FBI Agent Appointed to Finance Post

Edwin Poorman Will Succeed N. J. Sindelar

Appointment of Edwin B. Poorman, former Miami FBI agent, as city clerk and director of finance for Coral Gables was announced today by City Manager William T. McIlwain.

Poorman, who lives at 1124 Ferdinand Street, succeeds Nathan J. Sindelar, whose resignation becomes effective this month.

Born in Marshall, Ill., in 1908, Poorman attended Illinois High and grade schools and later graduated from the University of Michigan, receiving a law degree in 1932. He later studied general accounting at the International Accountant's Society in Chicago and only recently completed a law review course at the University of Miami.

He practiced law in Chicago Heights, Ill., with his father until he was appointed corporation counsel for that city in 1935. At the outset of his term a comprehensive 20-year audit of city accounts disclosed shortages and misappropriations of over half million dollars in the previous city clerk's general and special assessment accounts. Poorman prepared and handled all the litigation in the lower and appellate courts concerning the shortages in addition to preparing the appropriation budgets and tax levies for each year.

He also originated and handled a refunding bond issue of $560,000 refunding all outstanding general bond obligations of the city.

With the aid of the city auditors he prepared a new system of accounting and records for the city treasurer and city clerk and drew a handbook of instructions to use with the system.

From 1934 until 1942 he served as attorney for Township School Trustees and treasurer for 10 school districts in southern Cook county.

He left the practice of law in 1942 to join the Federal Bureau of Investigation as a special agent and was assigned to the Miami office in 1943. He has been a resident of Coral Gables since that time.

He is a member of Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity and was active in the Chicago Heights Kiwanis Club, serving as president and later as lieutenant governor for his district.

He is married and has two children, John 12, and Elizabeth, 8.

Local Man Fined on Gun Charge

S. E. Spaulding, 1240 Avenue Obispo, paid a fine of $25 and costs in municipal court Monday on charges of disorderly conduct by fighting and displaying firearms.

Spaulding was arrested at 1:53 a.m. Friday, when police were called to his residence by neighbors reporting a disturbance.

According to the police report, when the officers arrived in a squad car, Mrs. Spaulding ran from the front door shouting that her husband was trying to kill her. Spaulding appeared at the door a few moments later, holding a .32-caliber revolver in his hand.

Police talked him into handing over the gun and an automatic shot gun and arrested him on an affidavit signed by his wife.

The report stated that Spaulding had been drinking, but did not appear to be drunk.

Major Sees Many Years Occupation Of Japan; Attitude Is Changing

Major Cline K. Raiford, U.S.A., recently returned to the United States after eight months' service with the Army of Occupation in Japan, told the members of the Coral Gables Rotary Club, Friday, that Japanese factories are allowed to manufacture goods only for home consumption. Toys will probably be the first Japanese manufactured goods released for export by the U. S. Army.

Factories and large buildings in Japan escaped bomb damage as compared with the almost total destruction of buildings of this type in Germany. The Ford plant in Japan was not damaged, he said.

Major Raiford predicted that our occupation of Japan will extend over many years. "The Japanese were sullen and unco-operative when our troops first entered their country. This attitude has changed after their observation of the conduct of our troops and the realization that they were receiving fair treatment. The Japanese are now eager to co-operate with our troops and learn more about a democratic form of government." The Japs still consider Hirohito the head man in Japan but do not now look upon him as a god," he said.

The Japanese are being trained to work as clerks, stenographers, guards and police, for the departments of American Military Government, he pointed out.

The black market is active in Japan, Raiford said. Sugar is selling at $60 per pound and cigarettes at $50 per package.

John G. McKay, Jr., executive vice president of the Embury-Riddle Company, was welcomed as the first new Rotarian in the club.

BOB JOHNS of the Coulter Hardware softball team, and BILL POWERS, representing Taylor's Sport Shop, receive trophies from Ed Beckman, Youth Center athletic director, at the culmination of league play on July 4th. The schedule for the first week's play includes: Monday, Turner-Evans-Coulter; Tuesday, Jaycees-Embry Riddle; Wednesday, WGBS-Taylor's; Thursday, Jimmie's-Biltmore; Friday, Turner-Evans-Jaycees.

Blood Donor Day Named For Gables

All Residents Asked to Help Next Tuesday

Tuesday, July 16, has been designated as "Blood Donor Day" for Coral Gables and all residents who are able have been urged to take part, James E. Hawkins, adjutant of Post 98, American Legion, announced today.

Technicians from the Dade County Blood Bank will be present at the Legion Home at Alhambra Circle and Salzedo Street from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. to receive donations from local residents, Hawkins said. All members of the Legion post have been asked to be present at that time, and members not being able to give blood have been called upon to bring a substitute.

"We would like to have every Gables resident, who is able, contribute to the Blood Bank on Tuesday," Hawkins said. "The hurricane season is coming, and if a storm hits this area, there will no doubt be a heavy demand for blood."

Hawkins said that the blood bank's supply was below quota at present and that he doubted if the present supply would be sufficient to cope with an emergency.

Housing Need Is Cited by Colonel Beck

Stating that officers are paying as high as $175 per month for living quarters and that non-commissioned officers are living predominantly in trailers, Col. Clyde M. Beck, commanding officer of the Pratt General Hospital, appealed to Gables residents this week to aid in finding living accommodations for members of the permanent party at the hospital.

Col. Beck, addressing the Coral Gables Kiwanis Club, stated that many of his officers and men had been unable to find places to house their families. He said that his chief surgeon, just returned from overseas, was being forced to send his family north because there was no place to house them. Some of the staff members live as far as 18 miles away from the hospital.

Beck said that if quarters could not be found for his men in the near future it may be necessary to close nine holes of the golf course and construct living quarters there.

He pledged cooperation between the hospital and the community, and said that his officers and men had a strong desire to become members of the community and take an active part in its social and civic activity.

Any local resident having houses or apartments to rent, either furnished or unfurnished, are urged to contact the Hostess Counselor's Office, phone 4-1661, ext. 140.

'Umps' Clark, Granada Pro Is No Stranger to Gables

No stranger to Coral Gables is Wilbur "Umps" Clark, who succeeds the late Dud Atkinson as managing professional of the municipally operated Granada Golf Course.

Way back in 1929, when Hawley Russell was operating the Riviera Golf Course, Wilbur, or "Umps" as he is known to Florida golfdom, was assistant manager and golf pro for the course. That was just after the Florida bubble burst and Hawley had taken over the operation of the course as a private enterprise. Umps remained there as pro until 1933 when the course was closed.

The Riviera course was recently taken over by the new Riviera Country Club and will again be in use next fall.

The 33-year-old professional is well-known in the Miami area, having attended grade and high schools in Miami before going to Columbia University, where he studied for one semester.

"Umps" was teaching and playing professional at the Orange Country Club in Middleton, N. Y., in 1934 and 1935 and was assistant pro under Harry Hampton, the famous International Four Ball player at Chicago's Beverly Country Club from 1938 to 1940. During 1941 and 1942 he served as assistant to Fred Miley at Lexington, Ky.

Provisions of a fair practice code for Gables merchants also will be discussed at the meeting by a committee composed of Morton Engel, chairman; Mrs. Faye Schwartz and Fred Clark.

Baptists Hope To Build Church In October

Hope that construction on the proposed new University Baptist Church will begin by October 1 was expressed today by Dean Russell A. Rasco, chairman of the church's ways and means committee. The proposed new church and educational building will be erected on a plot bounded by Avenue Anastasia, Segovia Street and University Drive.

The committee has announced a "block campaign" with the slogan "20,000 blocks by Christmas." The Baptists have been gathering funds for the past several years for the erection of the new building.

Ceremonies for the laying of the cornerstone have been set for Thanksgiving Day.

The block campaign was received enthusiastically by the members of the Sunday school and church, according to the announcement of the pastor, Dr. Ladislav Biro. It is the purpose of the campaign to enlist a 100 per cent participation on the part of the membership. The immediate plans of Dean Rasco call for the formation of committees to contact the membership and friends of the church to inform them of the plans now under way.

The Grand Chef de Gare will install all appointed officers at this meeting. All committee chairmen have been urged to have reports ready for this meeting.

Ask Modern Buildings For University

Public Hearing Called To Approve Architect's Plans

Public approval of the rezoning of the 245-acre new campus of the University of Miami to permit the erection of "contemporary design" buildings there, will be asked at a public hearing to be held at 7:30 p.m., July 22 in city hall.

Recommendation that the modern type structure be allowed on the new campus was made in a joint memorandum, forwarded to the commission by the Board of Supervising Architects and the Zoning Board of Appeals.

The memorandum stated that "it was the unanimous opinion of the members of both boards that the plans submitted typify the most efficient, practical and simplified scheme of architecture worked out for postwar and future demands which colleges and universities will be called upon to take care of."

The boards also pointed out that the zoning ordinance does not provide "for the type of architecture peculiar to a college and university campus and its needs."

In addition to the board members, the meeting was attended by Mayor Thomas C. Mayes, City Manager William T. McIlwain, William Hester of the University of Miami and Robert Law Weed, architect for the university.

Residents wishing to comment on the proposed change may either appear at the meeting or express their views in writing to L. W. Robinson, Jr., secretary of the zoning board.

Bowen Leaves Tax Office On Monday

City Tax Assessor Gerald A. Bowen will officially turn over his office Monday to his successor, T. C. Blount.

Bowen, long time city official, resigned several months ago to return to his native state of Virginia.

The tax assessor has purchased a 22-acre apple orchard near Middletown, Va., about 12 miles south of Winchester.

"I expect to be ready to leave Coral Gables in about a week," Bowen said yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowen will travel "caravan style" with Jerry piloting a large covered truck containing their possessions, while Mrs. Bowen follows in the family car. Bowen said that he did not plan to go into extensive farming other than the apple orchard.

"We will have a small truck garden on the place," he said, "but I don't want to get tied down with heavy farming duties and livestock care."

Board Hears Only Five Tax Complaints

A minimum of complaints characterized the meetings of the Coral Gables board of equalization on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Only five complaints, three by letter and two in person, were heard by the commission, sitting as an equalization board.

Tax Assessor Gerald A. Brown attributed the few complaints to the fact that the city has not raised its tax assessments as real estate values soared and also to the fact the money is plentiful at this time.

Gould Plans Development Of Canal Front Property

Plans for the development of a 70-acre tract along the Coral Gables waterway into a subdivision of homes were revealed Monday by Emil J. Gould, who appeared before the zoning board of appeals.

Gould told the board that he was ready to go ahead with the development of the tract, which lies along the north bank of the canal, extending east from LeJeune Road to Cocoplum Plaza.

The developer stated that in his opinion the tract could be divided into about 200 lots for large waterfront residences.

Part of the land now lies under water and must be pumped up and filled into before it can be converted into usable home sites.

Members of the zoning board will pay a visit to the tract next week, to see the land and what is necessary for its conversion into usable property, and to go further into the plans with Gould.

Could recently completed construction on the abandoned boom-line apartment house at Zamora Avenue.

Sperm Whale Caught Alive In Florida

ST. AUGUSTINE—A 12-foot, 1,600-pound sperm whale was captured alive last week on the beach south of this city.

The huge fish had come too close in-shore and was floundering on the beach. Officials of Marine Studios located nearby were advised and an expert rescue crew arrived, captured the monster and carried it by truck to their oceanarium.

Mr. A. F. McBride, curator of Marine Studios, described the whale as a female adult of the flesh-eating variety, pigmy sperm species.

Although still alive when transferred to the exhibition tank the whale died within a few hours.

Health Officer Asks Control Of Dogs As Rabies Ban

A warning that rabies can be controlled only through the control of dogs was sounded this week by the State Board of Health. In a letter to Coral Gables and Dade County health officers, David B. Lee, director of the Bureau of Sanitary Engineering urged that they ascertain whether that you get one adopted for this purpose.

"The best way to control rabies is through keeping dogs at home, but this is not always possible. In which case, they should be given every protection against rabies. Owners are strongly urged to have their pets inoculated against the disease every year. This inoculation is effective in almost 85 per cent of all cases."

The following eight "how to prevent rabies" suggestions were stressed:

- 1 Keep human beings and animals away from rabid animals.
- 2 Eliminate ownerless dogs.
- 3 Institute proper control of all dogs by owner at all times.
- 4 Report all suspiciously ill dogs to veterinarian and/or local health authorities.
- 5 Quarantine all imported dogs for reasonable period.
- 6 Quarantine or confine all dogs to leash or paddock during local epidemics of rabies.
- 7 Vaccinate all dogs against rabies once a year. Information relative to vaccination of animals may be obtained from a veterinarian or local health authorities.
- 8 Quarantine and notify local health officials all animals suspected of being bitten by rabid animals.

Work Progresses On Telephone Cable Here

Jacksonville (FNS)—Engineers are working feverishly on the construction of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co.'s underground cable line from New York to Miami, and the Southern half of this project is expected to be completed by January 1, 1948, according to B. F. Givens, district plant superintendent, whose office is in Jacksonville.

The engineers and local representatives of the A. T. & T. have just about acquired all of the land and rights of way necessary for the undertaking, Givens says. The first half of this important cable project from New York to Charlotte has been completed. Work on the southern half from Charlotte to Miami will be pushed as vigorously as possible. The line will pass through Jacksonville and Orlando.

The millions upon millions of dollars which the A. T. & T. will pour into this cable line bespeaks the confidence that this herculean corporation has in the southland's east coastal territory. The development of Florida during recent years has been so great that A. T. & T. facilities have become overtaxed. The project has been contemplated for a long time, but was held up because of the war.

Miss Frackman to New York

Miss Marion Frackman, owner of "Marion's" shop at 200 Alhambra Circle, is leaving soon for New York City on a combined business and pleasure trip. She will visit relatives and friends and shop for new styles and creations. She will return in September and the shop will reopen about the 15th.

Coral Gables Men Play Key Roles In Unprecedented PAA Flight to Spain

The vanguard of hundreds of homesick Spaniards can thank two Coral Gables men for helping make possible their first sight in more than a decade of the old friends and fondly remembered landscapes they left behind to care out new lives in a new world.

They are Elwood J. Leep, 1421 Avenue Milan and Charles R. Howell, 3235 Riviera Drive, who served as co-pilot and navigator on the second of a series of special Pan-American World Airways flights carrying Spanish residents of Mexico on an unprecedented 5,500-mile aerial migration to their native land.

The big four-engined clipper completed the flight from Mexico City to Lisbon—a trip equivalent in mileage to a fifth the distance around the world—in less than 72 hours despite overnight stops at Miami and Bermuda. The same journey by surface transportation consumes approximately two weeks.

Aboard the history-making clipper were 42 of the more than 1,000 members of the Spanish colony in and near Mexico City who hope to make the long-delayed trip this summer.

Prevented by unrest and war in Europe from returning to their homeland since the early '30's, the Spaniards—many of them now citizens of Mexico—are eager to visit aged parents, look up friends and relatives uprooted during the years of strife and re-establish shattered business connections. But most of all they're anxious to see once more the cities, villages and countryside where they spent their childhood.

Accompanied by Mexican-born wives and children to whom the "old country" is only a page from a geography textbook, most of the homecomers will spend several months in Spain before returning to Mexico.

The clippers are bringing back Europeans jamming Lisbon in search of air transportation to the western hemisphere.

The Mexico City-Lisbon flights are part of an extensive Pan American program to help European nationals in Latin America re-visit the homes and relatives from which they were separated during the war. Recent flights have carried Dutch government officials in the Netherlands West Indies to Amsterdam and Spanish nationals in Caracas, Venezuela, to Lisbon for such visits.

A graduate of Argentine High School, Kansas City, in 1929, Leep attended the University of Kansas, where he was a member of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity, and received a BS degree in 1934. After working two years for Black and Veatch, Kansas City engineer, Leep received an appointment to the Naval Aerial Training school in Pensacola, Fla., and served four years as a Navy flier.

Joining Pan American in July, 1940, he flew both Pacific and Atlantic routes for three years before his present assignment in the company's Latin American Division.

Graduated from Worcester Classical High School in 1931 and from Massachusetts Nautical school in Boston in 1934, Howell joined Pan American's Atlantic Division at La Guardia field in 1941. A few months later he was transferred to the company's Latin American Division headquarters in Miami, Fla., where he taught navigation in the war-time Navy courses at the University of Miami.

Now chief instructor in Pan American's station manager and dispatcher school in Miami, Howell lives with his wife and two sons at 3255 Riviera Drive.

Canvass Seeks Local Girls For Nursing

House-to-house canvass of a large group of recent girl high school graduates was begun this week by members of the nurse recruitment committee of the American Red Cross.

The canvass is a part of the committee's current drive to recruit at least 40 student nurses by August 1, to begin training September 11 at the nurses' training school at Jackson Memorial hospital.

Girls who graduated from Ponce de Leon High school, Andrew Jackson, Miami Beach, Gesu and the Vocational High school and who did not indicate any plans for attending college, will be visited. The girls' names were obtained from registrars at the various schools.

A critical shortage of nurses still exists even though the war is over, according to Miss Isabelle Mustard, R.N., who is superintendent of nurses at Jackson Memorial.

Student nurses receive room, board and laundry, and after the first six months' training are given $15 a month.

Exceptional educational facilities as well as recreational facilities are open to students.

Further information can be obtained either at American Red Cross headquarters or at Jackson Memorial hospital.

Power Company Publication Wins Prize

The Sunshine Service News, official publication of the Florida Power and Light Company, has been signally honored by being adjudged the second best employee publication in its class for 1945, according to word received here by William D. Fuller, local manager.

Miss Louise Gallagher is correspondent for the Coral Gables office.

"Yep," says his official notification received yesterday, "the judges of the Public Utilities Advertising Association selected your Sunshine Service News efforts as a prize-winner in the annual national better copy contest."

"In all, 39 employee publications from all over the country participated. The Gas Flame, published in Indianapolis, was rated first."

"It's a real honor," the congratulatory message continues, "and something of which every one of you can feel very proud, for the competition is plenty keen and the judges are nationally known experts in the field of magazine and employee publications."

"It means your contributions rang the bell in 1945—and it is a challenge to keep up the good work in 1946 and the years to come."

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Lee of 813 Lorea Street left recently for Chattanooga, Tenn., her former home, and a visit also with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Morgan and her sister, Mrs. D. Gableites Move

Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Peoples and their three sons, formerly of 933 Avenue Sorolla, have sold their home, and are residing temporarily in South Miami. They plan to return to the Gables, however, when building is again normal.

'Canes Begin Grid Sessions August 19th

With an Orange Bowl reputation to uphold and a tough schedule ahead, the University of Miami's Hurricane gridgers will begin bucking down to hard work on August 19, Coach Jack Harding announced this week.

The Miami mentor said that the first week's schedule would be designed to give returning men a refreshed course and new covers a "condensed version of what it's all about." The squad members who participated in spring drills will not report for a week later.

As the Hurricanes do not open their season until September 27, when they tangle with William & Mary of the Southern conference in the Orange Bowl this will give the first group six and the second group five weeks of practice before the opening game.

Until school opens in September, the squad will work twice a day, once early in the morning, and for the first couple of weeks at least, once in the evening. However, Coach Harding will stage his second workout each day in the afternoon instead of the evening. He found out last year that the sunlight drills were better conditioners than the arc light workouts.

It was also found last year and this spring that the pre-war players need extra conditioning to pick up where they left off before going to war and hence they are being asked to come here one week early. The freshmen, who will for the most part, make up the B squad this year, will have a chance to work out for a week under Head Coach Harding who will be able to get a line on such prospects as may be able to make the grade on the varsity squad.

It had been originally planned to start practice around September 1 but the Hurricanes plunge right into tough competition at the opening of the season and hence

"Everything For The Motor Car"

Don't Sound Off At Us, Mister!

We know it hurts when the bills start coming in! After all, our calendars start with the first of the month too—in fact, there are some months when we begin to think that EVERY day is the first! But before you get yourself headed for a reputation as the "meanest man in town", how about sitting down and analyzing that bill and figuring out just where YOU stand in the picture.

It's YOUR car, isn't it?—and considering the money it represents it's a valuable piece of property. Add to that the fact that you can't efficiently operate your business without it, plus the fact that new cars are still at a premium, and that buggy of yours becomes practically invaluable, doesn't it? We THOUGHT that would make you calm down long enough to think!

Now let's dig a little further, Mister—and this will probably hurt! Remember WHEN you bought it? Did you think you were buying a "one boss baby"—you know, the one that ran for "ninety-nine years and a day"? Well, maybe it wasn't quite that bad, but you'll have to admit that you didn't spend TOO much time thinking about keeping it in shape, did you? Oh, you knew that it needed some repairs—but there were always other things more important. Well, Mister, THAT'S WHERE YOU'RE WRONG!

Your car is entitled to the best care you can give it. Minor ailments in cars soon develop into big troubles when neglected—and bigger headaches for you. So why not start right now bringing your car to PARKS MOTORS for a monthly check-up by the BEST MECHANICS IN TOWN. You'll not only save your car—just think what it will do for your temper! We have the men and the equipment to treat your car for all repairs and keep it serviced so that you won't be faced with major repair bills constantly—and we won't be faced with an irate customer!

OUR TOWN
The Other Side
By Jim Moore

Ever since the war ended there has been a lot of talk around town about what is going to happen to the Biltmore, now officially known as the Pratt General Hospital. There has been much outspoken sentiment in favor of getting the army out of there as quickly as possible and getting it back on the tax rolls.

The bewailing of the loss of $38,000 a year in property taxes has been long and loud. There have been advocates of returning it to a hotel status, letting the University of Miami have it and even municipal ownership.

Last Tuesday I had the pleasure of hearing Col. Clyde M. Beck, the hospital's commanding officer, address the members of the Coral Gables Kiwanis Club. In listening to Colonel Beck, I got a peek at the other side of the ledger on the Biltmore proposition.

I learned, for example, that the June pay roll over at the hospital totaled $225,000. Broken down, it meant that officers and patients at the hospital were paid $93,000, enlisted men $45,000 and civilian employees $67,000. As the man once said, "That ain't hay."

I also learned that last year the pay roll there amounted to $2,536,014. Think about that for a moment. Imagine what the Chamber of Commerce would do to attract a business organization to this town that had a similar pay roll.

That means a lot to the average Coral Gables businessman because he shares in that money. You have only to look about the streets to see the nurses, the men in uniform shopping in local stores, attending the movies, buying ice cream, drinking beer. All this money goes into local coffers. And the figure is by no means a paltry one.

Consider, too, that the families of patients and members of the permanent party at the Biltmore are here too, paying rent, buying clothes and food and the other necessities of life. This money, too, plays a merry tune on local cash registers.

I remember well when the Biltmore was a hotel. It was a lavish layout and lavishly operated. It attracted the wealthy but many times the house was "papered" with members of the press and dignitaries whose names meant news and perhaps a mention of the Biltmore. As a money-making business venture, it never was a success.

What did Coral Gables derive from the Biltmore in addition to the taxes? Publicity, and that's about all. Aerocars whisked guests from the hotel, through town and to Miami Beach, where their money was spent on Lincoln Road.

Now we have a group that receives nearly a quarter of a million dollars a month in wages, a great amount of which is spent in Coral Gables.

Many local residents have expressed the fear that the hospital will become a mental institution. But the opposite seems likely. Present plans call for the Pratt Hos-

True or False?

Books and articles arousing ill feeling between England and America have raised a storm of controversy. Unhappily the controversy rages over whether accusations in rich books and articles are true or false. The implication is that, if the accusations are true, we are right in looking down our noses at our British cousins and possibly could even thumb our noses at them. And vice versa.

There is, however, another way of looking at it. Whether true or false any one publishing such accusations seems to be deliberately trying to drive a wedge between the United States and the United Kingdom. The motives behind this attempt should give us ample cause to stick together whatever cause we have, or think we have, to split.

Perhaps there have been Englishmen who want to use America simply to pull British chestnuts out of the fire. Perhaps there are Americans who want to pull out of Europe and leave England holding the bag. Neither prevents the attitude of a whole nation. And both are small potatoes compared with a design of those who want to start a dog fight between us so that, while we snarl at each other, they can snatch away the bone.

There is something to bind us together too strong for any differences to split. This is our common language—not even our common ancestry—but our common ideology, our belief in the worth of the individual, freedom, the moral responsibility of men and nations, the democratic form of government and our faith in God. And, when anyone attempts to force a split between two great democracies, there is every reason to believe that they hold some other ideology, hostile to the democratic way of life.

We've depended too long on the great powers for peace. Now it's time to depend on a Great Power.

Many regret what they failed to get in 1918. A few repent what they failed to give.

Carefree doesn't mean free from care, but free to care for others.

PORK AND POLIO!

THROUGHOUT THE AGES, the swine has been the symbol of all mankind, of all that is foul, dirty, diseased and unclean, both physical and mental. Read your Bible—Mark Chapter 5-8/13; Luke Chapter 8-32/33; Luke Chapter 15-16; Leviticus Chapter 11-7/8; and many others. In an old book, date of publication unknown, by the Reverends Jamieson, Fauset and Brown, entitled "Commentary on the Old and New Testaments," Page 79, they say;

"but although this was the principal foundation of these laws dietetic reason also had weight; For there is no doubt that the flesh of many of the animals here ranked as unclean is everywhere, but especially in the warm climates, less wholesome and adapted for food than those which are allowed to be eaten! The Swine — It is a filthy foul-feeding animal and it wants one of the natural provisions for purifying the system, "It cheweth not the cud". In hot climates indulgence in swine flesh (pork) is particularly liable to produce leprosy, scurvy and various cutaneous eruptions."

The Associated Press reports from Chicago July 8th that Meats would soon be in plentiful supply, especially pork. The other meats would take longer to reach the market because they all require aging. They do not age any of the Pork products. I wonder why? In all probability ageing pork would cause it to return to its original form—garbage. Horse meat is repulsive, but rat meat is good eating, provided it has that flavor and is properly advertised.

SOON WE WILL HAVE PLENTY OF BOTH PORK AND POLIO. IF THIS THEORY IS WRONG, I SHALL BE THE FIRST TO ADMIT IT. HOWEVER, YOU WATCH THE SCORE FOR YOURSELF. PROVIDED THE AUTHORITIES CONTINUE TO RELEASE THE FIGURES SHOWING THE NUMBER OF CASES.

THE NEXT FOUR WEEKS WILL TELL THE STORY.

In my original advertisement I stated: Is it just a coincidence that Polio has stopped with the meat shortage?

Will it be just another coincidence that with the return of meats, and especially pork, that the Polio epidemic is worse than ever?

pital to specialize in surgery and orthopedics. Others have said, "I just don't like the idea of having an Army hospital here."

What don't they like about it? Is it the fact that they may be forced to look at some disabled men, hobbling around the streets? I wish I could quote exactly the words of the Rev. Harvey John Fritsch on that subject. But it boils down to this: Those men are maimed and crippled today because they freely sacrificed their arms and legs for their country; for you and me. We should be thankful that we can offer them the beauty and climate of Coral Gables to speed their recovery and help make them forget the horror they have been through.

So there you have it, the practical side and the spiritual side of the Army's side of the picture.

Does it make you wonder if you spoke hastily when you said: "Let's get the Army out of the Biltmore as soon as possible?"

Survey Reveals Growth of Florida Farms

Florida farms are 20 acres larger than they were five years ago and farm acreage has increased 55 per cent, the research division of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce brought out today after a study of advance reports of the 1945 census of agriculture.

It was stated that "these reports carry tabulations of acreages and production volumes of livestock and leading crops. To date they cover a random sampling of 47 of the state's 67 counties, representing a comprehensive cross section of the agricultural structure."

"The great increase in farm acreage may be accounted for by two principal factors, first, the development of improved forest-crop and pasture lands and the increase in land actually under cultivation. The latter stood at 10 per cent and is an accurate gauge of the state's growth in food and feed production."

The researchers commented that "the trends for general agricultural activity in the state are indicated by these advance reports but that data on specialty crops confined to certain areas and not, as yet, reported in full, cannot be secured until the census is completed. Such a crop is celery."

Increased production of specific basic crops during the five-year period was cited as follows: Hogs and pigs, 140 per cent; cattle and calves, 50 per cent; milk, 28 per cent; eggs, 9 per cent; Irish po-

"Losses were reported in the 47 county total in certain vegetable crops which go principally to canning plants (caused by metal shortages), as well as in tobacco and in corn," the study concluded.

WE SPECIALIZE IN PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

"Twas very ultra to say the least. . . Wonder what Bob Ely, Jr., was talking so enthusiastically about to Bill Kimbrough and Bill Mellwain on Aragon Avenue, Tuesday?

A card from the National Amateur Press Association informs us that we have two local members, George S. Connell, 822 Avenue Milan and E. A. Edkins, 3413 Salzedo Street. Wonder why they don't drop around and get acquainted . . . Lee Mahan dropped us a clipping from the letters column of the Daily News in which some bloke from Fort Lauderdale called our town a "cow pasture." Says Lee, "Thought you might keep this in mind for that future date when Fort Lauderdale wants to consolidate with the Gables." In case any of you poison penners want to drop this writer of heresy a line, he signed his letter to the News, "James C. Howell."

Shelby Gaskin tells us that there's a sequel to the item we carried in this column several weeks ago about him running the boat aground while fishing with "Judge" Sutton. Shelby says the JP ran the boat aground three times himself before they got back into port. . . And while we're aground, Hollis Rinehart got a painful shin injury recently when a stanchion snapped and hit him as the Coast Guard was attempting to pull him off a pile of sand that had drifted into the channel off Bayfront Park. . . Frank Hoover reports no such mishaps from a Gulf Stream fishing trip last week end which was staged in honor of Frank's son, Bill, who is visiting here from the North. . . The cops are ribbing the firemen because their mascot, "Ginger," was found wandering on North Miami Avenue. "Just like a fireman," they say. . . Heard on the Boulevard, "I had scotch with a chaser—my date was the chaser."

The Junior Chamber has named its bulletin "The Jay Cee Breeze" and the latest issue reports that the civic group is making plans (nebulous at the moment) for a golf tournament. . . We're green with envy at hearing Mayor Hayes talk about his vacation plans. Hizzoner will head for northern Michigan, then across Canada to New England, then to New York. . . Bill Gray isn't doing badly either with the Adirondacks, Washington and New York on his vacation agenda. . . Obie Sutton has been the object of a million questions since he performed that June-January marriage last week-end. Not only have friends been curious but the Associated Press phoned him for a description of what the bride wore. . . The Rotarians now have their road signs installed, but Warren Lehman, chairman of the sign committee, took quite a bit of ribbing before the job was done. As a matter of fact, the Rotary bulletin last week commented, "This job was completed in record time if you will take into consideration that Warren completed the job in just three days less than it took the ancient Egyptians to complete the pyramids. . . The publicity chairman of the local Masonic Lodge wanted us to add a greeting paragraph on the regular story about the meeting this week. As it hardly fit into the story, we'll say here that the local Masons want to say "hello" to Lt. Col. John Coolidge of Hudson, Mass., who was a frequent visitor at the local lodge during the past year. . . J. W. Siegel, a veteran who lives in an apartment house at 1306 Douglas Road, phoned to complain that his landlord had taken advantage of the OPA death to hike his rent from $46.50 to $150 a month. . . Pat Hodge's new strapless dress was quite the topic of conversation last Saturday night.

Rich Market
Is Foreseen
For Florida

While some basic snarls are not being resolved as rapidly as champing—at-the-bits-business would like, Florida is "looking down the throat" of a developing market richer than man's wildest dreams, researchers of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce observed today in that organization's weekly business study. They said:

"Tomorrow's competition, we believe, should now be one of Florida's chief concerns, since evidence mounts that the fight being made by political manipulators to reshape the nation's economy leftward is losing its punch.

"Production bottlenecks are not as headachy to Floridians as they were six months ago, and when these are 'squared away' as they will be by realistic impacts of greater strength than opposing forces can muster, this State will face the distribution battle of the centuries. It must get its goods to the point of sale 'firstest' and in quantity, and it must regard its incoming tourist potentials in the same light. Costs, we predict, will not be a prime factor for some

Corned Beef
Man's Delight
However Served

Whenever one reads or hears a discussion of foods that are favorites with men, there is sure to be mention of corned beef. Perhaps corned beef and cabbage is the most famous dish, but the Coral Gables masculine element seems to like this tasty meat with the salty flavor, however it may be served.

Corned beef is an excellent meat for summer meals, not only because of its appealing flavor, but also for practical reasons. It's so easy to let it simmer slowly any time during the day; and the meat is just as tasty the second or third day as it is the first.

To Highlands

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Shepherd of 3715 Harlano Street, left for Highlands, N. C., this week to occupy their cabin for the remainder of the summer.

Whole cloves
1/2 cup maple syrup

Cover corned beef with water and bring slowly to the boiling point; cook about 5 minutes and remove any scum on the water. Cover and simmer until meat is tender. About 3 to 3 1/2 hours will be required.

When done, place meat on a rack in open roasting pan. Stick with whole cloves in diagonal design. Pour maple syrup over meat, and put in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) to brown and glaze. Baste occasionally with the maple syrup.

Hot Corned Beef and Tomato Sandwiches
Toast one slice of bread to a serving, and spread lightly with butter or margarine. Cover each slice of toast with sliced corned beef; spread lightly with mustard or horseradish. On top of the meat, place tomato slices (not too thin) dipped in French dressing. Place on rack of broiling pan, about 2 inches from the heat, and broil until cheese is melted. Serve immediately.

Letaws Return

Harry Letaw, proprietor of Letaw Druggist, 219 Coral Way, has returned from a month's vacation in the mountains of North Carolina. He was accompanied by his son Dick, a student at Wake Forest College, Wake Forest, N. C., who vacationed for a month. Mrs. Letaw and children, Rosellen, Tom and Nym, will remain in Hendersonville until later in the summer.

Saw First Snow

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Mordant, 537 Avenue Majorca, have just returned from three weeks' trip to Colorado Springs, Colo., where they saw snow for the first time in their lives. En route home they visited Mammoth Cave, Ky., and Chattanooga, Tenn.

Shortages are holding him back

We in Southern Bell have been adding telephones at the rate of 350,000 a year. But shortages have been growing worse, and now it's harder and harder for us to get materials for manufacturing and building.

We aren't complaining for we are in the same boat as everyone else. But we thought you might like to know the supply situation on some of the biggest items in the telephone business.

LEAD—There is a world shortage of lead. Even when conditions here straighten out, it will be some time before adequate supplies are available.

COPPER—In great demand but we will probably have adequate supplies when the smelting, refining and fabricating plants get going.

TEXTILES—Serious shortage of cotton and synthetic yarns and fabrics, with demand greatly exceeding supply.

STEEL—Steel and coal strikes have affected supply in face of unprecedented demand.

RUBBER—Synthetics are in fair supply but natural rubber is on Government allocation.

LUMBER—Scarce supply due to unprecedented demand and dislocation of lumber trade.

BRASS MILL PRODUCTS—Used in Central Office switches and other telephone equipment. Supply will be short until disturbed conditions are settled in the copper industry, permitting brass mills to get back to full-scale production.

It's a tough situation, but we aren't giving up, any more than you have given up trying to get butter or shirts. We're doing the best we can with what we've got and hoping these disturbed conditions will end, so we can really go full speed ahead.

Delicate Flavor of Kidneys Makes Them Epicure's Favorite

Chefs and epicures value highly the delicate flavor of kidneys. They are one of the group of variety meats, and also rate high for their excellent food value. Many Coral Gables homemakers would serve them more often at home, if they were more familiar with how to handle and prepare them.

Beef, pork, lamb and veal kidneys are all equally delicious meats. All but beef are tender enough to broil; beef kidneys are best cooked by moist heat. Of course, there is considerable difference in size among the various kinds. A beef kidney may weigh about a pound and serve 4 to 6 people; whereas a lamb kidney (the smallest of the four) is usually only half a serving.

Kidneys should first be washed, split down the center, and the tubes removed before cooking. For broiling the kidneys are brushed with melted fat. A skewer run through the split kidney will hold it flat while it is cooking. Broil about 5 minutes on each side. Another suggestion is to wrap a slice of bacon around each half of a small kidney, and then broil.

"Beef kidney (or any other kind) makes a delicious stew, either alone or in combination with beef. To make an attractive stew, cut the kidney in thin slices. Roll in seasoned flour, and brown with a little chopped onion in hot drippings. Add water to cover, cover the kettle, and simmer gently until the meat is tender (about 45 minutes). Add small potatoes or potato balls about 20 minutes before the meat is done. The recipe for creole kidney given below is a highly seasoned stew, with bacon added for extra richness and flavor.

Creole Kidney with Bacon
1 pound kidney (beef or lamb)
Flour for dredging
6 slices bacon, diced
2 small onions, chopped
1 green pepper, chopped
1 cup tomato juice
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
Bit of bay leaf
1 tablespoon flour
Remove tubes from kidney and cut in 1/2-inch slices. Dredge with flour. Brown diced bacon and combine with kidney. Add onions and green pepper; stir until meat is well browned. Add tomato juice,

Bit of Meat Will Pep Up Vegetable Menu

This is the season when vegetables in great variety play a leading role in Gableites' lunch and dinner menus. A dinner without any meat, however, lacks a certain taste appeal and a satisfying quality that meat provides.

A clever homemaker will try to include at least a small amount of meat, even when the meal features garden vegetables. She can do this in many ways; the following ideas are just a few suggestions:
Add meat to the stuffing of deviled eggs, to serve with hot vegetables or a vegetable salad. Use chopped crisp bacon, liver sausage, dried beef, or cooked pork sausage.

Serve potato chips, crackers or dry melba toast with a meat spread.

Add small pieces of cooked or ready-to-serve meat to bowls of hot vegetable soup.
Add a little ground cooked meat salt, pepper and bay leaf. Cover closely and simmer about 30 minutes. Mix flour with water to make a paste. Add to a small portion of the hot mixture, stirring to prevent lumping; then add this to the rest of the hot mixture. Cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Serves 6 to 8.

Meat For Breakfast

If you're thinking of serving a vegetable dinner, have a meat dish for breakfast! That way, you'll be giving the family good proteins, which they need. What's more, they're likely to be more in the mood for a hearty meal than they are in the middle of the day. Meats which are especially suitable for breakfast are also more plentiful than some others. Why not renew the good old custom of bacon and eggs to start the day right? Try savory pork sausages with potato pancakes. And here are a few others to add to your list: Scrambled eggs with brains, hash with poached eggs, pan-broiled luncheon meat, or a ham omelet.

to left-over gravy, and serve on top of mashed potatoes.

Serve one of the vegetables in an egg souffle, and add a small amount of finely chopped meat for extra flavor.

Add chopped cooked bacon or thin frankfurter slices to potato salad or a vegetable salad.

Add small cubes of ready-to-serve meat to the stuffing for a baked vegetable.

Add deviled ham when making a cream sauce or cheese sauce to serve over a vegetable.

Serve stalks of celery stuffed with soft yellow cheese, with chopped bacon added.

Refreshing Jellied Meat Loaf Is Ideal for Summer Meals

A cool, flavorful, Jellied Meat Loaf is as tempting a dish as you can serve on a hot summer day. At the same time, it brings meat into the menu, taking the place of the usual hot main dish. Another asset of a jellied loaf is the fact that it is made well in advance of the meal.

For an easy and refreshing family dinner, try the first recipe given below. This is a basic recipe, and may be varied by the use of different kinds of cooked meat and different seasonings. The Ham Mousse recipe is ideal for a company luncheon or buffet dinner.

Jellied Meat Loaf

1 1/2 tablespoons plain gelatine
1/3 cup cold water
2 cups boiling stock or 1 cup tomato juice and 1 cup water or stock
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 tablespoon grated onion

the air, and 1940 when the war ended such attempts, will go by the board this year. The 1940 records were divided among some 50 classifications and were held by the airmen of nine countries.

1/2 cup grated carrots
1/2 cup diced celery
1/4 cup chopped pickles or sliced stuffed olives
2 cups diced or chopped cooked meat

Soak gelatine in cold water 5 minutes. Add to boiling liquid, and stir until dissolved. Add seasonings; let cool. When it starts to set, add diced meat, vegetables and pickles or olives. Turn into loaf pan (or mold) dipped in cold water. Chill in refrigerator until stiff. Unmold on cold platter and garnish as desired.

Note: For a more tart gelatine base, 1/4 cup mild vinegar may replace an equal amount of the hot liquid. Chopped green pepper, sliced radishes, or chopped onion may also be used in the gelatine. Hard-cooked eggs may be added with the meat, or used as a garnish on the platter. Ripe olives and carrot sticks also make nice garnishes.

Ham Mousse
1 1/2 tablespoons plain gelatine
1/4 cup cold water
2/3 cup boiling water or light stock
3 cups minced cooked ham
1/2 teaspoon paprika
Few grains cayenne
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1 cup heavy cream, whipped
Soak gelatine in cold water 5 minutes. Add boiling water and stir until dissolved. Add ham, seasonings and chopped parsley. Fold in whipped cream, and turn into mold dipped in cold water. (A ring mold may be used.) Set in refrigerator until stiff. Unmold onto platter; garnish with small lettuce leaves, sliced cucumber and tomato wedges.

JUNIOR CLUB LEADERS

MRS. W. FRANK ESSLINGER, JR.

—Pilkington Photo

If Mrs. William Francis Esslinger, Jr., this week's Junior Woman's Club leader, decides to do a thing, that thing is accomplished. Proof of that statement lies in the fact that when the task of heading up the junior woman's club committee for the last community chest drive was assigned to her she met the problem and turned out the most workers of any committee for a successful campaign.

This soft spoken southern girl possesses a sense of humor that comes to her rescue when the going looks rough. Born in Clinton, Tenn., she laughingly told your reporter "that my family moved around the south as much as a Methodist preacher on circuit."

Most of her childhood was spent in Alabama and Louisiana, where her father was engaged in the lumber business. As Anna Mae Linthicum, she attended Mississippi State College for Women and Louisiana State University, a member of Chi Omega Sorority. When the family moved to Huntsville, Ala., all thoughts of future education were gone forever, for it was in Huntsville that the former Miss Linthicum met her husband-to-be.

"I had made a prediction in my girlhood days, that when I married I would pick out a man by the name of Smith or Brown, for all of my life I had to spell the name 'Linthicum.' And what did I do? I fell in love with a man with a name that I continually have to spell, just I did Linthicum," Mrs. Esslinger said.

The Esslingers were married in Huntsville, where Mr. Esslinger, an attorney-at-law, joined the government service after Pearl Harbor. In December, 1943, he was transferred to the Miami office of price administration as chief attorney for the rent control office. After finishing this work he stood for and passed the Florida State Bar and has returned to the practice of law as a member of the firm of Rasco & Esslinger.

Mrs. Esslinger's sense of humor, she claims, came to her aid again when her husband was studying for the bar exams. "It was a problem keeping two lively little girls quiet so that 'papa' could study; in reality the whole family 'took' the bar exam, but we won."

In addition to being the new program chairman for the Coral Gables Junior Woman's Club, Mrs. Esslinger is peace chairman (newly created chairmanship) for the Dade County Federation. She is on the administrative staff of the Red Cross Canteen and last year served as Red Cross chairman for the juniors; was a canteen aide at the 36th Street ATC. With other energetic members of her club this club leader is now taking the Grey Lady course.

Mr. and Mrs. Esslinger belong to the Country Club of Coral Gables. Both are tennis enthusiasts. Their daughters are Ann Lynn,

MISS HUBBELL ENTERTAINS IN PANAMA

Moments are never dull in the life of Miss Rosemary Hubbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hubbell, 1119 Lisbon Street, who since her graduation from Duke University, has been in Panama, working for the Canal Zone Commission.

The arrival of Dr. Hans Kindler, conductor of the National Symphony Orchestra, Washington, D. C., in Panama for a concert Wednesday, was signal enough for the whole city to rejoice. For Miss Hubbell it was double rejoicing for she and Dr. Kindler's daughter, Helen, were sorority sisters at Duke University. Unexpected pleasure was the arrival at the same time of the six girls including two Miamians, Miss Jean McArthur and Miss Dorothy Cox, from Duke and their chaperone who are touring the South and Central American countries. Result: A party in Miss Hubbell's apartment for the famed conductor and the six special Duke emissaries.

Miss Hubbell is expected home soon for her vacation which will be spent traveling with her parents.

Delegate to NEA

Miss Frances Fryar, 135 Avenue Calabria, attended the National Educational Association Convention which took place the first week in July in Buffalo, N. Y. Miss Fryar, a teacher in the Dade County Public School System, is attending Columbia University summer sessions in New York City. This past week-end she spent at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto. Others from the area attending the convention as delegates are Dr. and Mrs. I. T. Pearson, who motored up visiting Duke University and the University of North Carolina enroute; Mrs. Louise Curry and Mrs. Mildred Cook.

Gets Navy Discharge

Frederick L. Burk, 51-c, 291 Avenue Sorolla, has been separated from the Naval service at the Naval Personnel Separation Center, Jacksonville, Fla.

10, and Susan, 4, and father and mother are looking forward to the day when they can have a family foursome.

Mrs. Esslinger's chief hobby is designing and making her children's clothes with dancing, swimming and bridge close seconds. In spite of the fact Mr. Esslinger's office is located on Lincoln Road, the family Esslinger, Jr., residing at 523 Avenue Madeira, loves the Gables and have overruled any thoughts of ever living anywhere else.

Gablegrams

Mid-July will find many Gableites on motor-bound vacations. Vacationing in New York City for the summer, the Charles A. Stones of Coral Gables write of "doin' the town." They find Radio City with its complete change of flowers (in the gardens) every week, the most fascinating place. They often see former Gableites, Mrs. Hannah Lindbloom and daughter, Helen; also Mr. and Mrs. Burt Abbey all of Englewood. The "Houses of Vision" displayed at Wannamakers make the Stones long to begin building their own home, so abruptly delayed this spring. Anxious to get back to Coral Gables they are only waiting that "go-ahead" building signal.

Try Fish For A Change On the Family Dinner Table

Did the male members of your family go fishing over the week-end? If so you probably prepared the fish they caught in the same old way. Why not try a new way for cooking Florida's delicious fish. Because meats are still in that state of suspension, one week you get it and one week

- 5 Brush over with cooking oil.
- 6 Lay 2 strips of bacon in the greased baking pan.
- 7 Stuff the fish.

preferred by many for home cooking. And did you know that in boiling, fish is placed in a kettle of court bouillon, a special preparation used by chefs for cooking fish? Homemakers generally use fish steak. This is water seasoned to taste with salt and vinegar, or lemon juice added. To give flavor add vegetable seasonings—onions, carrots, bay leaf. A three-pound fish should cook in 30 minutes. Remove skin from fish before serving. Serve with any desired sauce.

To Steam: Place fish on an oiled dish. Sprinkle with lemon juice and salt. Cover with waxed paper or cooking paper. Then place in steamer and steam until tender.

To Bake: (Whole) Either fat or lean fish may be used. The former is preferred by many, as they require less care. Lean fish should be slashed through the skin in several places, since there is less shrinkage of the flesh. Remove backbone. Sauces may be served with the dish as desired.

Another easy method is to take the whole fish, rub with salt inside and out. Stuff with dressing, if desired, and tie together. Place a piece of waxed paper or cooking paper in baking pan before putting in fish. Usual cooking time is about 10 minutes per pound up to 4 pounds, then 5 minutes per pound.

- 1 In heavy kettle, fry pork to a golden brown color.
- 2 Add onions and fry these to a light yellow color.
- 3 Add the potatoes, sprinkle with salt and pepper.
- 4 Add cup of water.
- 5 Cook until potatoes are about half done.
- 6 Add fish, flesh side down.
- 7 Cook until potatoes are soft.
- 8 Remove any skin from the fish and break the flesh into coarse flakes.
- 9 Serve hot.

AIR COOLED FOR YOUR COMFORT

ONE OF LIFE'S GRAVEST PROBLEMS

by Halpert

Things haven't changed a bit since then!

REMEMBER how it took a powerful lot of determination to pass that wonderful store on Sunday morning... and not spend most of that Sunday School nickel for candy?

And... wasn't it pretty much the same when you grew up too? Every payday, you wanted to put aside a few dollars. But you never did. There was always "something" to buy.

In fact, for one reason or another, saving almost seemed impossible until... along came War Bonds and the Payroll Savings Plan!

Then suddenly you discovered it was really easy to save—when your savings were deducted from your pay envelope every week.

Pretty soon, too, you found you were accumulating more savings this way than you ever had before. Like Topsy, your Bond savings just grew and grew.

Well, wouldn't it be a good idea to keep a good thing like this going?

You can still buy U. S. Savings Bonds just as you bought War Bonds—through your Payroll Savings Plan. You get the same safe investment, same high returns; $25 for every $18.75, when the Bonds mature.

And it's certain you'll never find an easier or a surer way to save!

SAVE THE EASY WAY... BUY YOUR BONDS THROUGH PAYROLL SAVINGS

AIR COOLED FOR YOUR COMFORT

ONE OF LIFE'S GRAVEST PROBLEMS by Halpert

Things haven't changed a bit since then!

REMEMBER how it took a powerful lot of determination to pass that wonderful store on Sunday morning... and not spend most of that Sunday School nickel for candy?

And... wasn't it pretty much the same when you grew up too? Every payday, you wanted to put aside a few dollars. But you never did. There was always "something" to buy.

In fact, for one reason or another, saving almost seemed impossible until... along came War Bonds and the Payroll Savings Plan!

Then suddenly you discovered it was really easy to save—when your savings were deducted from your pay envelope every week.

Pretty soon, too, you found you were accumulating more savings this way than you ever had before. Like Topsy, your Bond savings just grew and grew.

Well, wouldn't it be a good idea to keep a good thing like this going?

You can still buy U. S. Savings Bonds just as you bought War Bonds—through your Payroll Savings Plan. You get the same safe investment, same high returns; $25 for every $18.75, when the Bonds mature.

And it's certain you'll never find an easier or a surer way to save!

SAVE THE EASY WAY... BUY YOUR BONDS THROUGH PAYROLL SAVINGS

Oil Company Planning New Florida Well

Kissimmee (FNS)—The Humble Oil Co. announced last week that a new exploratory well is to be started about five miles south of Kenansville on the W. F. Hayman ranch. Hayman is agricultural agent of Polk county. At the same time it was announced that the Ray Carroll No. 1 well on the Carroll ranch between Kissimmee and Melbourne is now down 6,607 feet. Drilling at this well is proceeding at a good rate and it is expected indications of oil will be reached within the next 60 days.

The Hayman well may revive the village of Anoxsee, as the closest rail connection. It is located on the Florida East Coast Railway five miles east of Kenansville.

Resin Coating Newest DDT Development

Newest thing in the DDT bug-killing business, and hopefully the last word on the use of DDT in the home—is a colorless synthetic resin liquid which promises to make the use of DDT by housewives safer, more permanent and practically fool-proof. Since DDT consists of microscopic crystals which kill insects on contact with their feet, the problem for its use in homes has been how to place and securely hold these crystals on surfaces where bugs will touch them.

Chemists worked for a solid year on a DDT binder-coating and found one that not only binds the crystals but permits them to "migrate" to the surface at a controlled rate for months to keep the coating lethal. Early in their search, chemists discarded kerosene because it was swelly, greasy, inflammable, easily rubbed off and didn't permit migration.

All this is according to W. Earl Harden, manager of the Sherwin-Williams branch store at 1907 Ponce de Leon Blvd., whose word is backed up by the world's largest paint and insecticide manufacturers. He also says that the coating, although not a paint, is so durable that two applications per season mean bug-free homes.

Brushed onto screens, light fixtures, porch ceilings, etc., this new resin coating, called Pestroy, dries quickly, leaving an almost invisible film. Flies, mosquitoes, fleas, ants, moths, roaches and bed bugs are almost instantly paralyzed as the "lipoids" of their feet touch the exposed DDT crystals. Yet a child cannot rub off enough DDT to cause harm even if he puts his fingers in his mouth immediately after, chemists say.

The new DDT coating, said to be the only one of its kind on the market, contains 6 per cent DDT. Indoors, it is said to remain effective at least three months; outdoors, at least a month.

Since Sherwin-Williams feels that much of the confusion on the use of DDT in the home stems from various attempts to make an all-purpose DDT insecticide, they have developed a Pestroy powder, too, for use around fabrics and in "hard-to-get-at" cracks and crannies. It contains 10 per cent DDT and a chemical "bug-flasher" called piperonyl-butoxide which flushes insects out of hiding and into the lethal DDT, much as tear gas operates on humans.

Brooklyn Indians

LOOKS LIKE A SCENE FROM UNDERNEATH THE WESTERN STARS, but it's just a couple from a colony of more than 500 Mohawk Indians who make their homes in the Gowanus section of Brooklyn, according to an article in the July issue of Cosmopolitan magazine. They meet frequently to discuss tribal affairs in their native tongue. Most of the "braves" are structural steel workers who make wampum at the rate of $2.25 an hour. Where do they get that stuff "Lo the poor Indian?"

Larsons Cover 6,000 Miles See 11 States on Trip

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Larson and their children of 910 Santiago Street have just returned from a six thousand mile tour of eleven states. They left here the second week in June for the dual purpose of a family vacation and to place their oldest son Billy in Camp Tahosa, a Boy Scout camp located not far from Boulder, Col.

where he will remain until the latter part of August.

During their trip they motored to the top of Pike's Peak, toured Rocky Mountain National Park, crossed the Continental Divide, visited the world's highest bridge across the Royal Gorge of the Arkansas River, Hot Springs National Park and other points of interest.

Commenting on the trip Mr. Larson said: "The trip would be very enjoyable to anyone like our youngsters who had never seen mountains or snow. We would also recommend such a trip to anyone who complains about the heat and high prices in this vicinity. Denver claims their weather is the hottest in 75 years. Prices probably are not out of line but certainly are not lower than here.

"There seemed to be no scarcity of butter most places and plenty of canned fruits farther west, but meat was scarce everywhere. The passing of OPA seemed to have little effect on prices as the American public seems to be intelligent enough and cooperative enough to keep prices down of their own accord."

Mr. Larson intends to resume his work of selling and servicing radios which was his specialty before entering war work.

On Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Ellis, 1234 Capri Street, are on an extensive vacation trip. They left July 3 by plane for California, where they will visit Mrs. Ellis' former home in San Diego and Coronado. Before returning they will visit in Mexico City and Guatemala City.

Vets Hospital Seeks Nurses Aides Here

The need for Red Cross Nurses' Aide service at the Nautilus Veterans' Administration Hospital was made known today by Mrs. Beverly Stevens, Red Cross field director, to officials of the Dade County Red Cross chapter.

At least 6 nurses aides each week has been requested by Col. William Kendall, commanding officer. They are needed, he stated, during the afternoon from 1 to 4:30, and also in the evening after 7 p. m. This makes it possible for business women who have received the Red Cross nurses aide training course, to volunteer their services at the hospital.

Although the Dade County chapter, according to Henry E. Mangels, chairman, has trained 1,043 nurses' aides, many of them were wives of servicemen and no longer reside in this area. At present there are only approximately 75 active aides on the chapter's rolls.

Watson Suggests Change of Rules For State Guard
If the Florida State Guard is to pay back the federal government for mackinaws and other items taken by men when they left the guard, one of the rules under which the Guard operates should be changed. Attorney General J. Tom Watson so ruled in an opinion to State Auditor Bryan Willis. The auditor said company commanders are held responsible for lost equipment, but that such losses could be paid out of current expense funds modifying the rules.

Ink 'Passes'

JOLIET, Ill.—A laundry-marking technique employing "invisible" ink has solved the Joliet Youth Center's problem of keeping track of its teen-age guests.

The civic club, sponsors of the Youth Center, found a filing card system too slow to check in and out the 600 to 700 youngsters who flock to dances and other social functions on Friday and Saturday nights. The laboratories of the American Institute of Laundering which has headquarters here, suggested laundry marks and supplied the necessary stamp, ink and lighting equipment.

Now, when the youngsters check in at the center for an evening, the palm of one hand (the left on Friday and the right on Saturday nights) is stamped with an ink that is visible only under a special "black" light. If the guest leaves the building during the evening and returns, he passes his hand under the light to show the sponsor that he is registered for the evening.

Banner Year
Is Anticipated
By Sugar Company

Cleokiston — If growing conditions continue favorable, executives of the United States Sugar Corporation are expecting another banner year, surpassing even the past season's record breaking crop, according to Josiah Ferris,
Jr., assistant to the president.

Conditions so far have been ideal he says with the new cane growing far better than was expected.

Exceptional care is being taken in the overhauling of all the company's equipment to insure everything being in readiness for the coming season.

Kindred tastes, motives, and aspirations are necessary to the formation of a happy and permanent companionship.
