

VAN LANDINGHAM,
W.E. MD.

VAN NOTE, W.B.

Dr. Van Note

Friday, Oct. 23, 1908

Ref: The Weekly Miami Metropolis, Oct. 23, 1908, p. 5, col. 5

Article states that Dr. and Mrs. William B. Van Note, of Ohio will again visit Miami for several months. "Dr. Van Note will practice his profession eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, the same as last year."

VanNote, Dr. W.B.

Feb. 16, 1910

Ref: The Miami Metropolis, Feb. 16, 1910, page 7, col. 3

"Dr. W.B. VanNote's office hours are 2-10 P.M. at 216 12th Street. Not in office Sundays or Thursdays."

His name does not appear in the professional cards and he may not have been an M.D.

Vickery, Dr.

1873

Loc: Miami

Ref: Reminiscences of Rose Wagner Richards - see typescript in manuscript file of Dade County material

Mentioned briefly as the Army surgeon who accompanied troops sent from Key West to Miami in the fall of 1873 when yellow fever broke out there. He cared for some of the Miami citizens including the three children of Dr. J.V. Harris who came down with yellow fever.

See pages 86 and 87