CORAL GABLES RIVIERA

COLUMBUS DAY
 It was 2 a. m., October 12, 1492. Rodrigo de Triana, lookout on the Pinta's forecabin, saw something like a white and cliff gleaming in the moonlight on the western horizon, then another, and a dark line of land connecting them.
 Martin Alonso Pinzon, commander of the Pinta, after a quick verification, caused a cannon already loaded and primed to be fired as the agreed signal. The flagship Santa Maria approached and Columbus called out "Senor Martin Alonso you have found land. I give you 5,000 maravedis ($25) as a present."

Gordon Taylor Takes Over As Country Club Manager

FORMER HOTEL EXECUTIVE NAMED TO REPLACE ROBERT FARRANTO

No newcomer to Florida is Gordon Taylor, who this week assumed the duties of managing director of the Country Club of Coral Gables, succeeding Robert A. Farranto. Farranto's resignation was announced last Friday by the board of directors.

Although his recent activities have been in New York, Taylor, as well as Mrs. Taylor, are native Floridians, having been born in Eau Gallie.

He attended The Citadel in Charleston, S. C., while Mrs. Taylor is a graduate of the Florida State College for Women in Tallahassee.

Since 1930, the new club manager was associated with the Knott Corporation, which operates hotel properties throughout the North. He managed the Crocker House in New London, Conn., for four years, then came to New York as manager of the Britany Hotel.

During the war years, Taylor managed war contracts for the Knott Corporation, operating WAVE barracks in Brooklyn and New York.

Like so many newcomers to Coral Gables, the Taylors are both house hunting and automobile hunting at the present time. They have located temporarily on Coral Way, with their 11-year-old son, Gordon "Don" Taylor.

Voting places next Tuesday will be the same as during the first primary with polls opening at 7 a. m. and closing at 7 p. m.

City Fathers To Meet with C. of C. Committee

Members of the City Commission and the City Manager will meet with the executive committee and advertising chairman of the Coral Gables Chamber of Commerce Tuesday, Oct. 22, at the Country Club of Coral Gables, to discuss the City's advertising policy for the current year.

Coral Gables is in a difficult position today as regards advertising," said Carroll S. Daniels, chairman of the chamber's committee. "Our merchandise is housing and we have none to sell at present. We need to develop a long-range policy."

Several suggestions have been made to the advertising committee, it was revealed at a meeting of the chamber's board of directors this week.

One policy to be discussed with the commission is a suggestion that the appropriations of $5,000 each made by the City and by the Chamber of Commerce for the current fiscal year be accumulative, with any remaining balances at the year's end be added to the next year's appropriations.

Another suggestion is that present advertising be aimed toward attracting persons planning future retirement to Florida, using such media as the Army-Navy Journal and similar publications.

Members of the executive committee who, with Daniels, will be hosts to the City officials are C. B. Tuttle, president; L. J. Boone, Earl M. DeNoon, W. D. Fuller, and F. N. Holley Jr.

Former R. A. F. Officer Seeks News of Gables

The memories of Coral Gables that linger in the hearts of the British RAF lads who trained here during the war must be fond ones, if a letter received this week by Mayor Thomas C. Mayes is any indication.

Not only did Ronald S. Stewart of West Hartlepool, England, classify himself as an "ardent admirer" of Coral Gables, but he is seeking to re-establish old contacts and make new ones with residents of this community.

His letter to the mayor stated: "Dear Sir,

"I hope you will not consider me over presumptuous in addressing you but, if you are willing you may be able to help an ardent admirer of your fair city.

"In 1942, I had the exceptional good fortune to be posted to the RAF training school at the University Building of Coral Gables, and during my stay of four months made many very good friends. Correspondence passed, to and from me, and I have since then (Continued on Page 16)

No Weekless Week Here, Mayor States

With Fire Prevention Week and Optimist Week just ending, Mayor Thomas C. Mayes took steps today to see that next week will not turn out to be a "weekless week."

The mayor has just signed his name to two new proclamations declaring October 13 to 20 to be both Parent-Teacher Enrollment Week and Letter Writing Week.

The first proclamation was issued in cooperation with the Florida Congress of Parents and Teachers, and lauds the work of Coral Gables parents and teachers for the betterment of schools, calling upon all citizens and local organizations to support the Parent-Teacher movement.

The Letter Writing proclamation was issued in conjunction with National Letter Writing Week, which the mayor points out is of special significance this year because of the war.

Four Boys Go 7,000 Miles In a Home-Made Trailer

It doesn't look much like the streamlined creations of today's trailercoach manufacturers, but to four Coral Gables boys, their homemade trailer, "Junior", pictured above, was Home, Sweet Home to them over 7,000 miles.

It was August 5 when John Whitcher, Bill Hendrick, Tom Courtney and Bobby Paige gave Junior a last loving touch, attached it to the rear bumper of their sedan, and hit the road for the wide open spaces.

Stopping enroute at Starke, Tallahassee, Mobile, New Orleans and Houston, the four adventurers gave Junior a rest at Austin, Texas where they visited the University of Texas. While in Austin they toured a palomino horse farm. The boys also took jobs in Austin as waiters at an outdoor nightclub.

Relatives of John Whitcher, who live in Kerrville, were very surprised when the boys pulled in for a three-day stop. After convincing their hosts that they had really built the trailer, had cooked their own meals and slept in it, the quartet embarked for Mexico.

At picturesque Laredo, the Floridians crossed the border. Monterey's lovely, high mountains led them to Mexico City where they passed for three days. The famed palace of Maximilian, the Floating Gardens, the Palace of Art and many other places of interest caught the fancy of the part-time trailerites.

The trip home was uneventful as both Junior and the sedan performed magnificently. Summed up, the boys discovered that they had traveled over 7,000 miles in three weeks, had thoroughly enjoyed themselves and had spent a total of $55 each.

Gables Vets Are Sought By Army

Coral Gables veterans of all the Armed Forces who held technician ratings are now needed in the Army, Captain Thomas A. Murphy, Commanding Officer of the Miami Recruiting Station told the Riviera today. The Army, now, not only offers ratings to technicians, formerly in the Army, but also will give comparable ratings to former members of the Navy, Coast Guard, and Marines. However, men discharged prior to May 12, 1946 are not eligible under these provisions. Ex-Army men must present a copy of both their discharge and their Form 100. Ex-servicemen of the other Forces must present a copy of their discharge and a verification of their former duty showing the length of time served in each specific duty.

It is advisable for these men to secure this information before applying for enlistment as it will expedite the processing of such enlistments to a great extent.

There are six offices of War Assets Administration in Florida where a veteran can be certified to purchase surplus war material. Jacksonville, Miami, Tampa, Orlando, Tallahassee and Pensacola.

New Concept of Teaching Advanced by Miss Lenore

"Without precedent or bound by tradition," is the way Miss Florence Lenore describes her method of teaching poise, charm, diction and the art of getting along with people in her school, which opened recently at 2723 Ponce de Leon Boulevard just opposite the University of Miami Music Workshop in Coral Gables.

From the moment you enter the door, you are struck by the fact that the establishment does not resemble a school. Blackboards, posters and bulletin boards are replaced with the quiet decor and charm of a drawing room.

And that is the way the school operates. Students are taught poise and charm by actually practicing it in their relationships with other students. Even seven-year-olds entertain at "tea," pour and carry on the polite conversation essential in getting along with other people in society.

Dramatics and modeling are taught, too, but in the indirect way of learning how to be without self-consciousness and how to use proper diction by speaking properly in everyday conversation.

Another new idea is a mother and daughter class, where mother, rather than daughter, learns to keep up with her teen-age counterpart. Students also learn how to tell a joke, and are required to acquire a repertoire. They are also taught the proper joke to use at the proper time.

Miss Lenore attended New York University for two years and then went to different teachers and colleges in the New York areas where she could get the subjects in which she wished to specialize.

She turned down a stage career and an offer from Columbia Broadcasting Corporation to come to this area and expound her teaching ideas. Her original school on Biscayne Boulevard is still operating.

Everything For The Motor Car

ARE YOU DRIVING AN "OLD CRATE"?

Now don't get huffy, Charlie! We're not necessarily getting personal, but as the old saying goes "If the shoe fits" — well, you can take it from there. And when we see SOME of the cars driving by, we really can think of no better term to describe them. If we're going to be honest, we'll have to admit that there have been times when that same term could have been applied to our car—but those days are gone forever. We've learned how to keep our buggy spick, span, and shining like a new penny WITHOUT LIFTING A FINGER!

If there is one job that really requires elbow grease, plus patient hours of work, it's polishing a car. It's a tough, hot job—and all too often, a thankless one. For no matter how hard you work, (or how much supervision you get from the "family sidelines")—the finished product doesn't always live up to expectations. That's why we made it our business to find a FOOL-PROOF METHOD—and one that involves practically no effort on your part.

Just drive in to Parks Motors, pull up a chair, and relax while you watch ALL (yes, we said ALL) the dirt and grease removed from the surface of your car by two men armed with power buffers! After the surface is clear of dirt, a FLINT WAX is applied (and it's apply named; for it leaves a surface which is hard as flint)—and then, following a two-hour drying period, those men are back with the power buffers to polish your car until it shines like a silver dollar at the bottom of a well!

ISN'T THAT SIMPLE, CHARLIE? No tired muscles, no frayed nerves—and no helpful "I told you so's" from the family circle! And best of all, you've not only got a polishing job that gives the old car a new lease on life—you've got a PROTECTIVE WAX FINISH that will help preserve your paint job in all kinds of weather! How about it, Charlie? Why not relax in your favorite arm-chair and take a whirl at polishing your car the PARKS WAY!

Do Your Part

On Monday, the drive to raise $75,000 to complete the Coral Gables War Memorial Youth Center will get underway. Hundreds of Coral Gables men and women are giving unselfishly of their time to see that the drive goes over the top.

Completion of the Youth Center will serve a two-fold purpose. Not only will it provide a complete recreational center for the youth of the community, but it will stand as a living memorial to the men and women of the community who served so valiantly in the mightiest conflict the world has ever seen.

Already the Center has more than proved its value. The youngsters of Coral Gables have claimed it as their own. You have only to go over to the Center any day or any night to see how popular the institution has become. But already the facilities are overtaxed—and the completion of the building is a community must.

The Youth Center has already made Coral Gables known throughout the world as a leader in the field of recreational facilities for youth. The American Weekly, a Sunday supplement with the largest circulation in the United States, though so much of what we have accomplished that an entire page was devoted to it in a recent issue. Periodicals in Europe and in other countries throughout the globe have carried the story of the Coral Gables War Memorial Youth Center.

The campaign slogan, "A Gift that Keeps on Giving" is an apt one. The drive presents a opportunity to both resident and visitor to share in this splendid undertaking. When you are approached during the progress of the fund raising campaign, give generously.

A Disgrace

The majority of Coral Gables voters indicated their interest in Tuesday's county commission primary election by staying away from the polls. In the aftermath of the bloodiest conflict we have ever experienced, a conflict to guarantee the right to vote to every citizen, Mr. Average Voter shrugged off the election with a bored "ho hum".

How can we ever expect world peace, if the average citizen won't take enough interest in local affairs of government to spend a few minutes exercising his sacred right of franchise?

The light vote cast Tuesday is a disgrace to the community and to the county. It is to be hoped that some of the citizens who failed to do their duty last Tuesday will realize their responsibilities and turn out for the run-off next Tuesday.

OUR TOWN

Shucks, No Storm

By Jim Moore

Gray clouds scudded swiftly across a murky sky on Monday morning, and Gableites went about their duties with one ear nervously cocked towards a radio.

A howling hurricane, spawned in the Yucatan channel, was churning its way towards the Florida peninsula. The weather bureau had advised that if the storm continued on its present course it would strike the southwest coast of Florida. Miami might get winds as high as 60 miles an hour, but the likelihood of the hurricane striking this area in full force was remote.

Nevertheless, the tension mounted as the hours passed. Bulletins as to the storm's progress came more frequently. Soon the ring of the hammer rent the air as cautious merchants began boarding up store fronts. Awning firms soon became swamped with calls, as residents decided to take down canopies. Hardware and grocery stores were full of customers, buying lanterns, candles, nails, rope and other articles necessary for riding out a severe storm.

Storm bulletins were interspersed with notices of meetings being cancelled and postponed. And still the weather bulletin kept advising that the hurricane was holding its course, heading towards Tampa Bay.

But a queer paradox was taking form within the breast of the average citizen. Whether he was conscious of it or not, lurking somewhere within him was a faint glimmer of hope that the hurricane WOULD veer in its path and head towards the Miami area.

Unconsciously, it was evident in the smatterings of conversation that could be heard about the Gables.

"You never can tell. All she'd need to do is turn a little bit and she'd come roaring right through here."

"It's a wide storm, and we'll get part of it. I'll bet we have winds at least 75 miles per hour. I'm getting ready."

So the Miami area got itself all set, and waited. Everytime a gust of wind would sigh through the trees, ears would perk up and someone would say, "Here it comes, for sure."

But by 11 p.m. everyone was pretty well convinced that as far as this area was concerned, the hurricane was quite a fizzle.

The radio announcer said, "Greater Miami breathed a sigh of relief, when assured by the weather bureau that the storm had passed them by."

And they did express relief, loudly too. But deep down in, there was still that feeling of disappointment that they could not, or would not put into words.

Like the fable of the Emperor's Clothes, one 11-year-old Gables lad expressed in words the feelings that a lot of adults had suppressed, when he said, "Shucks, during the last hurricane I had all the fried chicken I could eat and learned to play poker, too."

County Launches Whirlwind Campaign To Get Out Voters on Bond Issue

A whirlwind campaign to get out the freeholders vote for the $6,300,000 county bond election on Nov. 5 will get underway immediately after the election of a Democratic nominee to fill the vacancy created by the death of N. P. Lowrey on the county commission.

County officials who will have charge of the campaign said it had purposely been delayed so that voters would not confuse the two elections.

In the general election in November voters will cast their ballots for Democratic and Republican nominees and vote on the county bond issues and six state constitutional amendments. Only freeholders, or registered property owners, will be allowed to vote on the county bond issues.

Five of the bond issues will be resubmitted to the freeholders as they failed by a slight margin in the May 7 primary. A 50 per cent plus one vote of the registered freeholders must participate in each of the bond issues for it to be considered and a majority voting must favor an issue for it to carry. A $500,000 bond issue has been added by the county commission for the development of the central unit of the ocean-front park north of Baker's Haulover.

The other issues include $2,250,000 for expansion and development of Jackson Memorial Hospital should it be turned over to the county by the City of Miami; $2,000,000 for an aquarium on Virginia Key; $1,250,000 for an auditorium; $200,000 for a storage warehouse, and $100,000 for development of the county park east of Homestead on Biscayne Bay.

Campaign headquarters for the bond election has been established in the office of the county parks department in the courthouse.

ADVENT OF LOG CABIN

The log cabin's first appearance in North America was in 1638 when members of the Swedish West India Company set up a trading post and village at Delaware Bay.

ABSENT MINDED

An absent-minded Hastings, Neb., amateur photographer left some film at a shop for developing, but forgot to leave his name. He got the prints back however. He was traced through his car license number, visible in one of his snapshots.

SAFETY DRIVE

Two hundred fifty New Jersey newspapers have begun a 13-week safety campaign designed to teach both motorists and pedestrians correct safety methods.

KANGAROO SHOTS HUNTER

A Reuters dispatch from Darwin, Australia, states that Arthur Crosbie, head stockman at Tipperary Station, near Adelaide river, shot a kangaroo through the hind legs with an army rifle and it fell on its back.

He reloaded the rifle and put the butt on the kangaroo's neck to pin it down while he reached for a stick to finish off the animal.

The kangaroo reached up, twined a forepaw around the trigger and shot him through the right arm. Crosbie is in a hospital here.

ZINC PENNIES KILL SEAL

Oscar, the California Academy of Science's celebrated trained seal, has come to an untimely death.

Immediately after an autopsy yesterday, academy officials issued a plea to Golden Gate Park visitors: "Don't toss pennies to the seals."

The autopsy disclosed that Oscar's stomach contained three pounds 14 ounces of coins, including 514 pennies, 27 nickels, eight dimes, a quarter, a Canadian penny, a street car token and an amusement token.

Academy scientists said it was the pennies that proved fatal. They included a number of wartime coins made of zinc, from which Oscar's gastric processes generated a lethal dose of zinc chloride.

TOUPEE TESSIES

A Chicago wig-maker who should know estimated today that 500,000 women in the United States were bald.

George Henri, who has been creating artificial hair-dos for 40 years gave the secret away. He said he hoped there would be no repercussions.

"Few of them are totally bald," he said, "but they do need wigs. Quite a few wear toupees."

HELICOPTER GAINS NEW PLACE

The helicopter, awkward ground but versatile as a jeep in flight, literally jumped to fame in Newfoundland when it successfully completed the rescue of the survivors of the crashed trans-Atlantic airliner.

And now the Government has approved a helicopter taxicab service in Cleveland.

2,052 RADIO STATIONS

The nation now has 2,052 radio stations of various types which are operating or preparing to operate according to the Federal Communications Commission which recently granted a license to the 1,005th standard radio station. 1,176 others have applied to go on the air. Ten years ago there were 632 radio stations.

COTTON TREES

Cotton tree seed is being distributed by a Lubbock, Texas resident to West Texas farmers who are interested in experimenting in cotton production.

The trees grow approximately 12 feet high at four years of age and can have squares, blooms, various sizes of green bolls and open cotton on them at the same time.

It isn't likely that cotton fields will disappear from the South Plains any time soon but if present experiments with the cotton trees in this area should prove successful, cotton forests may find a place in Texas agriculture.

WHICH BOOKS?

If you could choose six books with which to start school students toward private libraries of their own, which would you pick?

The New York Board of Education has chosen: The Prince and the Pauper, Tom Sawyer, The Man Without a Country and Other Stories, Treasure Island, David Copperfield, and a collection of poems including Longfellow's Evangeline.

APES PREY ON SHEEP

Baboons are the latest menace to South African sheep flocks according to a Cape-town report. Drought and clearance of prickly-pear areas have deprived the apes of much natural food and they are taking sheep at a rate of $200,000 worth a year.

NO SIGN OF LIFE

"Call police—dead" said the sign in the window that usually told the milkman how many quarts to leave. Pottsville, Pa., police were summoned and upon entering the house found Morris Shango, 88, a suicide in his gas-filled kitchen.

A COUPLE OF SKUNKS

Grateful: The little skunk advanced toward Louis Hoffman of Hankins, N.Y. Discretion struggled with valor. Discretion lost Mr. Hoffman held his ground and breath.

The skunk's head was caught in a glass jar. Mr. Hoffman bent down and gingerly pulled at the jar until the creature was free. The skunk shook its head a few times, fixed Mr. Hoffman with a grateful eye, and ambled off.

Mr. Hoffman took a cautious breath. And smiled. Everything was all right.

Revengeful: With a bow and arrow, Will Stevenson, 11, of Pittsburgh, Pa., shot a skunk which invaded his parents' home. That got rid of the skunk, but not the scent.

The Stevensons can't move out of the house because their youngest son, Sherwood, 8, is quarantined with chickenpox. They hope to fumigate the house.

It Says Here

This is the time of the year that makes people who took their vacations early, jealous of those who are now taking them, and the postcard barrage is a lot harder to take than those sent by the early ones. . . . From California comes a card for the John Doyle Carmody, showing a picture of the bridge across San Francisco Bay, while Andy Houston sends us a picture of a North Carolina moonshine still with the notation, "This is where you get stinkin' from drinkin'." The guns are blazing in the Smokies today, not in anger or in violence, but because 'tween the hunting season is open. A man told me he bagged a dozen squirrels, two revereosers, the uniformed doorman at the Grove Park Inn and a House of David preacher from Felloner, Kan. Enjoying marvelous weather, say hello to all." Okay Andy, hello to all.

From New York comes a postcard addressed to "Elwood P. Dowd, managing editor, the Riviera", and stating, "Just what did you have in mind—Harvey". With our intelligence service reporting that Al and Julia Harum saw the play by the same name, we rather suspect we know the senders. . . . Jack Harding tells us that the North Carolina team improved 50 per cent between their opening game and the Hurricane debacle. Jack had the boys working overtime on Sunday. . . . Louis Lanford is emphatic in his denials that he was the "Louie Langford" in a Herald story of a fellow that collected parking tickets. Louie says the other fellow lives in South Miami and that the Herald tacked his home address onto the story through error. . . . We also hear that Ted Semple is quite heated up about another story involving Capt. James Barker of the Miami police, an auto mishap and Ted. Ted says that the paper got the facts balled up and that he's penning a note to John Pennekamp about it. . . . It sure is a nice feeling when the heat's on some other paper for a change. . . . S. E. Giffen, back from a visit to Mexico City, says two months of the food there is Plenty. . . . Arch Cassidy dropped in from Jacksonville this week. Says the town really looks good and wonders where we get all the building material. . . . He denies the accusation that he came down here to miss the hurricane.

Among those who attended requiem services for the Dodgers in Ebbets Field was Ed Keating, the aqua pura man. . . . Congrats to the Charles Hudsons on the latest family arrival, a boy, last week. That evens the score of two boys and two girls for the Hudsons. . . . "Egotism is the anaesthetic which nature gives to deaden the pain of being a darn fool," says a service club bulletin.

We know that you're going to read lots about the Youth Center during the coming drive, but let this column urge you to do one thing. If you've never seen the Center in operation, take a few minutes off and go over there. We'll guarantee that you'll become an enthusiastic supporter. . . . Across our desk comes the following note, "Did you know that a drive exists in Coral Gables' city limits by the name of 'Coconut Grove', on which there are no coconuts nor groves? It extends from Ponce de Leon Boulevard, southeasterly to Douglas Road and the only building is the University Hospital which is 3151?" . . . That's nothing, maybe the residents of Avenue Medina would be surprised to learn that in cities in Morocco, that name is applied to the Arab quarter. . . . and there are no tailors on Avenue Sarto, which means "tailor". And so it goes. . . . We had another letter from Nate Sindelar, the ex-finance officer, that from all appearances was written on an airplane. Nate seems to be taking a fiendish delight in searching the ads for amusing typos. . . . We're feeling "Christmasy" this week, all because we received some advance proofs of some Christmas feature material. So we looked up our calendar and there are only 63 more shopping days until Christmas! . . . And tomorrow is Columbus Day in case you didn't know it. We'll bet that there are some fellows in the hoosegow at Nurnberg that wish he'd never discovered America. . . . Tom Jefferson, the Paramount publicist, has really thrown himself into this Youth Center drive. He's lining up the radio stations, and has a lot of other big plans to make people throughout the whole area Youth Center conscious.

Have you noticed the rash of proclamations that are forthcoming recently. Tom Mayes says he's getting writer's cramp turning them out. Last week was Optimist and Fire Prevention Week, in addition to Hire a Disabled Veteran Week. This week we have National Letter Writing Week and Parent-Teacher Enrollment Week. . . . We're waiting with bated breath to see what's coming up next week.

Letters to the Editor

Editor, The Riviera: I want to congratulate you on the splendid appearance and contents of The Riviera. I consider it one of the best, if not the best weekly, in Florida.

Sincerely, Ash Wing Service Editor Western Newspaper Union

Editor, The Riviera: If this is supposed to be the City Beautiful, why isn't something done about the appearance of Aragon Avenue, just east of Ponce de Leon Boulevard? It looks like a combination of suburban back yards and the slum district of New York.

In the first place, the vacant lot, on the south side of the street is always full of flapping laundry. Surely such a condition should not be permitted in a business area that we are trying to promote as progressive.

On the north side of the street, every evening, the sidewalk is cluttered with chairs, as the shop keepers sit and rock. It is very inconvenient for passers-by, not to mention unsightly. Isn't there a city ordinance preventing the use of a public sidewalk for chairs?

I should think the Merchant's Association or the city would take immediate steps to stop both practices. It certainly isn't in keeping with my ideas of what Coral Gables should be.

BARGAINS IN BUILDING LOTS

Out of town folks frequently express their amazement over the low prices prevailing on Coral Gables lots, in comparison with other comparable localities. Home folks are sometimes too close to the subject to have a true perspective.

If you need a home or business site or expect to need it soon, we believe you can save money by buying it now.

AMONG OUR MANY GOOD BUYS ARE THE FOLLOWING:

- In the scarce 1409 square foot zone a choice 84' plot, at the southeast corner of Avenue Viscaya and Alzedo Street. Price $2450.00. A bargain, we believe, in a choice double corner on beautiful Durango Street. Priced for a short time at only $3500.00. A few good waterway and Riviera Golf Course sites at various prices.

Former Military Reservations Are Becoming State Parks

A considerable expansion of Florida state park acreage is in process. Park Director L. G. Scoggin reports that the new lands thus far made available have been transferred to the Florida Park Service by the Trustees of the Internal Improvement Fund. Most of the additional acreage requested but not yet secured is federal lands, much of it former military reservations.

As announced in last month's bulletin, I. I. Fund trustees have transferred 426 acres of beach property near Panama City and old St. Andrews to the park service. Adjoining federal lands now being sought will bring the new park unit to 1500 acres. The unit, if and when completed, will be a beach park.

Other lands transferred by the I. I. Fund trustees bring to 2,918 the acreage recently made available for park purposes. In Clay County, 100 acres was added to Gold Head Branch State Park; in Columbia, 40 acres was added to the O'Leno Recreational Area; and in Hillsborough, 1,837 to the Hillsborough River State Park. This last covers an area known as the "Seventeen Runs" and is separated from the main body of the park by about a mile.

Two new park units are involved. In Brevard County, 216 acres at DeSoto Beach on Cape Canaveral have been made available. The land lays between the Banana River and the Atlantic and has a half mile stretch of ocean beach. In Lake County, 615 acres on the west side of Lake Griffin, just north of Leesburg, have been "ear-marked" for park use.

The trustees also stopped sale of state lands within the Camp Murphy reservation near Stuart. The Florida Park Service, through the improvements commission, has applied for part of the camp including about 40 buildings, paved streets and utilities. Park Director Scoggin reports that the camp occupies the highest land along the lower east coast, adjoins the Miami-Jacksonville highway and—as a state park—would serve a well populated area including West Palm Beach. Negotiations are underway for state acquisition of a narrow strip of ocean frontage across the highway from the camp. The Army put about $7,000,000 into improvements on the Camp Murphy reservation.

Application has also been made to the federal government for the former navy base located on Anastasia Island just south of St. Augustine. This would also become a beach park.

Near Pensacola, on Santa Rosa peninsula, the park service is trying to secure from the federal government the old live oak reservation created during the presidency of John Quincy Adams. Established to assure a supply of live oak timber for the United States navy, the Santa Rosa project was short lived being inactivated during the reign of Andrew Jackson. It did however result in the first cultural forestry ever practiced by the United States Government and produced the basic legislation governing the acquisition and administration of public forest lands. In recent years, it was transferred to the National Park Service as a tion tho, if it was soft once it must be possible to process it to that state again.

Another important problem of the housewife is the garbage collection. In my section of the city I was told that the collection was to be made on Monday and Thursday. That would be two days between one pick up and three between the other. Now, I find the collections are actually made on Tuesday and Thursday. That means that for four days the garbage is available to flies and other insects. And we all know that there is more cooking done over the week end than other days. But regardless of what the city decides to do I still must pay my fee.

And now to mention the new taxes. (The most futile of all to do anything about) I do not mind the parking meters nor do I fuss too much about the new 10% utility tax but when you pounce on the unsuspecting public with both, that is too much. Unless (and I realize this is impossible) our annual taxes are cut in half.

Now to give credit where credit is due. I am glad to see that the police department is getting on the ball. I am a firm believer in rigid traffic rules not only for the autos but the pedestrians as well.

That is all for now. If you have read this far let me tell you I honestly appreciate it.

Sincerely,
Mrs. L. S. Royall, Jr.

Water, Taxes And Garbage Plague Reader

Editor, The Riviera
It comes to my attention that the tax payers of this fair city have need for a "Town Crier" representing their viewpoints. In the final analysis that is the purpose of the Coral Gables Riviera. This being the case, is it possible to have a space devoted to "Letters to the Editor?" Just in case you see fit to take care of this situation I have several grievances to start the ball rolling.

In May I moved here from Jacksonville and I was very pleased to discover how soft the water was, as I had been used to hard water there. Particularly, the soft water was a help with such a soap shortage. About a month ago I noticed a change in the water and after asking my neighbors their opinion decided it was not my imagination and that the water was definitely hard. Several people told me it was because the city had run out of lime and was using something else in the water. However, I do not know the reason given by authorities. There must be a solu-

The passengers are Japanese prisoners of war, demilitarized personnel and displaced Chinese and Koreans, who are being returned to their native lands in United States Navy amphibious craft, Liberty ships and former Japanese naval vessels. All ships are operated or controlled by the United States Navy and most of the vessels are Japanese-manned.

On the Job Training Is Outlined by VA

"Other training on the job" was stressed by officials of the The distinction between standard apprentice training supervised by Federal and State apprenticeship agencies, and Veterans Administration Regional Office at Miami Saturday.

The changes, which put a limitation on subsistence allowances and set up standards for on-the-job training, raised many knotty questions locally, the answers to which V. S. Parker, VA regional manager, announced Saturday.

In explaining the distinction between the two types of on-the-job training, it was pointed out that no new standards have been set for apprentice courses, and they still may run to a maximum of four years if the veteran is eligible for that much training.

"Other training on the job" is limited by certain standards set up for states to follow in approving such courses. This kind of training must not be less than three months or more than two years in duration.

At least two choices are open to establishments offering on-the-job training more than two years in duration. The first provides that the program may, in some cases, be adjusted to fit state or federal requirements for apprentice training so the two-year limit does not apply to disabled veterans enrolled under the vocational rehabilitation act (Public Law 16).

3. The limit on subsistence allowances applies to every veteran in education or training under Public Law 346, whether he is enrolled in a school or college, or is pursuing a standard apprentice course, or is taking on-the-job training.

WITH WRINKLES

Howard was very fond of raisins, and whenever his mother brought rolls from the bakery, he would pick all the raisins out when he thought no one was looking.

Several days later, Howard and his mother were having dinner at a downtown restaurant. The man at a table opposite was eating a dish of prunes. Much to the embarrassment of his mother, Howard asked in quite a loud voice, "Mother, can I have some of those GREAT BIG BUGS like that man is eating?"

FROM A RIVIERA NOTEBOOK

By Mary Helm Clarke

CORAL GABLES SAYS "WE'LL REMEMBER".

This week, citizens of Coral Gables pledge their enthusiastic financial support to the Coral Gables Youth Center and the completion of the building which, as a Memorial, will say "We will remember that you served in World War I, preserving for all of us the American way of life".

The city pays tribute in various ways to those who seek to preserve American ideals of integrity and beauty. The Riviera Notebook reminds us of some of these.

You remember the Friendship Tree planted by the Coral Gables Chapter of the D.A.R. on the north-east corner of Castle at Grandda. This spreading Acacia tree has stood through many storms—its strength equal to the bond of friendship it represents. D.A.R. organizations in every state sent soils for the planting. Where Daughters of the American Revolution found each other in far away places, they sent soil from Hawaii, Alaska, the Philippines—even England, France and China. Mrs. Leslie Lide, daughter of Mrs. Charles H. LeSeuer, under whose leadership the Friendship Tree was planted, reminds us of their consternation when they learned that the various soils must be sterilized before mixing them with the Coral Gables lime deposit!

The D. A. R. Chapter, primarily interested in preserving the records of history, also placed a marker at the Coral Way-Douglas Road entrance to the Gables, telling facts that will memorialize the "pioneer" days in Coral Gables.

Merrick Park, the triangle in front of the City Hall is a Memorial to the dreamer who conceived the idea of a city "blue-printed before it was born". A bust of the late Phineas Paist, artist-architect, is placed in the City Hall to say "We will remember". These two, with Denman Fink, were responsible for much that is artistic and permanently planned in the City Beautiful.

If you have forgotten about these Memorials it is small wonder. Perhaps you have never known of them. Let us make the Coral Gables Youth Center a living Memorial, passing on from generation to generation the ideals of fair play, achievement and valor that characterized the Coral Gables men and women who served during World War II. Future generations can say with us, "We will remember". Your gift will "keep on giving".

Army Need For Nurses Is Stressed

At least 40 former Army nurses will be needed by November 30 at Army hospitals in the seven South-eastern states if the approximately 6,125 soldier patients continue to receive proper care, according to Lieut. Col. Agnes A. Maley, Chief, Nursing Service, Headquarters Seventh Army.

On that date 40 nurses will become eligible for separation, due to the statements they have signed, and must be replaced, Colonel Maley said. A former Army nurse may re-enter the service with the same rank she held immediately prior to her separation from the Army and she must sign up for 24 months or an unlimited length of time in the reserve.

General standards which all returning nurses must meet are no dependents under 14 years of age, physical qualifications for general duty, preferably under 34 years of age and unmarried. Those over 34 years with special qualifications will be considered.

Nurses returning to duty are advised to bring along their favorite civilian clothes as they may be worn during off-duty hours. Applications may be made in person or by letter addressed to Lieut. Col. Agnes A. Maley, Nursing Service Medical Division, Headquarters Seventh Army, Atlanta 3, Georgia.

Perilous Place

It was the freshman's first day on the campus of a big college. As he passed the chemistry laboratory, he saw four students carrying a fifth one.

"What happened?" asked the freshman excitedly.

"Oh, he took chloroform," a student explained.

"Gee whiz!" exclaimed the freshman, "if these courses are as dangerous as that, I'd better go back home."

THE MEANEST MAN ON EARTH . . . These cocker spaniel puppies are probably planning to nominate the person who put up that sign for the title of "the meanest man on earth"—and who would blame them?

Students Warned On Parking Laws

Although 20 new parking signs have been distributed on the University of Miami campus, failure to obey no parking regulations is attributed to the increase of issuing traffic tickets by the Coral Gables Police department.

Police warned today that violation of these signs would continue to foster unnecessary fines.

If surplus property desired by a purchaser is not available in his particular region, War Assets Administration will endeavor to find it elsewhere in the United States.

Postcard Publicity Plan Is Announced by Fuller

A postcard "mail-away" plan, which makes it possible for everyone to participate in boosting the state of Florida, was announced today by William D. Fuller, Coral Gables, manager of the Florida Power and Light Company.

The "mail-away" cards are being distributed to the company's customers this month, with the request that they be mailed to someone in the North. Additional supplies of the cards are available at the company's office, where they will be addressed and mailed. Postage will be paid by the power company on all cards written to out-of-state addresses, Fuller said.

The plan for mailing of the cards was undertaken in co-operation with the State of Florida Advertising Commission's national advertising program. Illustrations on the card were taken from the national campaign and show a typical Florida resort scene combined with a typical agricultural scene. The caption on the cards says: "This is Florida . . . And So is This!" The state campaign consists of a series of magazine and newspaper advertisements which is being scheduled in 36 national magazines and in newspapers throughout the United States.

Business Activity in Florida Shows 23 Per Cent Increase

Business activity in Florida January through July of this year was 23 per cent greater than during the like period in 1945, the research and industrial division of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce stated yesterday after an examination of business conditions in the state. The comparable national figure was 6 per cent.

"Most significant of the indicators of business activity is the behavior of bank debits (charges against individual accounts)," the researchers stated.

"Seven-month-period gains in dollar volume of debits during 1946 over 1945 were recorded in the state's six leading financial centers. St. Petersburg led with an increase of 44.5 per cent; other city gains were: Miami 38.5 per cent, Orlando 35 per cent, Tampa 12 per cent, Jacksonville 11 per cent and Pensacola 9 per cent.

"Retail sales in Florida stores were up 31 per cent during the same period over 1945. The national increase was 26 per cent. "By types of business, the greatest increase in Florida, 83 per cent, was shown by motor vehicle dealers (including service, repairs and parts). Household furnishings establishments registered an increase of 51 per cent; lumber-building-hardware group 43 per cent; filling stations 40 per cent; department stores 28 per cent; jewelry stores 27 per cent; apparel establishments 21 per cent and groceries 16 per cent.

"Substantiating the above business indicators, Dun and Bradstreet's Regional Trade Barometer registered Florida business gains for the period among the best in the country and well above the national average," the review concluded.

WALTER PIDGEON and Ilona Massey star in the current hit "Holiday in Mexico" ably supported by Jane Powell, Roddy McDowall and Jose Iturbi. This super attraction is now playing at the Gables and you should put it on your "must" list to be seen by Monday night.

Chamber of Commerce Outlines Need for Citrus Processors

Florida's immediate need for additional citrus processing plants and the bright opportunities awaiting processors are described in a survey prepared by the Florida State Chamber of Commerce, entitled, "An Expanding Food Industry, The Processing of Florida Citrus Fruits."

Hundreds of copies of the survey have been mailed to a selected list of industrialists and financiers by the Florida Power & Light Company which also is publishing the information in its advertisements. Each month the utility company selects one of Florida's assets and publicizes it as part of the company's program for industrial development of the state.

With thousands of American people undernourished, largely because of vitamin-deficiency the survey points out, a huge consumer demand exists for citrus products, rich with vitamin C. The daily minimum requirement of citrus the logical location for an increasing number of citrus processing plants.

Processing of citrus has jumped tremendously. In 1935 less than 6,000,000 boxes of fruit were processed. In 1945 the total had climbed to almost 30,000,000 boxes. Economic possibilities are practically unlimited. Unlike fresh fruit, hampered by seasonal fluctuations in price, processed citrus can be shipped to world-wide markets and can be held or sold as market conditions warrant. Besides the well-known canned citrus juice, the survey covers the possibilities of new processes including frozen citrus, citrus concentrates and powdered orange.

Women Leaders in Business Celebrate Nationally

JUNIOR CLUB LEADERS

MRS. WILBUR JENNINGS

When we talk with Mrs. W. C. Jennings, the former June Smith, native of Fredericksburg, Va., we get a nostalgia, for Mrs. Jennings speaks with that soft Southern drawl peculiar to folks in certain parts of that verdant state; our home for many years.

This week's Coral Gables Junior club leader can't remember when she didn't have a camera in her hand. She practically grew up in a photographer's shop; her father, a portrait photographer of Fredericksburg. Intrigued by the chemicals, plate and films, and all that it takes to be a good photographer, June Smith decided at an early age to make this interesting art her life work—then she married. June was schooled in quaint old Fredericksburg, steeped in rich historic tradition, and attended Mary Washington College. She has photographed everything from little tots to weddings and remembers well her first assignment, a baby.

Smith's the same as my father's but, no relation, of course". Her marriage to W. C. Jennings also a Virginian of the Associated Press staff brought the expected changes in residence. The Jennings' Coral Gables home is of the newer Colonial type apartments at 614 Avenue Malaga. They have two children, five year old Taylor the son, and Carolyn just three. Mrs. Jennings serves her club as chairman of Red Cross for this year. She has helped with their kindergarten project and is a Grey Lady at the Pratt General Hospital. She is a golfer and likes swimming and horseback riding as all true Virginians do. But her first love is photography and her

SPRINKLER SYSTEM FOR ELEMENTARY

A new sprinkler system will soon be installed on the playgrounds of the Coral Gables Elementary school, it was announced at the first P-TA meeting. The association will pay half of the cost of the project and the school board the other.

It was also announced that a paper drive will be held, date to be announced. The Children's Theatre, Inc., of Miami, will present a puppet show October 11th in the school auditorium after school.

Mrs. Bertha Webb, principal and Mrs. William Wigton, Jr., president of the association, will attend the State P-TA convention as delegates Nov. 12-14 at Tallahassee.

The Coral Gables Elementary school holds the record of the largest enrollment of membership in the P-TA of any elementary or junior high school in the state of Florida. The current drive for membership will be held from October 14 to 18.

Leighs and Three Daughters Move Here From Maine

Dr. and Mrs. Don Leigh have purchased the residence at 821 Lorea Street and intend to make Coral Gables their permanent home. The Leighs came to Coral Gables from Rockland, Maine and have three daughters, Karen, and Sharon, the five year old twins and Sandra, eight. Dr. Leigh will open offices on Avenue Alcazar for the practice of medicine.

friends never tire of looking at the prints and pictures of her children. They have been photographed almost daily since birth and Taylor was even photographed in the hospital when a tiny infant. And Carolyn would have been too, but the hospital where she first saw the light of day said no, and threw up its sterilized hands in horror at the very thought.

THE NEW BERKLEY, LTD., women's outfitters on Miracle Mile, caters to the smart woman shopper as the above picture indicates. Miss Fega, assistant manager is showing a gorgeous formal afternoon gown or cocktail frock developed in dull gold lame to Mrs. J. Fritz Gordon and Miss Paquita Rabell, members of the Coral Gables Woman's Club. Miss Rabell (standing) is also modeling a Berkley one piece formal of black and white crepe; the bodice of which is sprinkled in sequins. A smart career woman, herself, Miss Rabell carries on an unique business called "American Neighbors". Her shopping service caters only to South American customers. At present she is searching the south American countries for 5,000 pounds of pork rind for a weekly American buyer. Speaking Spanish, French and Portuguese fluently, Miss Rabell sends cables back and forth in the native languages of her customers. Her plan of a Pan American buyers mart follows closely that as dreamed by the late Everest Sewell, mayor of Miami. Mrs. Gordon's lovely hair-do is by J. Baldi and Miss Rabell's by Claire Weeks. The picture is by Charbeau.

GABLES WOMEN TO HONOR N. B. W. WEEK

National Business Woman's Week, October 13-19 will be observed by the members of the members of the Coral Gables Business and Professional Women's Club who will attend divine worship Sunday at the Coral Gables Methodist church. Dr. J. H. Daniel, pastor of the church, has assigned special pews to accommodate the business women.

Regular meeting and dinner of the group will be held at 7 p. m. Tuesday, Oct. 22 at the Country Club of Coral Gables. This is a postponed meeting from Oct. 15.

From Melbourne

Mr. and Mrs. Everett King and children, Everett, Jr., Preston and Priscilla, formerly of Melbourne, are the new owners of 1320 Avenue Obispo. Mr. King is a trainer for the H. C. Goff thoroughbred horses. The Kings chose to buy in the Gables for their children's future. They have as their house guest Mr. King's sister, Mrs. Jack Kendrick of Melbourne.

Week of October 13th Will Be Celebrated by 50,000 Women Business Leaders

Members of the Coral Gables Business and Professional Women's Club join with the national organization in celebrating National Business Women's Week and are happy to have their mayor issue the following proclamation:

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, in pursuance of a custom established nineteen years ago and observed by the NATIONAL FEDERATION OF BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB in various cities in all States of the Union, as well as Alaska and Hawaii, the week of OCTOBER 13, 1946 has been designated as "NATIONAL BUSINESS WOMEN'S WEEK," and

WHEREAS, the organization, being non-partisan and non-sectarian, composed entirely of self-supporting women, is desirous of observing this week in furtherance of the aims of the Club, and more particularly in carrying out the theme of the week, "LET'S WORK TOGETHER FOR BETTER COMMUNITIES," and

WHEREAS, our Nation is made up of a myriad of communities, great and small, and

WHEREAS, our community effort must carry with it a full realization of today's problems to be effective, the Business and Professional Women of America are the logical vanguard of any program which deals with housing, public education, public health, and full employment, and

WHEREAS, the Business and Professional Women's Clubs have undertaken the task of stressing the importance of community living under this theme of "Let's Work Together For Better Communities";

NOW, THEREFORE, I, THOMAS C. MAYES, Mayor of the City of

Gablesgrams

By HELEN REYNOLDS, SOCIETY EDITOR

About once a year we like to include letters in our Gablesgrams. Just back from our vacation which we enjoyed thoroughly sleeping and sunning in our back yard, our first letter to greet us from the society desk was one from the boss' wife, who as writer Julia Davidson of the AP service pinch-hitted for us, taking her first assignment on this desk. She said "Take back your job—as society editor, classified manager, makeup editor, errand girl, proofreader, switchboard operator, messenger and wailing wall for clients of The Riviera, Trailer News and Metropolitan Mat Company. I wouldn't do it for a mortgage on the First National Bank building—and you may quote me." So we are... The boss and his wife are vacationing in Brooklyn, N. Y., just seeing the shows and watching 'dem Bums' lose the right to play in the World Series, they postcard.

From Birmingham, Ala., arrives a pink and blue baby announcement card announcing the arrival of Perry Travis Thornton whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Thornton. On the back of the card is penned: "Dear Helen: Thought some of my daughter's Coral Gables friends might be interested to know she is the proud mama of a tiny baby boy. Both are swell. Might bring them back with me for a few weeks. Sincerely, Grace H. Wigman."... Mrs. Thornton is the former Mary Louise Perry, daughter of Mrs. Walter Wigman of "Curwig Pines," Hardee Drive.

From Mrs. Richard P. Gib son now at Fort Barracas, Fla., who, with her husband, Colonel Gibson, maintains a permanent home at 3621 Monseratte Street: "Dear Helen: Just finished reading The Riviera and I do enjoy it so much. Coral Gables is certainly building up a great deal and we miss it terribly. The colonel was in command at Fort Miles, Del., for the past nine months. He now has command of beautiful old Fort Barracas, near Pensacola. We love it here. The post is beautiful and it was built around old Fort San Carlos—across the bay is old Fort Pickens which is part of Fort Barracas, our big guns are over there. Colonel Gibson's nephew, who is a cadet at West Point, came down this summer for a visit. The first thing he wanted to do was to see Fort Pickens—his mother and dad were stationed there 30 years ago—their first station. We are next-door neighbors to the huge naval air base and don't let anyone tell you that we don't get along beautifully together. They are our best friends and visa-versa. Guess you all are getting ready for a big season and with all the lovely shops opening in Coral Gables, it will be, I am sure. Sincerely, Kitty Gibson."

From Cloudland, Ga.: "Dear Miss Reynolds: I am writing (Continued on Page 11)"

Miss Betty Ellis Is Bride Of Annapolis Naval Officer

Standards of white gladioli and baby mums, palms and cathedral tapers banked the chancel of the First Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon for the 5:30 o'clock marriage of Miss Margaret Elizabeth Ellis and Ensign William Arthur Murauskas, USN. Bouquets of the same flowers also marked the pews for the families.

Mrs. Earl DeNoon played the wedding marches and a program of nuptial music. Preceding the ceremony, Walter Henry Scott Ellis, II, nine-year-old brother of the bride, and Jack Davidson, one of the groomsmen, lighted the myriad wedding candles. Dr. Nevin A. Schaaf read the rites.

Given in marriage by her father, A. Clyde Ellis, the attractive bride wore a long trained gown of marquisette over taffeta which she designed herself and which was made by a Coral Gables dressmaker. Balloon wrist length sleeves and pointed yoke of the round-cut, tight bodice bore inserts of Valencia lace. Her full length veil was attached to a Juliette cap and she wore a single strand of pearls, her bridegroom's gift. White orchids and stephanotis formed the bridal bouquet.

The bride's four attendants wore identical gowns of French marquisette over white taffeta, with balloon sleeves, boat necklines and full-sweep skirts. Crownless hats of matching material with ribbon streamers and colonial bouquets of mixed blossoms completed their costumes. They included Mrs. William B. Hart, matron of honor, in pink; Mrs. L. O. Larson, Jr., bridesmatron, yellow; Miss Mary Karp and Miss Martha Jean Leavitt, bridesmaids, in aqua. Mrs. Larson, the former Miss Ann Cone, served in place of Miss Lovedy Allin Ellis, the bride's sister now at the University of Virginia.

Ensign L. O. Larson, Jr., served as best man for Ensign Murauskas in place of Ensign Eugene Shaw, USN, a former classmate at Annapolis, who was unable to be present. Mr. Davidson, Charles E. Ayers and David A. Curtis were groomsmen.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shipe, close friends of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Clyde Ellis, at 1042 Avenue Catalonia. Mrs. Ellis wore a model of grey crepe with fuchsia hat and accessories, orchid corsage. Mr. and Mrs. George Shaw acted for the groom's family. He is the son of Thomas J. Murauskas of Schenectady, N. Y., and the late Mrs. Murauskas. Mrs. Shaw was attired in an ice blue crepe dinner frock and Mrs. Shipe wore a formal gown of black net with blue blouse. Mrs. Paul Brinson, Mrs. Morgayne Whitney and Mrs. DeNoon assisted the hosts. The Misses Elsie Burdin, Betty Jean Filler, Kitty Lou Hoffman, Ruth Reports from committee chairmen were read. Welfare chairman, Mrs. Leonard K. Markman, reported that her committee had collected 30 yards of cloth for the children of Greece. This had been sent to Chicago where the Federation of Women's Clubs were in session. Donors were Mrs. Edwin C. Graham, Mrs. Theo. Diengen, Mrs. C. E. Snyder, Mrs. Charles T. Fuch and Mrs. L. K. Markman.

ing to tell you we are leaving in a few days for home, 1700 LeJeune Road. We have had a wonderful summer but it is beginning to feel like winter to us Florida Cracker—42 degrees this a. m. I have been up here since April and should be ready to come home so my children write me. Most of the family visited us this summer, George (Girtman), Ralph, James and Charles and his son, Johnny. Lots of company from Miami; also my sister and family, Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Lanier, here for a week. Mr. Girtman has been busy building an outdoor kitchen with dining room. He finished it just in time to celebrate his birthday August 25th. He was 73 and had a big party, about 50 present. We broiled pork chops. After dinner they brought in a clothesbasket filled with gifts for the new kitchen—Dutch oven, overhanging iron pots and lots of decorative and useful pottery gifts with cute original cerses attached. Monday night, September 30, we had just such another big birthday party for Mr. Herman Fultz (738 Camilo) who has a lovely place up here. It was his birthday and we had 30 guests, most of them from Coral Gables and Miami. I have been busy making blackberry preserves and spiced pears. See by The Riviera you are having your vacation—hope you have a nice rest. We have had a lot of visitors in spite of the fact the road is torn up and guests have to detour 50 miles—however, next year we'll have a nice, wide, new highway without a hairpin turn in it. Will see you soon. Mrs. J. D. Girtman.

And the last one from Jeanne Poe Beckdolt, daughter of the Frank Poes, 1117 Pizarro St., who is with the Airborne Division at Hokoido, Japan: "Dear Helen Reynolds: I finally got to see some Ainus. They were the original inhabitants of the islands before the Japs came. They are quite ugly people with very hairy bodies and their faces are very thick and ugly. The women, when they are little, so I am told, have the skin scraped off their mouths and have cinders rubbed into the open places so when they are older they have

Mrs. Frank Striefert hospitality chairman and her committee will announce plans for the Halloween party Oct. 31.

this horrible, dirty place around their mouths. If that isn't done they have their mouths tattooed. The Japs regard the Ainu as very dirty savages and filthy people. They are becoming extinct.

"While we were hunting for the Ainu village we came upon a Jap reform school. It is quite a new building and very clean. We were shown around the place. There was a long hall with individual room opening on it. In each room six boys slept on the floor as all Japs do. There didn't seem to be enough room over to change your mind in. As we didn't have an interpreter with us, we couldn't get a lot of information but the layout looked like a pretty good start.

"We also stopped at a Japanese temple, which is beyond description without gestures. There is so much beauty in this country you cannot tie it up with the atrocities you have heard about them.

"The shrines are not so glittery, expansive or splendorous as the Indian ones but they are beautifully proportioned. They all have a statue of the Sun God, which is a basis of Shintoism. They have brass oil pot burners made in the form of a round, flat bucket. The floor is covered with mats on which they pray.

"The Japs cremate their dead and bury the ashes in a grave. They put a gravestone over it about 2 or 3 feet high. At certain times of the year when they pray for the dead, they put food for their ancestors to eat, for they think otherwise the ancestors will go hungry. Short as they are for food they still observe this custom. The birds end up by eating the food.

"To paraphrase Bret Harte, 'the heathen Japanese is peculiar.' I understand the women better than the men. They seem to want to co-operate more. I think one reason we have difficulty with the men is that all the Orientals feel women are inferior and so they object to taking orders from women.

"The Japs walk right out into the middle of the street and seem to have no conception of danger. I guess it is because in the Japanese law the pedestrian has the right of way. Since we came the Americans changed the law and either the Japs do not understand or do not want to, so when you drive you have your heart in your mouth and butterflies in your stomach."

SHORTAGE OF MEAT CAUSES BURGLAR TO STEAL T-BONE

The meat situation is really getting tough. Mrs. W. G. Finn, North Kendall Drive, parked her car in the 200 block on Coral Way on Saturday afternoon to do some shopping. When she returned she discovered that someone had entered her car and had stolen a T-bone steak, valued at $1.19. Some chops and bottles of Coca Cola were not touched.

The big news this week for members of the Country Club is the announcement of the board of directors that Gordon Taylor has been appointed managing director of the club, replacing Robert Ferranto, who resigned last Friday.

For a biographical background on the new club manager, you are referred to page one of this week's Riviera.

Mr. Taylor has spent his first few days at the club "getting his feet on the ground" and becoming acquainted with the personnel that man the club property. Already, however, he has started the installation of a new system of stock control and has some plans for the rearranging of the kitchen to allow the purchase and preservation of greater stores of meat. You remember what meat is, don't you?

Incidentally, the Taylors are badly in need of a house, and also a car, so if any of you members know where either can be found, we feel sure it will be appreciated.

PONCE NEWS Freshman Dance Scheduled At Venetian Pool Saturday

By BETTY NEWMAN
 Whooooooo is going to sing at the Big Wheel Club Freshman Dance tomorrow night?

That is the current question at once this week. A big freshman dance will be held at the Venetian Pools from 8 to 12 tomorrow night and some sultry singer will pour her liquid notes into the ether in order to add romance to the atmosphere.

The identity of the singer is being closely guarded by the Wheel Club members but Sunday morning it will be no secret.

Dave Bower's swing band will make its first appearance of the year to play for the dance.

"NEWIES" ATTEND ASSEMBLY
 About 400 new students from all classes attended the orientation assembly last Friday in the gym. Contrary to custom, other students continued with their classes while the assembly was in session.

Mr. Harry Rath, principal, welcomed the students to Ponce. Mr. Elmer Day, dean of boys, explained some of the rules and regulations of our school to the new students while Mr. Micah Ruggles, student council adviser, and KP boss in the cafeteria, got right to the point concerning those students who butt in lines and leave food and dirty dishes on the tables.

"You may find yourself running the dishwasher or sweeping floors if you get caught at such tricks," he warned.

LATIN-AMERICA SENDS STUDENTS
 South America sent several charming, chattering students to Ponce this semester in the persons of Cicely Castano, Miryam Gonzalez, and Miryam Knust.

Underway at present is the project of painting the benches of the Athletic Department.

I THOUGHT I WAS A SMART SHOPPER.....

THEN I DID A LITTLE SIMPLE FIGURING

I THOUGHT I'd figured all the angles to this shopping business. I've always prided myself on being a demon bargain hunter. I've patted myself on the back for my perseverance in pursuing sales and discounts. I've driven miles, fought crowds and ran myself ragged to get a $2.00 item for $1.98.

This "shop at home" idea never impressed me very much. Bargains are where you find 'em and I was a female Frank Buck with a checkbook for a carbine. Business is business, I always said, and while it's nice to give the home town merchants a break, I'd pass them by every time if there was a special sale going on down in Miami.

Then the other day I drove back from my trip "downtown" and sat down to figure my "loot" for the day's shopping. I'd done pretty well. I'd saved 15 cents on a pair of gloves, 4 cents on some socks for my husband, 9 cents on tumblers and I bought some other items that I needed, because I happened to see them while pushing my way through those downtown crowds. Altogether I spent $19.00 but I'd saved 19 cents. And pennies make dollars! Then suddenly a horrible realization came over me. I'd used over a gallon of gas, paid 25 cents to park and my lunch was 85 cents with a 10 cent tip. I was hot, tired, had a headache and my feet hurt. Not only had I spent an unpleasant day, but I had spent $19.00 that could have gone to my neighbors who are in business in Coral Gables. And when I added it all up, I was money out of pocket! Believe you me, I felt pretty ashamed of myself.

Then I got my copy of The Riviera and began reading the advertisements with a more than a passing glance. I was amazed at the completeness of our local shopping district. Those trips to Miami that I thought were so wise, looked pretty foolish, now. I discovered that I could have done all my shopping in less than half the time, in comfort and at my leisure. Not only that, but I'd be helping to build the town in which I live, and I'd save money too! I thought I was smart, but I guess I was just plain dumb. I'll know better next time. From now on I'M DOING MY SHOPPING IN MY OWN HOME TOWN!

It Pays Dividends to Shop in Coral Gables!

NOT WITH BAIT

While sitting on the beach, a woman directed a statement to her little daughter, not yet four, about a pretty young girl swimming with remarkable grace and ease.

Patty just nodded. She was more engrossed in watching her young uncle trying to strike up an acquaintance with the pretty girl.

"No wonder," Patty popped up, saucily, "she's a fish, and fish are hard to catch."

Silence Speaks Volumes

For five hours the jury fidgeted and looked at the clock. Finally the attorney sat down. It was apparent that whatever the merits of his case, the jury was mad enough to vote against him.

The opposing lawyer saw his chance. "Your honor," he said, "the other counsel has set an example that I believe it would be wise to follow. I therefore am also submitting my case without argument."

Not Much Proof

"Sir, could you spare a dime for a cup of coffee?" whined a panhandler.

"I'm sorry, young man, but I have no money," answered the fatherly gentleman, "but I should like to give you some good advice."

"Nuts," sneered the panhandler, "all I get is good advice, and no money. If you guys never have any money, how do you expect me to think your advice is worth anything?"

LET HIM LEARN

Silently, Gerry watched his neighbor take some machinery apart. But when the neighbor had broken two parts in the struggle, Gerry finally clucked his tongue and said:

"That wasn't the way to do it. I could have told you how, but I figured you needed the experience."

A Bright Sign

Minister—Well, Deacon, business must be improving. Money seems to be circulating more rapidly.

Deacon—That's splendid news, sir. Are you getting more money in the collection plate?" Minister—No, but the pennies are getting brighter.

Look All You Want

Would-Be Hunter—Any good hunting around here, fellow? Native—Yeah. Plenty of hunting but very little finding.

DON'T FENCE ME IN!

It had been a wonderful party. As the life of it tacked down the street, listing heavily to starboard, he chuckled happily as he recalled the merry time he had had. He was so preoccupied with his thoughts, in fact, that he didn't notice the vertical iron rods that formed a circle of protection for the trunk of a tree growing by the curb. He collided with them rather heavily but managed to grasp one of them to keep from falling.

He surveyed the situation for a moment then grasped the next rung and cautiously followed the rods until he had toured the tree four times.

Finally he halted and looked despairingly through the rods. He spied a man across the street and shouted, "Hey, lemme outta this thing, will ya?"

A USUAL PLAYER

Two ghosts were playing poker when a knock came at the door. "Who is it?" they asked. "Rigor Mortis—may I sit in?"

parade, Claud Lupiano's Tropicoan Orchestra, from Pratt General Hospital, will play for dancing.

Another feature of the community evening at the center will be awarding of prizes in the Juggled Komix Contest. Two awards of $10, a $5, $2, and 10 fifty cent awards will be made by Joseph Hufnagel, originator of the contest. A special award of $10 is being offered by The Riviera for entries employing Riviera comics.

The youth committee of the Coral Gables Junior Chamber of Commerce will assist with the parade, and the Red Cross Volunteer Canteen Corps, headed by Mrs. Clyde Higgins, will serve the barbecue.

Meanwhile, Miss Ward, has arranged a "Courage of Lassie" Dog Show at the center tomorrow starting at 1 p.m. Any youngster up to 18 who has a dog can enter. Entry blanks are at the Center and at the Gables and Coral theaters. First prize is a cup valued at more than $100. There are many additional prizes. 'Canes Set On Winning Game Tonight

No. 13 caught up with him.

However, Ghau boosted his punting average to 42.5 yards per kick when, after averaging a shade under 38 yards in the opener against William & Mary, he averaged better than 44 yards each time he kicked against North Carolina, despite one kick which squirted out of bounds after going only 20 yards.

Ghau's kicks have denied the opposition any chance to get a rumbuck on five occasions and save for one beautiful 39 yard return by Charley Justice of North Carolina, the rumbucks have been held to a couple of yards or so.

Miami has broken even in four games with other Texas eleven, losing the one game it played with the Texas Aggies and capturing two decisions in three from "unformidable" Texas Tech.

Miami, which has played to 62-500 fans in two home games thus far, hopes for its third successive 30,000 crowd this week and that three game total would be greater than the entire season's totals in 1937, 1938, 1942, and 1943.

cause of the many friendships made during the war, that can be kept alive through letter writing.

And, never missing a chance to put in a plug for the home town, the mayor tosses this paragraph into his proclamation, "The people of Coral Gables came here from the four corners of the earth seeking the healthful and recreational benefits of the 'City Beautiful'. It is fitting and proper that the citizens of Coral Gables participate in this nationwide campaign based on the theme 'Keep Friends Near With Letters'. The present citizens of Coral Gables left many friends behind them in less fortunate States."

Of course, you could combine the two and write a letter to your favorite Parent-Teacher Organization, congratulating the group on the splendid work they are doing.

for a while but gradually contact was lost. My friends the Ettie family moved to Chicago and several efforts on my part to find their address met with no results.

"The address of one particular friend, Paul Roselle, who was studying at the University in 1942, I have lost and in this respect I am most interested in exchanging greetings with a 25-year-old ex-Royal Air Force navigator. I can promise nothing better than regular letters and news of the mundane affairs of an average Britisher—the news that is perhaps overlooked by the "headline readers."

Husky Voiced Woman Prankster Uses Power Company for Hoax

Mrs. S. H. Robinson, 244 Avenue Fluvia, will know better the next time she gets some curious instructions on the telephone.

Mrs. Robinson informed Coral Gables police, Tuesday, that a husky voiced woman had called her about 5:15 p.m. and told her to throw all of her electric switches and get out of the house until the phone rang again. The woman explained that the Florida Power and Light Company was doing work in the neighborhood. Mrs. Robinson complied and the woman called back, informing her that because of the extra work involved she was to mail $5.00 to 114 SE 30th Street in Miami.

She called the Florida Power and Light Company and was advised to notify police. A check revealed there is no such address.

Widdersheim Opens Gables Optical Center

Returning to his practice after serving four years in the Air Corps, Dr. Jack M. Widdersheim announced the opening of his office at the Gables Optical Center, 143 Avenue Majorca, last Monday.

Dr. Widdersheim, a former resident of the Gables, entered the service in 1942, serving as commanding officer of his detachment in the 2nd Emergency Rescue Squadron in the Southwest Pacific. Previous to service in the armed forces, the doctor served as optometrist at Burdine's in Miami, where he was associated with Dr. G. J. Gerson.

A graduate of Miami High, Dr. Widdersheim attended Southern College of Optometry in Memphis, Tenn. He intends to make his home in the Gables, but for the present he is residing in the southwest section with his wife and daughter, Judy, age 2.

Dr. Widdersheim is a member of Phi Theta Upsilon, international optometric fraternity; the American Optometric Association, Florida Optometric Association, Coral Gables Junior Chamber of Commerce, and the Chamber of Commerce.

The doctor proposed to devote a major portion of his time to orthoptic training with school children, as well as offering gait services incorporated in a complete practice, including the fitting of optometric contact lenses.

THE PAY OUT IS INCREASING FASTER THAN THE TAKE IN

Your Telephone Company is doing the largest volume of business in its history, yet telephone earnings are still declining rapidly.
The reason is perfectly clear. Your telephone rate has remained the same for many years while the costs of furnishing you telephone service have increased. Wages, telephone materials, building costs, services, all have been going up so fast that—the amount of money Paid Out to provide service is increasing faster than the amount Taken In. Actually telephone earnings today are the lowest in our history!
As every business man knows, good service depends on reasonable earnings. That is basic. To render good telephone service and to continually improve and expand it, reasonable telephone earnings are essential.
Our public duty demands that we report these facts to you.
