EVERY time I pass the Venetian Pools in Coral Gables I remember "Doc" Dammer's celebrated faux-paux. It happened when "Doc" was mayor of the Gables and an ordinance was presented to and an ordinance was presented to the city commission to purchase six gondolas for the Venetian Pools. "Doc," always an economist oppos-

"There is no reason why we should purchase six gondolas at $750 each," he declared. "We can get a ahem, ahem—"married" pair of them and raise all we will need." The commission adjourned and the spectators swooned.

Winter visitors do not need signs to direct them to the dog tracks. They simply "spot" a fellow with the seat out of his pants and follow him. They always wind up at the race track.

RECREATION DIRECTOR ERNIE SEILERdoesn't like it because MIAMI LIFE dared criticize him for permitting a crooked employee to "promise" to repay approximately $1,000 of the city's money which he had stolen and for keeping the man's name on the payroll after he had been caught red-handed in his thievery.

"His family would have suffered and the money would have been lost entirely had he been sent to jail," said Seiler in defending the thief.

Mr. Seiler's charitable attitude is to be commended, but—had Mr. Seiler insisted upon prosecution when the theft was discovered he might have saved Miami and Dade county countless thousands of dollars

In keeping with his plan to keep approximately 4,500 "snow-birds" from drifting in and grabbing jobs while Miamians are idle, Chairman Hartnett has appointed a sub-committee headed by Harry Hunter, to take charge of the problem and the sub-committee is already in action. The endorsement of the City Commission has already been obtained and other organizations have promised full support. It if caught. If Mr. Seiler is right in "pardoning" a thief and keeping him on the payroll then the officials who prosecuted Schmidt and sent him to Raiford for two years are wrong. OBEY TRAFFIC RULES TO REDUCE ACCIDENTS, SAYS C. OF C. CHIEF

By W. KEITH PHILLIPS President Miami Chamber of Commerce

THE fact that Miami leads the nation in the number of deaths caused by automobile accidents during the first six months of 1935 should impress every motorist and make him anxious to co-operate with the officials and his fellowmen in making the present "Safety" campaign a success.

If all drivers and pedestrians can be impressed with the necessity of knowing WHAT the traffic regulations are and WHY these ordinances were adopted and must be followed, it will be a step in the right direction. It appears that we too frequently forget the admonition we give our children, cautioning them to "Stop, Look and Listen, before you cross the street." There is also a sad lack of COMMON SENSE exercised by automobile drivers.

Streets are made for automobiles and vehicular traffic and sidewalks are for pedestrians, but both drivers and pedestrians must use common sense. Drivers in residential dis- tler to bite one has ceased to be tricts where children frequently play in the streets for lack news. Will someone kindly bite the (Continued on Page Two)

Curry's questionable dealings in the bankruptcy of the Gas Company of Miami Beach, Inc., is the latest to be placed under fire. The Beach Gas Company was organized several years ago and nearly $1,000,000 worth of stock was sold. No effort was made to check activities of the company until it had been fully organized and until a plant had been erected at Fulford. When it began to look as if the company might gain a foothold the Florida Power & Light Company "clamped" down and the concern was thrust into bankruptcy. As usual L. Earl Curry was appointed referee and for once failed to appoint his old friend, L. M. Gerstel, as receiver. Gerstel, it is declared, thought he had been double crossed and "jipped" out of a juicy plum, but there was nothing he could do about it. Curry proceeded with the bankruptcy and discovered that the Baltimore Mortgage & Trust Com-

While the gas company deal was pending, or shortly thereafter, Referee Curry decided to get marired and started looking around for some "nice" furniture. Just imagine his surprise when he found his old friend L. M. Gerstel acting as receiver for the Hirsch-Fauth Furniture Company, which happened to be in bankruptcy at the time. OCAL movie critics have gone on an adjective spree in their reviews of "Man of Ayran," an alleged short subject which is making the rounds of certain theaters.

"Man of Ayran" is the story of a few simple minded goofs who dwell upon an island near the Irish coast. It seems that the foundation of the island is solid rock and the goofs are unable raise potatoes. The big thrill comes when one of the female natives wearing eleven petticoats digs up a basket full of dirt from between crevices of the rocks and makes an artificial truck patch about the size of a horse blanket. During the melee three other goofs go out in a boat and catch a shark and the hero takes a sledge hammer and pounds for ten minutes on a huge boulder for no good reason whatsoever. To touch off the whole show the camera jumps back to the beach where a few waves roll in at spasmodic intervals. That's all there is to it and it takes exactly 40 minutes to get through the darn thing. After seeing the picture we must admit that life isn't modern, or even comfortable on the Island of Ayran, but it's only a few miles off the Irish coast and there is no apparent reason for the goofs trying to raise their potatoes on a rock when they could easily jaunt over to Ireland and do things right.

Our frank opinion of the "reviews" is that the critics after seeing the thing didn't know what it was all about and decided to label it "art." If "Man of Ayran" is art a piece of tripe may safely be described as exotic. Some time ago one theater offered $5 to any girl who could sit through a horror picture without screaming and we suggest that the theater now offer a similar reward to anyone regardless of sex who can sit through this one without going to sleep.

Round The Town

RESURFACING of Alton Road at Miami Beach is rapidly nearing completion thanks to the con certed efforts of the city council and Ernie Whelan of Whelan's Fish Grill, who made a three-year fight or the improvement.

Now that the work is nearly completed Ernie has another valuable suggestion to make and it is hoped the authorities will heed it. Ernie says that the newly surfaced high-way will be a great temptation to speeders and that bad accidents may occur unless a "Stop" sign is placed at the Fifth Street intersection for motorists turning onto the rounty causeway. He is right and the present "Safety" campaign can be helped by the mere painting of a sign. Incidently Ernie says the fish business is good and that hundreds of persons are stopping in to see his collection of mounted fish. The collection is worth $35,000, and one of the biggest in Florida. He has issued a special invitation to the kiddies to come to his place on Sunday afternoon to see his collection. Speaking of Alton Road Ernie says, "Lincoln Road is completely lilled with shops and business laces. Business must now turn to Alton Road because it has no other outlet. I believe that Alton Road from Lincoln to Fifth will eventually be a solid business street,' he declared yesterday.

Winner No. 7 in the big contest will be selected next week at Mc-Crory's and we understand unoficially that half a dozen beauties have already started campaigns. Miami leads the nation in deaths caused by automobile accidents during the first six months of 1935. Twentyfour persons have been killed and more than 250 have been maimed, crippled and injured during the same period. Seven of the 24 who were killed were little children.

THIS SLAUGHTER MUST STOP!

Faulty brakes are declared to be responsible for more than fifty per cent of all automobile accidents. If you are operating a motor vehicle with defective brakes you are a CRIMINAL. YOU have no right to jeopardize the lives of others and no punishment can be too severe if you persist in doing so.

HAVE YOUR BRAKES TESTED TODAY!

Pedestrians who "jay-walk" present one of the worst hazards to the motorist. Cross streets at intersections only and look both ways before attempting to cross the street. Do not take chances. When in doubt, STOP a moment more or less will cost you nothing and a moment of carelessness may cost you your life.

YOU CAN BE KILLED IN ONE-TENTH OF A SECOND!

Motorists refrain from making "U" turns in the middle of the block. Observe all driving rules and use extreme caution in the residential districts where children play in the streets. They do not realize their danger. Children have been taught to look for protection from adults. They have faith and confidence.

DO NOT BETRAY THAT CONFIDENCE AND SNUFF OUT A LITTLE LIFE

Co-operate with the police and with your fellowmen in bringing an era of safety and sanity to Miami. If you do your part and the other fellow does his we can stop this appalling slaughter.
