Dear Mr. King:

Arch Creek Addition

On October 14, 1985, the Conservation and Recreation Lands Selection Committee met to consider which of the 69 projects received this year would be subject to a full review and evaluation. I regret to inform you that the project you submitted did not receive the necessary support and will not be further considered for the 1985-1986 annual cycle of evaluation and selection.

We will retain your file as part of our records for future reference. There is a possibility that the Selection Committee may consider such projects in subsequent years if the file is updated and re-activated upon written request of the applicant. If you are interested in re-applying for the program or resubmitting a new proposal, please contact our office before August 1, 1986 for further information at 904/487-1750.

On behalf of the Selection Committee and our office, I want to thank you for the time and effort you have invested in Florida's natural areas programs.

Sincerely,

Leo L. Minasian, Jr.
Environmental Administrator
Division of State Lands
