"Dr. Neil Alford Will Practice in Miami"

"Dr. Neil Alford, of Nashville, Tennessee, has arrived in the city and will hereafter practice medicine having associated himself with Dr. R.H. Huddleston, with offices on the corner of 14th Street and Avenue C.

"Dr. Alford is a graduate of the medical department of The University of Nashville, and practiced for a time in that city. Dr. Alford was also on the staff of the Nashville City Hospital for 18 months, and comes to Miami highly recommended as a gentleman and an up-to-date practitioner." The article goes on to state that Dr. Huddleston was not in good health during the past year or two and having a young man associate with him will undoubtedly improve his situation.
