Thoughts of a Naive Young Fly Flirting With a Moist Gin Cork

March 14, 1934
Hullo, wazzis? (Paus to rub his forelegs together enthusiastically.) Ah, smells pretty good. (Sniffs speculatively.) This is something new. Wonder when it came into the world. Think I'll climb around it. (Mounts the side of the cork and perches on top.)

people—warm-hearted 'n'—hie! My ancest'rs was French. (He sighs.) And now—just to think!—there ain't one of 'em left. Gone—all gone! Oh, gee whinkers, oh why, why'd they hafta haul off 'n' leave this lovely world? (All his eyes become misty with sentimental tears.)

WELCOME LEGIONNAIRES! While here don't fail to see Hialeah and Tropical Park race tracks—the beauty spots of Florida. Miami will have 92 days of racing this winter, beginning December 15 to April 1. . . . Winter racing under Summer skies . . . why not stay awhile, see and enjoy the many sports in store for you this season.

It is a well known fact that it takes more than handicapping to make a big success out of financial operation upon the turf. True there are times when the handicappers and past performance pickers will get a few short priced winners. But—THE INSIDERS make their BIG MONEY by knowing exactly WHEN the stables are going to TRY and when they are going to bet their own MONEY on their own horses.

LAUREL, MD.
BAND WAGON; ready for a short race; BRINDLE, throw out the last race, horse prepped for killing; ENERGETIC BOY, shipped from Canada for a spot; MONEL, has been in hiding tab action close; ONLY ONE works, say this one is really ready; REPEAL, good second to Just Cap, tab close distance race; TIEMPO, stable has spot picked, nice horse, likes distance; TRIANGULAR, Jockey Hanford will bring this one home soon; WISE COUNT, ready for a winning race; SATRIPAL, throw out last race, horse in trouble, will be hard to trim next time. Here are a few that come to me well recommended: DARK WINTER, DEDUCE; EAST-ER HERALD, GALON BOY, HILISE, NAUTCH, PEEPER, PENCADER, OLAMAY, ROCK COVENTARY, RUSTIC REST, SMOOTH CROSSING, SUN WAY, WATCH HIM, WISHING STAR.

SPORTSMAN'S PARK (Chicago)
The two Canadians, Jockey Longdon and Dupre, know their way around this half mile track. BLACK FOOL, throw out the last race, bad ride; BRIGHT MELODY, here is one that is ready for the word; CHIEF'S PRIDE, fit and ready; JIMMIE L, should be fair price; MISS FLIP, will be hard to beat from now on; MORPHEUM, stable has spot picked for this week; POLYHOTE, laid third last time, tab from now on; PRINCE PLATO, my jockey friend tells me to watch for this one; RIZLA, tab when in mile or over race; WISE EDDIE, connections have spot picked, price will be right. Here are a few that are ready to win: DORIS B, FANFERN, GREENWALD, HIT & RUN, HUSK O'HARE, ICEBERG, PIPING HOT, POLLY DISKIN, PULIS, REDRESS, SISTER MARY, TINY KITTY, WELHEELED.

NARRAGANSETT PARK
BELOW COST, stable ready to win here; BITTY BITT, will do better over distance; BYLONA, don't pass this one up; CABOUSE, once again for this good one; CHEWAWA, works, say this is fit and ready; GOOD POLITIAN, stable will try again for price; LITTLE LAD, spot picked for this week, Tipton will ride; OLD MASTER, Cincinnati commission, stable will try again soon; PRYOR, is fit and ready and will be hard to trim when set down; UNLAWFUL, my friend writes and says to watch this one close and not to pass up the following good ones, when we see their name in the entries: BUSHMAN, CHANCING, COONEY, FIDELIS, GOLDEN FATE, HEROWIN, ISAIAH, KHORASEN, KIBITZER, LEGENDER, MAMAS CHOICE, PASS, PRIMUTE, TRINCHERA.

WINNERS
Get out your copies of Miami Life, for the last couple of weeks. Some Old-Timers And What They Are Doing Now

TIME passes. Folks come and go. Readers of MIAMI LIFE occasionally wonder what has become of some of the old timers. Snatched from memory, here is a list of those we know about and where they are:
 Joe Smoot, who built Hialeah Park, is running a "corn" game in Jacksonville and resides at the George Washington hotel. He intends to run for governor on a platform to legalize gambling.
 Curley Bennett is residing at the Victoria hotel, New York.
 Tom Arnold, former editor of stitution, with his old side-kick, Walter Ratliff, former city editor of the old Tab, serving as assistant city editor of the Atlanta Journal.

 Ruth Barnard, Newt Roney's

vice, are publicity directors for Samuel Insull in Chicago, while Steve is executive vice president of Albert D. Lasker's Lord & Thomas Advertising Agency in N.Y.C.

Glenn May Run For Governor

It is reliably reported that Glenn Skipper, former Republican state committeeman for Florida, intends, unless conditions rapidly change, to become a candidate for governor of Florida in 1936 on the following platform:
FIRST: He would veto any and all bills of the legislature until the legislature gave people of Florida the right to vote upon a State Division measure creating Florida and South Florida, with the north line of Volusia dividing the two states.
SECOND: He would summon all tax assessors to state to formulate a state form rate of taxation in accordance with the state constitution would remove from office all tax assessors who refused to live up to the spirit and spirit of the constitution.
THIRD: Towns, cities and state taxes would be reduced and there would be no tax for the consideration of tax, nor objection to the homes.

 Miami, Fla., Oct. 17, 1934.
 Editor, Miami Life.
 Dear Sir:
 Your timely article last week regarding the sudden increase in rents is very much appreciated by those who have to stay here year round. I believe that landlords who take undue advantage of their tenants should be exposed and their names published in your fearless and truthful paper.

My case, is probably the case of hundreds of regular Miamians. I live . . . and my rent has been $25 a month for the last year; this I understand was to be this season too, as we have been here nearly three years. Because of the sudden knowledge that this will be a good season and there will be very few vacant houses, my landlord jumped the rent to $45 dollars a month beginning immediately. My husband gets the same salary in the summer as he does in the winter, so you see we simply cannot pay this kind of rent. The landlord says he will have no trouble renting this season and he is sorry but he must get his while the getting is good. This I believe will cause the tourists to look upon Miami as a very expensive and greedy town. There are other towns near here that will make a bid for this traffic as the rumor is already out, not to go to Miami, as expenses are out of reach. I am asking you to publish this and I will send a copy of the paper to my landlord. I enjoy your paper every week. Thanking you,

 Mrs. H.

VILLAGE TAVERN WILL OPEN TONIGHT
 Ernie Wolfe's Village Tavern, last winter one of the liveliest places in Spanish Village, has been closed for several months, undergoing extensive remodeling. But Ernie announces it will be open tonight, in a big way.
 It has been planned to open the Village Tavern later in the year, but the demand, together with the sudden increase in population in that area of the Beach, became too strong—and Ernie had to give in. In addition to a delightful mission bar, a work of art, Ernie will continue to specialize in steaks and chops and sea-foods, which he made famous in the Tavern's first season last year.
 When "stone-hearted Sug," alias Shorty, is going to quit eating oysters and make up with the crooner again.
