LONDON, Nov. 28. (UP)—Russia again today blocked action by the council of foreign ministers on German frontiers and the economic integration of the Saar into France.

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin submitted a formal proposal to establish an Allied commission or commissions to study the German frontier question.

Secretary of State George C. Marshall and Foreign Minister Georges Bidault of France accepted Bevin's proposal, but Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov refused to discuss it.

The council was confronted by the prospect that communist-inspired chaos in France and Italy might preclude negotiation of any compromise on Germany.

Meat, Steel and Lumber Slated for Price Control

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28. (UP)—Secretary of Commerce W. Averell Harriman told Congress today that the administration hopes to roll back the prices of meat, steel and lumber under its anti-inflation program.

Above all, he said, the administration seeks to halt the upward trend of prices.

Harriman made the statements before the joint congressional economic committee which is considering President Truman's 10-point anti-inflation program.

Harriman testified under questioning that rationing and price control of "such important items as meat is one of the matters the program contemplates dealing with."

He suggested that the committee ask Secretary of Agriculture Clinton F. Anderson about exact plans for a roll-back in meat prices. But he reminded the committee that there would be less meat next year than now.

FBI Joins Meyers Probe Of Wartime Activities

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28. (UP)—The FBI has joined forces with Justice Department agents in rounding up evidence about the wartime contract activities of Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers, it was disclosed today.

A federal grand jury already is investigating one phase of the government's case against the retired air force procurement officer. Justice Department attorneys now have asked the FBI to help prepare evidence on other aspects. The current grand jury hearings are in recess until Monday.

Justice Department attorneys declined to reveal which of Meyers wartime activities were under FBI scrutiny. It was believed they were deeper into certain charges made in the senate war investigating committee's hearings on the Meyers case.

Leclerc Believed Victim Of Oran Plane Crackup

PARIS, Nov. 28. (UP)—The air ministry announced tonight that a plane which may have been carrying Gen. Jacques Leclerc, French World War II hero, crashed today near Oran.

The air ministry's first announcement said the plane that crashed was Leclerc's personal aircraft, but that he might not have been aboard.

First reports of the crash came from the National Assembly, where a brief meeting had just adjourned.

Leclerc, 44, rode into Paris at the head of his Second Armored Division when the city was liberated in August, 1944.

The air ministry said the crash occurred 18 miles from Colombéchar, Algeria. The plane caught on fire and burned all its occupants to death, early reports to the ministry said. It was described as a converted Mitchell B-25.

Troops Ordered to Milan As Leftists Call Strike

ROME, Nov. 28. (UP)—The government today ordered Italian military authorities to take over control of the key northern industrial city of Milan where Leftist demonstrators and partisans have taken over the federal building and called a 12-hour general strike.

Whether the government's order to the army meant that troops would make a forcible attempt to drive the left-wing adherents from the federal prefecture in Milan was not immediately known.

However, the government order said that "military authorities" had been directed to assist all civil and military police in Milan at 3 p.m. (11 a.m. EST).

Milan police headquarters was advised of the order which was believed to be a preliminary to declaration of a state of martial law in the turbulent northern metropolis.

France Mobilizes New Army To Restore 'Public Order'

PARIS, Nov. 28. (UP)—The new French government, grappling with a nationwide strike of 2,000,000 workers and fresh outbreaks of violence, today recalled for army service about 80,000 men of last year's military class.

Premier Robert Schuman's cabinet, meeting for four hours in emergency session, was reported to have discussed the mobilization of striking dockmen, miners and railway men. It did not reach a decision.

The government has decided to make public order and the liberty to work respected by all means at its disposal," Pierre Abelin, secretary of state in Schuman's office, said today.

Bare Okay Seen in UN For Palestine Partition

UNITED NATIONS HALL, Flushing, N. Y., Nov. 28. (UP) President Dwight D. Eisenhower today said the United Nations general assembly predicted hairbreadth approval of the partition of Palestine today as the 57 United Nations edged toward a decision on the fate of the Holy Land.

Penicillin Shortage Looms

NEW YORK, Nov. 28. (UP)—A nationwide shortage of penicillin, one of medical science's "wonder drugs," was reported today and officials said the situation would become worse with the expected increase in colds and winter infections.

The trouble, according to Dr. Henry Welch, of the penicillin division of the food and drug administration, may be attributed to several reasons.

One is the return of many army-trained physicians to general practice. During service, they learned the value of penicillin and are now using it in many cases where previously they prescribed one of the sulfa drugs.

One in 16 Crazy, Doctor Holds

NEW YORK, Nov. 28. (UP)—Dr. Vladimir Eitshberg, a psychiatrist, said today that one person in 16 is crazy.

"Eight hundred thousand insane people are in institutions," he said, "but 8,000,000 more are on the loose wandering the streets."

Friday, the 28th of November—the day of the coming of Alabama to the Orange Bowl—bowed drizzly, dark and chilly. Hardly a promising day for 14 University of Miami football players to wind up their collegiate football careers, but the day does deny the Crimson Tide at least the sunshine for which they came to Miami.

Few of the faithful followers of the Hurricanes can remember a University eleven being rated a 20-point underdog—except for the 1944 team which attempted a back-breaking schedule with just enough ball players to go around.

But then, seldom has such a show-up of football talent been on display arrayed against the Hurricanes' at one time. All over the country, where folks are discussing New Year's Day bowl prospects, fans are talking of the Pasadena Michigan-Southern Cal game—and in the next breath speculating on the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans. Sugar Bowl this year is synonymous with Alabama and Harry Gilmer, called the greatest passer in the country today. It is a household word as November and a superlative football season go together.

If Alabama was all Leapin' Harry's passing it might not be so bad. One-man teams are the most predictable upset-bait known to the handicapper.

Stars on the Field

But when you take a look at the sky before leaving (early, we hope, for your sake) for tonight's exhibition, don't worry about the overcast—there'll be plenty of red-jeried stars out on the field.

In six out of nine games this season the Hurricanes have succeeded in better passing (from those Southwestern demons, Baylor and Texas Christian), harder running and blocking (Vanderbilt and Cincinnati), smarter football (South Carolina) and hard luck (Florida). Only in the last department can they expect much better treatment from the Red Elephants. Nine members of the Crimson (Please Turn to Page Eight)

Orange Bowl Festival workers are hoping to fill the 2,500 theater seats for the Aquafolies' opening night, Dec. 29, with Coral Gables residents. James Kinney, manager of the program, said this morning.

"Tickets are now on sale at Burdine's and at the pool," Kinney stated, "and, although we can't restrict their sale to Gables residents, we would like to have as many Gables' folks as possible there for the coronation."

Tickets for the first Gables' participation in the festival are $1 for general admission and $1.50 for reserved seats.

Feature of the show itself, under the direction of Olympic Diving Champion Pete Desjardins, will be a 48-girl water ballet, the largest ever staged.

Selection of the Orange Bowl Queen selection closed at noon today. Kinney stated, and screening of candidates will start early tomorrow.

THEFT CANCELS HOLIDAY TRIP

Brown had filled the gas tank of his car with 18 gallons of Gulf, octane gasoline and was all ready to take a Thanksgiving trip yesterday.

When he walked out to the car and pushed the starter, the engine just wouldn't catch. He examined his gas tank and found the cap gone and the tank bone dry.

Clark Seen Sure of Post At Biltmore

City Commission Expected to Act Tuesday Evening

Wilbur "Umps" Clark expected certain today to get the official nod for the job of supervising both the Coral Gables Biltmore course and the Granada course when the city commission convenes on Tuesday evening.

Clark has been doing the job as "acting pro" in getting the course ready for a December opening. His operating plans, worked out with City Manager William T. McIlwain, will be presented to the commission at the regular meeting.

The commission, in its special session this morning, discussed Clark's job informally, but decided to take no definite action until the professional could present his operating plans.

It was indicated that Clark will obtain the services of two professional men, one the Biltmore and the other for the Granada, who would operate under his general supervision.

Clark has been employed as professional manager for the nine-hole Granada layout.

Clark will also be asked for an estimate of income from pro shop sales and concessions, which usually go with the professional's job.

Kansas Takes Orange Bowl Invitation

Twice-Tied Big Six Co-Champs Signed in Telephone Deal

The University of Kansas Jayhawks, twice-tied co-champions of the Big Six conference, today accepted a bid to play in the 1948 Orange Bowl and it was believed that tomorrow's Georgia-Georgia Tech game in Atlanta will decide whether the Engineers will be the other team on New Year's day.

The first announcement was made by John G. Thompson, president of the Orange Bowl committee, after Van C. Kussner, schedule chairman, had confirmed the acceptance by telephone with Ernie Joyce, athletic director at Kansas. A figure of $50,000 was set for the Jayhawk's share of the guarantee.

Kansas and Texas Christian University (which beat the University of Miami 19-6 here on Oct. 10) played a non-league stand-off to open the season. Then the Jayhawkers whipped Denver, Iowa State, and South Dakota State to close the second tie, 13-13 with Oklahoma who shares the conference title.

Missouri Win Decisive

Last Saturday's 20-14 decision over Missouri, once a strong consideration for the bid, availed the selection by Kansas Jayhawkers, in better shape, they walked to Texas State, 55-0, and beat Nebraska and Oklahoma A & M by the same score, 34-7. They wind up the season against Arizona tomorrow.

This will be the first time Kansas has ever played in any bowl game. Two other Big Six representatives have visited Miami (1939) and Missouri (1936), 17-0, and Missouri losing to Georgia Tech, 21-7, in 1940.

Ray Evans, Kansas triple-threat back is a strong contender for All-American honors, a survey of the nominations made so far reveals. The Jayhawkers are under the first-year tutelage of George H. Connel, who made All-American at Nebraska in 1934.

Poorman that only 20,000 are on hand. If heavy runs develop today and tomorrow, bus drivers may be forced to limit the number sold to each passenger.

Penna. Official Buys $32,000 Home in Gables

Auditor General G. Harold Wagner of Pennsylvania is one of the latest northerners to find a home in Coral Gables' warm and sunny climate.

Purchase of a two-story dwelling on DeSoto Boulevard at Toledo Street for a reported $32,000 was revealed today.

The good schools in Coral Gables plus the healthful climate were the deciding factors in Wagner's decision to buy. His son Kenneth, 17, is a student at the University of Miami and another son, Hal, 14 attends Ponce de Leon High School.

Mrs. and Mrs. Wagner visited Coral Gables last winter and liked it so well they purchased a three-bedroom bungalow at 1001 Cortez Street. However, need for additional space induced them to buy the DeSoto Boulevard home from the William J. Canfield estate.

The Wagner's Pennsylvania home is at White Haven in the foothills of the Pocono Mountains. Wagner has been commuting during the season by plane, remaining for short periods.

He is optimistic over the "tremendous future growth that this area is bound to enjoy, possessing as it does the natural advantages of land, sea and air."

He said he feels that the Miami area possesses great possibilities as a trade center on the air route between the United States and South America.

When Romance Is Over, Make Clean Break

"Dear Nancy: Recently I broke up with a boy I had been going with for two months. We were both fond of each other, but he became tired of dating just one girl. I still like him as much as ever, but he hasn't been to see me in over a month, and he still wears my ring. To top it all, he has been very disagreeable about our break-up, but talks about it to his friends, and me. What do you suggest that I do about this?"

It would be better all around if you severed all connections with him. Before things go any farther, see him and ask him to tell you how he feels about everything, and that you'd like to stay friends. As long as your romance is on the rocks, reclaim your ring in a tactful manner, and make it clear to him that you have no bitter feelings toward him, and if he is angry at you in any way, to please tell you so that you might set things straight. Once this thing is over, accept dates from other boys. There's no use in hanging on after it's over, and you may meet someone really worthwhile!

"Dear Nancy: I am quite interested in a boy who is younger than I. He is two grades behind me, and my friends think it's wrong for me to go with someone who is a year younger than I. But when senior boys go out with girls younger than they, no one pays any attention. Should I listen to them?"

Your dates are your own business. Your friends might give you good advice from time to time, but where your interest lies, it's strictly up to you. If you really like this boy, don't listen to criticism about his grade or his age. If you have fun together and get along well, there's no reason why you should mind that because of that year of difference.

Picturesque Church Wedding Unites Miss Marjory Brice And Thomas Charles Marley

In a setting of white gladioli, ferns, palms and lighted cathedral candles, Miss Marjory Alice Brice became the bride of Thomas Charles Marley at seven o'clock last evening in the Coral Gables First Methodist Church. Dr. J. H. Daniel officiated.

Mrs. Dorsey Willoughby, organist, and Miss Lillian Wolf, violinist, both friends of the bride, played a program of nuptial music including "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" before the ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Francis Brice of 803 Alhambra Circle, chose a gown of Chantilly lace made with tiers of the lace ending in a long train. Her veil of illusion was long and caught to the head with a puff of lace. She carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums centered with white orchids.

Mrs. Harry W. Craft, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her gown of orchid and fuchsia marquisette was made with full sweep skirt and complemented with orchid mitts and headress of fuchsia horsehair braid and ostrich tips. GABLES GIRL SCOUTS, ALL 11, EMBARK ON 'DETAIL PLUM PUDDING' MONDAY

Any Girl Scout troop can get together to make plum puddings for their mothers' Christmas presents but Troop 275 is not just ANY Scout troop.

In the first place, the troop is composed entirely of 11-year-old sixth grade girls at Merrick Demonstration school. But that's not enough. What really is different is the fact that every one of these girls have been together since they entered the first grade. Not only did they wade through their first primers together but they were also Brownie Scouts together.

As they gradually edged their way up to the sixth grade, they outgrew their Brownie troop and had to form their own "big girl" Scout troop.

Monday, the girls will meet at 11 a. m. at the home of one of their leaders, Mrs. R. H. Ebsary, 319 Avenue Mendoza, where they will make plum puddings for their mothers' Christmas presents. Mrs. Claude Nowlin their other Scout leader, will be on hand to help Mrs. Ebsary serve the girls' lunches.

OUR TOWN

Cold Turkey

By Al Harum

It depends on what part of the country you hail from when you come to define the figurative use of the expression "cold turkey." It might mean "straight from the shoulder"—even though the actual turkey may be straight from the wing or what have you—probably because cold turkey is brought down right and requires nothing to make it better. Or it might mean "cut and dried" because cold turkey is just that—but good.

From another quarter another definition: "all settled and done with"—which could be okay except that it doesn't leave much cold turkey.

If a man talks "cold turkey" he could be talking "without trimmings" or "without argument" and if a salesman tackles a prospect "cold turkey" his job is more difficult because he has had no time to prepare or "sway" him.

Or—as the Sports Editor, realistic fellow that he is, just whispered (if Sports Editors can whisper)—"cold turkey" could mean just cold turkey. And on the day after Thanksgiving we agree that it could mean just that.

Yesterday we discharged a debt of thanks for the blessings of peace and happiness and health. The coming year starts another page and another list of things for which to be thankful.

Most of the things with which we are blessed are there for the taking. We're not happy unless we contribute our share of peace and happiness and health and we work hard to keep our health. Peace is a state which exists for as long as there are no belligerents. Food is good only in proportion to its hunger.

These are truths which need "no trimmings" and are "without argument" and are, therefore, "cold turkey."

Have a bit of our "cold turkey" with your today.

First Christian To Hold Thanks Rites on Sunday

The Thanksgiving service for the First Christian Church of Coral Gables, 222 Menores Avenue, will be held Sunday morning. "Man's Most Ennobling Act" will be the morning message by the minister, the Rev. John W. Messer. The choir, under the direction of Mrs. John R. Brain, will sing Dickens' "Thanks Be To God," and Miss Alleen Stiffled, contralto, will sing "Blessing" by Curran. The organist, Mrs. E. H. Bryant, will play as a Prelude, "Andante Religioso" by Thorne, the Offertory will be "Cradle Song" by Grochowski and the Postlude will be Wagner's "Processional March." A nursery is maintained for infants and small children during the morning worship hour, which begins at 10:45.

A special Thanksgiving service will be held during the Church School hour, which convenes at 9:30. Mrs. G. P. Pilley, superintendent of the Intermediate Department, is in charge of the service.

Thanksgiving worship service has been planned by Martha Carrol, president of the Church of the Christian Youth Fellowship, which will meet at the church at 6 p.m. The Intermediate Fellowship will meet for directed recreation at the church at 5 p.m. Following this will be their worship and study program. Young people from 11 to 14 are invited to these services.

The Sunday evening worship will offer another message in the "The Dilemma of Jesus," this one, "The Dilemma of Authority." Mrs. Mimmie Monk will sing "The Twenty-Third Psalm." This service begins at 8 p.m. with an inspirational song service.

New Choir Director
 The First Christian Church of Coral Gables has recently called Bulby Pierce Jackson Brain as its director of the choir and Mrs. E. Bryant as the organist. Mrs. Brain has previously served in the capacity of choir director for the First Christian Church, at which time she trained a very efficient choir. She comes to this church with a wealth of experience and ability, and under her capable direction the choir is planning some very fine music for the Sunday services and special musical programs. Mrs. F. E. Bryant has had considerable experience with the organ, playing for other churches and also being the organist for Army Chapel services.

100th Addition
 With the transfer of membership of Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Schaefer last Sunday, the First Christian Church passed its 100th addition during the ministry of the Rev. John W. Messer. Mr. Messer began his ministry with the First Church Sept. 1, 1948.

Trees require a period of relief from light which may be compared roughly with the state of sleep for animals.

Biro Will Preach For Gables Baptists

Under the direction of Mrs. Charles E. Park, the choir of the University Baptist church will sing Wilson's "Beyond the Silent River" during the 11 o'clock morning worship service this Sunday. The Rev. Dr. Ladislav Biro, pastor, will bring the message at this service at the evening worship service at 7:45 p.m. Bible school will meet at 9:45 a. m.

The B. T. U. will meet at 6:30 p. m. under the leadership of A. E. Suro. He is assisted each Sunday by the heads and workers in the four departments: Junior Union, ages 9 through 12; Intermediate Union, ages 13 through 16; Young People's Union, ages 17 through 24; Adult Union, ages 25 and above.

Salvation Topic Of Rev. Pavy

"Salvation Through Divine Personality" is the message to be delivered by Rev. Roy G. Pavy at the Coral Gables Congregational church Sunday at 11 a.m. Miss Geraldine Rasmussen, Mrs. Agnes Sluight, and the choir will sing the anthem, "Hark! Hark, My Soul" by Shelly. Malotte's "Twenty Third Psalm" will be sung by Miss Helen Burruss, soprano.

Meeting at 10 a.m. each Sunday is the Marshall Class for Adults. Under the leadership of Dr. Harry I. Marshall, who was previously a Baptist minister and head of a theological seminary in Burma, the purpose of this class is to help individuals discover Biblical solutions to life's problems.

One-fourth of the rain that falls in the forest is caught by tree leaves and branches and dissipated into the air.

Distributed Responsibility

Distribute the wealth—that is the totalitarian way. Distribute the responsibility—that is the democratic way. They are both quick to forget the difference.

Those who favor equal distribution of wealth lose interest when they find how little wealth they get and begin to live under rationed scarcity. Those who favor democratic sharing of responsibility lose interest when they find how much responsibility they get. They revert to irresponsible grabbing for themselves—an open invitation to dictators and bureaucrats to step in and take control.

This vicious cycle can be broken in the democratic way only by men who place responsibility for others ahead of riches, ease and comfort for themselves. There are farmers who harvest unprofitable crops so that others may have more to eat. There are wholesalers who move surplus stock at prices which benefit only the purchaser. There are manufacturers who put people before profits and produce to meet the needs rather than a financier's approval. There are retailers who, in spite of rising costs, take as much loss as they can themselves in order to keep the rising spiral.

Such men, dividing the responsibility for conserving and creating wealth (instead of cornering responsibility for dividing wealth) are the men who hold democracy against totalitarianism. They are taking your share of this responsibility? Or are you simply demanding a larger share of democracy's benefits while paying nothing of its costs?

Fritsch Addresses Special Sermon to Ponce Key Club

"If I Were a Key Club Boy" is the message at the 11 a.m. worship service at the Country Club Christian Church, 1009 E. Ponce de Leon Blvd., in the Women's Club Building adjoining the Public Library in Coral Gables, by the Pastor, the Rev. Harvey John Fritsch.

"The Key Club of Ponce de Leon High School is honoring our church by their desire to attend our services in a group accompanied by their parents. It is desirable when a group of young men will include in their plans a determination that God will have a place, not only in their individual lives, but in the life of their club as well," the Rev. Mr. Fritsch said today.

The anthem of the morning will be, "My Prayer," with Gilbert Langenhans as soloist. Holy Communion will be observed.

Bible School meets at 10 a.m. with classes for every age.

Christian Endeavor meets at 6:45 p.m. Roland Buppert Jr., is the leader, and all young people are invited to attend and take part in the meetings.

Christ's Death Is Sermon Topic Of Rev. Cumming

NEW YORK (UP)—The suave Basil Rathbone is playing the role of the father in "The Heiress" with a bandaged and sling-supported left wrist these nights as a result of a little dog trouble in Central Park.

The star had his police dog out for an airing. The animal suddenly broke her leash, jumped a wall and headed for Fifth Avenue traffic. Rathbone vaulted the wall after her and fell on his wrist. He was out of the show that night but back on the following.

The management hired Ernest Adler, makeup specialist, to help Rathbone put on the false whiskers he dons nightly to play Dr. Slop.

On Monday nights, incidentally, Rathbone has a radio broadcast and he has to do the whiskers and costume of a gentleman of 1850 before the radio appearance because there isn't time to make up between that chore and his appearance on stage at the Biltmore. His dashes from studio to stage thus arrayed seem to attract no unusual attention, which indicates to him that "New Yorkers aren't surprised by anything."

The trenchant way of press agent Dick Maney with the written or spoken word is well known in theatrical circles. An associate in his office is the source of the latest Maneyism.

Maney was writing some biographical material on John Ford, sensational freshman actress of "For Love or Money." He was writing that she had made her film debut at the age of 13 in "something called 'Christmas Carol.'" The associate said, "What do you mean—something called 'Christmas Carol.'" You know it's Dickens' "Christmas Carol."

"With Hollywood," Maney snapped, "you never can tell."

HOLLYWOOD FILM SHOP

By PATRICIA CLARY

United Press Staff Correspondent

Hollywood, (UP)—Al Jolson, who two years ago was named in a poll as the most popular in the minds of most Americans, today is back among the greatest names in entertainment.

His records are outselling Bing Crosby and Frank Sinatra, two to one, and Jolson once more is a household institution.

It can't be said that the greatest showman of the 1920s was forgotten. He was going away on vacation, until the movie "The Jolson Story" brought him back in the spotlight.

Some say the picture made him famous again, but others believe it just renewed the public demand for Jolson. He responded, not for money, because he's a long-time millionaire, but because he wanted to be back where he belonged, behind the footlights with applause ringing in his ears.

After being radio's favorite guest star for a season, Jolson came out of retirement formally this fall with his own radio show, the Thursday Kraft Music Hall.

Hollywood Listens In
 Hollywood waited the night of his first show with hushed expectancy. Radios were turned to the station in movie colony bars. Vice-presidents and parking lot attendants alike felt the suspense.

When the strains of "Toot, Tootsie" winged out during Jolson's rehearsal, a middle-aged secretary in the studio stopped her typing to listen with a reminiscent smile. A mail girl stopped sorting and gazed into space. An NBC usher peeked into the studio as he strode down the corridor.

At 59, Jolson still had the polish of years of show business. Only one thing about his radio show worried him. He learned his style of singing long before the days of microphones when he had to project his voice into the deepest recesses of the theaters. Now he has his own microphone. He works hard at singing softly until he gets exasperated, then steps away from the microphone and lets his voice bellow out.

In perfect physical condition, Jolson takes a massage and rubdown every morning at 10. That's his favorite time for receiving interviews, and he rattles on about his new show with endless enthusiasm. His colorful conversation automatically takes his listeners back to the 1920s.

Photographers as always are his friends. They can shoot him any time—if they let him know he can take other pictures.

Jolson is married to the former Erie Garkash, whom he met while touring Arkansas hospitals during the war. They live in the Santa Monica mountains overlooking San Fernando Valley.

"I have everything now I have ever wanted, except one thing," Jolson said, "and hope to have that before long. That's a son."

Buzfuz Favorite for Gulfstream Inaugural

The Sunshine Stable's Buzfuz definitely became the horse to beat in Monday's $7500 Gulfstream Park Inaugural Handicap, following assurance from owner Dap Cappell that the son of Zacaueista would be a definite starter in the rich race. Buzfuz won the Inaugural Handicap at the Spring meeting, and will doubtless be favored to repeat that score on Monday.

Racing Secretary W. R. Dahlstrom expects that nearly all of the 18 nominees to the six furlongs scamp will accept the final issue, despite the presence of Buzfuz in the race. H. A. Dabson's record breaking Nance's Ace has trained in perfect fashion and was never better. Dabson would enjoy winning the inaugural feature, for this winter may mark Nance's Ace finale as a race mare. Present intentions are to retire her to the breeding farm in the Spring. She won the Inaugural at Hialeah Park a year ago.

Other probable starters include the Berrill Farm's Dog Juice, Bohanet Stable's Glen Heather, Mrs. Tilyon Christopher's Clover Leaf, Dearborn Stable's Black Twelfth, Frank Frankel's Blunt Remark, S. Greenfield's High Trend, F. W. Hooper's Colossal, W. L. Huntley's Umpdyn, Mrs. L. Lazare's Clean Slate, S. D. Sidel's Iodine and, as a dubious starter, Mrs. A. Sabath's Say Blue. The latter loomed a certain post parader early in the week, but some doubt as to her status now exists. She may be reserved for later handicaps on Gulfstream Park's schedule.

Weights are certain to play a major role in final developments, but Gulfstream's policy of closing all stakes races a week prior to the running leaves the lists wide open to those in top form and ready for the issue. There is a minimum of dead weight and post time generally catches nearly all of the nominees. With 14 post paraders in the Inaugural, the winner's share of the purse will gross the winner Greenfield's High Trend, F. W.

Break Sets Up Johnston Scoring Trip

West Palm Beach Winds-up Ponce Slate Next Week

Ponce de Leon High school's Cavaliers played the Fort Lauderdale on even terms at Stranahan Field last night—and the break the Coral Gables school has been looking for won them the ball game, 6-0.

With the treacherous ball cluding back's fingers time after time, the Cavaliers and Flying L's fumbled their way through a rain-swept, chilly first period, until an L pass was misfired on their own 11 yard line. On the first play, Ponce's Johnson begged it around left end to hang up the score.

A combination of the rain and the dogged defensive play of both teams sent the fans home early in the fourth period. Talking, not chances on fumbling, both sides swapped punts to fill in the rest of the ball game.

Ann Wiley's Flying L's couldn't get through the stubborn Ponce line led by co-captains Tom Fryer and Tom Gibson, and Noppenberg, satisfied with the lead, did not play them. Today Day rivals a chance to come close on Cavalier gambles.

One Game To Go

Fort Lauderdale was supposed to round out the Cavalier's scheduled but Athletic Director Jack Granley said this morning that the game with West Palm Beach, originally slated to open the season will be played next week at the Orange Bowl, probably Friday, Dec. 5. The original clash was postponed due to the first hurricane.

Musketees End Season Under Moore Park Lights

Coach John Homko's St. Theresa Musketeers wind up the 1947 football season in a game at Moore Park tomorrow night with St. Mary's Panthers that will decide the runner-up slot in the South Florida Catholic League.

Only One Loop Loss Aplece The game figures to be a toss-up on the basis of past performances, although high scoring St. Theresa has piled up more points against mutual opponents. Both teams have sustained only one loss in conference play. St. Theresa having lost their bid for the championship to Gessu, 38-13, and the Panthers, also to the Crusaders, 28-0.

Tom FitzGibbon, Bill Edwards Bert Stahl and Bill Frazel, the Musketeers endurance backfield, will again be in the starting line-up. Coach Homko announced this morning.

Finishing the season under the lights, in the forward wall, will be Gene Doll and Rene Cooleau at ends; Harry Herndon and Jack Sulley at tackles; and Carl Her-vath and Bill Murray at guard. Center Bill Cross will round out the starting eleven. Game time is 8:15 p. m.

When the siren ends tonight's game between the University of Miami and Alabama seniors. Running in practice together for the first time are, left to right, Bill Dixon, guard; Al Adler, tackle; Eric Mazojka, blocking back; tackle Jay Kendrick's, centers Keith Doyle and Hal Shuler, wingback Ed Injochick, center Bob Sutter and quarterback Sam Dermigny.

GOLF
By ANN RANDOLPH
Now that our favorite golf course is more crowded, than in the last few months, lets give a thought to the other fellow. It doesn't take a minute to pull your caddy cart. AROUND the green and "Ump's" has put a lot of work on those little score climbers, so, if your golf bag is as heavy as my husbands, the dents are going to effect someone's par.
Mrs. G. S. Yessler of Indianapolis, Indiana, returned three weeks ago for her second winter. Mr. E. D. Walters, Minneapolis, Minnesota golfer, was seen on the course again this week with his old friend Al Baysinger, from Hot Springs, Arkansas.
While wives, or mothers, were busy getting that turkey in the oven yesterday morning, the men folks showed up for "11:00 than usual" game—for by 11:00 160 had teed off on a by four o'clock the number had climbed to 250. Marjell Marshall had her clubs stolen from their beautiful new car, you know, and now she is (Please Turn to Page Eight)
