Merchants Face Blackout If Outside Switches Are Not Installed Now

Ordinance Under Consideration; Police Will Break Windows of Non-Complying Establishments

Coral Gables merchants, accustomed to burning lights at night, will have the alternative of installing outside switches on their places of business or leaving lights off entirely after next week.

The city commission probably will pass an emergency ordinance dealing with the lights situation at Tuesday's regular meeting, it was announced yesterday by G. N. Shaw, city manager.

There will be no charge for permits from the city to operate the outside switches. The cost for installing such equipment will average about $10, Shaw said.

The city will follow a model ordinance and the set-up for the Greater Miami area.

Shaw pointed out that the merchants will be protecting their own pocketbooks as well as providing safety for themselves and their neighbors by co-operating. If lights are left on, the offenders' windows will be broken by police, unless outside switches are provided.

Fire Bomb Picture Is Scheduled

4 Free Showings Slated for Gables; City Is Sponsor

Gableites will learn about protection against the dangers of incendiary bombs, Monday and Tuesday evenings, when the city of Coral Gables will sponsor four free showings of the motion picture "Fighting the Fire Bomb", at the Coral Gables Elementary school and the University of Miami.

First lecture will be given at 7:30, Monday evening, followed by another showing at 8:15 p.m., both at the University of Miami Cardboard theatre. Tuesday evening, the Elementary school auditorium will be used for two presentations, one at 7:30 p.m., and one at 8:15 p.m.

The film, which is approved by the Office of Civilian Defense, is a sound movie, showing the possible results of incendiary bombs, and the methods in which to treat such bombs.

"Every man, woman and child in Coral Gables should see this picture," G. N. Shaw, city manager, said. "We cannot emphasize too strongly the need for education on such matters such as this."

Members of the Kiwanis and Optimist Clubs witnessed the picture at their respective meetings on Tuesday and Thursday this week.

Lippmann Urges Public to Discard Peacetime Interests for War's Duration

The answer to many things, perhaps to all the things that worry us, was given to me a few days ago by a toolmaker who had risen from the bench to become the manager of a gigantic plant. Two months ago he had been making passenger cars; when I visited him he was installing the machines and training his skilled workers and arranging his assembly lines for the production in mass of what is certainly one of the most powerful engines of war in the world. But before taking me into the vast halls where these things were being done,

Importance of 'Do Nots' Stressed By Local First Aid Instructor

Because of the necessity of everyone having a knowledge of First Aid during war period, a list of a dozen 'do not's' was released yesterday by Mrs. C. R. Kilborn, first aid instructor at the University of Miami.

Mrs. Kilborn emphasized the fact that first aid is not a substitute for the services of a physician but the immediate temporary care of the injured until a doctor can arrive or until the victim can be properly transported.

"Many injuries are made more serious and sometimes fatal, by doing the wrong thing or by omitting the all important 'first' of first aid," Mrs. Kilborn said.

1—DO NOT move an injured person until the nature and extent of the injury is determined and proper First Aid methods applied.

2—DO NOT raise the head or attempt to place the victim in a sitting position, whose face is pale. Keep him lying down. However, if the face is flushed, the head may be slightly raised.

3—DO NOT attempt to give an unconscious person anything to drink. He cannot swallow when unconscious and any liquid will cause choking.

4—DO NOT permit an injured person to be hastily rushed off to a hospital without first being sure that such action will not make the injury more serious. A few minutes delay may actually save a life.

5—DO NOT give a stimulant in cases of severe bleeding. Stop the bleeding first.

6—DO NOT give alcoholic liquors in any form to an accident victim.

7—DO NOT assume just because you detect the odor of liquor on the breath that drunkenness is the only condition. The victim may be unconscious from a head injury or a stroke of apoplexy. Every so-called "drunk" should be examined for injuries before being moved.

8—DO NOT forget that a condition called shock is present in every serious injury. The First Aider must learn to treat this "shock".

9—DO NOT attempt to revive an apparently drowned person by lifting the body by the middle or by rolling over a barrel. Prone pressure method of artificial respiration should be used and started at once.

10—DO NOT assume that a dog is "mad" just because he bites. The dog, if suspected of having rabies, should be confined for observation. It takes several days or longer for this disease to develop.

11—DO NOT attempt to set a bone or move any part of the body having a fracture. The safest way is to get a Doctor to come at once. If necessary to move the victim, proper splints or first aid bandages should be applied before moving.

12—DO NOT remove clothing that is sticking to a burn. Cut or rip the seams and leave the part that sticks where it is. Also, never put oil or grease on a severe burn.

A. W. Barrett, prominent Gableite has been invited to address members of the directorate of the Coral Gables Chamber of Commerce and heads of various civic organizations, Wednesday night, March 25, on the subject "What we in this area can do to help win the war".

The suggestion that Mr. Barrett outline his ideas was made by George E. Caster, President of the Coral Gables Civic Round Table, which organization held a general discussion on the matter at its last meeting.

Reports Theft Of Clothing

Ray Cameron, who lives at a rooming house at 310 Coral Way, told police Wednesday that $160 worth of clothing and $15 in cash had been taken from his room.

Police are withholding the name of a suspect in hope that an alarm broadcast will result in his apprehension.

Ask Return of Borrowed Wool

Mrs. R. B. Roberts, Jr. is making an appeal for the return of all yarns and wool issued by her during her term as chairman of knitting for the Red Cross. Mrs. Roberts feels that perhaps due to the stress of times, knitters securing the yarns at that time have mislaid or forgotten about them. She asks that they be brought either to her home, 717 Alhambra Circle or to Mrs. E. E. Bain, chairman of the Red Cross headquarters at the Coral Gables Woman's Club.

KIWANIANS TO RIDE BIKES TO MEETINGS

The curtailment of automobiles during wartime will be very evident Tuesday when members of the Coral Gables Kiwanis Club arrive at their regular luncheon meeting riding bicycles.

According to plans made last Tuesday, it is expected that over 75 per cent of the club's 60 members will arrive at the County Club of Coral Gables via the "pedal route".

Lowry Co. Looted by Burglar

Pay roll envelopes, containing $38.40, were stolen from the Lowry Electric Company on Coral Way last Saturday night when a burglar broke into the building and forced a desk drawer.

Police said that a suspect was now being sought, but that no arrests has been made to date.

Reserve Cops Equipped With Clubs, Whistles

Eighty-four members of the Coral Gables Reserve Police received their night-sticks and police whistles this week from the city.

The police reserves will have full police powers during emergencies. Organized under the supervision of W. Edward Winegar, commander of the American Legion Post 98, the additional officers are being trained by the regular police force.

The new officers also have arm bands to identify them. G. N. Shaw, city manager, said there is a possibility that they will use luminous strips of cloth on the arm bands in order to be recognized during black-outs. Shaw said that police cars may also be equipped with the luminous strips.

$100 Fine for Drunk Driver

Justin Kern, 23, 1016 Avenue Milan was fined $100 and costs in municipal court Wednesday on charges of driving while under the influence of liquor.

'Paderewski of the Pampas' To Play With Symphony

The fifth concert of the Miami season to be given by the University of Miami Symphony Orchestra, under the baton of John Bitter, is scheduled for March 16 at Miami Senior High school. Guiomar Novaes, "Paderewski of the Pampas" will appear as soloist and will also play with the Symphony in Fort Lauderdale on the following night.

Miss Novaes has been called the finest woman pianist now on the concert stage. Of her high artistic level, W. S. Henderson, dean of New York music critics wrote. "She always had plenty of technique but as her mental grasp has grown firmer with the passage of years and her musical nature has deepened with study, observation and experience, her technique has become richer in resources and capable of tonal effects and illusions of color which far exceed anything she could give us when she began her career."

Born in Brazil, Miss Novaes made her concert debut at San Paulo. For several years she studied under Luigi Chianfelli and evinced such exceptional talent that she was sent to Europe to perfect her art at the Paris Conservatoire. After a visit to her home in Brazil, Miss

'Taxpayer Candidate' Indicated Choice of Commission Majority

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENT SEEN AT REGULAR TUESDAY MEETING; HEALY RECOMMENDS HARDEMAN

Dennis A. Gray, local realtor, is slated to become Coral Gables' new city commissioner.

Cray, following official action by the commission, will fill the post vacated by Andrew T. Healy, who resigned to accept the position of assistant county solicitor.

Three of the remaining commissioners have indicated Cray as their choice, although no official announcement has been made. Commission action is expected, however, at the regular scheduled meeting on Tuesday.

In the last election, Cray was a running mate of Mayor Joe Whitley and Commissioners Tom Mayes and Wallace Bell. Sponsored by the Taxpayer's Association, Cray was nosed out by Healy, but was the next choice of the electorate.

Although Healy had recommended that John V. Hardeman, his campaign manager, be appointed to the office, Whitley, Bell and Mayes have indicated that they favored Cray.

Commissioner W. Keith Phillips, an independent in the last election, stated yesterday that he didn't care who was appointed as long as the city got a good man. He stated that the choice was really up to the other three commissioners and admitted that he understood that the Cray appointment was in the making.

Whitley, Bell and Mayes all told The Riviera that they thought Cray was the logical successor, but refrained from making definite commitments.

Jitney Service Links Gables With School

Launching of a new jitney service between Coral Gables and Embury-Riddle School and Fleischer Studios was announced yesterday by Sam Weissel. The service will start Saturday.

Weissel explained that the jitneys will run on schedules coinciding with the changing of shifts at the institutions. He explained that auto curtailment, plus the fact that many employees of the two institutions live in the Gables led him to start the service.

It is later planned to operate jitney service to Intercontinent Aircraft Corp., Opa Locka and Eastern Airlines if the demand is great enough, Weissel said. Jitneys will leave from the Coral Gables bus terminal.

Diary of a Beauty Authority

(This week Madame Rubinstein tells how to attain a special radiance for gala evenings.)

By HELENA RUBINSTEIN
New York—There are certain beauty "extras" which are as important to your loveliness as a gala evening dress is important to your wardrobe.

During the day, present a bright, alert, well-groomed appearance, but for those special occasions which mean so much to a woman (the "highlights" in one's life to be long remembered), create a special radiance which makes everyone aware of your beauty.

If you learn how to give yourself successfully a "masque" treatment, you can make a spectacularly beautiful entrance. There are masques for three ages of beauty: a special cream masque for the young; a herbal masque with local stimulating and quick pick-up qualities for those from 25 to 39; and a silky beautifit masque for women past 40.

The special cream masque, in addition to giving your skin incredible smoothness, has an effective mechanical action on

CALLING DRAFTED MOTHERS

By ERAINE TURIN

Drafted mothers of our nation, endure your soldier sons must and conquer the enemy, it is a gross injustice to them—as well as a threat to our American way of life—to permit appeasement methods to be promoted by those who would pacify that enemy. To such persons, Thomas E. Dewey refers as "an American Chivvoden Set," and he warns us that their influence now is being felt "in Washington and other cities."

LESSON-SERMON

Churches of Christ, Scientist "Substance" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientists, throughout the world on Sunday, March 15.

The Golden Text is: "Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen" (Hebrews 11:1).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear" (Heb. 11:3).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Spirit, God, has created all in and of Himself. Spirit never created matter. There is nothing in Spirit out of which matter could be made, for, as the Bible declares, without the Logos, the Aeon or Word of God, 'was not anything made that was made.' Spirit is the only substance, the invisible and indivisible infinite God. Things spiritual and eternal are substantial" (p. 335:7-14).

Coral Gables Hostesses Named For Catholic Women Tour

With the announcement that a sightseeing trip to the Greater Miami area would highlight the five day sessions of the National Convention of the National Council of Catholic Women at the Hollywood Beach Hotel, April 18th through 22nd, the committee in charge readied plans this week for the entertainment of some 800 representatives from all parts of the United States.

The tour, which will be held on Sunday, April 19th, will be concluded with a reception and tea at Calaroga Hall on the campus of Barry College, where delegates will be the guests of the Sisters of St. Dominic. Added to the list of Miami hostesses from Coral Gables are: Mrs. John E. Kane, Mrs. Bernal E. Clark, Mrs. Sloyd Shonter, Mrs. Mary Linehan and Mrs. R. Kuhn of Miami and Mrs. Hugh Matheson, Mrs. A. D. H. Renuart, Mrs. Denis D. Renuart, Mrs. David J. Heffernan, Mrs. B. C. LaPointe, Mrs. H. Baxter, Mrs. R. B. Roberts, Jr., Mrs. F. B. Taylor, Mrs. P. Nationally known speakers who will address the convention will be announced later.

sufficient supplies for a three-year war.

And to make matters worse, those promoting these appeasement methods insisted upon pacifying Vichy, by discounting the operations in Martinique, a Vichy-dominated island. So this appeasement policy toward Vichy prevailed and the damaging results here are the submarine menace, which is not decreasing, but dangerously increasing. No precautions were taken to prevent the devastation this menace has wrought. And—I quote from a press release—"that devastation is much greater than the American people have been permitted to learn."

Is seems to me as if Martinique is supplying a base for the submarines which are taking such a big toll on our Atlantic shipping, that this same Vichy-dominated island can supply a base for airplanes to raid our Atlantic coastal cities. And if drastic steps are not taken soon to look into this Martinique situation, and to check this appeasement policy—spreading from one ocean to the other—a second "surprise attack" will bring upon a casualty list which will equal that of Pearl Harbor. And once the enemy accomplishes that, the difficulties arising therefrom will even be greater than those in the Pacific.

Drafted mothers of our nation, these appeasement methods have been the fly in the ointment from the inception of this war, and now they have come to be the biggest stumbling block for your soldier sons to overcome. For while those appeasement methods persist, how can your sons fight for our American way of life to continue, for our people to maintain their rights and liberties, for our democracy to stand forever? The truth is, these appeasement methods must be done with—and done with at once—so that the battles which your soldier sons must fight will not have been fought in vain.

Home Ec Girls Can 75 Jars of Tomatoes

With National Defense as their theme, the food classes of the home economics department, under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Gleason, have been canning tomatoes.

Government tested recipes were used in the process which recently resulted in 75 jars of canned tomatoes and 50 jars of pickled tomatoes. Some of the girls intend to futher their pickling experience at home.

Also connected with their defense project was the talk given by graduate nurse Mrs. Barnes, Friday, March 6. She discussed the care of patients and the importance of first aid in defense.

A bridge luncheon, a barbecue and two "cozy" teas are the March events planned in her spring series of parties by Mrs. William L. Huntley, 1340 Avenue Asturia. The first will be at 1 p.m. tomorrow, when Mrs. Huntley will have five tables of bridge. Assisting will be Mrs. George Corrigan, Mrs. Frederick Grinham, Mrs. William T. Mixson and Mrs. Warren Zinsmaster. On Tuesday Mrs. Huntley will entertain an equal number at a St. Patrick's Day barbecue and bridge. Decorations will follow the time honored custom of green and assistants will be Mrs. Frank O. Headley, Mrs. Carl Preim, Mrs. Edward Brantley, Mrs. W. Scott Deming, and Mrs. Paul Warde. Mrs. Huntley's other two parties for March will be small teas, "cozy" Mrs. Huntley calls them, each assembling about 20 guests.

Speaking of the cozy tea parties, Mrs. J. H. Peebles entertained small groups at two parties Monday at her home, 621 Alhambra Circle. The morning party, an informal coffee and cake affair was for a small group to meet Mrs. Peebles' sister, Mrs. James Wesley Pickens down from Charlotte, N.C., with her adorable one year old son James Wesley, Jr. Mrs. Edgar Thrower of San Francisco, Miami winter visitor and Mrs. Pickens shared honors at the afternoon tea Mrs. Peebles gave for about thirty guests. More parties are being planned for the attractive Mrs. Pickens who will be here for about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Gleason will entertain at dinner tonight at their Columbus Boulevard home honoring Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hughes of 1400 South Greenway Drive and Chicago. Mr. Hughes is president of the Century Club of Coral Gables.

David W. Ward, sportsman-uncle of Mrs. N. W. Frost is here from Ft. Myers for a few days' stay with Mrs. Frost and Miss Willie Jane Frost, 3407 Toledo Drive. The Frosts returned recently from a visit in Ft. Myers, where they attended a round of parties as guests of Mrs. Frost's aunts, Mrs. E. E. Stoup and Mrs. R. K. Coe.

Mrs. R. G. Schmid, mother of Richard Schmid, owner of the College Cupboard, and Mrs. Helen Schaefer, both of Chicago, are visitors staying at 250 Avenue Giralda . . . Capt. and Mrs. L. M. Gravis formerly of Los Angeles, and two children, have leased the residence at 1126 Alhambra Circle. Capt. Gravis is with the Air Ferries, Inc.

Mrs. Frederick Glomb is in the possession of a small newspaper clipping that has traveled a bit. It appeared in a Philadelphia newspaper, was read by a friend, clipped and sent to Mr. Glomb in the ordinance department of the army at Charleston, S.C., then on to her. The clipping concerned the Glomb's son, Frederick F., then stationed at Chickasha, Okla. and is as follows: "Dammit, a black foxhound pup is in the doghouse at the Army flying school here. Standing his first retreat with the cadets, he squatted dutifully at the feet of Lieutenant F. F. Glomb, maintaining dignity until the bugler began sounding the first notes. Then 'Dammit's' howls all but broke up the ceremony." Lieut. Glomb and "Dammit" are now at Ft. Bliss, Texas.

Mrs. Frank N. Holley, Jr. wears a cute little gadget, a gold compass, on her lapel that is more than 50 years old. Found among some old trinkets given to her by her aunt, Mrs. Holley noticed the fine little instrument was mounted in blue enamel and surrounded by a heavy gold case, dutifully engraved on the back with three initials as trinkets were in those days. Hoping the instrument was in working order, Mrs. Holley had it "boxed" by the captain of the S. S. Florida one night on a trip down from New York, found it perfect.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradbury L. Barnes of 918 South Greenway Drive are opening their home on the evening of March 20th for a social evening for the friends of the Congregational church. Mrs. Frank W. Cady will present "Modern Poets", Mrs. Clinton T. McCreedy will sing and Mrs. Dorothy Moore will be at the piano. This is the second in a series of home planned evenings by members of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Duffield Hopkins, Jr. left Wednesday on a leisurely motor trip to the west coast. They expect to spend some time in Redlands, Cal.—plan to return in early summer.

Mrs. Louie Lanford entertained a group of twenty members of the Coral Gables Woman's Club at luncheon Tuesday. Honor guests were Mrs. A. H. Hammond of Louisville, Ky., and Mrs. Charles J. Susong, president of the club. As general chairman of a plan to immediately raise $1,000 for the club's general fund, Mrs. Lanford appointed two team majors, Mrs. O. P. Rogers, (red) and Mrs. George Dacy (blue). Each major has ten team captives and enthusiasm ran high as to the type of parties the captains were planning—namely dances, bridge parties, luncheons, "hobo" box suppers, baked sales, etc. Present in addition to the above were, Mrs. Bradbury L. Barnes, Mrs. Howard Sullivan, Mrs. Carl Green, Mrs. E. B. Wharton, Mrs. E. W. Kimball, Mrs. I. W. England, Mrs. Laurence Gale, Mrs. William Sunley, Mrs. E. C. Cronin, Mrs. Davis Estill, Mrs. E. H. Padgett, Mrs. M. B. McDonald, Mrs. William Ratterman, Mrs. William Hilles, Mrs. L. E. Huguélet and Mrs. Charles F. Webber.

"Nice Going" Is Name of Junior Woman's Club Annual Cabaret

Members of the Coral Gables Junior Woman's Club will be busier than ever during the next three weeks, rehearsing each day for their annual cabaret which will take place this year at the Royal Palm Club, April 4.

The John B. Rodgers Producing Company, with Al Burke as director, will stage the show for the third year. Proceeds of the cabaret are used to continue to club's free dental clinic for children, its eye clinic and many other welfare projects.

"Nice Going" is the name of the show this year. It will be a 45-minute variety revue, featuring comedy skits, dancing, singing and other specialties. Chorus of dancing and singing girls and show girls are being completed this week.

Mrs. Derby Thomas will be featured again this year in a comedy skit, Mrs. Wells Bruen, a former professional dancer with Max Reinhardt's company, will waltz in a number called "Over the Rainbow" while Mrs. Clyde Higgins sings.

Ponce Graduates Active Frosh, Good Students at U. of Florida

Graduates of Ponce de Leon are active Freshmen at the University of Florida. They came here with one of the best high school educations the state of Florida offers, prepared to do battle with college learning. Now that the mid-year examinations have been completed, the record clearly shows that every Ponce graduate stands above passing in his class.

Campus Leaders

The policy here is for the preceding Cavaliers to help the following freshmen. Never let it be said that the Ponce de Leon influence breaks off after graduation. Upperclassmen, here at the University, who are still remembered by those at Ponce are: Curley Squires, president of Florida Interfraternity Conference, and popular dramatic actor on the campus; Hamilton Hayes, former president of Ponce student body and now president of Alpha Tau Omega, one of the largest fraternities on the Florida fraternity row.

3 Join Air Corps

The 1941 graduates of Ponce had a representation of about 15 at the start of the semester. Then came the war. Bill Starrman, former president of Ponce student body, Bob Shepard, and Ed Kirkland left school to join the air corps.

Others still attending the University are: Stewart Kemp, editor of religious paper on campus, Fritz Myers, head make-up man for "The Florida Players", Bob Gooser, freshman basketball, Mickey Mixson, manager freshman basketball, Carlton Bliss, Dick Royce, Bill McWhorter, George Snow, and Ed Grafton.

Mrs. C. T. Brimson of 6704 Le Jeune Road has just returned from West Palm Beach where she greeted her first grandchild, William George "Bing" Brimson, Jr., born February 1st, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brimson. The junior Mrs. Brimson, who was the former Miss Clara Nell DuPuis and Mr. Brimson attended the University of Miami, moved recently to West Palm Beach.

Mrs. C. T. Brimson, prominent in Smith College alumnae circles and latest recruit in the rank of bicyclists, says of her new grandson, "He's the best, the most beautiful baby I have ever seen and looks just like his daddy".

Doing Their Bit to Help Uncle Sam

These Coral Gables Elementary school children have combed their back yards and garages, as well as the neighbors', to find scrap metal to help build battleships and planes. Each day, when they come to school, they bring more pieces to add to the pile, thereby setting an example that a lot of grown-ups might do well to follow. In the front row, left to right, are Jimmy Brinson (kneeling), Bill Robinson, Al Harum, Nancy Lewis, Heather Woodward and Jacqueline West. On the balcony above are Murray McClain, Jerry McDonell and Denise Mercier.

State Officer Honored By Hibiscus Grove Circle

Mrs. Mina Don Carlos, guardian, presided over the first business meeting of the month at the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, Hibiscus Grove, No. 325 in the W.O.W. Hall, 2804 Bird Road, Coconut Grove, March 2.

Distinguished guest of the evening was Mrs. Ida Cowart, State Auditor, who was given the honor salute when introduced. Mrs. Cowart commended the Grove on its fine attendance and efficient drill team. Mrs. Janie Lou Frazier, State Inner Sentinel, who is also Past Guardian of Hibiscus Grove, was present at her station. Mrs. Sara Shepard, a new member who was initiated at the District Meeting was introduced to the members who heartily welcomed her with the honor salute. Mrs. Josephine Nichols from Bouganvillea Grove was also present.

Guardian Mina Don Carlos read aloud the letter of appreciation from Council Commander R. M. Shepard, thanking Hibiscus Grove for their cooperation and fine team work at their W.O.W. open meeting in honor of National President De E. Bradshaw. Council Commander Shepard on behalf of W.O.W. Cam. No. 689 invited Hibiscus Grove to attend the dance they were giving at the Coconut Grove American Legion Hall, March 20.

Hibiscus Grove readily accepted the plan to help sell tickets. After the business for the evening was concluded, refreshments were served by Mrs. Janie Lou Frazier and Mrs. Estell Overstreet.

Circle Member Given Surprise Stork Shower
Members of Hibiscus Grove, No. 325, Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle recently participated in a "Surprise Stork Shower", for Mrs. Nadine Frazier, 3258 Virginia Street, Coconut Grove. Various games were planned, one was rather unique. A toy "Baby" had to be dressed in "three cornered pants" or a reasonable facsimile, while blind folded. Various guests attempted the problem, but members of the family "infantizing" won the greatest applause, while Mrs. Janie Lou Frazier, the grandmother-to-be won the prize for performing this feat in the least time and with the best results.

A cake with delicate pink frosting was brought by Hibiscus Grove, while Mrs. Mina Don Carlos surprised all with a delicious spiced tea. Also present were Mrs. Mina Pearson, Mrs. Christine Tumbler, Mrs. Katherine Richardson, Mrs. Eleanor Hanson, Mrs. Estelle Overstreet, and daughter Janet, Mrs. Juanita Brooks, Mrs. Thelma Bishop, Miss Sally Mae McMellon, Miss Nell Frazier, Mrs. Betty Perry, Mrs. Mae Bellflower, Mrs. Alma Flowers, Mrs. Mary Gilbert, Mrs. Grace Mann and Mrs. Anna S. Patton.

Tropical Park President Invented 'Tote' Machine

Henry L. Straus, president of the Gables Racing Association, is a late comer to turf prominence. As recently as 15 years back he was just another player but the inaccuracies of the approximate odds board in use on the Maryland tracks caused him to turn an inventive mind towards the construction of a machine which would eliminate this fault. The result was the American totalisator, brought forth after half a dozen years of study and labor, so giving birth to a company which has grown from 15 employees to 150, with an annual business of $2,000,000.

Prior to the tote, the mutual ticket racks of the individual sellers were checked from time to time as the wagering progressed and from this tally was formed the so-called-inaccurate approximate odds. The Straus invention gave an immediate mechanical registration of each sale and this made possible quick and accurate computation of the probable odds. Seldom do they deviate by more than a small fraction of a dollar.

Short Pay-off In Operation

The legend says that it was one glaring inconsistency which was responsible principally for the advent of the tote. That came in a race at Harve de Grace when the "approximates" showed 9 to 1 on a horse backed by Straus, with the pay-off being 13 to 5, or $7.20 in the mutuels. This was the ultimate straw and the following irritation was so great that he immediately went to work to improve the calculating system. His labors finally were crowned by the production of a device which now is the most important factor in every up-to-date racing plant.

England gave the totalisator its first chance and then, about ten years ago, it was tried in Maryland, proving an instantaneous success. Once it was established, the inventor furthered his racing interest by becoming a horse owner and a breeder, in a modest way, in his home state of Maryland. The acquisition of the 170 acre Cherry Hill Farm, a trifle south of Reisterstown and about 15 miles from the heart of Baltimore, enabled Straus to keep in close touch with his business offices in that city and also spend considerable time on a property suitable for thoroughbred breeding, hunting and other outdoor sports so popular with the average country gentleman.

It was in 1932 that the Baltimorean launched his breeding and racing activities, which have since afforded him much pleasure and satisfaction, though no notable performers have been shown under his silks. The only stallion ever owned by Straus was Brown Bud, a high class stake winner for Frederick Johnston slightly more than 15 years back. A broken leg proved fatal and he has not been replaced.

Half a dozen mares now are located on the farm, while seventeen horses are slated to carry the cherry and white banner of 16-20 without glasses. Color blind men and those with teeth replaced by dentures are acceptable for the Construction Regiments Class V-6 only.

Men who are enlisted in the Naval Reserve if over 18 are enlisted for the duration of the emergency. Chief Hull wishes to call to the attention of men who are of draft age that commencing in April when men are called in for an Army examination they will be inducted at the same time and those who desire Navy Service should apply immediately rather than wait until they are called for induction.

Men can be enlisted in the Navy and Naval Reserve at rates of pay ranging from $21.00 to $99.00 per month. Men desiring enlistment in the service should apply in person at Room 231, Post Office Bldg., Miami, Fla. Office hours 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. daily and 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon on Sundays.

Pierce Wins Ponce Talk; Loses County

Bill Pierce, after winning Ponce de Leon's National High School Oratorical Contest, for the third time in four years, placed second in the County Contest March 5 at the Gables Elementary School. He was defeated by a close two points by Lester Rosenberg of Miami High.

In the school contest held in the Little Theatre, February 25, Hayes Wood placed second and Frank Hall third.

The contest was sponsored by the American Legion, department of Florida, and the various American Legion Posts throughout the state and is held each year. The purpose of the contest is to create interest and respect for the basic principles of our form of government and consists of five divisions: the school, county, district, state and national.

Increased Business Brings Enlargement Of Delicatessen

So great has been business since the opening of Mannie's Delicatessen on Ponce de Leon Boulevard three months ago that the floor space was doubled this week by taking in the adjoining store building.

"We appreciate the support Coral Gables has given us more than we can say", Emanuel Hollander, proprietor, said, "and we are trying to show our appreciation by increasing our facilities so that everyone may shop and dine in comfort".

Medals and decorations in the United States Navy are, for the most part, worn on the left breast. This custom may be traced from the practice of the Crusaders of the Middle Ages wearing the badge of honor of their orders near the heart.

Faber Turns To Serious In New Play

A new adaptation of the old theme of the frustrated woman was presented to Gables playgoers Wednesday when the Fifteenth opened Charles Faber's "Miracle of Spring" at the Douglas Entrance playhouse.

The local playwright's new opus departs from the usual pattern of his earlier successes, in that it leans more toward the heavy drama, whereas his other works followed a much lighter vein.

An American woman, played by Barbara Parmley, who married for money and position rather than love seeks to find the satisfaction of her frustrated desires in a world-famous European writer who is now a refugee in this country.

As she vainly seeks consummation of her cravings, Irene, her daughter, finds herself in the same position of choosing between a young artist whom she loves and another man of money and position.

Faber has treated his subject well and as a result the play reveals itself as the work of an experienced playwright. If the finger of criticism can be pointed at any particular thing, it might be said that some of the passages are a bit wordy, the remedy calling only for judicious use of the blue pencil.

Mary Green, as Else, the devoted wife of the writer carries the leading role and a difficult Austrian accent with grace and ease. Rollinger as Franz is convincing and Janet Cole as Irene, who sees her mother's reflection in her own life before it is too late, again pre-

Long Season For Florida

"Florida's tourist season will continue longer than usual," predicts Earl W. Brown, manager of Florida National Exhibits, in charge of the exhibit being shown currently at the National Sportsmen's Show in the Grand Central Palace, New York.

"Every day hundreds of people come up to ask the information desk in our exhibit to ask about Florida saying that they are planning to leave for there within a few weeks. While the tire shortage has undeniably affected travel to Florida more people are traveling by train, bus or plane. These transportation mediums are so crowded that through passage on any of them must be booked several weeks ahead.

"The exhibit of Florida's attractions was shown to 163,000 people at the New England Sportsmen's Show in Boston and is now being seen by about 30,000 a day at the National Sportsmen's Show in New York.

"The attendance at these shows consists largely of business men and sportsmen and 90 percent of them are interested in Florida either as a place to retire and live permanently or for a vacation of hunting and fishing.

Loose and Loud

"Don't say anything you don't WANT to be true!"

We're not seeking to take credit for this statement—it was uttered by William B. Burrus of New York, who spends his winters in Coral Gables. The statement is one which should be applied by every loyal, thinking American to every utterance he or she feels inclined to put into words.

When we give evidence, through loose talk, that we are disunited as a nation, that we quarrel with the actions of our elected officials, that we disagree with officers we have placed at the head of our Army and Navy, we are exacting a greater toll on our fervor to win this war than could be inflicted on the battlefield by the Japs or Nazis.

Let's remember this:
"Don't say anything you don't WANT to be true!"

Training Ground

It begins to look like Miami and Dade County has come to regard Coral Gables as a breeding ground for good officials. First it was City Manager A. B. Curry who was taken from our midst to straighten out the affairs of the City of Miami. Now, City Commissioner Andrew Healey is leaving to fill the office of assistant county solicitor.

Perhaps it all started back when Edmund Friedman, a former Gables City Manager, took over the office of county engineer, which he has held successfully ever since.

At any rate, it's a tribute to the people of Coral Gables that the officers they select to guide the community are regarded so highly in other circles. Nevertheless, losing them fills us with regret.

Friedman has proven his capabilities as county engineer. Curry's handling of the Miami situation has the taxpayers on their feet shouting huzzahs.

We are certain that Commissioner Healey has the ability to make an equally successful record in the county solicitor's office.

As he leaves the Gables official family, he has the good wishes of The Riviera and the citizenry. Our only regret is that he has been able to serve us for but a short time.

What Would You Do?

What would you do, if you were awakened tonight by a thud on your roof, the acrid smell of smoke and the terrifying sight of flames belching from the living room?

It could very well be possible if the enemy decides upon a morale breaking plan of dropping several thousand incendiary bombs up and down the eastern seaboard.

Get this picture! One enemy bomber can carry 2,000 of the compact, intensely burning fire bombs. Statistics coming from London show that out of every 2,000 dropped, 75 house fires are started. So figure your chances should several waves of Hun planes suddenly sweep in from the ocean and start unloading.

Would you know what to do? Could you effectively and efficiently cope with the blazing inferno that has dropped so suddenly into your home? Have you the necessary implements on hand to fight the destroying fire bomb?

Chances are, despite reams of publicity, that only one out of every 50 Gableites are prepared and know what to do.

That is why it is so vitally important for every man and woman, resident and visitor to witness one of the four, free showings of "Fighting the Fire Bomb" next Monday and Tuesday.

Sponsored by the city of Coral Gables, the picture will be shown twice on Monday, 7:30 and 8:15 at the auditorium of the University of Miami and at the same time on Tuesday evening in the Elementary School auditorium.

The picture takes just a little over a half an hour to see, but in that brief span you gain knowledge that may save your home. Surely, that amount of time at an educational picture is worth the difference between an intact home and a pile of smoldering ruins.

Realistically filmed, the picture shows the fighting of fire bombs under the conditions which you will meet in your own home. It shows you the fire fighting implements to have on hand when the bombs fall. It shows you exactly what to do for every situation.

Don't shrug and say, "This doesn't concern me." Don't kid yourself that the possibility of an enemy bombing of the Miami area is remote. That line of thinking is right up the Axis alley.

Tomorrow night you may be called upon to fight the incendiary bomb in YOUR OWN HOME!!

WALTER LIPPMANN

of the general principles of the art of production, taken that weapon apart, had sliced it up into hundreds of little bits, until each little bit could be made quickly by men and women who had a few week's training and yet had planned the whole operation so that the little bits were coming together again at the right place and at the right time. "Would you mind telling me," I said, "how you can do all this when a year ago we were being told it couldn't be done?"

"Sure," he replied, "that's easy. You saw all the machinery out there in the snow. Well, now I just haven't anything else to think about except this war job."

There in a nutshell, I submit, is the answer to all our problems: the vested interest problems of business men, the labor problems, the farm bloc problems, the bureaucratic problems, the partisan politics problem, the prima donna problem, and, being a newspaperman myself, I must not omit the newspaperman problem.

All these problems are in essence the same problem: that of pushing the old peace-time machinery of our interests out of doors and leaving it there for the duration of the war. Until that is done, none of us will really think of anything else but his war job. None of us will be fit to shine shoes, much less to look into the eyes, of the fighting men. None of us will have found the peace of mind which now can come only to those who know what it means to draw the sword and throw away the scabbard.

And there is, I submit, a very sure and yet a simple test by which we can know whether we mean what we say, or are merely deluding ourselves. It is whether, as we wake up and come to our senses and at long last realize what this struggle means, we look first to our own failings or first to the failings of others. For in so far as we first blame some one else for what is not going well, it is certain that we are still unawake ourselves, still unready to play our part as responsible men, still looking for scapegoats to blame and for sacrificial lambs to save us, still hoping ourselves to pass unscathed and unregenerate through the fires.

In this, then, all of us who take part in public life today have a very deep obligation to be very sure that when we behold the mote in our brother's eye, we consider no less frankly the beam in our own. The vice of our public discussion today is that insuch large degree men continue to shape their attitude to the problems of the war in the pattern of their commitments before the war. For the effect is not to convince and persuade but to repel the old differences with the passions of war.

It does no good, and almost surely a great deal of harm, when those who have never been much concerned about the farmer are full of righteous indignation against the farm bloc, when those who were never concerned with the productiveness of industry are full of righteous indignation about the business men who withhold industrial capacity, when those who pass lightly over the obstruction by vested interests in business dwell only on the obstructiveness of the labor unions, when those who never saw any good in the New Dealers can see no faults worth mentioning in the Republicans, when those who cannot find a useful post for a powerful figure like Willkie are annoyed when anyone suggests that incompetent officeholders should be promptly removed.

All of this is just the pre-war mental machinery clattering up the minds of men who should be thinking of the war. The hallmark of the trouble is that in a time when it is supremely necessary that all should seek to see life steadily and see it whole, so many remain the advocates of their faction, their corporate group, their party, their bureau, their career.

Thus it is undoubtedly true that the essential trouble in labor affairs is that the labor leaders are in competition with one another, each afraid to take the full national view for fear of being out-demagogued by a rival labor politician; that Mr. Murray, for example, is not really leading labor for the nation's interest for fear that Mr. John L. Lewis will destroy him and that Mr. Green does not really lead for fear that he will lose his hold upon his followers as the result of an attack from some competitor.

It is true that the same vicious mechanism is at work among the farm bloc politicians, that the reason they do what they do is not because the farmers are demanding it, but because these politicians are afraid of other politicians who will agitate the farmers until they do demand it. But it is no less true that the reason why industry was so slow in enlisting for the war and the reason why today, though great progress has been made, there is still no complete pooling of resources,—is that the separate corporations are thinking of their competitors and are seeking to keep as intact as possible for the post-war period their normal business organizations.

What is true of labor, industry and organized agriculture is also true of the government itself—of Congress, of the departments and of the bureaus. There is little evidence, for example, that all the members of Congress have begun to grasp the fact that in the face of the enemy it is unpardonable to make irresponsible, uninformed speeches, and dangerous mischief to harass with trifles the President and his heavily laden administration. Nor is there sufficient evidence to quiet one's apprehensions that the bureaucracies, say in the Navy Department and the State Department, have really gone to war in the sense that they are prepared to open the way to the stronger and fresher men who wait outside.

Yet until all these pre-war patterns are broken down and scrapped, or at least pushed out of doors for the duration, there will be no deep unity among the people and their vital energies, now aroused to the bursting point, will be throttled down disastrously and dangerously.

Indeed, this purge of the separated interests of each of us is the inward condition of an irresistible and triumphant offensive against our enemies. Only a dedicated nation can move forward; otherwise it will fight on the defensive against its enemies because at home each man is still fighting to defend his private position.

The dedication of MacArthur's men is the secret of the mystery at Bataan: his men are fighting for their country's cause, not for their bank accounts, a new automobile, their post-war business, or seniority in a government bureau. They have staked everything and, having nothing to lose, they now have a world to win. They walk by faith, not by sight. And so must we walk, knowing that we must be better men than we ever dreamed of being, seeking a righteousness that exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and pharisees.

Keep 'Em Rolling

By BROWN

OUR TOWN
by Jim Moore

We were taken aback the other day when we heard a high official in the Defense Council characterize Coral Gables as being "the least prepared city in Dade County for an air raid."

The official was speaking in a room filled with about 60 local residents, and we expected to see them rise in a body and charge his statement as a bloody libel—but they did not.

And there were several reasons why.

In the first place, Jim Hoffman (that's the official's name) had made another very challenging statement.

He said that if he could collect a dollar from every man in the room who did not have his home fully prepared for an air raid, he would gladly pay $5.00 to every man who did, and he would still make a profit.

That statement also went unchallenged because out of the 60 men who sat in that room, there were only FOUR who had fully prepared.

Now we thought we had our house pretty well set up for such an emergency. We had a vague idea about putting the rugs over the windows of one room, keeping a supply of cigarettes there, and arranging to darken the hall leading from the room to the bathroom where a water supply would be on tap. We had a garden hose out in the yard to use on fire bombs, so we were all set to let 'em come.

We know differently now, after we found ourselves unable to answer a few of Jim Hoffman's questions.

How long would it take us to black-out our room by the rug method? We figured from five to ten minutes—just enough time to allow an enemy bomber to get a line on our town?

How would we extinguish an incendiary bomb? We answered glibly that we would use a fine spray from our garden hose (We learned that from seeing the picture on Fire Bombs). We found out that if the water main was bombed or fire apparatus was drawing too heavily on the supply, our hose would be useless. We hadn't even thought of filling the bath tub to provide an emergency supply.

Yet, just a few blocks from our house, at the fire department, there is a big pile of sand, free for the asking. We realized also that we had no extra buckets, no patent extinguishers, no shovel or no ladder to quickly reach the roof, if a fire bomb landed there.

Another one of our snug feelings was blasted when we were told that a fire bomb will come right on through a slanting tile roof with hardly a pause. We had taken it for granted, that the heavy tile, plus the pitch, would deflect the small incendiaries.

If the old saying that misery loves company is true, we had plenty to love. Nearly every man in the room found himself in practically the same fix we were in. Yet all of them had walked into the meeting with the complacent feeling that they had done what little was necessary—and anyways their home wouldn't be hit.

There was just a handful of men in the room who knew the name of their block air raid wardens. Fewer still were enrolled in any of the many defense classes now available to all citizens. They hadn't realized that no one in their homes would know what to do if one of the children was injured badly.

Looking at the other side of the ledger for a

This ONE'S ON YOU

MEET DE CHAMP—A title, held for many months by the British, was brought back to the States this week with Navigation Cadet James McGarry, U.S. Army Air Corps as the new champion. McGarry, before cheering witnesses in the Huddle, downed a 40-ounce stein of beer in the breath-taking time of six seconds! The best the British cadet, who held the title before, could claim was 11 seconds. Testimony of the new record, signed by witnesses, is now displayed on the back bar, for all to see and marvel.

COMEBACK—There was a tense stillness on the 9th tee of the Miami Biltmore course Sunday as Ben Hogan prepared to smack one down the fairway. The gallery seemed to be holding its breath as the pro reached the peak of his back swing. Then, hurtling from the direction of the pool, came the booming voice of Showman Alexander Ott, "Pree-c-e-entinnin the world's best divers in a se-e-eries of fancy dives!!!!!"

Hogan paused—listened. Then turning in the direction of the pool, he filled his lungs and in a below that nearly matched the redoubtable Ott's, shouted, "Fo-o-o-ore!!!"

moment, we fond that many of our citizens are doing a whole lot on this defense proposition. An auxiliary police force has been organized and equipped. Air raid warning devices are rapidly nearing completion and will be installed very shortly. Most of the precinct wardens have organized their districts and appointed block wardens. Many men and women are taking courses. The ladies are doing Red Cross work, helping at the filter center and doing other useful things.

This is splendid. Those who are doing this work are helping more than they will ever realize.

The trouble is this. This war is not the job of a few persons. It is not the job of a majority. It is the job of every man, woman and child in the United State. Until that state is achieved—we are NOT going to ring the bells of Victory.

Everyone of us must first take the necessary precautions to protect our homes. We must acquire the equipment necessary to this protection. Then both the men and women in the household must learn how to fight fire bombs; how to give first aid to the injured. No one knows when the first air raid will come. Certainly we hope that it never will. But we must prepare as if we knew for sure that we would be bombed tomorrow.

Mrs. Jones must know as much about it as Mrs. Jones, who might be away from home when the enemy came. Many men will be called on for additional duties that will take them away from their families in the midst of the raid. It will be up to the women and children to carry on and protect their dwellings.

We must all take these courses and attend the free motion picture "Fighting the Fire Bomb". Everyone of use must become capable of handling almost any emergency.

The war isn't thousands of miles away in the jungles of Java and on the far reaches of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. It's right here on our front door steps, and we must never forget it.

Debaters Go To U. of F. for State Meet

The oracles of Ponce hasten to liquidate their laryngitis and dust off their tonsils, as the date for another oratorical ordeal approaches. The debate team will journey, this time, to Gainesville, Florida, to compete for the state championship.

Six members of the team and Mrs. Herberta Leonard, sponsor, will travel to the event on March 19 and return March 21. The six contestants who will go to debate the issue, "resolved: that every able bodied male citizen should be required to have one year of full time military training before attaining the present draft age," have not been chosen yet, but the decision is to be made this week. They will be formed into two teams of two each as the negative and affirmative sides with one alternate for each team.

In the Orlando Debate Festival, the Ponce representatives made top showing by winning 13 out of 16 debates. The B team's victory in seven of eight debates and the A team's 6 out of 8 made possible Ponce's record of the most outstanding school at the festival.

Betancourt Sends Patriotic Song To Publisher

A gum-chewing brown eyed drummer with a crew cut is 17-year-old Jimmy Betancourt, who has just sent a selection of his original musical work to the Marks Publishing Company in New York City.

"I think it's good," said Jimmy in a modest tone of voice, when questioned about his song "We Made them Say Uncle, Uncle Sam". Although he has written words and music to four other songs and lyrics to about 50 more, this is the first to be sent to a publisher.

CHURCH CIRCLE MEETS TODAY

Mrs. George M. Murdoch of 605 Avenue Alcazar, will entertain members of group 4 of the Presbyterian Church at 11 a.m. today for sewing and luncheon.

Traveled Student Misses Snow Most Impressed by Hongkong

"Where's the snow?" asked Geraldine Carpenter dismally, when she first arrived in the Gables this winter from Langley Field, Virginia. Being an army officer's daughter, she has traveled a great deal, both throughout the United States and to such places as Hawaii, the Philippines, China, Japan, Guam and Panama.

Wakiki Beach, in Hawaii, disappointed her terribly and she claims that there is "nothing there but water, yellow sand and razor sharp coral rock." She is crazy about the rest of Hawaii. In the Philippines she raised canaries and attended a tiny school in Manila for some time.

Hong Kong and Shanghai, the only two cities in China they were allowed to visit owing to war time conditions, fascinated her the most, she says. She liked to watch the gaily colored turbans on the natives of India who acted as policemen in China, wobble back and forth, towering in the sky. And though the few days that they were there were foggy, rainy and downright miserable they managed to visit some of the very old Chinese temples.

P.F.A. Donates 36 New Benches

Ponce's Fathers' Association has secured $100 from the school board for 36 new benches for the campus. The benches are being made in the NYA workshop under the supervision of Mr. R. M. Bagley, Sr.

Fathers working on the committee are Mr. Walter Pierce, Mr. Hayes Wood, Sr. and Mr. H. F. Cordes.

Any suggestions as to where the benches are needed are to be given to Hayes Wood, president of Student Council.

CORAL GABLES MUSIC CLUB HEARS PRESIDENT

Mrs. Barco talked about the coming convention, to be held April 7 at the Hollywood Beach Hotel.
