-dye samplers during the library's activity hour tomorrow at 2 p.m. The library's program at the Harlem-McBride Center will feature claydough creations at 2 p.m. Wednesday.

Topping off the week will be the movie "Dick Whittington and His Cat," to be shown at the library Friday at 3 p.m.

Children's librarian is Lois Staresina.

Broward News

Filling in The 'Ohs'

July 1975

And Oh My Oh Me there are these imaginary 'O's lined up and down on this page and there is just Jomarie Mayton here in this normally staid and adultified place they call the Oakland Park Library to do the job they call sponge printing, and sometimes it gets sooooo frustrating that some friendly types like Dana Mix, just lets it all go at once and then they call it sponge splashing, and 'they' don't like it, sometimes.

—TOM MOSIER / Miami Herald Staff

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, AMERICA !

Party in the Park
Summer 1976

Rose Booth and Alicia McHugh seerving up the treats.

seated: Cleo Kaltz
standing: Billie Davis, Alicia
McHugh, Library Director, Shirley
Betts, Staff, and Mary Driscoll

Another CETA worker, Barbara Abbott

October 1976
The Oakland Park Library League
BAKE SALE!

Staff member Rose Booth

CETA worker Josephine and
Mrs. Betts at circulation

Enjoying sampling the goodies

Children's Librarian
Marlene Lee and League Member

seated: Cleo Kaltz
standing: Billie Davis, Alicia
McHugh, Library Director, Shirley
Betts, Staff, and Mary Driscoll

Another CETA worker, Barbara Abbott

HALLOWEEN - 1976

Youngsters from Harlem-McBride visit the Library in costume

Children's Librarian
Rose Booth hands out
Halloween goodies.

November 1976
"Ben Franklin" visits with
Marlene & Amy Lee

"Ben Franklin" and Eileen Cobb

Mrs. Larry Bordeaux
Library Director in 1976

Children's Librarian Marlene Lee and Library League President
Cleo Kaltz with the winners of the Illustrate A book Contest
November 1976

Artist Rosli Gelfer paints a portrait of the winner of Illustrate A Book Contest

Making "ME" drawings
March 1977

Oakland Park Library Float
"Little House on the Prairie"
Alicia & Shannon McHugh

Barbara Abbott and daughter

Rose Booth & Brenda Brumley

clowns from left to right
Rose Booth and Barbara Abbott

Barbara Abbott, Marlene Lee and Rose Booth NLW 1977
OP 2017, 70.1

Library Staff
1977

The band played on
Art in the Park
sidewalk art show
April 1977

Design a Bookmark Contest

Vote for your favorite bookmark

National Library Week 1977

Library League Recognition Day
foreground: Myrtle Jatrose and Marge Baumuller

left to right: Rose Foppianno, Mary Driscoll, Helen Higgins staff member Rose Booth pouring

Dr. Herwig in foreground

Thursday, Nov. 3, 1977

MEETINGS AND ACTIVITIES

Pompano Beach

North Broward Hospital will offer a free health lecture entitled "To Breathe Or Not To Breathe - That Is The Question - Obstructive Lung Disease" from 7:30 to 9 tonight in the hospital auditorium, 201 E. Sample Road. For reservations, call 941-8300, ext. 705 or 706 between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. Monday-Friday.

★ ★ ★

The American Legion Auxiliary Post No. 142 will meet at 8 tonight at the Post Home.

★ ★ ★

The "Three Flags" Chapter of the Daughters of the American Colonists of Pompano Beach will meet at noon Saturday at the Boca Raton Country Club at Hidden Valley. John Pickering, professor of history and government at the College of Boca Raton, will speak on "Utopia Vs. Nightmare" — the American experience as expressed by views from American fiction writers.

★ ★ ★

Free blood pressure readings will be taken by the American Red Cross from 9 a.m. to noon today at the Pompano Beach Recreation Center, 1801 NE Sixth St.

★ ★ ★

The Greater Pompano Beach Senior Citizens Club will meet at 10:45 a.m. in the auditorium. Participants should bring their lunch if they plan to play cards or join in a discussion group.

★ ★ ★

The Cresthaven Civic Association will hold a rummage sale from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. tomorrow and Saturday at 3500 NE 16th Ter. Electrical appliances, clothing, household articles, dishes and books will be on sale.

★ ★ ★

The Friends of the Pompano Beach Library will present a book review at 2 p.m. Monday in the recreation center, 1801 NE Sixth St. Mrs. Harry Nooterwill will review "Storm Warning" by Jack Higgins.

Wilton Manors

Water color paintings by Fort Lauderdale artist Gene McLendon will be on display from 1 to 4 p.m. through Nov. 15 in the main hall of Manor Pines Convalescent Center, 1701 NE 26th St. The one-woman show will include traditional landscape paintings of Florida, as well as the southwestern United States.

Margate

The Friends of the Margate Library will meet at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the David Park Pavilion. Pat Cunningham will demonstrate how to make apple head dolls and organdy roses. Participants are asked to bring an apple and a pair of scissors.

Deerfield Beach

The Deerfield Beach Orchid Society Inc. will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the meeting room of Lion Lutheran Church, 959 SE Sixth St. Boca Raton florist Tom Milo will demonstrate the use of orchids and native plants.

★ ★ ★

The National Council of Jewish

Women will meet at 12:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Administration Building, on the second floor of Century Village East. Sali Pasquale will speak on "How To Tune In." For further information, call Marie Moss, 426-1367.

Lighthouse Point

The North Broward Senior Citizens Club will meet at 1 p.m. today at the Pompano Beach Community Center, 1801 NE Sixth St. Broward County Circuit Court Clerk Robert E. Lockwood will speak on wills and probates and small claims procedure. A question and answer period will follow.

Blood pressure readings will be conducted from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Cabins for the Thanksgiving Cruise should be reserved at this meeting.

★ ★ ★

The Lighthouse Point Bonsai Society will hold their eighth annual exhibition from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. beginning Wednesday and continuing through November at the main entrance on the north side of Pompano Fashion Square.

There will be a large display of various types and sizes of Bonsai. The public may purchase trees from the sales table. There also will be a special education display showing the various steps necessary to create a Bonsai.

★ ★ ★

The North Broward Republican Club will meet at 8 tonight at the Lighthouse Point City Hall. A North Ridge General Hospital representative will present a film entitled "Hospital With A Heart." The film deals with open heart surgery and explains cataract surgery procedure.

Oakland Park

The Oakland Park Women's Club will hold a bazaar beginning at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow and Saturday at the clubhouse, 3721 NE 13th Ave. Items on sale will include Christmas gifts, plants, baked goods, snacks, and jewelry.

★ ★ ★

The Oakland Park Library's annual Illustrate-a-Book Contest entries will be accepted Nov. 10 at the library, 1298 NE 37th St. Boys and girls from Kindergarten through fifth grade are invited to illustrate their favorite book on 8½-by-11-inch paper. Prizes will be awarded by the library league at the Children's Book Week Celebration Nov. 19. For further information, call the children's librarian, 561-6287.

★ ★ ★

A pancake breakfast to benefit the Oakland Park boys' football teams will be served from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Sunday at the Collins Community Center, 3900 NE Third Ave. The menu will include all the pancakes you can eat, coffee, orange juice, and sausage.

Tickets may be purchased at the door, at the Collins Center, or from any football board member. For further information, call 561-6280.

★ ★ ★

The work of Fran Scheffler ranging from acrylic or resin abstracts to representational scenics and seascapes in oil will be on display at the Oakland Park Library from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily except Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays when the display will be open until 9 p.m.

Fort Lauderdale

The Nova High School Band will hold a spaghetti dinner from noon to 6 p.m. Sunday in the school cafeteria, 3600 NW SW 70th Ave. There will be a table of gift items for sale. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

★ ★ ★

The Fort Lauderdale City Panhellenic Association will hold a fashion show at noon Saturday at the Galt Ocean Mile Hotel, 3200 Galt Ocean Drive. Commentary on Haber's Fashions will be given by Sue Owens. All proceeds will go to

BOOK SALE!
Library League has it's annual book sale during National Library Week

A book talk by Mrs. Wright for Library League
Recognition Day

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK
1978

Marlene Lee, Children's Librarian
Alicia McHugh, Library Director
Marie Wright, Asst. Library Director

National Library Week Celebration
1978

Alicia McHugh, Library Director
presents an award for the Poetry Contest.

A poet reads her own work in our library poetry contest.

Book browsing at the Library League's
Book Sale....

Don Booth, Jessica Brumley
and friend.

National Library Week
1978
"One Way Puppets"

Carl Nayrocker

An artist and her work.

Something to delight all ages!

b.b. Chapman's oils....

Inspecting the art from all angles!

National Library Week
1978
Poetry readings

Oakland Park Junior Women's Club float.

King of the mummings.

"Merry Mummings" strumming.

"The Quilters" on Wilton Manor's Chamber of Commerce float.

Happy clowns joking with the audience along the parade route.

Darth Vader bicycle won a prize in the decorated bike contest.

Old vintage on wheels.

Fancy car!

Oakland Park Junior Women's Club float.

King of the mummings.

"Merry Mummings" strumming.

"The Quilters" on Wilton Manor's Chamber of Commerce float.

Happy clowns joking with the audience along the parade route.

SUMMER LIBRARY PROGRAM
1978

THE PUPPETEERS!

IT'S SHOW TIME!!!

BOOK TREK into NEW WORLDS

Summer Reading Program
1977
"BOOK TREK"

Betsy Dewar
Books

Young Magician performing for the children in the Summer
Library Program

Shirley Betts help with a craft project.

Listings &

Chloe

BROWARTS

The "Meet The Teachers" seminar of the Broward Art Guild School was featured Sunday, Jan. 8. School at the Broward Art Guild begins the New Year with a six week winter session. One of the new classes will be taught by Aiko Low on Sumi painting [above].

Broward Art Guild

19th Annual Membership Show
Hours: T-S 12N-4p.m.
Closed Monday

212 E. Broward Blvd.
Ft. Lauderdale
1-10 —2

Chase Federal Savings & Loan Assn.

Betty Chapman
Hours: Conform with business hours.

Margate
Month of January

Fort Lauderdale Museum of the Arts

Mauricio Lasansky
Prints & Drawing
Hours: T-S 10 am-4pm
Sunday 12N-5pm

426 E. Las Olas Blvd.
Fort Lauderdale

1-11 —1-30

Holy Cross Hospital

AEA Artists Exhibition
Hours: Conform with Hospital Visiting Hours

North Federal Highway
Fort Lauderdale
Changes Monthly

North Gallery of Art

Fumio Yoshimura, Sculptor
Hours T-F 10am-5pm
Saturday & Sunday 1-5pm

1451 South Olive Avenue
West Palm Beach
through 1-22

Oakland Park Library

Robert Lathrop, Watercolors
Hours: Conform with library hours.

1298 N.E. 37 Street
Oakland Park
Month of January

Parker Playhouse Art Gallery

Aikolowe

Playhouse Holiday Pk.
Fort Lauderdale

2B

Fort Lauderdale News, Thursday, Feb. 23, 1978

Bulletin Board

For Tomorrow

Compiled by Jim Davis

Main Events

- BIG PARADE, sponsored by St. Bernard's Catholic Church, will start at Ball Park Plaza in Sunrise at 5 p.m. tomorrow. The parade is part of the four-day Fun Festival at the church, 8371 NW 24th St., ending Sunday.

- SWIMMING CHAMPIONSHIPS at the Swimming Hall of Fame Pool will pit contenders in the senior "A" division. The competition will start at 6 p.m. tomorrow, then continue Saturday and Sunday. For the last two days, preliminaries will be at 10 a.m. and finals will be at 5 p.m. Admission for spectators is 50 cents.

MAGIC CITY might apply to Fort Lauderdale, not Miami, after a bit of legerdemain at Aldersgate Methodist Church tomorrow night. Magicians Don and Dot Lea will have a bag of tricks to show there at 7:15 p.m., including some they say have never before been seen in this part of the country. Tickets are $2 for adults and $1 for children; the show will be in the church's fellowship hall, 4905 W. Prospect Road.

Keeping Well

VITAMINS will be discussed by Iris Knauer of Nutrition Cottage at 10:30 a.m. at the Oakland Park City Library, 1298 NE 37th St. A question period will follow, with free "natural" refreshments served. Pick up free tickets before the program.

Quiet, Please!

1/20/78 SUN SENTINEL

When 19-month-old Colin Dewar cuddles up with a good book at the local library, he demands quiet. Photographer Ginny Southworth found that out when the click's of her camera broke both the silence in the Oakland Park Library and Colins's concentration. Appropriately, the tot let his feelings be known by countering with the reproachful stare of a librarian. However, in Ginny's defense, it must be said that Colin doesn't appear to be right on top of things.

Staff Photos By GINNY SOUTHWORTH

Library Week Set In Oakland Park

SATURDAY, APRIL 1
ALL-DAY EVENTS:

ALL-DAY EVENTS:

BOOK SALE, sponsored by the Oakland Park Library League. Inside the Library.

SIDEWALK ART SHOW by area artists. On grounds surrounding the Library.

FLOWER ARRANGEMENTS by members of the Broward County Garden Club. In display case inside the Library.

DOLL EXHIBIT from the personal collection of William Derricks. In display case inside the Library.

BAKE SALE by members of the Oakland Park Woman's Club and Junior Woman's Club. Outside the Library.

SCHEDULED OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES:

10:30-11:30 A.M.

POETRY PROGRAM

Readings of original verse by the following members of the Hollywood/ South Florida Poetry Institute:

- Susan Smith
- Billy Proudfoot
- Charles Cohert
- Jack Gould

Presentation of awards to winners of the Oakland Park Library's Poetry Contest judged by notable South Florida poets Ruth Jenson Rapp, Ann Shermer and Jeanne Wellenkamp.

11:45 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

LUNCH BREAK

Informal guitar rendition of popular music by Brenda Brumley.

Hot Dog Barbecue by members of the Oakland Park Junior Woman's Club.

12:30-1:30 p.m.

SING-ALONG

Music program by the Mellowdears.

1:30-2:15 p.m.

BOOK STACKING CONTEST

Games for ages 5 and up. A prize will be given in each age category to the participant who piles the highest stack of Library provided, worn-out paperbacks.

Rules will be outlined at the time of the contest. Judges for this event will be Darleen Mitchell, Oakland Park City Clerk, and Florence Loss, Oakland Park Councilwoman.

2:30-3:00 p.m.

PUPPET PROGRAM

Variety show by Bob and Sue Dolan and their One-Way-Puppets.

3:15-

PINATA

Game for young people ages 11 and up. A prize will be awarded to the participant succeeding in breaking the pinata and treats will be shared by all.

Rules will be outlined at the time of the game. Judge for this event will be Phil Christ.

Art in the Park, the Oakland Park Library's second annual sidewalk art show, is a highlight of the day-long schedule of events honoring National Library Week.

Some well known area artists participating in the exhibit are Louise Lundquist and Peter Olsen. The show has become a yearly occurrence in response to increasing local interest in original paintings by Florida artists.

In the event of rain, outdoor activities will be held at the Oakland Park Woman's Clubhouse directly across from the Library.

Oakland Park City Library, 1298 N.E. 37th Street, Oakland Park, FL 33334. Tel: 561-6287

Community Calendar

[Continued from Page 21]

The Cypress Harbor Woman's Club will hold their March luncheon meeting at the Pompano Beach Country Club on Mon. Mar. 13 at 11:30 a.m. A White Elephant Sale will be featured and all members and guests are invited to attend by calling Mrs. Gordon Oulton 942-8563 for reservations.

The March meeting of the Fifth Wheel Club of Fort Lauderdale will be held on Thurs. Mar. 16 at 11:30 a.m. in the Pompano Beach Country Club, 1101 N. Federal Highway, Pompano Beach. Past Presidents of the Club will be honored at this meeting with a specially decorated table and there will be cake and gifts for members celebrating birthdays during March. Cards will be played after luncheon and all proceeds from the meeting will be donated to local charities. Reservations and cancellations may be made through Mrs. Benjamin Hall.

The Second Annual Dinner Dance of the Abe Cohen Foundation will be held Sun. at 7:00 p.m. Mar. 5 at Plaza Caterers, 4850 W. Oakland Park Blvd. Lauderdale Lakes. Some 250 people will attend the new affiliates of the Mt. Sinai Medical Hospital function. Guest speakers will include, Honorable Irwin Christie, and Mr. Ted Safian, who is the Executive Director of the hospital.

Freedom Singers a young ensemble of 20 voices, has been formed as a spin-off group from the Nova University Community Singers. Under the direction of Peggy Joyce Barber, the group performs pop literature with choreography, madrigals of the 16th century, patriotic music and solos and duets from musicals. So far the Singers have made close to a dozen local appearances and are looking for more engagements, according to Ms. Barber. To inquire about bookings call Summer Greene 981-7610.

produced in Israel by the Jewish Chautauque Society and narrated by Martin Balsam. Members free; guests $2.

The American Assn. of University Women, Pompano-Deerfield Branch will meet Wed. Mar. 15 at 1:30 p.m. in the Pompano Beach Rec Center, 1800 NE 6 St. There will be a workshop on "Women as Agents of Change" with Judge Elizabeth Athanasakos as the featured speaker. Mrs. J.B. Basine is in charge of the program.

The Broward County 4-H Program is holding its annual Talent Show and Fashion Show Competition on Fri. Mar. 17 at 7:00 p.m. at the 4-H Auditorium, 3245 SW 70 Ave., Ft. Lauderdale. The Theme of this year's show is a "Parade of Fashion and Talent". The public is invited to attend.

A colonial Williamsburg film titled "Colonial Naturalist" will be shown at the Oakland Park Library on Fri. Mar. 3 at 10:30 a.m. Beautiful nature photography and scenic locale recreate the work of English naturalist, Mark Catesby working in colonial America. For information call 561-6289.

● VISIT KING TUTANKHAMEN'S TOMB with Orson Welles at the Oakland Park City Library, 1298 NE 37th St. Welles will take you on a film-tour of the King Tut exhibit, which currently is touring U.S. museums. The film is free, but seating is limited, so if you plan to attend, pick up tickets in advance at the library. For information call 561-6289.

● IT MAY BE APRIL ALREADY, but The Encore Theatre in Himarshee Village wants to tell you about "The Night Of January 16." That's the title of their play that opens tomorrow night at 8. Cost is $2.50 per person. Himarshee Village is located along Southwest Second Street in Downtown Fort Lauderdale.

Welles

Cummings
Cumings

CARIBBEAN CULTURE, and its diffusion to surrounding areas, will be discussed by archaeologist A. P. Rosenberg at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the meeting of the Broward County Archaeological Society. Rosenberge is a member of the archaeological society at the Museum of Science, Miami. The Broward meeting will be at the Seahorse Room of Broward Community College, Davie.

CONTAINER GARDENING is the topic of a program at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at the Oakland Park City Library, 1298 NE 37th St. Speaking will be James Cummings of the University of Florida Cooperative Extension Service.

Lin

The beginnings of a giant amusement park in Oakland Park? No, just the first phase of a three-phase drainage project which is designed to relieve the continual flooding in the industrial and residential areas between Floranada and 38 St. and between Seventh and Fourth Avenues where even a light shower left the area under four to eight inches of standing water.

Library Week kickoff at the Oakland Park Library on April 1 featured daylong activities and festivities including book sales and an Art In the Park sidewalk art show. The kids flocked to the One Way Puppets of Sue and Bob Nolan.

F.Y.I.

for your information

Free tickets are now available for the fifth annual salute to seniors, sponsored by the area Council on Aging and the City of Fort Lauderdale.

A variety of senior citizens clubs now have tickets for the event, scheduled for 3 p.m. Sunday, April 23, in War Memorial Auditorium. The program will kick off Senior Citizens month in May. The afternoon of entertainment will be presented by performers who have volunteered their time and talent. During the festivities, several senior citizens will be named to the Hall of Fame for Senior Citizens of Broward County.

★ ★ ★

Women in Distress, a United Way agency that offers temporary, emergency shelter to women alone and to battered wives and their children, has recently purchased a permanent facility. The building is located in Fort Lauderdale and can house approximately 40 people.

The shelter needs donations to pay for furnishing the new building. Anyone wishing to help should contact Women in Distress at 761-1133.

★ ★ ★

Today . . .

RAPE DEFENSE: How to Say No to a Rapist and Survive is the title of a film to be shown at 10:30 this morning at the Oakland Park City Library, 1298 NE 37th St. The deals with the book with the same title by Dr. Frederic Storaska, executive director of the National Organization for the Prevention of Rape and Assault.

B

Fort Lauderdale News, Thursday, April 13, 1978

Bulletin Board

RUSH OVER to the Fort Lauderdale county library branch at 2 p.m. tomorrow if you're curious about Russia. At the library, 1300 E. Sunrise Blvd., traveler Norman Zlatin will give a slide-assisted lecture on his trip there.

RAPISTS can be stopped with words. That's the premise of How to Say No to a Rapist and Survive, to be shown at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at the Oakland Park City Library, 1298 NE 37th St. The free film is based on a book by Dr. Frederic Storaska, executive director of the National Organization for the Prevention of Rape and Assault.

NC

SUN-SENTINEL, Thursday, April 13, 1978

LAUDERDALE LAKES — A book discussion group will meet at the Lauderdale Lakes Branch Library from 2 to 4 p.m. Monday.

★ ★ ★

FORT LAUDERDALE — A "Bilingual Poetry Reading (Spanish/English)" will be presented at 2:30 p.m. Saturday at the Riverland Branch Library, 2740 W. Davie Blvd. The program is offered free of charge to Spanish and English speaking adults and older children.

★ ★ ★

CORAL SPRINGS — A free slide presentation entitled "200 Years of American Art" will be shown at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Coral Springs Branch Library, 9571 W. Sample Road.

OAKLAND PARK — The Oakland Park City Library, 1298 NE 37th St. will hold a BBC Film Series "Touring Great Cities" at 7:30 p.m. beginning today for eight consecutive weeks. "London" is on the itinerary this week. For further information call the library at 561-6289.

★ ★ ★

OAKLAND PARK — Boys and girls ages five through 12 are invited to the Saturday Craft Program to make an "eggs-traordinary" sprout starter at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Oakland Park City Library.

★ ★ ★

OAKLAND PARK — "How to Say No to a Rapist and Survive" is the title of a film being shown at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at the Oakland Park City Library. The public is invited.

Staff Christmas Meeting
Ireland's Inn
1978

Left: Rose Booth
Marlene Lee
Tom Sherry
Elizabeth Cason
Shirley Betts.
Right: Marie Wright
Dagney Haton
Susan Rosenthal
Alicia McHugh

