For the 7:30 p. m. worship service, Dr. Larson will deliver a sermon on the subject of "Plucked Out of the Fire." This is a service of Christian worship for all people, regardless of their denominational backgrounds. The public is cordially invited to attend.

On Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, mid-week prayer service will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Selden Stewart II, 424 Avenue Almeria. The study theme for this meeting will be "Some Pointers in Doing Personal Work." Hymn rehearsal will be held at 8:15 p. m.

Christian Science

First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Coral Gables is opposite City Hall Park. Morning service, 11 a. m. Evening service, 8 p. m. Sunday school, 11 a. m. "Life" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday, January 18.

The Golden Text is: "Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live; and so the Lord, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken" (Amos 5:14).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live: That thou mayest love the Lord thy God, and that thou mayest obey His voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto Him: for He is thy life, and the length of thy days" (Deuteronomy 30:19, 20 to 2d.).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Entirely separate from the belief and dream of material living, is the Life divine, revealing spiritual understanding and the consciousness of man's dominion over the whole earth" (15: 25-28).

'Sub-Normal' is Topic of Dr. Schaaf

Presbyterians Weigh Church Building Program

Dr. E. M. Conover, director of the Interdenomination Bureau of Architecture, will meet with the officers of the Gables Presbyterian Church, Sunday at 4 p. m. in the office of W. J. McLeod Jr., in the Renuart building. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the building program which this church is now undertaking.

With the completion of a manse at 1123 Avenue Obispo, the church is now ready to give attention to plans and raising of funds for a church building which it is anticipated will be effectively under way in the next few weeks.

Members of the church session are J. N. Vernam Jr., and Selden Stewart II. The Diaconate includes W. J. McLeod Jr., Leonard L. Bostwick, John Bouvier and Frank Taylor.

Sutorius Plans Farewell Sermon

A farewell service will be conducted at St. James Lutheran Church at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. The pastor, Rev. C. J. Sutorius, who is leaving next week for Columbus, Ohio where he will become the pastor of the Emanuel Lutheran Church, will deliver a farewell sermon entitled "A Pastor's Farewell Prayer."

Immediately following the morning service, members and friends of the church will hold a farewell dinner for Rev. Sutorius and his family at the community house in South Miami.

First Methodists Plan Open House

Oren Coates, tenor, will present Henry Gehl's "My World" during the morning worship services at the Coral Gables First Methodist Church this Sunday. The anthem will be Woodward's "Behold the Days Come." Rev. J. H. Daniel will speak on "The Temptation of Jesus." Church School will convene at 9:45 a. m.

Open house will be held at the church between 5 and 6 p. m. for the Intermediates, Seniors, and Young People of the church and community. At 6 p. m., supper will be served to the groups. Individual meetings of the groups will be held at 6:30 p. m.

Church Committee Meets Wednesday

"It Matters What You Think" Rev. David J. Davis will tell members of the Plymouth Congregational Church congregation this Sunday during the 11 a. m. worship hour.

Church School will convene at 9:45 a. m., while the Plymouth Bible Class, led by Rev. Richard M. Dodge, will meet at 10 a. m. Pilgrim Fellowship will meet at 7 p. m.

Plans for Lent and Easter will be made Wednesday evening when the Church Committee, composed of all the officers of the church, holds its regular monthly meeting at 7:30 o'clock in Plymouth Hall. An appointment of the church committees for this year will also take place.

H. S. Forum Meets With College Group

"The Demand to be Let Alone" will be discussed by Rev. Roy G. Pavy at the Coral Gables Congregational Church Sunday. Helen Burruss and Cora Joslin will offer a duet, Jewett's "Teach Me to Play." Miss Burruss will also join with Geraldine Rasmussen and the choir to sing "My Faith Looks Up to Thee" by Schnecker. They will be accompanied by David Turoskey, violinist.

At 9:45, the sixth grade boys of the Sunday school will have charge of the worship service for the entire Sunday school.

The High School Forum will meet at 5 p. m. for a discussion. They will join the College Age Forum for a covered dish supper at 6:30 p. m. at which time they will be addressed by Rev. Warren H. Denison. Following the supper, the College Forum will elect officers for the ensuing year. The final activity for the evening will be a social period for both groups.

Holy Communion Set at St. Philip's

Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8 a. m. at St. Philip's Episcopal Church, Sunday. This will be the second Sunday after Epiphany. At 11 a. m. a morning prayer and sermon will be offered by the rector, Dr. C. P. Sparling.

Saturday Rites Are Slated For Josephus Daniels

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 16. (UP) — Funeral arrangements were completed today for Josephus Daniels, stout-hearted editor of the Raleigh News and Observer and former navy secretary who died yesterday at the age of 85.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. at the Edenton St. Methodist church here, where Daniels was a member for years. He will be buried beside his wife in the family plot at Oakwood cemetery.

Messages of sympathy poured in to Daniels' family from the nation's great, including President Truman, who inquired frequently of Daniels' condition during the last 12-day fight.

Truman Calls Turndown Of Kuter a 'Disservice'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16. (UP) — President Truman said today the senate armed services committee did "a disservice" to the nation's air policy by refusing to permit Maj. Gen. Lawrence S. Kuter to serve as chairman of the Civil Aeronautics Board and keep his air force rank and pay.

Mr. Truman disclosed his feelings in a letter to committee chairman Chan Gurney (Rep., S. D.)

Last week the president asked Congress to permit the nomination of Kuter to the CAB with retention of his army rank and pay status.

At issue is the amount of pay Kuter would draw, as well as the general policy of putting military men in civilian jobs. The Civil Aeronautics Board post pays only $10,000, but Kuter now receives approximately $15,500 in air force pay, allowances and flight pay.

Jewish Squads Strike Back; Kill 30 Arabs at Haifa

JERUSALEM, Jan. 16. (UP) — Jewish Haganah squads struck back at Arabs in Haifa in a two-hour attack before dawn today and first reports of casualties ranged up to 30 Arabs killed with an equal number of wounded.

Arab sources said their casualties numbered 32 killed and wounded. A Haganah source said the attack inflicted 60 casualties, half of them fatalities.

Jewish sources said the attack was made by 400 Haganah members who invaded Haifa from the valley of Jezreel and fought into the heart of the Arab section.

Prospector Adamant in Hope For Finding Pirate Gold

GREEN COVE SPRINGS, Fla., Jan. 16. (UP) — Nearly everyone but prospector C. B. Mobley gave up hope of finding a $4,000,000 pirate treasure here today, but the 30-year-old miner started his fourth day of digging undaunted by a series of setbacks.

City officials were plainly worried by the big hole the bespectacled Mobley was gouging into a downtown street with his steam-shovel crew.

But Mobley went through another test with his home-made divining rod yesterday and reported that a "strong pull" showed him the gold was still there, underneath the street.

Gandhi Reported Sinking

NEW DELHI, Jan. 16. (UP) — Mohandas K. Gandhi, sinking on the fourth day of his fast, remained in bed today as the Indian government made two concessions to Pakistan and Hindu-Moslem peace in efforts to get him to break his hunger strike.

An announcement said that Gandhi passed a comfortable night and rose for prayers as usual at the palatial Birla estate where he is fasting. But then, so weak he cannot walk alone, the 78-year-old Hindu spiritual leader returned to his bed.

Gandhi's quick decline caused the Indian cabinet to announce that it would resume suspended independence payments to Pakistan and permit a plebiscite in the disputed state of Junagadh.

New Wave, 'Coldest Yet,' Is Expected

Low voltage, which caused dim lights, was widespread.

Fuller expressed appreciation for the co-operation of local merchants, the larger percentage of whom cut their store lights and exterior lighting during the peak hours. The signs on the two theaters were not turned on and street lights were not lighted until after the 10 p. m. peak had passed.

He said that, while temperatures were expected to rise today, the company anticipates load increases for the next two or three days and that the situation will remain critical tonight.

He solicited the co-operation of both residents and business people for as long as the emergency lasts.

The Coral Gables Chamber of Commerce yesterday asked the co-operation of all its members and sent as many telegrams to local business houses as Western Union could handle.

Cold Hits Farms "If we hadn't secured the co-operation of so many people, there would have been widespread trouble last night," Fuller said.

Farther up the state, weary farmers began adding up their losses during the brief respite from the season's first damaging cold wave, during which they waged a two-day battle against frost, with smoke pot and bonfire.

A dreaded calm settled over the inland growing sections of the state before dawn today, permitting plant-burning frost to creep into every inland cranny of the 1,000-mile peninsula. Freezing temperatures ranged from 24-degree lows in the Gainesville and upper East Coast districts down to the truck farming sections well south of Coral Gables.

The damage to $100,000,000 worth of ripening citrus fruit and truck crops worth more millions had not been counted yet. But losses were feared to be high.

Ice in Outskirts Strawberry growers in the Plant City sector near Tampa did estimate $500,000 as a safe figure for their losses in just-redding fruit, and another half million dollars' damage to tender strawberry plants.

Schools in the Coral Gables area remained closed for the second straight day. Most of them lacked heating facilities.

South Florida residents spotted the rare sparkle of frost and ice on some rooftops in outlying sections around the Gables.

As yet there was no immediate relief in prospect for the state-wide fuel oil shortage, which will hurt fruit growers who use it to fire their groves as well as threaten home owners with lack of heat and electricity.

Although weather men predicted the state would warm up late today and tonight, they also expected the North's second cold wave to sweep into Florida by Sunday morning.

Philharmonic Installs Newly Elected Officers

Oliver Washburn, president and conductor of the Philharmonic Society of Greater Miami, was inducted into office in both capacities for another year at a recent meeting of the society.

Five new directors took office and a new treasurer was also named.

Byron Sperow, vice-president of the First National Bank of Coral Gables, became treasurer.

Andrew N. Houston replaced C. H. Reeder as vice-president of the organization. Reeder, a former Mayor of Miami, will return to the society after a year's leave of absence because of illness.

Dr. W. W. McKibben, a leading children's physician, John Paul Riddle, chairman of the Board of Riddle Inter-American College and financier George M. Corrigan are among the new members of the musical organization's board of directors. All are Gables men.

Arthur Griffith, an editorial writer, and J. Bruce Langdon also joined the Board of Directors.

Ike N. Parrish, A. George Abbott, William B. Burruss, J. Fritz Gordon and Henry Clay Anderson continue as directors.

At the meeting, the entire board agreed unanimously to a continuation of the policy pursued during 1947, which consists of 12 monthly concerts featuring local musicians, local soloists and local composers.

Million in Building Okayed by W. Miami

In the first nine months of its existence, the city of West Miami wrote building permits for almost a million dollars worth of construction, City Clerk Harry S. Lord announced today.

A total of $916,300 worth of building was authorized from the time the city was founded on April 7, 1947 until Dec. 31 of the same year, the city clerk said.

There were 197 permits written and almost all of them were for single family residences, said Lord.

Fifty strategically-located atomic bomb explosions could paralyze the United States' war-making powers and 93 well-placed bombs could, in a single attack, directly affect nearly one-half the American people, according to The American Magazine.

wide fuel oil shortage, which will hurt fruit growers who use it to fire their groves as well as threaten home owners with lack of heat and electricity.

LOWER RENTS LOOM UNDER DECONTROL

Mrs. Moore stated that at the beginning of the season apartments were offered for rent from October and November to June 1 for from $2.00 to $4,000. Many of these remained vacant that could have been rented on a monthly basis during November, December and January.

She said that the number of visitors who wish to remain here from November through June is relatively small.

Building Inspector Gilbert B. Campbell said that an affirmative decision to decontrol will result in a general lowering of rents, eventually.

The official, who owns a six-unit apartment in Miami's northeast section, said that people are now "shopping around" with price a decisive factor.

Will Have to Scale Down He said that landlords who will rent from $90 a month down will have no trouble keeping their apartments rented, but those asking rents above that will have to come down or have their apartments vacant.

He cited cases of Coral Gables landlords who started out asking $2,000 for the season, unfurnished, who have since furnished the apartments, offered them for $150 a month and still have vacancies.

He said that there are thousands of "honest people" in the area who have refused to rent apartments under control, not because of price ceilings but because of the other binding regulations that the control brings.

"People don't want to rent to tenants they cannot get rid of, if they become undesirable, at any price," he stated.

Ceilings Seen Silly He said that in instances where rent ceilings have been held to as low as $35 monthly that landlords are entitled to relief, and called such ceilings "silly."

Donald F. Peck, president of the Coral Gables Board of Realtors, had already expressed himself publicly as believing that decontrol would lower high rents and raise low ones.

He also predicted that decontrol would make more housing units available by ending the conversion of apartments into hotel rooms and offices.

'47 BUILDING INCREASE SETS COUNTY MARK

The figures for all of Dade County also were about twice as high for 1947 as for 1946.

The year completed saw $156,421,632 worth of permits in the county against $71,605,734 for 1946.

Coral Gables even topped Miami Beach in the number of one and two family units. There were 253 such dwellings authorized here against 214 in Miami Beach.

Gables Pilot Spots Craft

(Continued from Page One) radio communication, had been the object of an intensive search by Coast Guard, Army and Navy planes for the past four days.

Coast Guard authorities said the two passengers aboard the drifting craft, Eric Larson and Lawrence Farley, apparently were in good physical condition. They were reported walking about the cruiser.

15-Month-Old Strangled by Blind

Funeral arrangements have not yet been made for 15-month-old Francis Smith Brewer Jr. who was strangled to death yesterday with the cord of a Venetian blind with which he was playing.

The child was rushed to Coral Gables hospital, but it was too late to save him.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Brewer Sr., of 6410 SW 39th Street.

The body is at the Philbrick Funeral Home.

Hartman Estate Valued at $20,437

Claude H. Hartman, formerly of 1901 Cortez Street, left an estate valued at $20,437 when he died on Dec. 20, 1947, according to an inventory filed in Probate Court today.

The estate consists of $18,472 in cash in the Coral Gables First National Bank and an automobile valued at $1,960.

Hartman died intestate and his widow, Mrs. Elfreda Hartman has been appointed administratrix of the estate by Judge W. Frank Blanton.

It is estimated that during 1948 the average flax yield per acre in South Dakota will be nine and eight-tenths bushels.

Scrap Drive Slated Sunday

The Ponce de Leon High School Wheel Club will conduct its monthly scrap paper drive on Sunday, beginning at 9 a.m., it was announced today.

Residents were requested to tie the paper in bundles and leave it on the curb, where the Wheel Clubbers will gather it up. Proceeds are being used to buy a new piano for the school.

State Attorney Seeks Re-election

State Attorney Glenn C. Mincer announced today that he is sending his qualifying fee to the Secretary of State in connection with his candidacy to succeed himself in the May primary.

Mincer said his platform will be announced later.

Six Washington Letters Added to Collection

NEWBURGH, N. Y. (UP)—Six more original letters signed by Gen. George Washington have been added to the collection of historic documents at his Revolutionary War headquarters here.

The letters were obtained from the Oscar T. Bark collection in Brooklyn.

One of the letters, written nearly a year after the British surrender at Yorktown, reveals Washington's problems in keeping the Continental army intact pending the formal peace declaration.

After the British capitulation, the Continental Congress apparently was unable or unwilling to settle war debts and Washington, appealing for appropriations, wrote that he did not want to revert "again to the ruinous and expensive System of calling upon the States for specific supplies" for his troops.

Foot Slips, Driver Hits Second Auto

A 21-year-old University student told police today his foot slipped on the brake pedal of his car and caused it to bang into another car as he was attempting to park it on Ponce de Leon Boulevard near Coral Way.

The motorist whose foot slipped was Frank Di Giralamor, who lives at the University of Miami South Campus. His car struck another vehicle owned by eBenjamin E. Mitchell, 35, of 3573 Linden Lane, Coconut Grove.

Neither car was badly damaged.

2 New Homes Okayed by City

Permits for the construction of three residences and an improvement to the Riviera Country Club were issued today by the building inspection department.

Spector and Sons will build an $11,000 residence at 301 Avenue Fluvia and a $12,000 home at 306 Fluvia. They were designed by Leroy K. Albert.

Gables Homes, Inc. was issued a permit for a $9,000 residence at 113 Avenue Camillo, designed by Gordon Severud.

The Riviera Country Club permit was for a $5,000 porch glazing.

Student Loans Rising At Texas University

AUSTIN, Texas (UP)—Student loans, like everything else at the University of Texas, are experiencing a post-war boom.

The loan committee chairman, Jack Holland, said 15 students a day now seek loans. One loan a day was the pre-war average.

High prices and tardy arrival of checks for GI enrollees are given as causes for the increase.

Overall loan loss is less than one percent. Most applications are for 30-day loans averaging $35.

Local and Long Distance HAULING

CORAL GABLES Riviera Times Published Monday through Friday afternoons by the Riviera Publishing Co., 500 Avenue Aragon, Coral Gables, Fla. Established as a weekly newspaper January, 1926; combined with the Dade County & Coconut Grove Times, 1933; published daily except Saturday and Sunday.

OUR TOWN So It's Cold By Al Harum

It isn't really cold. It's just that the mercury has dropped. Those folks who put on long underwear, a sweater, a vest, a jacket, and an Elk's tooth in this kind of weather are not really cold. They're slaves of public opinion.

And who wants to put the heater in their bathroom of a morning when I, too, like a warm bathroom. And who wants to get up bright and early and start a blaze in the fireplace so that guests can climb out from under the blankets you wish you'd had on your bed and dress in comfort?

That's what I keep telling myself.

It Says Here

A Riviera-Times reporter, doing a round-up story on the cold weather, yesterday, asked the local Chamber of Commerce for a comment. "You can quote me as saying, 'B-r-r-r-r'", a Chamber spokesman retorted. . . .

BETWEEN US Promise Breaker Doesn't Deserve Consideration

By Nancy Mottram "Dear Nancy: The boy I'm going with at present is quite nice but he never keeps a promise. He will promise to call me or come over, and never shows up. He will not even call to tell me that he's changed his plans. I like him very much, but I'm reaching the limit of my endurance. Since he lives 10 or 15 minutes' walk away from my house, there is no excuse for his lateness, either. He just doesn't seem to make an effort. What shall I do?"

Gablesgrams By HELEN REYNOLDS, SOCIETY EDITOR

Because he ate "Palachinski" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Tweed, 927 Avenue Valencia, last grand opera season, Dr. George Schick, director of the opera Rigoletto, practically ordered the dish again when he was invited to partake of the Tweed hospitality tonight. Mr. and Mrs. Tweed will entertain Dr. and Mrs. Schick and several others of the opera company at dinner and the famous Czechoslovakia dessert will be served at the end of the meal.

Courthouse Corridors

By ARTHUR PEAVY Riviera-Times Staff Writer While Miami Beach is not particularly interested in Miami's sewer deal, Coral Gables is interested because there is a possibility of that city hooking into the Miami system.

R. J. Holley this week returned to Miami after a session in New York with bond companies and announced to newsmen that he had two companies ready to write the $5,600,000 performance bond necessary before the city entered into a contract.

Roland Sweet, Coconut Grove attorney, is still toying with the idea of running for county commission against Chairman Charles H. Crandon. Sweet would undoubtedly give Crandon a good race, if youth, war record and ability mean anything.

As we predicted last week Crandon came out and announced for re-election, seeking his tenth term as a county commissioner. It is currently rumored that Crandon seeks to prevent Ernest Graham, the Sage of Pensuco, from putting a candidate in the field. Graham may still have that idea, and not only provide a candidate against Crandon but scare up candidates against Commissioners I. D. MacVicar and Hugh Peters. Practically anything can happen in the county commission race, which most likely will be the most interesting.

The Dade County Medical Association has gone on record favoring the consolidation of the City of Miami and Dade County. The association takes the stand that consolidation is the only hope to obtain better hospital service and efficiency at city-owned Jackson Memorial Hospital.

R. H. Mitchell, the eminent New York bond attorney, who approves all of the bond issues for Greater Miami and Dade County, didn't intend it as a slight this week at the county commission, but he put chairman Charles H. Crandon in an embarrassing position. Mitchell walked in with a resolution and shook hands with all the board members except Crandon. The chairman called the bond attorney's attention to the oversight and Mitchell walked over, shook hands and sat next to the chairman while he transacted his business.

All of the Circuit Court judges announced simultaneously this week that they are candidates for re-election. So far, the field of candidates is few, with a noticeable absence of candidates from Coral Gables or Miami Beach. Judge Marshall C. Wisheart at one time was a resident of Coral Gables and the last judge from Miami Beach was Uly O. Thompson. Some of the boys are casting around for candidates from these two cities, and it is possible that they may be forth-coming. Charles Cleveland at Miami Beach, while he is a resident of Miami, may be in the race. He maintains office on Lincoln Road.

It costs more these days, with the increased cost of living, to be sent to the Miami Retreat. That is the institution where the county commissioners send the mentally incompetent instead of to the county jail. The cost per patient day has been $6.50. The commission has been informed that the cost has increased to $7.93 a day until May 31. After that date the Retreat is willing to "negotiate" further if the cost of living has not decreased. Such unfortunates are kept in the institution until the county can have them admitted to the already over-crowded state institution at Chattahoochee.

Commissioner Preston B. Bird from down Homestead-way sees Dade County with a population of more than 1,000,000 permanent residents within the next 10 years. Bird believes that a census now would show 600,000 persons residing in the county. In his opinion, Dade County is in its infancy and few people realize the county's recent growth. For that reason he is a strong advocate for more and better highways, especially trunk lines entering from the north.

Miami's City Judge Cecil C. Curry caused some consternation in Miami Beach this week when he started giving straight jail sentences for second offenders in gambling cases. The reason is that a number of the Miami Beach boys have transferred their activity to the mainland. Two faced him last Tuesday when the new jail sentences became effective. One happened to be a first offender and drew a healthy fine of $250. The other squeezed by when it was proved that the warrant causing his arrest was faulty. Curry, the target for some members of the Miami city commission, lashed out with vengeance. Twelve of the home-town boys who have appeared before him and received small fines, went to jail for terms ranging from 15 to 30 days and immediately began filing appeals to Circuit Court.

REMINISCING

By TRACY HOLLINGSWORTH Before Wednesday, I didn't know very much about Peanuts—in the shell—or present day real-estate values—in a lump, until I was among a "gang" of people with and without "dough," listening to Miami Beachites, outbidding a few "fighting" Gableites, for the pleasure of owning all or a part of the Clark tract, at Douglas Road and Coral Way. I presume the auction sale went through as expected, but I didn't wait to hear most of it. 'Twas not a June in Miami Day, under the auction tent, so meandering across Coral Way to the Happy Hour, for a sandwich, I ran into a heated argument between Frank White and Charles H. Hines, Gableite, as to the nutritive qualities and size of Peanuts. Charles maintained that his Suffolk, Va., Jumbo Peanuts were the best in the world. That they were as big as your thumb—or rather his thumb. That a pig fed on "Jumbos," produced a ham without peer. That a turkey, fed on the same "Jumbos," had more taste than any Texas or Florida turkey. Now I had heard of a "peanut ham," which I believed to be the front leg, but Charles corrected me very pointedly. It was a peanut fed pig's hind leg, and only came from Suffolk, Virginia. But the main argument between Charles and Frank was the size of the Jumbo peanut, so Charles declared he would go to Suffolk and bring back a "tree" of Jumbo peanuts with the roots full of "nuts," just to show Frank that he was right. Frank said he would put the "tree" in plain view to advertise the peanuts from Charles' hometown. Then Doc MacDonald said the Spanish peanut was better, so I said "nuts to you."

SHORT QUIRKS

- Gas Taxes Add Up LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UP)—The average motorist in Kentucky is driving a 1940 automobile with 58,000 miles on the speedometer, the Louisville Automobile Club reports. What the driver probably realizes only vaguely is that since 1940 he has paid out $253.50 in gasoline taxes to the state and federal governments. Poor Fish OKLAHOMA CITY, (UP)—The council has agreed that seaplanes may land on Lake Hefner, despite protests from the state game and fish department. The department says the noise of the planes would make fish in the lake neurotic. Thieves Take It Easy REXBURG, Ida. (UP)—Thieves who broke into Woody's Drive Inn took time out to fix themselves two hamburgers on the electric grill and dish up a couple of milk shakes. When they got through with eating, they took $12 from the cash register, picked up $25 of merchandise and left. Chicago Likes Movies CHICAGO (UP)—A recent survey by the motion picture industry revealed there are seats for 595,179 persons in the 702 theaters in the Chicago area. There are 302 theaters within the city limits of Chicago. The remainder are scattered through the trade area.

Ant Invasion Plagues Italian Riviera GENOA (UP)—Ants—millions of them—are wrecking the economy of Italy's thriving western Riviera. The world-famous sea resorts of Allassio, San Remo, Bordighera and Ventimiglia are among the areas worst affected. Dozens of entomologists and specialized insect hunters have become "invited tourists" on the Riviera, answering the frantic appeals of local authorities to stop the ant invasion. Of the "Argentine" variety—one of the smallest types identified by scientists—the ants started their invasion in 1937. Control measures adopted at that time appeared to have wiped out the threat. But during the war the ants had a field day and are back in force.

P.E.O. Sisterhood Tells Founder's Day Tea Plans

Chapter K of the P. E. O. Sisterhood, which includes a number of Coral Gables women, will join with the other chapters in Dade County in paying tribute to the founder of the organization, at a tea and program at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the North Miami Woman's Club. Chapter A has charge of the memorial program; Chapter M, hospitality; Chapter K, refreshments and Chapters E and AE, invitations and publicity. Seven college girls founded the PEO Sisterhood at Iowa Wesleyan College 79 years ago on January 21, 1869. Its chapters, numbering more than twenty-five hundred, have a membership of 92,221 women. This international woman's sorority has as its chief interest the education of young women, and through the P. E. O. educational fund has assisted more than nine thousand girls through college. During the forty years since the fund was started over three million dollars has been loaned to these girls. Many of these young women have become outstanding doctors, lawyers, scientists, writers and musicians.

Miss Sue Harrison will entertain at a linen shower Tuesday for Miss Fitz-Gibbon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Harrison, 812 Alhambra Circle. The party will be an evening affair and guests will be mostly Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority sisters of both the bride-to-be and Sue. . . . On Friday, the 23rd, Mrs. E. J. Harrington and Mrs. Andy Healy will have a luncheon-bridge and shower for Louise. Friends of both Jimmy's and Louise's mothers have been invited to the party which will take place at Mrs. Healy's home.

Parties continue for the popular Miss Marilyn Ward whose marriage to James Hiss will take place the last day of January. Tomorrow Jean Mayes will give a bathroom accessory shower for her cousin at the Miami home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene E. Mayes. . . . Yesterday Marilyn was feted at a distaff luncheon. Aunts, grandmothers and mother of Marilyn comprised the eight luncheon guests of her paternal aunt Mrs. James Sparks. . . . Tuesday Mrs. E. C. (Betty Jean) Mullikin Jr. will have a dessert-bridge for Marilyn at her home, 1202 Pizarro Street. A green and white color scheme in the tiny cakes will complement the ice cream "wedding bells" which will be served prior to the games. Invited are Miss Ann Avery, Miss Marian McEwen, Miss Jean Mayes, Mrs. Jack Stressley, Mrs. Charner Skagseth, and Mrs. Douglas Griffin.

Install Officers For the purpose of installing officers, members of the Phi Delta Pi Fraternity will have a dinner at Battista's tomorrow evening at seven o'clock. Approximately thirty members and their dates will be present. Following the dinner, guests will adjourn to the home of Bob Barnett, 1661 Avenue Primera, for an evening of dancing.

Old Look and New to Be Compared at Country Club Style Pageant January 29th

Looking forward in fashions will be the theme of the luncheon style pageant at the Country Club of Coral Gables at high noon January 29th—but Mrs. William Cann will give feminine spectators a glimpse backwards, too. Gables women who two years ago declared they wouldn't be caught dead in "the new look" will discover why they changed their minds in an amusing novelty comparison arranged by the show director.

Using two models, one clad in "new look" tailleur and the other in "old look" attire, Mrs. Cann will point out the differences in line, length and tailoring.

In another rib-tickling innovation, guests will see one of their sister members glamorized before their eyes in a before-and-after demonstration that will feature hair styling and individualized makeup, as well as fashions.

For the first time in the history of Coral Gables-sponsored shows, the Country Club event will offer an exhibition of fine furs for Southern wear provided by Marvel Fur Salon and modeled by members.

Flower accessories for the trim matron-mannequins will be specially designed by the Coral Way Flower Shop.

Patricia Crawford, who recently won the "Smiles" contest at the Youth Center, will be one of three models delineating young girls' clothing.

Others will be Dagmar Hayns-worth, second in the contest, and her sister, Polly. Patricia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George V. Crawford of 4452 SW 14th Street, while Mr. and Mrs. Shirley D. Haynsworth are parents of Polly and Dagmar.

The little girls are members of the Country Club's active junior group.

Members of the Modeling Class of the Club will take the roles of models in the all-Gables fashion exhibition, which will feature fashion originals by Althea's of the Miracle Mile.

Members of the club appearing for the first time as mannequins in the forthcoming show are Mrs. Peter O'Dell, Mrs. Howard Burkart, Mrs. Evelyn Whaley and Mrs. Edison Archer.

With reservations for the top of the season luncheon event already pouring in, Club Manager Gordon Taylor today warned members intending to entertain guests at the show to make arrangements early.

Riviera Club To Present Fashion Show

Round-the-clock Clubhouse fashions will highlight the fashion show that is to be staged tomorrow evening at the Riviera Country Club.

To let husbands in on le dernier cri in the style world, the fashion promenade will be held from six to seven o'clock in the lounge of the clubhouse.

It will be preceded by a cocktail hour and dinner will be served to members and invited guests from seven until eight o'clock. Dancing will then be the program.

Fashions for the modern club woman, from golf casuals through cocktail frocks, resort and formal evening gowns, will be shown. Minna Lee's, Roal's and Josef, all operating shops on the Miracle Mile, will display clothes, accessories and coiffures respectively.

Mrs. Frank D. Newman heads the group of Riviera Clubwomen who will model the styles. Joining Mrs. Newman as mannequins-for-a-night will be Mrs. W. O. Mehrtens, Mrs. Rees Marshall, Mrs. George Coleman, Mrs. C. B. Moak, Mrs. John Ring, Mrs. Coulton Skinner, Mrs. T. C. Henslee, Mrs. Robert McGahey and Mrs. W. E. Dunwoody.

Music lovers from Coral Gables were legion last Saturday night when the Greater Miami Opera Guild presented the opera "Rigoletto," in the first of three performances here. Among the first-nighters at the formal opening were Mrs. Clinton McCreedy (left), talented musician in her own right, Mrs. Sylvain Greene, and her daughter, Miss Sylvia Greene.

CORAL GABLES MUSIC CLUB TO PRESENT OPERA EXCERPTS AT MEETING TUESDAY

Mrs. J. Bruce Langdon, Mrs. W. L. Street and Mrs. Ruby Pierce Jackson will receive members and their guests at the open meeting of the Coral Gables Music Club to be held Tuesday afternoon at the woman's clubhouse.

Registration will be directed by Mrs. William T. Hilles. Mrs. E. L. Griffith and her committee will have charge of the tea hour, while Mrs. George Dacy and Mrs. E. K. Goodrich will originate the decorations for the program meeting.

Church Workers To Gather for Supper, Confab

Quill Club Taps Gables Co-Ed

Betty Jean Ruffley, daughter of the John A. Ruffleys of 829 Avenue Alberca, was tapped for membership in the Quill Club, woman's journalism organization at the University of Miami, during Honors Assembly today.

A journalism major, Betty is a junior at the University. Other members tapped for the Quill include Martha Epstein, Mary Frank, Kay Sullivan and Myra Gray.

After Jean Shively, president of the club, announced the names of the girls, Audrey Gelb pinned on the black and white ribbons.

ON ICE

Lessons and school were put "on ice" yesterday when Betty Ann Brown invited eleven of her Ponce de Leon High School friends over to her home at 814 Pizarro Street for an afternoon of bridge.

The young "bridgers" were served hot chocolate and cookies by their hostess at the party, made possible by cancellation of classes.

Collegian Elected Fraternity President

When Charles I. Babcock Jr. came home for the holidays from Georgia Tech, he brought news of his college activities which pleased his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Babcock, 721 Avenue Catalonia, and his friends.

Approaching his senior year, Charles was elected president of his fraternity, Alpha Tau Omega. About the same time he was initiated as a member of Tau Beta Pi, national engineering honor society. He also was made a member of Eta Kappa Nu, national electrical honor society.

Miamians Occupy New Duplex Here

Northern Kin Are Guests of Gables Residents

"At least we have fires in our homes in Akron!" declared the S. A. Temperos in commenting on the breezy weather we've been having lately.

Here visiting Mrs. Tempero's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William O. Hogarth of 2521 S.W. 14th Street, the Ohioans will return to their home fires Monday.

This is the first trip Mr. and Mrs. Tempero have made down here since 1945 when they came here for their honeymoon. They were accompanied this time by their one and a half year old son, Bobby.

Gloria Kurtz was formally inducted as president of the Keyboarders, while Sandra Welch was installed as vice president. Ann Haroldson took office as secretary and Doris Holcomb was installed as treasurer of the group.

Taking part in the program which was a feature of the meeting were Bobby and Betty Esteridge, Stephen Senterfiet, Hunter Rogers, Miss Kurtz, Carol Raymond, Miss Welch, Sarah Ann Vogt, Ann Haroldson, Catherine Rowe and Mary Elizabeth Fitz Gibbon.

Mrs. Ray Belden serves as a counsellor for the group and all pupils studying with music teachers in the Coral Gables area are welcome to attend meetings and become members of the Keyboard Club.

The group meets at four o'clock the second Tuesday of each month at the Woman's Club.

Meeting Postponed

Annual meeting and dinner of the Miami Society for the Hearing of Hearing scheduled for today has been postponed due to inclement weather. Date for the meeting will be announced later.

EX-POWERS MODELS SET CHARM COURSE

Offering a six weeks course which they have named "The Key to Feminine Attractiveness Is Charm," Phillis Carr and Laura O'Banion will begin class and individual instructions at once at their studio, 2723 Ponce de Leon Boulevard.

Both Miss Carr, who has been in Miami for three years, and Miss O'Banion, who has been here seven, are former Powers models. Their courses of instruction, which may be individual as well as class, not only cover charm but all of the attributes to charm—posture, wardrobe, color harmony. They also advise analysis of skin and hair and will give rules of conduct for guidance in the social and business world.

The Miami Studio, of which the Ponce de Leon studio is a branch, is located at 1415 N.E. Second Avenue. Applications for the six weeks course will be taken by telephone, 2-2307.

The Harmony Club party of the Coconut Grove Rebecca Lodge No. 70, will take place at seven-thirty tomorrow night at the home of Mrs. Margaret Wilson, 2874 S.W. 25th Terrace.

SCORE CARD
By DON CUDDY

Johnny DuPree, the Tampa heavyweight who excused himself from meeting Jackie Lyons in the Coliseum semi-final bout last night will be barred from fighting in Coral Gables if the athletic commission's investigation of his lame hand alibi shows the west coast fighter backed out. The fact that a pug who never appeared on a boxing card here is given the bum's rush is not important; but the attitude of Chairman Bob Williams that it's high time the sports board shows it means business is encouraging.

Big Push on Boxing Ordinance
Williams will make every attempt to have the ordinance the city fathers want for the athletic commission ready for them Tuesday night. Ten days thereafter, Coral Gables will be entitled to join the Florida State Boxing Federation. Our Town's ostracism of DuPree, if warranted, will force him to retire from every major boxing show in the state. The Federation is a member of the National Boxing Association, which will keep DuPree outside of every ring in the country with the exception of New York's.

The commission will not try to make a demonstration of its arbitrary power against DuPree, but following through on this deal means that Coral Gables is in the boxing business—something which must be done if boxing matches are to be held within the city limits.

Lyons Hottest Prospect Here
Now . . . getting back to Jackie Lyons . . . that lad has really caught the crowd's fancy with his courage. Everybody knows that he's battling way out of his weight class and some suspect that his handlers may be ruining a bright future for him as a lightweight, but that's up to Lyons himself to decide as long as he's fighting preliminaries.

Jackie Promised First Shot at Cranford
But now it appears that Lyons may be a feature attraction next month in the Coliseum against highly-touted Jackie Cranford of Washington, who fights the main event in Madison Square Garden in a fortnight. Matchmaker Chris Dundee promised Lyons the first crack at Cranford in these parts if he could beat Card Wyatt last night. So that's in the cards, and Lyons' manager, Gene Dargan, says that Lyons can take Cranford with less effort than he needed last chilly evening.

Review Head Tax Question
For the time being, this corner passes up another unsatisfactory gathering of the athletic commission yesterday. Dundee and W. H. Peeples appeared before the group in an attempt to straighten out this tax proposition, and the net result is that he and Promoter Art Lewis can't stand the tariff of both the American Legion's five per cent and another equal amount to the athletic commission. There were also some confused gripes about Annie Oakley, but that point will clear itself up.

It's Up to Legion Now
The athletic commission will hold a joint meeting with the Legion boxing committee to see if the latter group won't give up enough of their contract advantages to keep all concerned happy. The argument will be that Dundee and Co. will check out if there isn't some kind of compromise, so the Legion has the choice between possibly two and a half per cent of several thousand dollars over a period of time or the contract requirement—which may call for five per cent of nothing sooner than most people realize.

Polo Matches Set for Sunday
The Orange Bowl Polo Association announced this morning that the twin bill scheduled for Burdine Stadium tonight will be played starting at 3 p.m. Sunday.

Mike Phipps and George Oliver will make the announcement after conferring with Miami Welfare Director Jesse Yarborough.

The University of Miami Hurricanes meet their second test against Princeton's top trio, followed by a high-goal game between Oliver's Miami Beach team and Chicago, the fourth member of the league.

Mead Whips Kronowitz In 10 Rounds

Pistol Pete Mead, a sharp-shooting left-jab artist who called his shots deliberately after a slow start, won a close decision over Herbie Kronowitz, Brooklyn, over the ten-round route in the Coliseum main event Thursday night.

Nearly 3,000 paid admissions, a surprisingly good turnout after the fight's cancellation Tuesday night, witnessed the Grand Rapids, Mich., middleweight's comeback in the fourth round after his rugged opponent rocked him with savage left hooks early in the fight. Mead took command in the sixth after working Kronowitz' left eye almost shut and earned a wider margin of victory than the official decision credited him with.

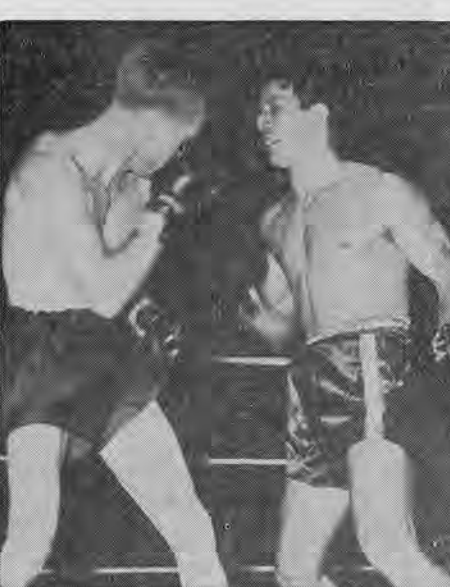

Referee Si Gottfried gave Kronowitz a 97-96 verdict on points, but his judgment was reversed by Judges Eddie Coachman and Red McLaughlin, who backed the winner 99-93 and 98-96. It was Mead's third decision over Kronowitz.

The close scoring gave some indication of the crowd's approval of the free-hitting match which they marked time for two days to see. Mead, at 160, needed plenty of staying power to weather the storm of punches Kronowitz came up with, but after counter-punching beautifully to capture the crucial fourth beat, slowly gained the advantage.

Lyons Renews Popularity
In the semi-windup, Jack "The Giant Killer" Lyons again gave away almost 80 pounds to Gard Wyatt, 209-pound Spartanburg, S. C. hustler and came up with another close decision after swapping plenty of punishment. The Pittsburgh fighter renewed his popularity with the fans who watched him knockout Sanders Cox in an earlier Coliseum appearance, despite the fact the crowd hoped to see him avenge a loss to Johnny DuPree of Tampa.

The second six-round of the supporting card, between Frankie Roth, of Boston, and Chris Dever, Grand Rapids, Mich., ended in a draw between Roth's cleverness and Dever's crude but rugged aggressiveness.

In the first six rounder, Billy Lima, Havana, knocked out Johnny O'Keefe, a willing Boston lightweight, in 55 seconds of the third round. The curtain-raiser saw Jim Brutton, Miami, knock out Bob Young, Boston, in 1:45 of the first round.

PETE MEAD covers nicely to avoid one of Herbie Kronowitz's savage left hooks in the second round of their main event middleweight scrap at the Coliseum last night. Mead came back in the fourth round and went on to capture a narrow decision over the hard-hitting Brooklyn battler.

Riddle Posts 76-27 Win Over Edison

Coach Leo Boles sent in the bench to keep the score against Edison Junior College respectable on the latter's home court at Fort Myers Thursday night, but the worst the reserves could do was chalk up a 76-27 cakewalk that didn't hurt Riddle American College's chances of becoming the top-scoring basketball team in the South one bit.

Build 23-0 Lead
There wasn't much doubt about the outcome after Riddle's first team rang up 23 points before the Edison crew could manage to get the ball through the hoop. By the halfway mark the count was 48-9, and for the final 20 minutes the Ridders coasted—but still managed to score more points than the Edisonites without working up a sweat.

But the "breather" did cost Riddle the services of regular guard Chuck Nichols, who made a quick trip from the court to the infirmary after spraining his ankle badly in the early minutes of the game.

Lee Benjamin accounted for 13 scrimmage shots, mostly from outside the foul circle, to pace the team in the South one bit.

U-M, Ponce Cagers Play At Stetson, Lake Worth

Coaches Hart Morris and Clarence Dreppard take their respective University of Miami and Ponce de Leon High School basketball squads on the road tonight—the Hurricanes checking in at DeLand for a two-game series with Stetson College and the Cavaliers invading Lake Worth for a single Gulfstream Conference contest.

Both clubs are favored to better their records. A win for the Cavaliers would make their grip on a poor-second place rating in the scholastic loop more secure and the Hurricanes are out to improve their reputation before starting a northern junket next week.

Even with a 4-4 record, plenty of trouble finding a capable replacement for center Tony Yovicin, and too much of their fortunes depending on the presently-defunct scoring prowess of Bob "Whitey" Campbell, the University quintet should have little trouble claiming both games from the Hatters. Stetson lists nine lettermen on their squad but have been the door-mat for teams like Florida (which club the locals proved they could outdo on a good night).

Morris said before departing this morning that he has not yet chosen between Ralph Fiebor, Bob Carroll or Charles Schlyer for the all-important starting pivot assignment, although it seemed likely that Bobcat Bob would get the nod with each of the trio seeing plenty of service. Sharp-shooting Abe Friedman and Campbell will start at forwards and Irvin Ibach and Tony Ferrara, both redoubtable rebound workers, handling the back-court duties.

Pro Football Born When Talent Was Cheap
By OSCAR FRALEY
UP Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 16. (UP)—Fifty-three years ago in a scenic hamlet in the Pennsylvania hills the game of professional football was born when a capable young quarterback agreed to play a game for $10 and cakes.

As the years rolled by the sport shed its swaddling clothes and grew to full stature. And now at an all-time peak it is preparing today to honor the man and the miracle.

W. Flagler Spots Goba-Ready Hook In Marathon 10th
Marathon racing will draw the spotlight tonight at West Flagler Kennel Club with every event a long distance clash. Nine races are booked over the 5-16th mile course, while the other clash will be run over the lap and half Flagler Course.

Two big features highlight the program. The first of these will go as the ninth race and sends two recent winners—Adora and Dale R—against the crack Hollendale. The latter has been moved down slightly in class and may scoot home a winner. He has run with greyhounds like Beachcomber and Dry Lake in the past.

A win for Hollendale may regain him a post in a race with Beachcomber and Dry Lake. Rolling Boy is considered the dark horse in the hot box race.

In the marathon tenth, Ready Hook, a veteran campaigner when it comes to long distance racing, clashes with the juvenile star, Goba, which won the 1947 running of the Biscayne juvenile stake before moving over to Flagler.

Goba runs his best races in the stretch and should fare well over the Flagler Course. In this last race at 5-16th of a mile, Goba came from sixth place to third on the home stretch and was chugging away like a runaway locomotive at the finish.

Harrison Leads Par-Wreckers In Richmond Open
RICHMOND, Calif., Jan. 16 (UP)—One of the finest par-wrecking crews in golfing history, headed by the veteran E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of Little Rock, Ark., returned to the Richmond Golf Club today to renew one of the greatest assaults of all time on regulation figures.

Harrison, 12th leading money winner in the nation last year, topped the field as the pack teed off in the second round of the $10,000 Richmond Open Tournament. He shot a record seven-under-par 65 on the flat 6,415-yard, par-27 course yesterday.

But even that terrific first round didn't give him an easy feeling. He led the field by only one stroke, and 39 players broke par and 52 either equaled or bettered the standard yesterday.

Eric Monti, Los Angeles, who fired a 29 on the back nine, was second along with little heralded Jim Milward, Northern, Wis., both racking up 68 cards.

The opening field of 148 was trimmed to 100 and ties today, and will be further reduced to 60 and ties for the final two days of the tournament Saturday and Sunday. It took a 75 or better to qualify for today's competition.

GOLF

By ANNE RANDOLPH

Cold weather didn't get the best of Granada golfers Wednesday, although it slowed the players game down considerably. Nonetheless, the entries in the Country Club mixed Scotch foursome totaled fourteen.

Winter visitors arrived this week to escape the icy blasts but found that for the moment the object here is hardly to sunbathe and play golf.

An electric vacuum bottle, designed to bring a pint of water to a boil in a few minutes, shut off automatically and keep liquid a few degrees below boiling indefinitely, is now available.

PRIDE OF THE MARINES

Colorful Lavern Roach Debuts in Garden Tonight

NEW YORK, Jan. 16 (UP)—Young Lavern Roach, the best boxer developed in the U. S. Marine Corps during World War II, will attempt a landing on the big time tonight as he makes his Madison Square Garden debut in a 10-round bout with classy young Tony Janiro.

Should the handsome, dark-haired middleweight from Plainview, Tex., get "the situation well in hand," his victory over Janiro would please men of the leatherneck brand everywhere; for this Texan indeed is the "Pride of the Marines."

Roach recently was awarded a plaque symbolizing his boxing prowess by Gene Tunney, ex-heavyweight champion who was the top scrapper developed by the Marines during the first World War. Moreover, Lavern has been taken under the wing of the Marine Corps League.

Roach will be tackling a stiff assignment tonight, despite his amateur successes as one of the great boxing teens turned out in 1944 and 1945 by the Cherry Point, N.C., base, and despite his 26 victories in 27 professional fights.

Baby-faced Janiro of Youngstown, O., is only 21—the same age as Roach—but Janiro is a seasoned big-time performer. He has won 63 of 67 professional bouts, and he has participated in nine Garden main events.

Because of Janiro's superior speed and experience, the Youngstown Kid has been the betting favorite at a price that was as high as 9-5 early in the week, but has shortened to 6-5. Uncertainty about Janiro's condition caused the price to tighten. Tony is a playboy. At ring-time tonight betting may be even money.

Clean-living Roach has registered 21 straight victories since he suffered his only defeat in his sixth start against Art Towne of New York. His victims included Herbie Kronowitz, Norman Rubio and Billy Arnold. He hits harder than Tony. And he expects to outweigh Janiro about 157 1/2 to 153.

SPORTS PARADE

The coach of the team was an astute fellow named Dave Berry and it gave him the opportunity of becoming the first pro owner.

For Berry, sizing up the situation, approached Bralier and convinced him he should be the quarterback for the previously mentioned remuneration.

Latrobe won this first pro game, 12 to 0, as Bralier ran the team flawlessly and kicked two field goals to boot.

After that the embryo dentist, who was to go a half century unrecognized as the first play for play player, transferred to West Virginia and the following half season directed the Latrobe team for a then spectacular $150.

Two years later the idea really had impressed Berry and he began importing such outstanding players as Fiddling (Hurry Up) Yost, Walter Okeson and Doggy Trenchard, and later some of the Carlisle Indians.

"Once we imported Yost for a game against Greensburg and they heard of it and decided to kidnap him off the train when it stopped there," Bralier chuckles as he looks into the past. "But we heard of it and met the train a station earlier and took him to Latrobe in a horse and buggy.

"Yost played a big part as we won." Which proves that even the skulduggery in pro football isn't new. So it's well nigh time the money men of the gridiron got around to giving the game a bit of dignity by admitting it has a storied past.
