May

1962

NEWSLETTER

DAUGHTERS OF BILITIS New York Area Chapter Postal Box 3629 Grand Central Station New York 17, New York

MEMBERS, FRIENDS, AND COUNTRYMEN: LEND US YOUR APPETITES WE ARE PLANNING A GOURMET COVERED-DISH FEAST FOR ALL--AND GUESTS

> CAN YOU COOK? BRING YOUR SPECIAL! CAN YOU DANCE? BRING YOUR FEET! CAN YOU EAT? OH FRIEND, WILL YOU????

Donation: $1.75 - Proceeds for DOB Time: May 19, 1962 - 7 p.m.

Place: Apartment E-19, 728 Broad Avenue in Ridgefield, New Jersey. Halfway between the Lincoln Tunnel and the Geo. Washington Bridge--just a few minutes by bus or car!

NOW WATCH YOUR MAIL FOR MORE DETAIL

* * *

There will be a special event planned for this summer for paidup members only. Your admission free, just show your paid-up DOB membership receipts. Time and place to be announced in the July issue. For now we are keeping it a surprise! Hurry and bring your dues up to date and join this special event.

P. S. New members who pay quarterly dues in advance will be admitted too!

Have you seen "The Children's Hour"? We'd like to hear from our readers about this film! And in cur next newsletter we will publish (anonymously) some of the opinions we receive. Share yours with over 150 other readers! You need not sign your name.

CONVENTION NEWS (see also page 2)

Word from our Los Angeles Chapter advises that the MAXIMUM capacity of the Hollywood Inn for the luncheon and banquet at the DOB National Convention June 23-24 is 150 persons. Anyone planning to attend should make reservations immediately: A deposit of $5.00 will insure that you are not left out. Total price for the all-day session on Saturday, June 23, including the luncheon and banquet, is $12.50. Send your $5 deposit or the full price of $12.50 to the Treasurer, Daughters of Bilitis, 1232 Market St., Rocm 108, San Francisco 2, California. NOW!

Remember -- the Saturday session is open to all, so let your friends know. A brochure for mailing will be available around mid-May. If there is someone you feel would be interested in hearing of DOB's convention, send us his (or her) name and address.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

May 5 8:30 p.m. - GAB-n-JAVA session on "Financial Security".

200 East 26th St., Manhattan. Our moderator will not only guide the discussion but will be able to answer questions from the group on matters of finance and investment.

May 12 8:30 p.m. - Chapter business meeting, 349 West 44th St.

May 19 7 p.m. - COVERED-DISH SUPPER: (See page 1) This gala feast is open to all--invite a friend, relative, or professional acquaintance to come with you. A donation of $1.75 is requested. Reservations are not essential but will be appreciated by the hostesses. Apt. E-19, 728 Broad Avenue in Ridgefield, New Jersey.

June 2 8:30 p.m. - GAB-n-JAVA, at 200 East 26th St. These informal discussions are a good introduction to DOB. All women over 21 are welcome!

Theme: POTENTIALS - THE LESBIAN IN SOCIETY

DOB's Second National Convention Hollywood Inn, Hollywood, Cal. June 23-24, 1962

Outline Program for Saturday June 23

8:30 - 9:30 a.m. - Registration

9:30 - 10 a.m. - Address of Welcome

10 - 10:45 a.m. - Sue Prosin from State College: Research paper on Lesbian pairings

10:45 - 12:30 - Religious Panel: Reverend Rollo M. Boas of the Episcopal Church of Our Savior in Los Angeles, plus a rabbi, a Catholic priest, and a minister of a liberal church

12:30 - 1:30 - Lunch 1:30 - 2:15 - Attorney, on the Model Penal Code

1:30 - 2:15 - Attorney, on the Model Penal Code 2:15 - 3:00 - Psychologist

3 - 5 p.m. - Communications Panel: The problem of mentioning Homosexuality in mass media. Jess Stearns of New York, author of "The Sixth Man", will appear on this panel with others representing various media.

5 - 7 p.m. - Cocktail Hour 7:00 p.m. - Banquet, featuring Thane Walker, psychoanalyst and Dean of the Prosperos Academy in Hawaii, as speaker

There will be a reception Friday evening, June 22, for those arriving, and arrangements are being made to meet incoming people at bus, plane, and train stations. Housing will also be available for those who wish it, courtesy of members of the Los Angeles Chapter DOB.

Sunday, June 24, is the business meeting, to be followed by a party-for-girls featuring a top-secret project concerning entertainment.