241 South 21st St. in Philadelphia, Pa.
(near Locust St.) 3rd Floor Front

Come early! Come late! We are "open" from 8 p.m. to midnight. Drop in for a cup of coffee or a draught of cider. Tell us your ideas about DOB and the homophile movement. Meet some of the New York Area Chapter members. We want to meet you!

Homewreckers Watch Out!

The do-it-yourself decorators are haunting house-wreckers' yards to find bargains in marble mantelpieces, chandeliers, and similar fixtures from houses that have been demolished.

A professional interior decorator offered other hints at our Gab-n-Java on October 20th--from repairing problem rooms to clever new uses for everyday materials. It can all be done for PENNIES--and a touch of imagination.

The response and attendance at that Gab-n-Java encourage us to try, once in a while, other topics not specifically related to the homophile. Would you like to share your special interest by leading a session? Or have you a favorite subject you'd enjoy hearing discussed? Write to CHAIRMAN, GAB-N-JAVA SESSIONS, care of our postal box.

HELP WANTED!

Anyone interested in writing for THE LADDER, or doing editing work for it? A new editorial system is being proposed for DOB's national monthly magazine, and we need assistant editors in several categories.

Also, of course, THE LADDER wants articles, non-fiction book reviews, short stories, essays. Can you help by soliciting material? Writing? Editing?

Contact the Editor-in-Chief through THE LADDER, 1232 Market St., Suite 108, San Francisco 2, Calif. Or talk to one of the N. Y. Chapter officers at any of our activities.

Members only. . .

Save New Year's Eve for a verrry special chapter party!

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

NOVEMBER 10 - Meet the candidates! Chapter's business meeting will also discuss the new editorial set-up proposed for THE LADDER. 349 West 44th St. at 8:15 p.m.

NOVEMBER 17 - OPEN HOUSE in Philadelphia. Welcome to LADDER subscribers, professional persons, and other friends of DOB. At 241 South 21st St., 3rd floor front.

DECEMBER 1 - GAB-N-JAVA featuring Rev. Robert Wood's message on changing religious attitudes to the 1962 Mattachine Conference. This outspoken minister gives examples of progress in the "new frontier" of Christianity, examines still-negative attitudes on both sides, and outlines further means of rapprochement between the homosexual and the Church. Rev. Wood has asked that our comments on his talk, and on his book "Christ and the Homosexual", be recorded for his own benefit on the blank tape he has provided. Whether you want to participate or just listen, come promptly at 8:30 p.m. to 5 Sicard St. in New Brunswick, New Jersey. Plenty of hot java on hand!
