

THE ARCH CREEK BRIDGE RENAISSANCE

A PLANT SALE AND ART FAIR

NOV. 6

AT

ARCH CREEK PARK
1855 N.E. 135th STREET
9:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.

SPONSORED BY THE ARCH CREEK TRUST

PROCEEDS GOING TO RESTORE THE OLD NATURAL
BRIDGE OVER ARCH CREEK

FEATURING:

a large selection of landscape and houseplants

local artists displaying and selling artwork and handcrafts

food for sale by the Czechoslovak Club

Arch Creek Park is an eight-acre legend dating back to pre-historic man in South Florida. It offers a unique opportunity for historical, archaeological, geological and botanical interpretation. The park features a $\frac{1}{4}$ mile nature trail through a preserved hammock area and a pioneer museum displaying Tequesta Indian artifacts.

COME VISIT THE PARK AND CELEBRATE THE ARCH CREEK BRIDGE RENAISSANCE.

For more information call Alice Cohen, President, Arch Creek
Trust, 949-7848.

METROPOLITAN DADE COUNTY PARK AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT