14-UNIT APARTMENT GETS CPA APPROVAL; 4-UNIT ALSO OKAYED

$60,000 STRUCTURE PLANNED AT MALAGA AND HERNANDO; R. K. COOPER IS BUILDER

CPA approval for the construction of a 14-unit apartment house at Avenue Malaga and Hernando Street was revealed this week by L. W. Robinson, Jr., director of public service.

Robinson stated that a permit had been applied for to construct the $60,000 structure by R. K. Cooper, Upton C. Ewing was listed as architect.

Approval of the CPA was also given to an $18,000 four-unit apartment which will be constructed by Andrew Cambiague at 215 Avenue Sotomayor. George Fink designed the building.

Application was also made for a permit to construct a $15,000 residence at 4600 Alhambra Circle by the Sandman Co. Babcock and Lamont will build the residence which was designed by Earl V. Wolf. The structure has been approved by CPA.

Lions Club Endorses Hospital

Civic Group Pledges Aid To Doctors

Plan of a group of local physicians to construct a 100-room hospital in Coral Gables gained approval of the Coral Gables Lions Club this week.

The Lions, by means of a resolution, went on record as endorsing the move, and pledged the club's cooperation to bring the construction of the hospital to speedy completion.

The Lions followed the lead of the Coral Gables Chamber of Commerce, which last week unqualifiedly endorsed the project.

The doctors met again last evening to further plans for the hospital. It was revealed that conferences had been held with officials of the University of Miami, who also evidenced interest in the project.

While no definite site has been selected as yet, it is understood that the choice has been narrowed down to two or three locations and that architects plans have been revised and are near completion.

The doctors plan to finance the hospital through issuing stock, and much of the construction cost has already been underwritten by the physicians themselves.

Carl's-Taylor's Named to Play In Tournaments

Softball teams sponsored by Carl's Liquor Store and Taylor's Sport Shop will represent Coral Gables in the district and Gold Ball tournaments, it was announced today by Ed Beckman, athletic director of the Coral Gables War Memorial Youth Center.

Taylor's won the high school trophy in the first league series while Carl's is leading the present league play with three wins and no defeats.

The district tourney will be held in Miami the week of August 12 while the Gold Ball competition is slated for the week of August 19.

Both teams will get warm-up games in off-league games this week-end. Taylor's will play the Boys Club of Miami in that city this evening while Carl's will again meet the Boca Raton Bombers on the Youth Center field next Sunday afternoon.

Carl's journeyed to Boca Raton to trounce the Bombers two weeks ago and again beat them 5-1-1 in a return game in Coral Gables last Sunday. The Bombers have chosen to play in Coral Gables again next Sunday.

In the league play, Carl's defeated Taylor's in a thrilling 2-1 game last Thursday that wasn't decided until the last inning. Delicate Frank's team is in third place in the league with Embury-Riddle fourth.

In the Midlet League, Daniels and Coral Way Flower Shop are neck-and-neck for the league lead with Dewey's coming third. As of Wednesday, Daniels and Coral Way Flower both had six wins and one defeat.

In the Mite League, My Brothers Place is tied with the Bootery.

Funeral Rites Observed for Josiah Jephson

JOSIAH JEPHSON

Funeral services were conducted at 7:30 Monday evening in the Philbrick Funeral Home for Josiah Jephson, 63, who died early Monday morning in a local hospital following an operation.

"Doc," as he was known to most Gableites, was owner of the Jephson Pharmacy on Ponce de Leon Boulevard, coming here from Cleveland, Ohio, where he was prominent in drug circles.

In 1938 he was elected president of the Northern Ohio Drugists' Association and also general convention chairman for the Ohio State Pharmaceutical Association. He was born in England.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Carrie Jephson of Coral Gables; a daughter, Mrs. Jeanette Bendings, Coral Gables; a son, Richard E. Jephson of Cleveland and a brother, Harry Jephson of Cleveland. He lived at 1428 Cadiz Street.

Following the services on Monday the remains were sent to Cleveland for burial.

Police Issue Warning to Recklessness

Following a week during which nine accidents, in which eight persons were injured, occurred, Coral Gables police yesterday declared a war on reckless driving and warned the public that all violators would be arrested.

"A survey of the traffic accident records shows an increase of accidents and a seeming disregard for the traffic regulations," Police Capt. L. C. Reeve stated. "All members of the police department have been instructed to conduct a stringent enforcement of all traffic regulations and issue a summons to all violators of these regulations."

Reeve said that property damage resulting from the accidents amounted to $4,500.

Most serious accident of the week occurred on Monday evening when a car driven by 18-year-old Gerald Seidler, 4331 S. W. 14th Street, crashed into a Miami fire department emergency truck at S. W. 8th Street and Ponce de Leon Boulevard, sending three firemen and three youths to the hospital. Seidler faces reckless driving charges when he recovers.

Two persons were injured when cars driven by Mrs. F. C. Cole, Miami Beach and Ralph Coleman of Miami collided at North Greenway Drive and Coral Way on Tuesday evening.

Henry Malcolm of Homestead was slightly injured when he fell asleep Monday evening while driving on South Dixie Highway and crashed into a tree.

Mysterious Meanderings of Moth-Eaten Moose Head Become Ultimate in Gables Chain Letter Idea

The ultimate in the chain letter idea has hit Coral Gables! As a matter of fact, it hit Rees Marshall, Sr., yesterday afternoon when a large crate, approximately five feet by five feet was delivered to his doorstep by a truck, which sped away rapidly when the package was deposited.

Upon opening the mysterious package, a large, moth-eaten and otherwise deteriorated moose head balefully met his startled gaze. Attached to one of the huge antlers was a scroll, that after it was read, unraveled the mystery surrounding his unheralded "gift."

It seems Mr. Marshall was not the first person in Coral Gables to receive the moose head. It all started several months ago when Al Harum, publisher of The Riviera, bought a house.

Upon moving into the house, he discovered the moose head hanging on the porch. For weeks the unsightly monster leered at the Harum family as they entered their new abode, and for weeks they pondered ways and means of getting rid of it.

Then golden opportunity knocked loudly. The occasion was the Fourth of July, the opportunity was a surprise party being given for Jim Moore, Riviera

Building Inspector Is Ousted; Undecided on Appeal to Board

FEDERAL FUNDS ALLOCATED FOR STORM DRAIN CONTROL

Businessmen Demand Aid In Petition

Merchants Cite Damage To Stores By Heavy Rain

A federal loan of $7,540 for an engineering survey and preparation of plans and specifications for a storm drainage system for Coral Gables was approved in Washington this week, City Manager William T. McIlwain reported yesterday.

The word of the government loan came on the heels of a petition, presented to the city commission Tuesday, demanding that immediate relief be given Ponce de Leon Boulevard merchants from high water occasioned by heavy rainfall. The petition was signed by 34 merchants in the area of Ponce de Leon Boulevard and Alhambra Circle, the lowest point in the business district.

The petition was presented to the commission by Bowman Hinkley of the Joseph Nauss Real Estate office and Dewey Klein of Dewey's Jewelry Store.

The petitioners referred particularly to the rain on July 24, which flooded the Renhart Arcade and adjacent stores because the storm drainage system was not adequate to take care of the water.

The city had received a previous loan of $12,500 from the Federal Works Administration to prepare plans for a sanitary sewage system, and both projects will be carried out simultaneously, McIlwain said yesterday.

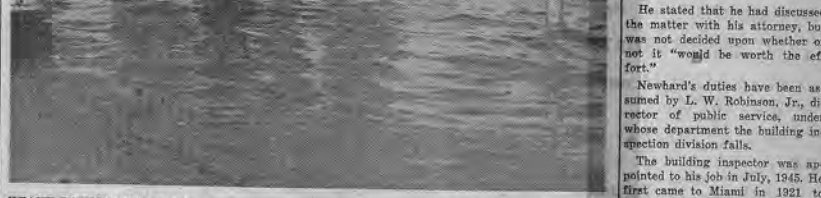

Commenting on the condition Vice Mayor W. Keith Phillips stated "We are just as anxious as the merchants to remedy the situation as soon as possible."

Low Flying Plane Control Is Studied

The possibility that the city may enact an ordinance in an attempt to control low flying aircraft over the city was foreseen this week when a study of the possibility was ordered by the city commission.

The city commission Tuesday ordered the city attorney to investigate to see if such legislation is feasible and also to study a recent supreme court decision relating to property owners' rights to the air above the land they own.

The city manager was also told to seek assistance from Dr. Henry E. Anderson, president of the Florida Air Pilots Association, when he reported that letters to the Port Authority and the CAA brought no results.

HEAVY DOWNPOURS on July 24 brought about this condition at the Renhart Arcade, Ponce de Leon Boulevard and Alhambra Circle. The floods also brought a vigorous protest and a petition from merchants in the area who stated that their stores were damaged by the water which rose over four-inch sills. Passing cars caused waves which washed it still higher into store rooms, soaking rugs and fixtures.

Air Maneuvers Pays Back Part Of Sponsor's Money

Coral Gables investment in the All-American Air Maneuvers resulted in a return of $91.06 this week. The city, along with other Dade County municipalities, underwrote part of the expenses of the maneuvers with the understanding that if there were any profits, the money would be returned.

This week the city received a check from George N. Shaw, treasurer of the committee, for $91.06, what was left of the city's $250. Shaw explained that it had been possible to return 36.48 per cent of the underwriting amounts to the various municipalities.

University Enrollment Hits Total of 1,268

Total registration for the University of Miami's second summer session reached 1,268 yesterday it was announced by J. Malcolm Seal, registrar.

Registration is now closed for persons seeking credit but registration for the adult courses are still being accepted.

U. S. Must Lead World Or War with Russia

The day will come when the United States will have to protect its personal freedom through the assumption of world leadership or by war with Russia, Robert H. Gibbons, former colonel in Army Intelligence, told members of the Coral Gables Lions Club this week.

"The Russians are sincere in their quest for world democracy and world peace, but their conception of these terms are entirely different from ours," Gibbons said.

"The Russian 'democracy' consists in government of 200 million people by 600,000 members of the Communist Party," Gibbons told the Lions.

"It is not inconceivable that Russia thinks that the 30,000 Communists in this country might some day dominate our 130 million people," the former colonel said. "With their clever methods of propaganda it becomes a matter for us to watch carefully."

The speaker pointed to Russia's attitude in the United Nations conferences as an example of their use of that body to place that nation in a position of world domination.

"We should all hope that Secretary of State Jimmy Byrnes' recent defiance of Molotov at the peace conference will continue," Gibbons said.

The speaker was the guest of Clyde Higgins, program chairman for the day. Ira C. Haycock presided.

Body in Canal Found by Police

Coral Gables police Tuesday afternoon found the body of Victor Savage Allen, 65, in the Coral Gables canal south of Miller Road. A jack was tied to his waist.

Allen had been missing from his Coconut Grove home since Monday.

Anti-Sabotage Work Told by FBI Agent

Members of the Coral Gables Junior Chamber of Commerce last evening heard Henry L. McCann, assistant special agent in charge of the Miami FBI office, describe the work of the G-Men in combating sabotage during the war. The meeting was held at the Country Club of Coral Gables.

It was also reported that over 100 attended the Jaycee victory party held August 1st at Fox's Restaurant in South Miami.

Geo. Newhard Confers with Attorney

McIlwain Reveals Twenty-five Counts Against Official

The dismissal of George Newhard, city building inspector, was revealed this week by City Manager William T. McIlwain. He stated that Newhard had been ousted on 25 counts of inefficiency in his office.

Newhard, confined to his 529 Avenue Navarre residence with a sprained back, told The Riviera Wednesday, that he had not reached a decision as to whether he would ask a hearing before the city's Trial Board, created this year to hear differences between city employees and the city government.

He stated that he had discussed the matter with his attorney, but was not decided upon whether or not it "would be worth the effort."

Newhard's duties have been assumed by L. W. Robinson, Jr., director of public service, under whose department the building inspection division falls.

The building inspector was appointed to his job in July, 1945. He first came to Miami in 1921 to work in the county engineer's office. In 1924 he collaborated with Demman Fink on the construction of the Venetian Pool.

In 1932 he became associated with Peare & Connell, architectural engineers, remaining with them until 1942, when he joined the United States Engineers. While with the engineers, he supervised air strip and runway construction at Buckingham, Inglekole, Lakeland and Miami Air spots.

City to Name Sports Director In Two Weeks

Appointment of a municipal director of recreation is expected within the next two weeks, City Manager William T. McIlwain revealed yesterday.

McIlwain stated that applications for the positions are now in the process of being reviewed and that there was a strong possibility that a recommendation would be acted upon at the next meeting of the city commission on August 20.

The recreation director will be in charge of Seladores Park and other city recreational facilities, and will act as a coordinator of all recreational and athletic programs in the community, including programs carried out at the Coral Gables Memorial Youth Center.

Prevention of Boom 'Skeletons' Studied by City

Study of a plan whereby persons wishing to erect buildings in Coral Gables must post some kind of a completion bond to insure the finishing of the structure was ordered Tuesday by the city commission.

The plan was proposed by Frank Katzenine of Station WKAT, who wrote to all municipalities and civic groups in the area, suggesting the idea. Katzenine stated that his proposal was to narrow boom-time skeletons that marred the terrain after the 1928 land boom.

Members of the Coral Gables Junior Chamber of Commerce last evening heard Henry L. McCann, assistant special agent in charge of the Miami FBI office, describe the work of the G-Men in combating sabotage during the war. The meeting was held at the Country Club of Coral Gables.

It was also reported that over 100 attended the Jaycee victory party held August 1st at Fox's Restaurant in South Miami.

Coral Gables Selected as U. of Chicago Exam Center

CHICAGO (Special)—Coral Gables is one of 61 examination centers throughout the United States designated by the University of Chicago to facilitate students who wish to qualify for admission to the Midway university. Robert C. Voellner, director of examinations and placement at the university, announced today.

An administrative unit to deal with the entrance tests, an examination in general education, the centers will hold examinations five times a year. Entrance and general education tests are scheduled for four times during the year and scholarship examinations once a year.

The first tests, entrance and general education tests for fall and subsequent quarter admission, will be held at the centers August 6 and 17. Tests will again be presented in November.

The entrance examinations, determining the student's ability to earn, not what he already knows, will be given to students desiring to enter either the college or the divisions of the university. The college, the university's undergraduate program, admits students after their sophomore year in high school for a four-year program in general education.

Students desiring to enter the divisions of the university for graduate work will take, in addition to the entrance test, an examination in general education. Veterans and mature students, who have reached the age of 25 but who may or may not have completed two years of college, are also eligible to qualify for work on the graduate level.

On the basis of scores made on both the entrance and general education tests, the mature student may demonstrate that either by informal or formal study he has already attained a general education approximate to that which is required of a student in the college. If the applicant passes the two tests, he will be permitted to enter an upper division of the university without first completing the program in the college.

The schedule of examinations for 1947 in the 61 centers will be: February 14-15, entrance and general education test; April 19, scholarship examinations; May 16-17, August 16-17, and Novem-

George Grotz Is Named to Safety Post

Progress is being made on Governor Caldwell's state-wide plan for highway safety by the assignment to Florida by the National Safety Council of George Grotz, who is a member of the technical staff taking part in the recent conference held by President Truman. Grotz will assist the planning group recently named by the governor. A state-wide meeting of all organizations and agencies interested in highway safety will be held shortly and a final and definite set of objectives will be adopted.

Charles R. Foster, dean of the school of education, University of Miami, is in charge of the center. Students wishing to take examinations at the center should first apply for admission to the director of admissions at the University of Chicago.

Joe Benoit Invents Mower For High Grass

Several members of the Country Club of Coral Gables who have returned from vacations to find their grass grown knee-high have been highly pleased with the invention of fellow-member Joe Benoit. Joe has mounted an electric motor on his regular lawn mower and uses it to drive the blades. It differs from the regular power lawn mower in that the motor does not drive the mower itself but only the blades. As a result it will cut very high grass and is usually effective for trimming. The gears between the wheels and motor blades ordinarily used for rotating the blades have been completely removed so the mower pushes very easily.

Arriving Monday by plane from Havana, Cuba, were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hidalgo Gato, who will be the house guests of Miss Paquita Rahel of 912 Avenue Sorolla for several days.

BUSINESS... IS PICKING UP

And so we have a newcomer in our midst... that is, he is new to some of you but to our older customers he is like a lost sheep returning to the fold because he was with us for some time before being snatched away by the U. S. Army Engineers for service in French Guiana, the Azores and many other far away places where he performed nobly for three years.

Yes, this fellow with the contagious looking smile and the spray gun in his hand is none other than Jack Britton, born some 42 years ago in Indiana, married and the proud father of a boy and a girl. And, tell me... Why is it that so many good mechanics are Hoovers? — guess it must be the influence of the Indianapolis Speedway — because Jack was hardly out of short pants before he was taking a course in Automobile mechanics at the Technical High School.

After graduating, he worked around in various garages for a number of years and finally landed himself a good job with the Chevrolet and Oldsmobile dealer in Ocala, Florida, where he was service manager for nine years... and from there he came to us and stayed quite a time or until the Engineers caught up with him and said "Come along Jack".

Having plenty of knowledge about his ability as an all around automobile mechanic we were glad to welcome him back... At present he is in charge of our painting and body department and if there is anyone in the Miami area who can take a beat-up, twisted, rusty, pre-war model car and make it look like it just came off the assembly line — it's Jack... really folks, he's Top!

So... If you can't get a new automobile you'd be wise to bring the family jalopy in and let Jack give it the works — you'll be just as proud of his work as we are — and then next Sunday morning you can drive right up to Clutch instead of parking three blocks away.

CORAL GABLES RIVIERA

Publishing every Friday morning by the Riviera Publishing Company, 100 Avenue of the Americas, Coral Gables, Fla. Established January 1925, consolidated with the Dade County & Coconut Grove Times, 1929.

NATIONAL EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION 1946 Active Member

SUBSCRIPTIONS: $2.00—Six months, $2.00; One year, $3.50; Out-of-town, $4.75. Entered as Second Class Matter May 21, 1935, at the Post Office at Miami, Fla., under the Act of March 3, 1979.

What Each of Us Does

"Labels such as State, industry, nationalization in themselves mean little," said Herbert Morrison in a recent talk. "Whether these things work, whether they give us what we all so firmly desire, all depends on the sum of what each of us does."

"What can we do? A baker said, 'I can begin with my own home, my own bakery and my own industry. I can try to make them models of what homes and bakeries and industry should be in a democracy.'"

Hotel or Hospital?

Members of the Home Service Corps of the Red Cross receive letters from frantic parents and sweethearts whose soldier boys are in the Biltmore Hospital in Coral Gables. They know it as the Pratt General Hospital, but we will always think of it as the Biltmore.

To reassure these anxious home folks, a description of the place might suffice. The storied edifice of the former Miami Biltmore Hotel is a dominant note of grandeur in the harmony of color, which is Coral Gables. The 1946 guest list is more exclusive than ever. The clientele is restricted to members of the Army who have suffered casualties in line of duty.

OUR TOWN

Mysterious Migration

By Jim Moore

Have you ever heard the story of the mysterious migrations of the lemmings? A lemming is a little beast, resembling a chipmunk to some extent, that inhabits the northern latitudes. Most of the time the lemmings live rather routine lives, raise their families, feed their stomachs and poke about doing a lot of dull and unnewsworthy things.

But every now and then, at rather regular intervals, some strange urge gets into the lemming tribe and the whole darned kit and kaboodle of them ups and starts moving. Home and family life are forgotten as the little rodents head for their objectives. Over streams, across lakes and through towns they stream in countless thousands until they reach the sea.

Ben Turner Heads Gables Safety Group; Commissioner Phillips in County Post

A preview of how community and business leaders will lift Dade county out of the unenviable position or having one of the worst accident rates of any community of similar size in the country, was given today by Leonard P. Ireland, president of the Dade County Safety Council, when he announced completion of organization details of the council.

OPINIONS AND COMMENT

"It is for leaders of thought action in nations of the world now to determine among themselves whether their hearts are strong enough to make the spitting of the heart of the atom a means of improving conditions of life on an earth beginning a new era or utterly to destroy what faith and works have been achieved in the history of civilization."—Sir Richard Gregory, British astronomer.

Speaking of the present situation, Mme. Sun Yat-Sen, widow of the founder of the Chinese republic—"Every person with human feeling must speak out... the present crisis is not a question of who wins—Kuomintang or Communist. It is a question of Chinese people and their unity, liberty and livelihood."

"The atomic bomb destroyed the soul of Japan. What has happened to the soul of the destroying nation is yet too early to see."—Mohandas K. Gandhi.

"What I dislike most is seeing all those young whippersnappers going about trading husbands and wives as if they were selecting clothes."—Mrs. Kathryn N. Luce of Buffalo on her 100th birthday.

"We are of one mind that America must never return to isolation. However difficult may be the paths of international cooperation, we know there can be no security in isolation."—Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, upon his departure for the Paris Peace Conference.

"American universities, colleges, schools are all interested (in UN) in such a way that we are constantly sending them documents"

BRIEFS IN THE NEWS

Monkey Shines: There's monkey business in Atlanta. The monkey along with his master landed in the cooler on a disorderly conduct charge. The monk wasn't bothered much though—in fact, according to last reports he was using the bars for a trapeze.

This Little Piggy Went AWOL: Because pigs don't swim; because Pig No. 311 was not wet when found; and because no one was positive that Pig No. 311 was actually aboard the Jap cruiser Sakawa when the A-bomb dropped on the test fleet in Bikini lagoon; observers have come to the conclusion that Pig No. 311 was AWOL from his post when he appeared unharmed aboard a small boat which was delivering a number of animals removed from the target ships.

Just a Cutup: Willie Mealer, age two, is resting comfortably in a St. Louis hospital after chewing up and swallowing part of a razor blade and a length of bailing wire.

Rats Jailed: Three rats are living the life of Riley in an El Monte, Calif., county jail, where they dine on cheese at the taxpayers' expense while waiting to "testify" at the trial of three carnival operators. Seems that the rats were used in a game of chance, where the player bet on a rat hole.

Doc Says Here

Jim Lindley is having a tough time explaining away the bandage on his head, and all because of a photograph. The truth of the matter is that he had a minor surgical operation on his cranium that necessitated him having it swathed in bandages like some Hindu swami. He also had a wedding anniversary, and as a gag, a friend snapped a picture of Jim and the missus—Jim in his bandage and Mrs. Lindley with a rolling pin in her hand. Now, everytime Jim tries to tell anybody the real story of his painful pate, they say: "Oh, yeah? I heard about the picture!"

And speaking about heads, did you ever heard about R. C. Willey finding $7,000 in a woman's hair? It's the truth and it happened a long time ago in LaGrande, Oregon. A trio had been arrested on a robbery charge, and $7,000 of the loot was still undiscovered. One of the three, a woman, was suspected but wouldn't talk. Willey, noticing that the woman wore a large roll of hair, suggested to the police that they investigate. There was the missing $7,000 hidden in the hair-do and right in the jail all of the time!

The Jaycees are a little indignant about our reprinting that piece from their bulletin in this column that made certain references to bars and the imbibing of alcoholic beverages. We realize that the piece in the bulletin was all in fun and it was reprinted here in the same spirit—spirit, that is—not spirits... The reason Doc Sheetz is shaking hands with his left hands these days is that he burned his right thumb frying fish... Our vacationing mayor, Tom Mayes, has reached Quebec, according to a report received by Wendel Summer. Tom attended a Kiwanis meeting up there and reported that one week the meeting is held in English and the next week in French... You should have seen a six-year-old trying to sell an avocado for a nickel to Lonnie Dowling in Jepson's the other morning... Some of the Lion's Club members are still jittery from their last week's meeting when D. W. Thornton brought out a bag full of live snakes. Larry Larson got a little snake venom in a cut on his hand that had him a little worried. It made a red streak up his arm in no time... Clyde Higgins was recently made a member of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers... The police radio is operating more efficiently since a broadcast antenna was installed on the Biltmore tower.

Mary Helm Clarke is reading a series of articles on Coral Gables oddities which will be published in the Riviera soon. More about this later... Helen Holley's literary agent wired this week for some pictures of her to use in conjunction with publicity about her new novel, "Blood on the Beach"... John Halifax fell all puffed up the other day when Charlie Miller introduced him to a group of men as "the most promising young man in town." That was before Charlie added, "He's promised a new car to everybody in the community."

Doc Davis sent us a nautical postcard from San Francisco... The managing editor would like to know who sent him the enamelware "cupidor" he found under his desk the other day... Mrs. Otto Held and Joseph H. P. Klein both wired this week to agree heartily that something must be done about those low-flying airplanes. In fact, their remarks inspired the cartoon on this page this week.

Joseph Nauss really plays up the sunshine on his real estate company letterheads. A brilliant, yellow, shining sun dominates the upper left-hand corner, while the bottom of the page bears the legend, "Health, Life, Comfort"... The country club cat sent a huge boxer pug scooting the other day with a well-placed swipe on the nose... Tom Q. Smith phoned Tuesday to thank us for printing his Rambler praises of the 21st Anniversary Supplement. He should be thanking us!

Billy McIlwain, who carried the bride's ring at the recent Mary Ann Moore-H. S. Zadikow nuptials, expressed a preference for Mary Ann's ring. "I don't wanna carry the 'broom's ring," he bluntly stated... If anyone knows when Bill Barr is coming back from his vacation, please contact this office.

We know a young lady in town who receives a dollar bill in each letter from her mother... the agreement is that, should the dollar be missing from one of the letters, the Gables daughter will know there's something wrong at home... and there are occasions, too, when the dollar bill looks pretty good... Chief Willmuth and Dick Handrahan, Bostonians both, use the Riviera office frequently in their operation of the Trailer News, which is printed in the Riviera plant... a recent visitor thought Handrahan quite rude for mimicking Cliff's "pahk" instead of park, not realizing they came from the same rhetorical pod... a Country Club collection to buy Al Harum a coat to wear at the Sat. night dances yielded: four nails, five rubber bands, sixteen bottle caps, ten damaged peanuts, one IOU and (believe it or not) two quarters and one hundred twenty-eight pennies.

Police Judge C. S. Robertson was well enough to be driven by the Riviera office for a short visit last week... Dr. and Mrs. George Panik call their North Carolina cottage "Baulk's Peak"... For the past several days the employees at the Chamber of Commerce have been started by a woman who pokes her head in the window each afternoon and shouts "What times does the Red Adams bus leave?" After this had occurred three times they presented the woman with a bus schedule. The next day, same time, in came the head, shouting as usual, "What time does the Red Adams bus leave?" "But we gave you a schedule yesterday," protested the C. of C. office force. "Can't read!" shouted the woman... The Veterans' Committee at the U. of Miami and the Chamber are readying a campaign to locate rooms for students in September.

Getting out a newspaper is probably a whole lot like being happily married. If a guy knew what he was getting in to, he wouldn't, but since he wouldn't think of quitting—Ellaville, Ga., Sun.

"The piano of tomorrow, made of plastics and aluminum, will be so light an adult may lift it with ease."—Newspaper filler. In this plastic age it won't be long before any item of household furniture and equipment will be light enough to use in a domestic quarrel.—Bridgeport Post.

LOTS

There is no special mystery to them, but the layman usually experiences quite a lot of trouble in trying, unaided, to find what he wants.

But from our many years of experience dealing in Coral Gables real estate we know where there are a few choice lots still available and awaiting your inspection... Some with beautiful oaks on them, others on lovely palm lined avenues or fronting on our waterways.

We believe our facilities for handling lots in Coral Gables are second to none, and we invite your enquiries. Jack Bowen, Helen Pennock, E. W. Pica and Esther Sullivan.

Polio Week Is Outlined By Cleary

A. J. Cleary, chairman of the Dade County Chapter of the National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis, told the Rotary Club, Friday, some of the things that organization is doing in treating patients in the polio ward at Jackson Memorial Hospital and of their efforts to prevent the spread of polio in Dade County.

Cleary is a volunteer worker and has served as chairman of the local chapter for the past six years. He gave the following figures to show that the number of polio cases in the county has increased each year for the past six years:

1941	None
1942	Very Few
1943	12
1944	33
1945	58
1946 (to date)	98

In the polio ward at Jackson Memorial Hospital they have eight iron lungs and other modern equipment for treating polio patients. At one time during the present epidemic seven iron lungs were in use at one time and 66 nurses were on duty. Cleary reported the following number of patients now in the polio ward: 37 from Dade County, 2 from Broward County and 7 from Key West. Patients treated from outside of Dade County include 9 from Key West, 1 from Sarasota, 6 from Broward County, 2 from Everglades County and 1 from Putnam County. Of the patients dismissed from the hospital very few will have permanent scars of polio.

Cleary explained there was no red tape involved in entering a patient in the polio ward at Jackson Memorial Hospital. The local chapter takes charge of the patient and the parents are relieved of all details for giving the patient the best treatment to be obtained at no expense. Cleary said some parents, who are financially able, wish to pay in full or in part for the expense involved. Those wishing to do so may make a voluntary contribution to the local chapter.

Money to support the Foundation of Infantile Paralysis is raised at the President's Birthday Ball given each year; the march of dimes campaign and voluntary contributions. In the past year Dade County raised $130,000 for this fund. $33,000 of this amount was raised by the school children in the county. 50 per cent of the money remains with the local chapter and 50 per cent goes to the National Foundation.

During the present epidemic the local chapter ran short of funds and requested the grant of $100,000 from the National Foundation. The money was received within 48 hours from the time it was requested.

Cleary said Dr. Robert Keiser of Coral Gables was recognized as one of the outstanding polio experts in the country. Dr. Keiser has examined and supervised treatment of all patients in the polio ward at Jackson Memorial Hospital. Dr. A. H. Welland of Coral Gables is chief consulting physician.

ing the chain, and relates that one person broke the chain and received 584 moose heads.

Hollis Rinehart provided the crate that now cloaks the moose in mystery and selected Ray Westcott as the next recipient. Ernest Galloway of the Galloway Transfer and Storage Company was made a conspirator in the plan, and last Saturday afternoon his truck delivered the crate to the Westcott doorway.

Just who is next on the list of custodians for the Mysterious Moth-Eaten Moose of Coral Gables is up to Mr. Marshall. To date he has made no statement for publication.

Who knows? It may be you!

Editor, The Riviera: I am very much in accord with the efforts of your paper in its endeavor to stop the low-flying aircraft over the Coral Gables area. BUT why not include the fire apparatus in your scope of complaints? I suggest the fire department install mufflers on its equipment—private vehicles must do so.

"Money," solemnly intoned the after-dinner speaker, "isn't everything. It is not money that will heal the pain of a broken heart or put together again the fragments of a broken dream. Money cannot bring happiness to a shattered home nor repair the ravages of a mispent life."
He paused, and then on a more cheerful note he concluded: "I refer, of course, to Confederate money."

The Englishman broke one of the boiled eggs and called the waiter.
"I say, my man," he said, "these eggs are exceptionally small, aren't they?"
"Fraid they are a little sir," replied the waiter.
"And they don't appear to be very fresh," went on the customer.
"Then it's lucky they're small, ain't it, sir?" replied the waiter.

COMPOSING ROOM CONFERENCE

There's many a step twixt the copy and the final printed matter. Above you see Artist M. J. Davis' impression of just one of them, in The Riviera's composing room. Both the linotype operator, who has just cast the last line of type, and the boss man watch anxiously as it is lovingly placed in the "form." There it will be "locked up" and sent to one of the high speed presses where the printed impressions will be made.

We pride ourselves, here at the Riviera plant, in seeing that each step in the process of creating printed matter from customer's copy is watched just as carefully. From lay-out stage to bindery, each operation is given the undivided attention of craftsmen who are highly proficient in their art.

Whether your job be large or small, business cards or complicated color booklets, it will receive the same careful treatment in the Riviera's commercial printing division. Our employees, all members of the Allied Printing Trades Unions, are men who know their jobs, with years of experience in the graphic arts behind them.

Printing, done the Riviera way, is your guarantee of complete satisfaction.

What's your score in this Money quiz?

Q. Will money make the mare go?

A. Yes, sir! Of course it doesn't mean putting your hay-burner on a diet of dollar bills. But this old saying does emphasize the fact that an income of hard, cold cash is necessary for the existence of any individual, any family, any business.

Every dollar you put into Savings Bonds now, assures you an income—in hard, cold cash—later on, when you may want or need it most!

Q. Are a fool and his money soon parted?

A. They usually are! But fortunately you and millions of other Americans are no fools. You've learned that the Payroll Savings Plan is the safest and surest way of piling up dollars for your future. That's why wise Americans keep on buying Bonds through the Payroll Plan—why they keep all the Bonds they buy!

Q. Does it take money to make money?

A. It sure helps! And just about the best way to put your money to work is in U. S. Savings Bonds, where the $75 you invest today will come back as $100 in 10 years.

So, if you want your money to make more money—if you ever expect to have enough to buy a home, or to travel, or to quit work for good—put every dollar you can spare into U. S. Savings Bonds!

MISS MARY ANN MOORE, HARRY SAMUEL ZADIKOW TAKE MARRIAGE VOWS

The candle light chancel of the First Methodist church was the scene Friday night of the marriage of Miss Mary Ann Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Moore, prominent Coral Gables residents, and Harry Samuel Zadikow, son of Mrs. Ralph Schell of Miami and the late Mr. Zadikow. Dr. J. H. Daniel, pastor performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. C. H. Neill sang "Because" and "Always" before the ceremony and Malotte's "The Lord's Prayer" during the service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was pretty in a white lace and mousselin de soie wedding gown made with bouffant skirt over hoops and full court train. Her veil of illusion was held in place with imported orange blossoms and her flowers were orchids and stephanotis. Adding a note of unusual interest the bride was preceded to the chancel by two ring bearers, William T. Mellwin, III, and Richard Blount. The five-year-old boys of the same height wore identical white linen suits and carried small white pillows, each bearing a ring.

Mrs. John Plimmons of Canton, N. C., cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. Her gown of pink marquisette and lace was made with full sweep skirt. Her bouquet was of talisman roses and painted daisies and her headdress of the matching flowers. Miss Joyce McCluney was bridesmaid. She wore an identical dress in blue as the matron's.

Bernard Kirtland was best man. John Plimmons, Richard Lamons and Gene Janier seated the guests.

The bride's mother was in a pale green crepe dinner dress with ribbon and lower chapeau, orchid corsage. Mrs. Schell wore blue and white silk with Dutch cap of (Please Turn to Page Eight).

of the club meeting place, arranging the flowers, and then closing everything up when the meeting is over. That requires a dependable person.

Mrs. Hanks was born Marjorie Johns, in Montgomery, Ala., and five minutes conversation with this attractive girl reveals her true southern accent. She was graduated from Sidney Lanier High School in Montgomery and worked for three years as a secretary in an insurance company. She also studied accounting at the University of Alabama, taking a night course.

She grew up in the same town as her husband, Bill, although he spent more of his time in Dallas, Texas, where his family moved because his father was president of the Praetorian Life Insurance Co. Bill and Marjorie were engaged for almost seven years and have been married and have lived in the Gables for four years.

Mr. Hanks went to England soon after they moved to the Gables, where he ferried planes from reception centers to various fields throughout the British Isles. This was during the first part of the war. While in England he flew 52 different types of planes. When he returned from England he went to work ferrying bombers for the Pan American Air Ferries. At present Mr. Hanks is with the American Air Export and Import Co., a charter service engaged in flying between Puerto Rico, Miami and eastern points.

Mrs. Hanks is tall, five feet seven and one-half inches. This entitled her to pose and participate in the fur style show the club put on last year at the San Juan restaurant; also the tea-dance fashion show at the Roney Plaza tea gardens. At the tea-dance she was awarded a prize—a portrait sitting by a Coral Gables photographer, Harry Emerson. The above photograph of Mrs. Hanks is his work. Mrs. Hanks also worked in the Community Chest and Red Cross drives for the club and sold war bonds at the local theatre booths. She teaches Sunday school at First Methodist Church.

Swimming and horseback riding are two sports she likes and while she does not indulge much in horseback riding in Florida, she does swim a lot.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanks reside at 2413 North Greenway Drive and are the owners of a Great Dane dog named "Thor."

"Thor is just everybody's pet," Mrs. Hanks told your reviewer. "He loves to ride and the Coral Gables police often invite him for a ride with them, then they bring him home."

By HELEN REYNOLDS, SOCIETY EDITOR

Mrs. C. Edwin Klassy has named August "Coral Gables at Lake Minnetonka" month, in a letter to this department. Mr. and Mrs. Klassy, who winter at 1248 Avenue Sorolla, have a summer home on this beautiful lake, one of the largest inland lakes in the country. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. David E. Giffen arrived and Mrs. Klassy entertained at luncheon Tuesday at the Lafayette Club Minneapolis for Mrs. Giffen. On the 10th the foursome expect to spend the week end at Breezy Point Lodge, a resort in northern Minnesota. Dr. and Mrs. Reid Bronson are expected from Chicago later this month at the Klassy's summer home, also Mrs. William L. Huntley, who has been in Rochester, Minn.

Mrs. A. Louis Brown of Crewe, Va., is down for her first visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. Louis Brown, Jr., and also to get acquainted with her new granddaughter, Elizabeth Ellinwood Brown. The junior Mrs. Brown is the former Betty Batcheller, and resides in the guest house at "Sunset Grove," the country home place of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Batcheller. Incidentally the Batchellers have as their house guest their nephew, John W. Springsteen of Forest Hills, N. Y., who will resume his studies at Cooperstown Academy, N. Y., in September.

Dr. and Mrs. Warren Crim, 913 Ferdinand Street, have as their house guest Miss Ollie Steneck of New York City. Miss Steneck, although many times a Miami Beach winter-time visitor, enjoyed her first trip to Florida by plane. She (Please Turn to Page Eight)

Methodist Church Scene Of Chapman-Coker And Zadikow-Moore Nuptials

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howard Chapman returned Tuesday from a brief up-state honeymoon following their marriage Saturday. They will reside in the guest house at 1111 Avenue Sorolla, while the bridegroom attends the second summer semester at the University of Miami. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Martin Coker, 3700 Segovia Street.

The wedding of the couple was solemnized in a beautiful sun-down candle light service before a large group of relatives and friends at 7:30 o'clock at the First Methodist church. Dr. J. H. Daniel performed the ceremony and Nicholas Shpiskie sang "The Lord's Prayer" at the benediction.

Given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Mary Elizabeth Coker wore a white marquisette and lace gown made over hoops with train, full, long and short illusion veil with tiara of seed pearls. Her flowers were a wreath of stephanotis with orchid center. Her four attendants wore identically made gowns of pink marquisette with half halos of flowers in their hair and carried hoops of pink carnations and painted lilies. Mrs. Raymond Hogshead of Apoka, was matron of honor and the Misses Ann Chapman, Jeanne Sherouse and Patricia Lane bridesmaids.

William Hays was best man and groomsmen were William Markley, John Brooks, Don Pero and James Coker.

At the reception following at the Coker home, Miss Betty June Cook, Miss Muriel Cringle and Mrs. Sallie Burrus Girtman assisted. Mrs. William Markley kept the bride's book.

The bride's mother was in pastel green crepe dinnerfrock with orchid corsage. Mrs. Dwight Sheldon, mother of the bridegroom, wore a black and white dinner dress and orchid corsage.

The bride's table was overlaid with a lace cloth and centered with a four-tiered wedding cake. When the couple left for their bridal trip, the new Mrs. Chapman was wearing an aqua raw silk bolera suit with white blouse, matching aqua toque, cherry-coke accessories and a white orchid.

is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Steneck of Lexington Avenue in Gotham.

A honeymoon 20 years ago spent at the Cla Reina Hotel (now the Solana) was a determining factor in bringing Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Blumenbach back to Coral Gables to reside. They have bought the former Whitbeck home, one of the larger one-story tropical designed homes, at 3257 Riviera Drive. Their son, Thomas Earl, 18 years old will attend the University of Miami. The Blumenbachs lived for 11 years in Miami, where Mr. Blumenbach is owner and operator of the Blumenbach Sales Co. (electrical appliances). The family are originally from Cincinnati.

The owners and operators of the Dade Dry Cleaning Co., 121 Aragon, should add "and designers" to their title. Miss Dorothy Skinner and Miss Jerry Lee, the owners, are artists. They feature hand-painting in blouses and dresses, such as the ubiquitous hibiscus-flowers, horse heads or what-have-you. The Misses Skinner and Lee have been making flowers in paper for four years for one of the largest Miami department stores. They have lived in the Greater Miami area for 22 years.

Mrs. Davis Canby entertained at luncheon Saturday at the Country Club honoring Mrs. Dorothy C. Thomas of Alton Road, who is leaving this week for an extended stay in New York. Guests included Mrs. Arthur Dewey, Mrs. C. J. Smith, Mrs. A. J. Wheeler, Mrs. James B. Cross, Mrs. Charles E. Ditzel and Mrs. Jack Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hubbell and daughter, Miss Rosemary Hubbell, who is in government work in the Panama Canal Zone, and who is in the states for her vacation, will leave Monday by motor for Los Angeles, Cal., for a month's vacation. They will visit in Topeka, Kans., enroute.

Gables Girl Is Married In Bayonne

Honeymooning at Miami Beach following their marriage July 14 in Bayonne, N. J., are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Solomon.

Mrs. Solomon is the former Miss Ethel Goldweber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel M. Goldweber, pioneer residents of Coral Gables, who reside at 1256 Avenue San Miguel.

Marriage of the two was solemnized in the same town and same church, Temple Eman-El, in Bayonne, in which the bride's parents said their marriage vows. The former Miss Goldweber met her future husband when she visited relatives in Bayonne, following her honorable discharge from the Woman's Army Corps, last spring.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of lace with full long skirt ending in a train; long pointed at the wrist sleeves. Her veil of illusion was finger-tip length and attached to a halo outlined in pearls. She carried a bible with spray of lilies of the valley and gardenias.

Miss Rita Goldweber in pink marquisette and carrying a colonial bouquet was her sister's maid of honor. Ernest Solomon was best man for his brother, Sergeant Sam Goldweber, Maque Levy, Philip Hymat and Bernard Solomon were ushers.

Mr. Solomon served as a lieutenant in the Army Air Corps four years with overseas record, and is holder of the distinguished flying cross.

Following their Miami Beach stay Mr. and Mrs. Solomon will return to New Jersey, where Mr. Solomon will enter the New York University for the September semester.

Buy Gables Home

Dr. and Mrs. Robert L. Cherry are the recent new owners of the home at 1224 Avenue Milan. Dr. Cherry, released from military duties, has returned to his practice of Oral Surgeon in the DuPont building, Miami. Dr. Cherry worked a great deal with the RAF flyers in London doing plastic surgery during the war. He completed a course at Mayo Brothers, following his discharge from the navy. They are expecting as guests Dr. Cherry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Cherry of Bainbridge, Ga., and Mrs. Cherry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hostetter of Lancaster, Pa. The Cherrys have a young son, Robert L., III, and Dr. Cherry is a member of the Army and Navy club of Coral Gables.

Visit in Michigan

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brice and daughter, Mrs. Harry Craft and her year and a half old daughter, Carolyn, have just returned from a six weeks' vacation in Flint, Mich. Their other daughter, Miss Marjorie Brice is in New York City visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson, Marjorie was graduated in the June class from the University of Miami a Math major. She will visit in Georgian Bay, Canada, for a week before returning home. The Brices own the former Ralston home at 803 Alhambra Circle, which they remodeled extensively before occupancy. Mrs. Brice collects old china and glass as a hobby and among her collection are priceless pieces.

University Of Miami Symphony Plans 19th Season With Famous Guest Artists Booked

Mrs. Marie Volpe, manager of the University of Miami Symphony Orchestra, who has recently returned from New York is most enthusiastic about the outlook for next season. The names of artists who are to appear both on the symphony and on the recital series read like a list from Who Is Who in music.

The University of Miami Symphony Orchestra, now in its 19th year, will again be under the leadership of Modeste Alou with Joel Belov as associate conductor. Last year's experience of giving pairs of subscription concerts on Sunday afternoons and Monday evenings was received with so much favor by the public that the university is going on with the same plans for the coming year. The dates and soloists for the six pair of subscription concerts are:

Sunday afternoon and Monday evening, November 10 and 11, Patricia Travers, young American violinist.
Sunday afternoon and Monday evening, December 9 and 10, Josephine Antoine, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera House.
Sunday afternoon and Monday evening, January 19 and 20, William Kapell, sensational young American pianist.
Sunday afternoon and Monday evening, February 16 and 17, Rafael Lagares, tenor, from the opera houses in Latin-America.

Sunday afternoon and Monday evening, March 16 and 17, Dr. Howard Hanson, guest conductor and composer who will conduct an all-American program which will include the symphonic arrangement of Gershwin's Porgy and Bess.

Sunday afternoon and Monday evening, April 13 and 14, Re-engagement of the popular Puerto Rican pianist, Jesus Maria Sarrama.

The advance sales of tickets is more than double compared with previous years. The subscription prices remain the same. Tickets may be obtained in Coral Gables at the University of Miami Symphony office, and at Amidon's, 220 Alhambra Circle.

lace and sequins, orchid corsage. Mrs. Alice Young, the bride's maternal grandmother, also of Coral Gables, was handsome in black lace.

At the reception following the nuptials at Mr. and Mrs. Moore's home, 1312 Avenue Corolla, Mrs. Robert Edwards served punch; Mrs. Plemmons kept the bride's book. The couple left later by plane for Havana.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Cecil Pless of Asheville, N. C., aunt of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. William Stouting of Hendersonville, N. C., and Miami, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom. A graduate of Ponce de Leon High school, the former Miss Moore attended Rollins College where she was pledged Chi Omega, and the University of Miami. ### Coral Gables Country Club Schedules Second Concert For Tuesday Night In Patio

The second summer concert of the Philharmonic Society of Greater Miami will be held at the Country Club on August 13th. Those who attended the first concert on July 16th will be pleased to know that the same orchestra, under direction of Oliver Washburn, will perform another program of a similar general popular appeal. New lighting effects and a new seating arrangement will add to the enjoyment.

There will be two soloists on this occasion—Judy Nelson, soprano, and Luis Mera, baritone, both pupils of Dr. Arthur di Filippi at the University. They have appeared individually and together at a number of functions in South Florida. They are extremely talented vocalists.

The following program for Tuesday night, August 13th, has been announced by Mr. Washburn: 1. Selections from "Cavalleria Rusticana" . . . . . Mascagni 2. "Bluettes," Op. 22 . . . . . A. Tanalev

(for an all-string orchestra) 3. "Mardi Gras" from the "Mississippi Suite" . . . . . F. Grofe

Gator Students Praise Governor's Building Program

Student officials of the University of Florida have strongly congratulated Governor Caldwell on the recent State Supreme Court decision supporting his views on the appropriation of funds for the state building program.

Harry Parham, president of the student body, and other heads of student organizations in a signed letter to the Governor stated:

"Although your program was opposed by an unpopular minority, this opposition in no way expressed the views of the students of the University of Florida.

"There is already evidence of your far-sighted program here on the campus, represented by a substantial increase in housing for veterans, office space for faculty, increased allotments in the University's operating budget, and the new recreational health and athletic facilities.

"While the arguments advanced by your opponents to the effect that building costs are prohibitive, may be true, we concur in your contention that the human element cannot be measured in dollars and cents."

"COED CONGA" It's the "Coed Conga" tonight from 9 to 12 at the San Sebastian lounge. The informal dance is sponsored by the students at the "U." Chairmen are Ruth Warren and Betty Williams. Three-piece orchestra will play.

POOR BUSINESS "That man," said Smith, "came to this town 20 years ago, bought a hand-barrow and began collecting rags. What do you think he's worth today? 'I couldn't guess,' confessed Jones. "Nothing," said Smith. "And he still owes for the barrow."

Firms Offering Vet Training Must Receive State Approval

Firms offering on-the-job training for veterans must be approved by the state before subsistence allowance can be paid by the Veterans Administration, Vernon S. Parker, manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office, emphasized today.

The VA manager said reports reaching the VA office indicated that many veterans have entered into training with unapproved firms under the erroneous impression that when approval is granted by the state that their checks will be dated back to cover the period from which employment began.

Under the law, Parker said, subsistence checks can not be made retroactive in such cases and veterans can receive subsistence only from the date that approval is actually granted by the state.

The VA manager listed six cardinal rules through which employers and veterans can help make the program a success.

- Veterans should:
1. File an application for education and training with the Veterans Administration prior to entrance into training. Subsistence allowance can not be paid for any training prior to receipt of the application.
  2. Make certain a firm is approved for the desired type of training before beginning work.
  3. Return promptly the certificate of eligibility which is issued by the VA. Subsistence payments can not begin until this certificate has been endorsed by the trainee and the employer and returned to VA.

Employers should:

1. Not accept trainees until they have been approved by the state.
2. Accept no more trainees than the quota established by the State Department of Education and only in fields and objectives approved by the state.
3. Make certain a veteran will actually benefit by a training program and is not using the program as a subterfuge simply to secure subsistence. VA can not approve the so-called "training" of a person in a field in which he is already highly proficient.

Full information about the on-the-job training program may be secured at the VA Contact Office in the Calumet Building or at the Regional Office at Dinner Key.

Country Club Netters Blank Hollywood; Gables is Setting for Return Match Soon

Armstrong contingent of tennis players from the Country Club of Coral Gables journeyed to Hollywood in an inter-city match Sunday and were rewarded by making a clean sweep of the entire match. In the order of their ranking, following are the players and their scores: Jack Waters defeated Paul Henjum, 6-4, 6-3; Frank Esslinger defeated Bill Berry, 6-4, 2-6, 6-2; Dick Bell defeated Frank Dowling, 6-1, 6-1; Larry Larson defeated Dave Droom, 4-6, 6-4, 6-2; Leonard Parke defeated Bill Louis, 6-4, 5-7, 7-5; Dick Macy defeated Kirk Shinn, 6-4, 6-3. In the doubles, Waters-Macy defeated Goodwin-Unger, 6-4, 6-2; Bell-Esslinger defeated M. Berry-Claus, 6-1, 6-2; Parke-Faris defeated Berman-Madden, 6-4, 6-1.

A return match is being scheduled for one of the remaining Sundays in August to be played at the Coral Gables Country Club courts and the Hollywood players are hopeful that the Country Clubbers will be just as courteous and allow the visitors to win.

All the players were unanimous in the admiration of the courts at Hollywood. The three clay courts were sprinkled with sand and just the right hardness and perfectly smooth. The wet-type lines were true and although a shower interrupted the matches for a short time the courts dried promptly without any evidence of the rain.

Conveniently located, with excellent backstops and low fees and with a completely equipped supply house with tennis supplies, drinks, etc., and toilets, these community courts have added a lot to the en-

Insurance Benefits for Vets Are Materially Liberalized

Now that insurance benefits to veterans have been materially extended and liberalized by the recent amendment of the National Service Life Insurance Act of 1940, all veterans Administrations Regional Office at Miami, to start making plans for the changes they will wish to make in reference to payments, beneficiary clauses, endowments and other phases which now are in effect.

Parker has called special attention to the new amendment which entitles all persons persons who served in the armed forces between October 8, 1940 and September 2, 1945, to National Service Life Insurance in any amount up to $10,000. "This means that a qualified veteran who never held NSLI now can apply for a policy and those who do not hold a full $10,000 policy can apply for the full limit," Parker said.

In addition to the recent amendment of the local people and visitors. This is the beginning of a series of matches to be played with other interested clubs in the area, dates to be announced later.

ments which make NSLI as good if not better than any policy a veteran can have, the VA has decentralized $6,000,000,000 in NSLI policies from Washington and New York to the Southeastern Branch office in Atlanta in an effort to handle individual insurance matters for veterans with speed and accuracy. J. M. Slaton, Jr., VA deputy administrator for the five Southeastern states, has advised Parker.

The decentralization program went into effect August 7 and all veterans are urged to send all correspondence concerning NSLI policies directly to the Atlanta office, instead of to Washington or New York.

All premium payments from veterans of Florida, Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee and South Carolina now should be mailed directly to Insurance Service NSLI, Veterans Administration, Branch No. 5, Atlanta 3, Georgia. Parker also revealed that veterans who live in the vicinity of the VA's Miami Regional Office may make payments in person to the agent cashier at the Dinner Key office.

Parker urged that veterans always include their full name, policy number, and service serial number with payments or other correspondence in connection with policies.

Under the new provisions of the NSLI Act amendments, settlement of any policy may be made in a single lump sum to beneficiaries, or the veteran may elect for payments to be made in equal monthly installments, varying at his desire, from 36 to 240 months.

The veteran may assign the beneficiary interest to specified relatives of the insured, or he may designate any person or persons, corporation or his estate as beneficiary in the policy under the new unrestricted clauses.

Total disability payments under the new provisions mean that a veteran who is totally disabled for as long as six months is paid at the rate of $50 a month on a $10,000 policy, or $5 a month for each $1,000 of the policy he does hold.

As originally issued, the permanent policies provided in NSLI were: Ordinary life, on which the policy holder pays for as long as he lives; 20-payment life, on which premiums are paid for only 20 years, and 30-payment life.

In addition to these types of policies the amendment provides for 20-year endowment policies, endowment at the age of 60 and endowment at the age of 65. On all of these endowment policies the premiums must be paid for the in-

State Planning X-Ray Exams Of Citizens

The Florida State Board of Health has taken another step forward in its plan to x-ray every person in the state over 15 years of age in an effort to control tuberculosis with the announcement that two additional mobile x-ray units are expected to be available by the first of the year.

Two stationary units will be set up in Miami and Tampa, according to Dr. C. M. Sharpe, director, Bureau of Tuberculosis Control. It was re-emphasized that only through x-ray can early stages of tuberculosis be detected and controlled. Addition of the four x-ray units in the state will expedite the mass x-ray survey undertaken by the state board of health and do much to eventually control the disease in Florida.

The state board's present mobile x-ray unit is currently in the shop undergoing a complete face-lifting but will be back in service by September. "Pronto Pup" The Tiny Snack Shop which opened for business recently at 210 Avenue Valencia, is operating under the ownership of Sunshine Grills, Inc. Tom Georgetown, Earl Holmes and Lamson Schoonmaker are the owners. They are featuring a brand new toothsome snack, called a "Pronto Pup." A Pronto Pup is a glorified hot dog fixed in an entirely new way. Placed on a skewer it is first rolled in waffle batter, then dropped in hot fat. The waffle batter makes its own bun.

Capt. Davies in California To Testify At Court-Martial Capt. William W. Davies, USN-MC, retired, 718 Avenue Valencia, was recalled to active duty just returned from San Francisco, Cal., where he testified at a general court-martial.

Capt. Davies returned to inactive duty status upon completion of the military trial.

Over 3,000 New Businesses Are Incorporated

Incorporations of business institutions in Florida numbered 3,181 for the eleven-month period through May 30 of this year significantly marking the continued growth of the state, the research division of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce pointed out today in its weekly business review.

"The present upswing of new businesses chartered began soon after war's end and has grown stronger since January 1, 1946. Monthly totals this year show successive gains with the exception of a negligible drop in February: January, 329; February, 327; March, 405; April, 412, and May, 425," the researchers stated.

It was noted that these data on business expansion "stand as added factual evidence of the almost phenomenal strides Florida is currently experiencing. Compared with other states (of the 46 reporting to Dun and Bradstreet) Florida ranks eighth in the number of new businesses established. On the basis of population, however, the state's rank is third, with New York and New Jersey leading.

A national total of 58,645 new incorporations were granted from June 30, 1945 to May 30, 1946. Florida accounted for 5.5 per cent of this total.

"By types, new businesses in Florida run the gamut of possibilities throughout the length and breadth of the state and conform to the existing economy; distributing and service institutions lead manufacturing and agricultural establishments.

Specifically, Florida's new companies are chartered to sell everything from real estate and building materials to beauty preparations and to render services from refrigeration to weather stripping. Many new industries and agricultural organizations are also listed. "In high contrast with the extent of new business in Florida are the reports on business failures to May 30. Three since January 1 with total liabilities of $198,000," the report concluded.

Visits New Grandson Mrs. Theo A. Bell, 1115 Avenue Milan has returned from a month's visit in North and South Carolina. Returning via Tampa Mrs. Bell greeted her grandson, Theodore Augustus Bell III, who was born to July third to Mr. and Mrs. Theo A. Bell, Jr., of Tampa.

Internal Revenue Collections Hit $394,432,065 in State

Total internal revenue collections in Florida during the fiscal year of 1945-1946 reached $394,432,065, the research division of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce reported today in its weekly business review.

"Preliminary tabulations of the Treasury Department show an increase in federal collections from all sources in the state of approximately $9,700,000. Collections for the previous fiscal period were $384,764,377.

"While payments of federal taxes in Florida increased 2.5 per cent during the year period, there was a decrease of 3 per cent in national collections," the researchers stated. "The state's per cent of the national total increased from 88 to 96 hundredths of 1 per cent during the fiscal year immediately past."

It was brought out that these two comparisons with national trends are highly significant in that they "indicate the growth and development of the state over the year and, specifically, mark the increases in industry, tourism, agriculture, business activity and individual earnings."

"By principal sources, the 1945-1946 Florida total shows $251,595,940 (including withholding taxes) paid by individuals; $30,622,043 by corporations; $38,905,554 in excess profits; $13,928,300 in employment taxes, including carriers tax; and $59,380,228 in all other taxes," the review concluded.

Better Tourist Facilities Planned For Winter Season

No division of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce is more active or does a better job than the Tourist Development Division, headed by Joe Adams, who operates the El Comodoro Hotel in Miami, and this year is vice president of the American Hotel Men's Association.

At a meeting in Tampa last week the division reviewed the state's tourist development effort and considered plans for the coming season. The meeting was one of the best attended and most enthusiastic ever staged.

Wasting no time, the session got down to business at an 8:30 breakfast after which the group immediately adjourned to the conference room to listen to reports of committees, engage in round table discussions and map plans for future activity.

Roy C. Beckman, director of the Florida State Advertising Commission, reviewed the work done by the commission to date and explained in detail how inquiries were handled. His talk was well received and the commission was given a vote of confidence.

Chamber of Commerce secretaries from points as distant as Miami and Pensacola made reports on conditions in their sections and compared notes. All indications pointed to another big tourist season, but secretaries reported much improvement in facilities for handling visitors and expressed confidence that all who came next season would be able to find rooms and urged that the practice of frightening tourists away with stories of folks sleeping in their cars, in hotel lobbies and parks be discouraged.

Pointing out that it was always advisable to urge folks to make advance reservations if possible, they contended that thousands without reservations could still be taken care of and told how stories of over-crowding and lack of facilities last season kept thousands away and shortened the season.

Railroad and bus officials expressed confidence that their facilities for handling traffic would be much improved by fall. All lines now have new equipment ordered and plan to operate on faster and more frequent schedules. All lines plan a heavy advertising schedule designed to bring travel to Florida.

The silly action of Georgia officials in placing a quarantine on Florida was deplored and secretaries reported that it resulted in sharply retarding the summer tourist business of Jacksonville Beach, Daytona Beach and other points. It was pointed out that such a quarantine was never really invoked but publicity given the announcement was sufficient to frighten thousands away who otherwise would have vacationed here this summer.

Discussing facilities offered motor tourists, it was brought out that the conditions of many rest rooms in the state were disgraceful. Tourist bureaus and chambers of commerce reported more complaints on this score than ever before and expressed the hope that something could be done to rectify the situation before the heavy influx of motor tourists arrived next season.

A representative of the petroleum industries said that company-owned and operated filling stations of such companies as Gulf, Pure Oil, Standard and others were inspected regularly and kept in a sanitary condition, but with no authority over independent stations, it was difficult to get operators to keep their places clean.

T. B. O'Steen of the Florida Greyhound Lines said the fault was not all on the side of the local interests and contended that the traveling public was largely to blame. Operators of public wash rooms in hotels, but stations, tourists camps and travel terminals have found that keeping such places clean and sanitary is one of their most difficult problems due primarily to lack of co-operation on the part of the traveling public. It was pointed out that women were the worst offenders in this respect and a campaign to educate the public was advocated.

Physicians of the state have shown a sincere interest in providing data for an overall picture of health care while the hospital study is practically complete. A study of the public health units is making progress with the exception of the areas where there are no local health units.

Mr. and Mrs. Edsel H. Heinlein and daughter, 3-year-old Sharie, are new owners of the home at 612 Avenue Sorolla. They formerly lived at Redlands. Mr. Heinlein is associated with the Industrial Life Insurance Co. in Miami.

Experts Will Probe State's Plans for Industrial Future

Florida's dream of becoming an industrial empire is going to be laid on a conference table sometime early this fall and examined by experts, according to W. W. Wolff, general chairman of the industrial division, Florida State Chamber of Commerce.

Wolff, who is division manager of the Florida Power Corporation, said today that chairmen and co-workers of eight departments constituting his division were "deep in study" and that he expected them to develop an expansive program which should require millions of dollars in investing capital, and give employment to additional thousands of Floridians.

"We are seeking the concrete," declared Wolff. "We know that there is much in support of our belief that a manufacturing industry of huge proportions is practicable for Florida. The time has come to initiate a long range industrial program. At our fall meeting we expect to put together some workable ideas; moreover, the capital required to pursue them is present in Florida. It is my considered opinion that all the parts essential to the building of an industrial era are at our fingers' tips. I see no need of longer holding back. Employment is certain to become a pressing national problem in another eight or 10 years. The time to lick it is now."

Chairman Foley's co-workers are Basil Kenney, Port St. Joe, lumber; Harry A. Lurton, Pensacola, naval stores; E. W. Colledge, Jacksonville, wood distillation; J. H. Allen, Pensacola, paper, and Fount Rion, Palatka, furniture.

Working with Chairman Ware are: L. R. Cambron, Ocala, lime rock; Carl B. King, Miami, pebble rock phosphate, and Doyle E. Carlton, Tampa, crude oil.

Associated with Chairman Campbell are: G. W. Gibbs, Jr., Jacksonville, shipbuilding; Frank M. Traynor, Tampa, cement; Glen P. Woodard, Jr., Jacksonville, petroleum; Chase Maddox, Archer, metal products; Frank L. Holland, Winter Haven, fertilizer, and R. H. Paul, Jr., Tampa, carbonated beverages.

Chairman McGregor Smith's co-workers are Dan McCarty, Fort Pierce, citrus; Carroll E. Lindsey, Lakeland, canning; H. R. Cloud, Plymouth, concentrates; Josiah H. Ferris, Clewiston, sugar; B. F. Williamson, Gainesville, tung oil; George W. Munroe, Quincy, tobacco, and Paul Dickman, Ruskin, vegetable processing and packaging.

POETS CORNER
In every life there always is
A love that's doomed to die;
A love that blossoms like a rose
Then withers, none know why.

THE BALLERINA waistline is de regueur, says Ann DeLafeld of the DuBarry Success School. So CBS actress Renee ("Let's Pretend") Terry demonstrate a prescribed method: Lie on your right side, arms above the head, with your feet together, and toes pulled just far enough forward to be seen. Raise your left leg and left arm and bring them together above you. With as great a stretch as possible, pull your arms and legs back to position. Do this twenty times to each side.

'TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY'

By RUSSELL KAY

As stated in this column following the legislative caucus held in Tampa not long ago, the big question at the next session of the lawmakers is going to be "who gets what and how much?"

The schools and the municipalities will lead the pack that has already started yelping at legislative heels (no pun intended), and other interests equally concerned are busy with plans that they hope will insure them a slice of financial pie before the show is over.

Last week, State Senator Raymond Sheldon, gubernatorial aspirant, who loves the laboring man (if he carries a Union card), the school teacher (if she's old enough to vote), and the old folks (if they are dependent and underprivileged), set the mouths of county school authorities to watering when he pointed to the bulging general revenue fund and hinted that a surplus of $20,000,000 is a lot of dough to be lying around loose without a tag on it.

Hillsborough, the Senator's county, had been toying with the idea of issuing two million dollars worth of bonds for school improvement. This sudden eagerness to do something for the schools being brought about by an energetic campaign in the local press disclosing the deplorable condition of building and equipment.

The Senator doesn't like bond issues; he recalls the misery and suffering of overburdened taxpayers who staggered about following the boom, all weighted down with liens for paving, sewers, drainage and other bonded indebtedness. He suggests that taxpayers delay such action and wait to see what Santa Claus puts in their stocking.

He doesn't see why Hillsborough or any other county should go out and handicap itself with a lot of high bond pressure when the State has a $20,000,000 surplus in the general revenue till.

He suggests that instead of letting all this gravy lying around, we ought to divide it up among the counties for school improvement; that would give Hillsborough the $2,000,000 it needs and would give school authorities a lot of nice money to play with, whether they need it or not. He would divide the money on the basis of "average daily attendance," the same and just tossed the whole $20,000,000 to the schools immediately following the invocation at the opening of the session. Then they could tell the rest of the eager-beavers, "that's all there is, there ain't anymore" and put on their hats and go home, but our guess is they won't.

After all, gentle reader, it's your $20,000,000. What do you suggest we do with it?

Plant Okayed

John Bouvier was granted authority to operate a rock crushing plant in Coral Gables Tuesday by the city commission. The plant, to be located on Block 26, Riviera, part one, will be operated in conjunction with canal dredging operations he is carrying on in the area.

The permit was of a temporary nature, not to exceed two years, and a clean-up bond of $5,000 is required.

2,000 Tool Chests Offered as Surplus

More than 2,000 empty metal tool chests will be offered in a special sealed bid sale on August 12 by War Assets Administration, Jacksonville Regional Office, it was announced today.

Sealed bids will be received and publicly opened at 10 a. m. on the day of the sale in the Consumer Goods Division of WAA, Adams Street and Florida Avenue.

The chests, weighing approximately 46 pounds each, are 22 inches long, 16 inches wide and 7 inches deep and are sturdy constructed of 10-gauge sheet metal. The bulletin states that the chests are new but in poor condition. They were originally intended for the carrying of blacksmith's tools and are now located in Miami.
