

Open to Peace, Firm on Aggression Says Marshall

EVENTS IN EUROPE TODAY LIKED TO PROCEDURE BY NAZIS BEFORE WAR

BERKELEY, Cal., March 19. (UP)—Secretary of State George C. Marshall said today that the United States policy was to stand firmly on its basic principles "but at the same time keep the door wide open for any general conciliatory moves."

He said that the world situation never has "been more threatening to our ideals and interests than at the present."
"Until such time as a real settlement can be reached, however, it must be our policy to discourage and to oppose further encroachment on the rights and lives of free peoples."
"A depressing aspect of the situation is the duplication in Europe of the high-handed and calculated procedure of the Nazi regime," Marshall said in a speech delivered during charter week celebration at the University of California.

ST. LOUIS, March 19. (UP)—Tornadoes, striking at scattered points in eastern Missouri and southern Illinois, today killed at least sixteen persons and injured more than 200.

The twister struck first near Union, Mo., then arched over the Mississippi river north of St. Louis and struck with great force between Alton and Gillespie, Ill.

Winds of great velocity were reported at numerous other towns from Bonne Terre, Mo., north to points beyond Gillespie, a distance of about 80 miles.

At Gillespie, a town of about 5,000 population, Mayor Ted Frey reported that "the town was a mess."

'Man to Man' Talks Urged Nations by Smuts

CAPETOWN, South Africa, March 19. (UP)—Premier Jan C. Smuts suggested today that the great powers speak to one another as "man to man" in an attempt to clear up their misunderstandings.

"We do not want to stumble in darkness toward another world war," Smuts told the South African senate.

"We are living under a thick cloud, and cannot see backwards or forwards."

Smuts observed that none knew Russia's position, and added that Russia was just as much in the dark about the western nations.

Damage Suit Against Lewis Threatened by Coal Men

WASHINGTON, March 19. (UP)—Soft coal producers today raised the threat of a huge damage suit against John L. Lewis unless he ends the five-day pension strike by his United Mine Workers.

At the same time, informed quarters said the White House might intervene in the dispute today or tomorrow under the Taft-Hartley labor act. The law opens the way for the President to request a Federal court injunction to halt the strike for at least 80 days.

The mine operators called a morning press conference to announce that they regard the walkout "a breach of contract" by Lewis.

Police Act to Combat Violence in Meat Strike

CHICAGO, March 19. (UP)—Police tightened their vigilance today after threats of violence were reported from at least one of the meat processing plants surrounded by pickets of the striking CIO United Packing House Workers.

A flare-up between pickets and the crew of a railroad switch engine crew at the Armour & Co. plant in Kansas City was reported yesterday.

Jack Burch, superintendent of the Frisco lines, on which the engine was operating, said the incident was touched off when the road moved 35 empty box cars inside the Armour yards.

Bill Attempts New Sovereignty, Suit Declares

By ARTHUR PEAVY
Riviera-Times Staff Writer

The proposed consolidation of Dade County and the City of Miami "attempts to set up a separate and autonomous sovereignty in Dade County" according to a suit filed in circuit court today to enjoin the county commission from placing the consolidation question on the May 25 ballot.

This is the second of a double-barreled legal attack on the proposed consolidation. The first suit was filed last Tuesday by the same 18 municipalities and a taxpayer against R. A. Gray as secretary of state.

Action Seen Illegal
It is charged that the threatened action on the part of the county commissioners is illegal on the following nine separate counts:

1. The purported act imposes a duty upon the defendant which they are forbidden by law to exercise.
2. The question to be submitted to the electors as provided for by the act is vague, indefinite, uncertain and misleading.
3. The joint resolution is violative of the constitution in that it requires the submission (Please turn to Page Three)

KIMBROUGH WON'T MAKE SHERIFF RACE

Safety Director William G. Kimbrough today announced he would not become a candidate for sheriff of Dade County.

A group of influential Dade county citizens has been urging the Coral Gables police head to desert his native city for the turbulent hurly-burly of county politics.

It was understood that Kimbrough would have entered the contest for sheriff only on a platform of strict enforcement of all laws.

The safety director had been in communication with this group of Dade citizens since last November when the Riviera-Times revealed that he was pondering whether to enter the race.

Water Chief Coming Here For Survey

Plans to Bolster Waning Pressure Being Drawn

Burton K. Smith, Orlando, president of the Consumers Water Company, will arrive in Coral Gables next week to begin immediate work on the bolstering of the company's distribution system here, City Manager William T. McIlwain said today.

The city manager said that he had talked at length with Smith on the telephone and had been informed that four plans are now being readied to improve the system with resulting improvement of pressure throughout the Gables.

Improvement Ordered
Smith's action followed orders received from the city commission, via McIlwain, to take immediate steps to bolster pressure which was cited as below requirements and constituting a health menace in the Riviera section.

The commission issued the order on Tuesday after hearing members of the Riviera Property Owners Association attack the distribution system as being inadequate.

To Select Plan
McIlwain explained that the four plans are being drawn up and the best one to solve the problem will be selected after Smith arrives in Coral Gables. All of them contain provisions for extra storage facilities which could be filled during the night when water is not in demand and then used to build up pressure during the hours of peak use.

Yesterday H. Edward Reagin, the company's local manager, had promised immediate action on the city's "order."

Blaze Ruins Carpenter's Tools in Shed

A tool shed fire at 337 Avenue Fluvia resulted in the destruction of thousands of dollars worth of tools early today, many of them the property of individual carpenters.

The structure burned to the ground. Gables firemen, with Lt. W. O. Wood in charge, were able to keep the flames from spreading to nearby buildings.

The shed was owned by the Spector & Sons Building Co. The firm had hand saws and other valuable tools in the building.

About eight or ten sets of tools belonging to carpenters employed by the Spector firm were lost.

Riviera - Times Carrier Boys Seek Mayoralty

Some 28 Riviera-Times carrier salesmen are today busting down doors in their eagerness to find new readers and their enthusiasm can be attributed not to greed, but to political ambition.

The young salesman who racks up the highest total of new readers, or "starts" as it is termed in the jargon of their trade, will sit in the chair of Mayor W. Keith Phillips on April 5 and will be the ruler of all Coral Gables.

Right now the leader of the fast-shifting field is Dick James, but close on his heels are Billy Hudgens and Ronnie Hendry.

Some other favorites in the race for the mayoral chair are Clark Burrows, Russel Kimbro, Cecil Vaughn, Barry Forman and Edwin White.

The carrier-salesmen all have profound ideas about what they will do if the municipal reins are placed in their hands.

One boy, who is conceded to have a good chance in the race, said today, "I'm going to fight consolidation for all I'm worth."

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Mortals are egotists. . . When mortal man blends his thoughts of existence with the spiritual and works only as God works, he will no longer grope in the dark and cling to earth because he has not tasted heaven. 2d Expert Probes Fire Cause Here longed, said the two investigators, "if evidence comes up to warrant a suspicion of arson."

Both men took a highly suspicious view of the origin of the blaze as they continued their investigation today.

Firemen Not At Fault
But Investigator Willis stated that the Coral Gables fire department had not been at fault in its handling of the emergency.

"I do not think that criticism of the fire department is justified, considering the extent of the progress of the fire at the time of their arrival," Willis declared.

"The building was highly charged with smoke," said Willis. "This dense smoke offered a tough problem for the department."

Building Total Loss
Investigator Willis said he believed the Gables firemen are due much credit for containing the fire within the limits of the auto supply building in the face of a stiff easterly breeze which threatened to push the flames into the next structure.

The auto supplies were fully insured. Three companies handled the insurance.

The building itself, owned by Lula T. Beck and Mae G. Irwin, was also a total loss. It was valued at about $15,000.

Merger Seen Illegal in 2d Attack of said resolution first to the electors of Dade county and because the resolution contains amendments to several sections of the constitution and is, in effect, a series of separate amendments.

4. The resolution attempts to set up a separate and autonomous sovereignty in Dade county with the power to enact laws contrary to the provisions of the constitution of the state of Florida and of the United States.

5. The resolution is so vague, indefinite and uncertain as to be incapable of interpretation or to have its provisions intelligently enforced.

6. The provisions of the resolution are severally violative of section 20 of article 3 of the constitution of Florida.

7. The provisions are unconstitutional in that the resolution mandatorily requires the adoption of a charter by the people of Dade county at the expense of the people of Dade county and contrary to the expressed will of the people.

8. The time when the said act is to become effective is not fixed as provided by law.

9. The provisions are so vague, indefinite and uncertain as to render them incapable of enforcement.

The suit charges that if the county commissioners are not restrained they will submit the question to the voters and will expend public funds in holding the election which will be illegal and contrary to law.

The suit was filed by E. L. Semple, Thomas H. Anderson and W. D. Ward before Judge Ross Williams, who assigned it to Judge Stanley Millidge. No date has been set for a hearing.

Dan McCarty Speaker Here; Names Aides

Approximately 300 men and women of Coral Gables met Dan McCarty, candidate for Governor from Fort Pierce, at a reception given in his honor at the Coral Gables Woman's Clubhouse Thursday afternoon. McCarty, who is 38, spoke briefly of his candidacy to the group and said:

"As a father of two sons I feel that I have a personal interest in seeing that our State school system is second to none and that your children and mine have the best possible educational opportunities. I believe that the experience gained as a legislator and Speaker of the House of Representatives, as a business man, grower, packer, war veteran and as a churchman qualifies me for selection as your next Governor. I earnestly solicit your support and your recommendations."

A special feature of the reception was orange juice served to the guests from oranges grown in McCarty's grove.

McCarty announced today that William C. Hartnett has been appointed chairman of the Coral Gables Committee of the Dade County McCarty for Governor Club. McCarty also announced the appointment of Mrs. Clarence W. Francis and Mrs. Curtis A. Haggard as chairwomen of the senior and junior women's division, respectively, of the Coral Gables Committee.

Hartnett, who is a graduate of the University of Miami, and on the Board of Directors of the University Alumni Club, was Vice-President of the Coral Gables Junior Chamber of Commerce, will open campaign headquarters at 2836 Ponce de Leon Boulevard.

The third in a series of cultural forums will be presented by The Coral Gables Lodge B'nai B'rith in conjunction with the Hill Foundation on Tuesday 8:30 p.m. March 23rd at Hill House, 3308 Ponce de Leon Boulevard.

Chairman of the forum, Sidney Lewis, announced today that a prominent psychologist has been invited to discuss "Psychology and the World We Live In". President Leonard Spiegel and Rabbi Albert Michels of the Hill Foundation will preside. The affair is open to the public and there is no admission charge.

Plans will be heard for the installation dinner set for March 28th at which time officers of the lodge and women's chapter will be installed.

Approval of the final plat for the new Sunrise Harbor subdivision has been delayed by the city commission at the request of the Deering and Charles G. Baker estates.

The two interests, owning property across the canal and adjacent to the subdivision planned by Emil J. Gould, asked more time to study the plans. They had not filed objections at Monday's open hearing.

City Manager William T. McIlwain announced today that he has secured the services of the Dade County Research Foundation to conduct a survey of the city's parks, streets, waste, purchasing, and vehicle operation and maintenance departments.

The survey will be used by the city to determine if operation of any of the departments can be done more efficiently.

2 Drivers Arrested On Speeding Charges
Donald A. Casens, 20, of 111 NW 58th Avenue, and Samuel Picciolo, 45, of 1229 Astoria, were both charged with reckless driving by speeding by Gables police yesterday.

They were arrested by Officers H. C. Roberts and Louis Boroff on Ponce de Leon Boulevard.

Eye Survey Under Way

Sylvania Heights School and Kinloch Park school.

"The purpose of the survey," said Dr. Wheeler, "is to test the vision of the children and to pick out major and minor visual deficiencies that may effect the child's reading and other school work."

Results of the testing points out that there are more visual problems among boys than among girls. Quite a number of visual problems are discovered in grade one of the elementary schools.

The Keystone Visual Survey test is given to the children by students from the University of Miami who are specially trained to do this work. When it is found that a child has a serious defect in his vision, the principal of the school is notified and in turn the child's parents receive notification. The parents are requested to take the child to an eye doctor as soon as possible so that eye correction can be determined before too great a time lapses.

The Lion's Club has offered to assist any parents who are unable to pay for the examination or correction of their child's visual defect.

In the event that the findings on the test reveal only a slight visual problem, it is recommended that teachers observe the school work of the child.

Dr. Wheeler pointed out that although visual defects are not the only cause of poor reading and schoolwork, they do play an important part. Other factors that enter into the reading habit are hearing, personality, lack of interest, inadequate teaching, continual changing of schools and word blindness.

Findings reveal that the school children's visual defects include far-sightedness, near-sightedness, astigmatism, poor eye focus and suppression of one eye due to overuse. The Reading Clinic of the University offers assistance to any child to aid them in better reading.

Wood Pledges Aid to Gables In County Post

Tax Collector from 1937 to 1943, in an efficient and economical administration, without the mispending of a dime or loss of a single cent, as qualification, experience and training for the County Commission.

As a matter of business economy, Wood said he would not have an expensive downtown headquarters, but that his four sons—Hayes Jr., the first second-generation graduate of the University of Miami; David and Hugh, U of M students, and Tommy, a junior at Ponce de Leon High—would manage his "front porch" campaign from his sister's home in Shennandoah. Wood and his wife are building their post-war home in Felix Park, east of Kendall.

Wood pledged whole-hearted co-operation with officials of Coral Gables and all the other communities for future county activity, instead of the arrogant bickering of the present commission as related daily in the press.

Hayes Wood is a graduate of the University of Miami, president of the U. of M. Alumni, member of Coral Gables Lions, Coral Gables Elks, charter and life member of Coral Gables Junior Chamber of Commerce, member Mahi Shrine Legion of Honor, 40 & 8 Societe, RONS, Kofod Post Amvets, Miami Post AVC, and District 10 chairman American Legion Boy's State.

OUR TOWN

Today's Thoughts

By Jim Moore

Ever since President Truman made his speech on Wednesday I've been trying to analyze not only my reaction to it, but the reaction of Our Town to what he had to say.

Frankly, after two days of talking to folks about it, I can't agree with the congressman who said that the President couldn't have made us any more alarmed had he asked for a declaration of war against Russia. I don't think most people felt any different after he made his address than before. I think the President merely echoed what everybody has been feeling — and perhaps he didn't even make it quite as strong as a lot of people right here in Coral Gables would have.

It's true that since the speech there has been a lot more talk than before, but nobody is saying anything any different than they did on Tuesday.

The veterans are kiddingly asking each other if their uniforms are cleaned, pressed and ready. But most of them mentally checked that quite some time before the speech.

The talk about the draft was no surprise. The wire services had carried a story the week previous that the draft boards were being reorganized on a stand-by basis, so everyone knew that was in the wind. Nothing different was said about universal military training or the Marshall Plan.

We've all been talking around Coral Gables for weeks about what a bunch of s---s the Russians are and that maybe someday we'll have to do something about them. That same kind of talk has been going on in every hamlet and city from coast to coast.

Some of us may not agree exactly with some of the things Mr. Truman asked, but I've yet to hear the average person disagree with him in principle.

To boil it right down, Harry Truman of Independence, Mo., merely said what you might have said if you were called upon at the Lions or Kiwanis Club to get up and say what you thought about the Russian situation.

You might have even minced fewer words than Harry, and he did very little mincing.

whittled down that source of income until now Shaw may not be able to count on it at all come budget time.

Over Miami Beach way there is a popular young attorney who is up to his neck in becoming a candidate but is receiving so many dashes of political cold water that he is in a perplexed muddle. He had plans to be a candidate for the post of justice of the peace. When the word got around to certain groups (whom he expected would be his supporters, both financially and otherwise) he was informed, indirectly, that the support wouldn't be forthcoming unless he ran for the office of constable. If he ran for constable, he'd get the desired support, but if he didn't he'd get plenty of red-hot opposition. Fortunately, he hasn't paid any qualifying fee for any office, so he'll save that much money, that is, unless he ignores all warning signs and plunges in regardless.

A tip of the taxpayers hat should go to diminutive J. Mark Wilcox, Coral Gables lawyer, who is attorney for the county port authority. This week Mark is in New York making bond issue history. He has handled all of the details in the county's $3,000,000 bond refinancing program for the port authority which is the first time in history that a port authority has negotiated such a deal. Because it is setting a precedent, bond attorneys, bond buyers and banks are demanding that no legal precaution be overlooked. For that reason Mark has been forced to prepare more resolutions and agreements than on any other bond issue. Even the banks required a resolution attesting to the signature of E. B. Leatherman, clerk of circuit court, who has signed as many resolutions and bonds as any other public official in these parts.

A tenant of a local apartment house owner left for Chicago the other day after bidding his host adieu and stating that he'd see him next season. Three days later the local man received a telegram stating, "You can have it, I don't want it, it's too cold for me. See you Monday." . . . Bob Callaghan tells us we criticized him unjustly yesterday about his lack of greenery on St. Pat's Day. Bob informs us he was wearing a shamrock that he received via air mail two days ago, direct from the auld sod. . . . Bracey Richardson phoned to point out that in our story about the cost of the first annexation election we neglected to point out that the residents of Coral Groves and Coral Estates paid for it. We thought everybody knew that.

Our thanks to Ted Frutkoff for tipping us on the swell pictures Bud Spaulding got on the Eastern Auto Store fire. You saw one of them on page one, yesterday.

 Are you a "Sacrolliac"? A has been "Sacrolliac", or a potential "Sacrolliac"?
 If you are, here are some "don't's," which no doctor ever told me about—I had to learn the "hard way."
 Don't sneeze if you can help, but if you do enjoy sneezing, just "stifle" it or give a "subdued" sneeze. If you let out a good old fashioned sneeze, your "Sacrolliac" may jump out, and then you can't sneeze. Even the thoughts of a sneeze is agonizing.
 If you have to sneeze in the bath room while shaving, don't turn your head to sneeze—just grab hold of the wash basin and sneeze downward.
 Never sneeze on the sidewalk, unless you are near a building or a lamp-post. When you feel the sneeze coming on, lean against the building for support, or grab the lamp-post. If you don't follow instructions, you are liable to fall on the sidewalk, and get pinched for being drunk. Then if you can't walk, the cop will take you in and have you tested for the presence of alcohol. You try and explain that you are a "Sacrolliac," but as cops never are such, they are liable to get the word mixed up with "maniac"—then you are in trouble.
 Don't bend over to pick up your shoes—just "squat." Don't run any foot races nor mow the lawn. Let your wife do that, if she is not a "Sacrolliac" also.
 It is funny, but I have never seen a "Sacrolliac" with a common cold—if you can't sneeze you can't take cold, as I understand that sneezing is the forerunner of a cold.
 However, I would rather take cold occasionally, than be a chronic "Sacrolliac."

INTRODUCING THE SOROPTIMISTS

Whole Gruelle Family Pitched in to Help Create 'Raggedy Ann' Books for Small Fry

One thing that has made life worth while for Mrs. Johnny Gruelle is the memory of her 38 years as wife of the creator of the famed "Raggedy Ann" and other books for children.

Another personality in the Riviera-Times series on career women and charter members of the Coral Gables Soroptimist Club, this handsome woman, mother of two married sons, is president of the Johnny Gruelle Publishing Company, whose offices are and have been for the past six years, in Radio City, New York.

"When we, Johnny and I, and our two young sons came to Miami seventeen years ago, we established our home in fabulous Miami Beach just as other artists and writers did in those days," Mrs. Gruelle told her interviewer. "Here Johnny did some of his best work."

"What with the warm Florida sun and ideal weather, and with our own little boat tied up to the dock at our Meridian Avenue home, our lives flowed as smoothly as the water past our back door," she recalled.

Mrs. Gruelle likes to reminisce and she remembers that Johnny was earning only three dollars a day when they were wed.

"He was the creator and I was the 'pusher'—for most creative geniuses have to be gently prodded," she said.

Worth Gruelle, one of their sons, did some of the illustrations for Raggedy Ann and they all worked together to make a success of the book that has brought, and still brings, so much joy and pleasure to small fry everywhere.

With the passing of Johnny, the house on Meridian was sold and Mrs. Gruelle established her permanent home in Coral Gables at 1402 Capri Street. During the war she did Red Cross work in California and she is still a registered active member of the Gray Ladies Corps.

Her time is now spent mostly with her grandchildren, "Joni" named for her illustrious grandfather, and the newest addition to the Worth Gruelle family, "Kim," now about two months old. Worth and his wife Sue and their two children live on a grove in South Miami, where Worth follows his profession, illustrating.

Dick, Mrs. Gruelle's second son, who was married around Christmas time, wed his high school sweetheart, talented Ruth Holstein, former flutist with the University of Miami symphony orchestra.

Confessing no hobbies, Mrs. Gruelle likes to try her hand at raising flowers in the garden at her Capri Street home. That and an occasional motor trip to Key West with friends, and looking after her publishing business keeps this mother, grandmother and career woman busy.

Courthouse Corridors

Riviera-Times Staff Writer

How can you tell who will be your favorite candidate for governor when he has until tomorrow to qualify with the secretary of state. He may be your friend and neighbor. Under the state laws all of the cabinet officers must qualify with the secretary of state by February 1 with the exception of the governor who has until March 20. Why this is, is not clear, but its true.

Harry Sweeting, clerk to the county commission also states that candidates for the railroad commission have until Saturday to qualify with the secretary of state.

There is nothing more confusing than a primary election campaign with scads of candidates, many of whom announce but never qualify. Perhaps it will be best to wait until Monday, study the list, make your selection and sit back and listen to the radio or read about them in the newspapers.

Recent acts by the state legislature have left the voter with only two candidates whose boundaries are confined by the lowly districts—the justice of the peace and the constable.

In every other race on the ballot the voter may cast his ballot for the man or the woman of his choice. It is strange, but many voters still cling to the idea that they must only vote for the commissioner or the school board member who resides in his own particular district. The legislature changed that so that you have the privilege of voting for one in each of the five districts.

In 1943 the Legislature placed all of the county commissioners on a county-wide basis and arranged for all five to run for office every four years. That's not so good, as it is entirely possible that a new slate of five commissioners might be elected and take office at the same time. Regardless of who they may be, it wouldn't be a good thing for the county and would probably result in a general clean-out of courthouse and county employes, efficient or otherwise. Members of the school board, or board of public instruction, cling to the stagger system. Three are elected one year and two at the next election, so that two or three old members are available at all times to carry on the work.

George N. Shaw, finance director for the city of Miami, never had such headaches as he is suffering these days. He never dreamed of such troubles when he balanced the financial pyramid at Coral Gables. In addition to wondering where the money is coming from, Shaw is faced with a dwindling fine and forfeiture fund. The so-called "crusades" against gambling and vice has

Gablesgrams

By HELEN REYNOLDS, SOCIETY EDITOR

Many Coral Gableites will be viewing Mr. and Mrs. O. C. (Jack) Corbin's new home for the first time when they gather informally Saturday afternoon at five o'clock for cocktails and to meet the Corbin's house guests, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Thrall of Boston, Mass. The Corbin ranch type one-story home at 8421 Ponce de Leon Boulevard is built in wings flanking a semi-circular drive entering the estate from the boulevard. Near neighbors of the Corbins are the Roy Pages and the Bowman F. Hinckleys all former "city" dwellers who also find country life interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Roth of 1122 Avenue Sorolla will again have their Easter breakfast at eleven o'clock Easter morn. First given last year for those leaving town soon after Easter, and more or less for those who were rather "homeless," the Roths find their friends look forward to the informal "before-or-after" church party.

Mr. and Mrs. Horatius Baker will entertain at an open house aboard their yacht the "Scout" Sunday afternoon honoring many from Coral Gables who have been their hosts while they, the Bakers, were "at anchor" here. Mrs. Baker, a New England Daughter of the American Revolution from Maine, was treated to some real Southern (Coral Gables style) hospitality during the February meeting of the local chapter. The graciousness of her hostess, Mrs. Francis Graham and the thoughtfulness of another "daughter," Mrs. Ralph Roth, who put her automobile at the New Englander's disposal for trips to and from the yacht anchored in the Miami River, appealed.

Mrs. David E. Giffin of 927 Coral Way is planning an April luncheon as conclusion to her series of Spring parties. On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Giffin will entertain at the fourth and last of the dinner bridges, honoring among the sixteen invited guests a number from Indianapolis, Minn., who winter in the Gables area. They are Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Treat, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schumaker, Mr. and Mrs. Will Schumaker, the Scott Demings and the Monte Wiggins.

At last we have heard of a use for old newspapers—make them up into parasol sticks. Gathering a group of friends, who incidentally, meet regularly, in for luncheon Wednesday, Mrs. J. O. Conover of 2275 S.W. 61st Avenue suggested they all get to work around the spaciouly designed dining table after luncheon and make paper parasols. Pretty colored crepe paper was used for the "shades" and the sticks were old papers rolled tightly together, soaked in water, dried and then covered with tissue paper. The six girls made three dozen of the paper novelties which will be sold at the Sylvania Heights School PTA Carnival coming up soon. Mrs. Conover's guests were Mrs. Marshall Philpitt Sr., Mrs. Frank Stewart, Mrs. Louise Coffeen, Mrs. Frank Blake, Miss Effie Adams, Mrs. Marshall Boyd and Mrs. J. F. Conover, in whose honor the party was given. Also Mrs. Jessie Jones and Mrs. B. F. Parker.

'Opti-Mrs' Plan Cancer Benefit

The club rooms of the Coral Gables Elks Club will be the scene Monday of the annual welfare party of the Miami Opti-Mrs. Club with Mrs. J. Fritz Gordon of Coral Gables, general chairman, in charge. The party, a dessert bridge, will get under way at twelve-thirty. Proceeds from the sale of tickets, which incidentally may be secured at the door on Monday, will go toward furnishing dressing rooms at the Cancer Detective Clinic and other club projects. Greta Bleckman, opera singer and club member, will sing a group of songs as part of the entertainment program. She will be accompanied by Mrs. John C. Sullivan of Coral Gables. Entertainment will be under the direction of Miss Jaqueline May and will consist of dancing and singing by groups associated with the Gables Youth Center. Assisting Mrs. Gordon will be Mrs. Joseph T. Harvey as co-chairman; Mrs. Henry Dornstander, tickets; Mrs. Frank Dowling, refreshments; Mrs. Ray Thomas, candy; Mrs. H. A. Bridenbecker, special prizes and Mrs. Gus Keller, table prizes.

Captain Brand To Address AAUW Meet

"Dynamic Democracy" is the subject a feminine member of the United States Army, Captain Frances A. Brand, has chosen for an address before the general meeting of the local branch of the American Association of University Women Monday afternoon. The meeting will convene at three o'clock.

Captain Brand for four and one half years was liaison officer in this area, receiving foreigners of military or official distinction. She also was stationed for two years at the American Association University Women headquarters in Paris, during the war.

Mrs. Dan O. Patton will be hostess for this meeting. Miss Phyllis Wendt, Mrs. F. L. Capers, Mrs. J. O. Hopper and Mrs. J. E. Fretwell will assist.

Tequesta to Vote On Delegate to CAR Convention

Miss Marguerite Betts, state recording secretary of the Children of the Revolution and a member of Tequesta Society of Coral Gables, will be one of two delegates to the CAR state convention to be held April 2 and 3 in Tallahassee.

The second delegate will be elected at the regular meeting of Tequesta Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Sotille Jr., 2525 Indian Mound Trail. At this meeting Mrs. Harry N. Moss, new president of the senior group, will be inducted into office by Mrs. Sotille Sr., state senior vice president. Both junior and senior groups will attend the meeting.

Illinois Friends Visit Grahams

Dr. and Mrs. Louis Hoffman of Glenwood, Ill., will arrive Sunday from their camp at Captiva Island to be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Graham.

Other house guests in the Graham home will be Mr. and Mrs. Graham's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wigglesworth, who are en route to their home in Shaker Heights, Ohio, after a month in Nassau.

Hoosiers Enjoy Spell o' Sunshine

Getting out of the cold weather now found around Peru, Ind., are Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Monahan who are currently visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Monahan, at 802 Avenue Milan. The Indiana Monahans, who will be here until the first of May, are regular visitors to our town.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood of Barnesboro, Pa., recently became Gableites with the purchase of the home at 1424 Tberca Street.

Accessories Add To Easter Elegance

Fanciful fripperies and Easter finery will go hand in hand in this year's fashion parade.

And in the costumes shown above, Roal's of Miracle Mile demonstrates what coordination of the two can do to create fashion originals, custom styled for the individual personality and pocketbook.

Accessory to the fact that the accent's on accessories, was Mrs. Melvin G. Faris, slim, trim and lovely member of the Country Club modeling group.

Chosen first as "basic" frock on which to build was the grey butcher linen two-piece with full swing skirt pictured at the left. Easter's not Easter without a bonnet, so Roal's selected an imported broad-brimmed leghorn, bright with spring posies, to crown the ensemble.

The bright red of Mrs. Faris' waist-hugging "crumpled" cummerbund is repeated in the binding on the bonnet's brim, and echoed in afternoon ankle-strap shoes and boxy leather handbag. Cotton gloves with scalloped edging, and an antique cameo worn on collar tab just for the fun of it, complete the costume.

Just a shirtwaist and skirt—but not just ANY shirtwaist and skirt is the tropical outfit modeled by Mrs. Faris at the right.

Severely tailored from washable silk, this exclusive new blouse boasts golden locks for buttons—and a chatelaine chain on the pocket, securing a golden key. The skirt is starched waffle pique.

A lime leather handbag picks up the lighter colors in the pleated Roman-striped cummerbund—a Roal original—and the costume is topped by a crushed-crown beret of Milan straw.

STONE GARDEN BUNNY DISAPPEARS

Most Gableites are looking forward to the coming of the Easter bunny, but as far as the sorrowing Arthur Craggs are concerned—he has went!

The bunny they're referring to is a life-sized stone rabbit, which they brought all the way from Ohio to ornament a special spot in their garden. "About two weeks ago he disappeared," Mrs. Craggs explained, "and I haven't seen hide or 'hare' of him since."

Purchased in a pottery shop in Marion, Ohio, several years ago, the bunny has long been a favorite ornament around the Cragg home at 701 Avenue Alcazar, and the Craggs are hoping he'll turn up again where he belongs. "My guess is that someone thought he would make a nice Easter bunny," ventured Mrs. Cragg about the mysterious disappearance of the rabbit.

Folks From 'Up Yonder' Enjoy Spring Vacations in Coral Gables

"On a Southern tour" is what the children of Mrs. Susie Y. Bullock say about their mom.

From Louisville, Ky., Mrs. Bullock is currently visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Frenzenberger, at 4360 S.W. 16 Lane.

She plans to leave Monday for West Virginia where she will visit another daughter, Mrs. D. J. Haudu, before journeying to Charlotte, N. C., to see her son, B. F. Bullock.

"Mom makes this tour every year," said Mrs. Frenzenberger, "so we now refer to her as a dyed-in-the-wool Southern tourist."

Although Mrs. Robert Siegel has been visiting in Dade County off and on for the past fourteen years, her current visit is the first one she has ever made in Coral Gables.

"I've certainly been missing a lot during my past visits here," she commented.

From Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. Siegel will return to her home tomorrow with none but pleasant memories of her stay in our town. For the past three weeks she has been visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Seidler, at 4331 S.W. 14th Street.

Troth of Miss Violette Stuart To Robert Lee Towle Jr. Told by Bride-Elect's Mother

Of interest in the Gables, Lake Wales, and West Palm Beach is the announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Violette Charline Stuart to Robert Lee Towle Jr.

The announcement will be made this week-end in Lake Wales by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Grace Stuart.

The young couple will be married on Friday evening, April the Ninth, at Holy Cross Episcopal Church. The Rev. Gladstone Rogers will perform the ceremony.

For her only attendant, Miss Stuart has chosen her cousin, Judith Anne Whidden, to serve as maid of honor. Thomas Towle, brother of the groom, will act as best man for the couple.

Mr. Towle, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Towle Sr., of West Palm Beach served for three years in the Navy during the recent war. He is now attending the University of Miami where, as a senior, he is majoring in business administration. He is a member of Phi Kappa Alpha at the university.

When the couple return from a wedding trip around the State of Florida, they plan to reside at 405 S.W. 22nd Road.

Intra-State Golf League Proposed by Umps Clark

Entries Due For Center Softball Play

The Coral Gables Youth Center's two softball leagues will open their schedule the first or second week of April, new co-director Eddie Cameron announced this morning. Applications are being accepted for entries in the night league, with several teams already in the fold and several "probables" ready with their teams.

Carl's Liquors, last year's winner, is almost a definite entry along with National Airlines and the Elks Club. Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity, the Catholic Youth Organization and the Friendly Bar have signified their intentions to enter teams.

The high school afternoon softball league is also being organized, Cameron said, and will probably start play about the same time, depending upon the promptness with which entries are filed.

MIAMI SCORES 5th DERBY WIN

Little Mike, the son of Gerry Murray, won the intermission "Diaper Derby" attraction at the Coliseum last night and his mom out-scored the entire troupe as Miami again took the lead in the series by defeating Chicago, 16 to 12, Thursday night.

Murray, captain of the Miami girls, and Midge "Tuffy" Brasuhn, the rival leader, were at it again last night to the delight of 3,002 paid customers.

Miami gained the edge in the series and fattened their point total by breaking into the lead and calling off Chicago's jam that could have gained the Windy City team the verdict.

Individual scores: For Miami Girls, Karan 1, Kemp 2, Murray 4, Brasuhn 1, Harnack 2, Payne 1, Masero 2, Schalk 1, Chicago—Girls, Brasuhn 2, Gardner 1, Johnson 1, Edwards 1, Monte 3, Reynolds 1, Skobel 1, Rich 2.

Series total—Miami, 190; Chicago, 121.

Riviera ABC Second Round Closes Sunday

The second round of the Riviera Country Club ABC golf tournament closes over the Blue Road links Sunday, and if the pace set in advance games during the week is any indication all 48 players divided into three classes will be driving their shots dead for the pin off every tee.

One upset marked Thursday's play as Virgil Wright parlayed his fanciful stroke to defeat Herb Jones, 2 to 1. Wright lashed the 18 holes in 33-41 to fashion the victory margin. In other Class A pairings, Dr. Art Welland got to Dr. Charles Barbacher, 2-1 and Claude Corrigan posted a 4-3 triumph over George Hall.

Class B players have finished five second round matches. Frank Moore defeated Dr. George Coleman, 2-1; Frank Newman defeated Irvine Thomas, 6-4; and Dave Spender gained the third round at the expense of George Shikany, 3-2.

A. H. Adams lost to Ben Costello, 2-1 and Don Cox was eliminated by M. H. Connell by the same count.

Fervent's draw of 125 pounds for the first half of the Tropical Park Double Event tomorrow came as a surprise to some turf followers—especially since El Mono "the Winter Wonder horse" will be carrying four pounds less. But the logic of establishing the Calumet Farm four-year-old son of Blenheim II is clear without the consideration of handicaps: He's just more horse than the rags-to-riches Danny Lamont colt who has been the big horse of the Florida campaigning.

Fred Hooper Paces Florida Owners

Fred Hooper breaks into print frequently as a Riviera Country Club golfer, and the contracting man also rates a nod for heading up the total of 27 Hialeah Park victories won by Florida owners this season with 10 wins. Ocean Drive climaxed the 40-day season by winning the Juvenile Handicap—the second time in three years that the Gablette has won that event, having captured the three-furlong dash with Education in 1946.

Country Club Entertains British Netters

Just to prove that most of the best people come to Coral Gables, the Country Club tennis courts have been the scene of some torrid doubles games the past few weekends between pro Ike Macy and Dick McKee and Charles Hare, the former British Davis Cupper and his one-time Wideman Cup player wife, Mary Hardwicke.

Roach Was Ready for Cerdan

Chris Dundee emphatically denies that he did not think middleweight Lavern Roach, who made a good impression in TKOing Al Thornton over on the Beach a month ago, was ready for Marcel Cerdan, the slugging Moroccan who led the former Marine in the eighth at Madison Square Garden a week ago tonight. . . . The Frenchman caught the Texan solidly in the second chapter, and despite the rest during the controversial long count, Roach just couldn't come out of it. . . . Dundee and co-manager Johnny Agood will try him again soon but hardly in this area. . . . Chris, incidentally, likes very much the work of collegiate heavyweight champion Art Saev, and if Art does start punching-for-pay after his bid for fame in the Olympics this summer he probably couldn't find a better manager. . . . Maybe he'll be making his debut at the Coliseum, because there's a reliable rumor (whatever that is) that the Douglas Road arena will be open for fistic business again ere the summer passes.

Roller Derbeites Getting in Shape Now

Billy Bogash, the Roller Derby sensation, and the rest of the troupe are beginning to warm up to skating here—after the heat in the Coliseum sweated off as much as eight pounds in a single night from several of the skaters. . . . The series has boiled down to the point where most of the regular patrons have their favorites and blood-enemies, which is characteristic of derby shows. . . .

Murriel Marshall Is Umps Clark Protege

If Murriel Marshall ever rates as a great woman golfer, Umps Clark wants some of the credit—he took her out on the tee for the first time two years ago and the first pay-off was her winning the low net trophy of the Country Club tournament which wound up Wednesday. . . .

Gables, Miami JC's Nucleus Of State Loop

Enthusiastic plans for the formation of an intra-state golf league were announced this morning by Wilbur "Umps" Clark, pro-manager of the Coral Gables Biltmore and Granada golf courses.

The essence of the plan is to organize 10 to 30-man golf teams at each country club in the Greater Miami area and extend operations north as far as the Palm Beaches and over to the west coast to bring in teams from Tampa and St. Petersburg. Clubs would play round-robin tournaments for a mythical Florida championship.

Specifically, Umps stated, the Miami area could provide at least six teams for the league, with players drawn from the Biltmore, Riviera, Miami Shores, Bayshore, Miami Country Club and Fort Lauderdale courses.

An unofficial first match of the proposed league will be played tomorrow at the Miami Country Club between Coral Gables and Miami Jaycees teams. That links rivalry started two months ago when the Gablettes challenged their downtown counter-parts and were defeated by a slender margin. Saturday they will be attempting to even the series.

Sidney Schwartz Upsets McGrath, Meets Talbert in Indoor Finals

NEW YORK, March 19. (UP)—A husky 19-year-old University of Miami freshman stands on the threshold of tennis fame where many another seeker has faltered, but just like his predecessors, he stands only an outside chance of upsetting the top-seeded player in the National Indoor Tennis championship singles tonight.

The challenger is Sidney Schwartz, playing out of Brooklyn by way of Coral Gables, Fla. Seeded fifth, he came through with a sustained game, a powerful service and a superb net game, to eliminate third-seeded Sleepy Eddie McGrath, also of Flatbush, 8-6, 5-7, 6-3, 4-6 and 6-4 to gain a finals berth Thursday. But there he will probably meet his master, Billy Talbert of New York, who is favored to beat seasoned Frank Shields tonight.

Misses Hart and Scofield will team up for the doubles finals and are favored to annex that title together.

When the Boston Red Sox break camp at Sarasota, Fla., next month, a Pan American World Airways Clipper will again carry them on the first leg of their spring exhibition tour.

The American Leaguers, strong contenders for the championship this year, will fly from Sarasota to New Orleans April 6 for an exhibition game.

Last year the Red Sox made an eight-day tour of the South and Southwest by clipper.

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE Yo, Ho, Ho and the Dodger Camp Is Living on the Fat-of-the-Land

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, D. R., March 18. (UP) — Sir Francis Drake was 300 years too early. He should have come here with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

All the loot of the Spanish Main couldn't have bought, then, what the ferocious gentlemen of Flatbush are getting today by waving a baseball bat instead of a cutlass.

For here on the sunny shores of the Caribbean the Dodgers have what is undoubtedly the most luxurious spring training camp in the history of baseball. And the Durocher Dandies are finding it easy to believe that Columbus landed here in 1492 just to get things ironed out for them in 1948.

The club is ensconced, and the word comfortably is a masterful understatement, in the magnificent Hotel Jaragua, a modernistic white hostelry which is strictly out of any world. The rooms, floored with native tile, are as large as indoor skating rinks. And each has a private balcony overlooking the rolling Caribbean.

Down front, also, is an 80-foot pool of tile imported from the United States. Here the colors are so vivid they could have been splashed on by a mad artist. Flaming umbrellas speckle the green lawn and ball players relax on chromium beach chairs under swaying palm trees.

Two of the most avid pool addicts are Pee-Wee Reese and Spider Jorgensen and, when they are not at the ball park, you can find them risking the pennant by doing tricks off the high and low boards.

The other players scatter their time among the tennis courts, the golf course, the massage department or the solariums. And in the chow department there is a roof garden where the cool evening breeze sweeps in off the sea or the main floor terraced dining

Bosox to Tour by Clipper

When the Boston Red Sox break camp at Sarasota, Fla., next month, a Pan American World Airways Clipper will again carry them on the first leg of their spring exhibition tour.

The American Leaguers, strong contenders for the championship this year, will fly from Sarasota to New Orleans April 6 for an exhibition game.

Last year the Red Sox made an eight-day tour of the South and Southwest by clipper.

Four Cavs in Invitational Track Meet

Four members of the Ponce de Leon High school varsity track squad take a crack at individual sectional honors tonight in the Miami High school invitational track meet at Moor Park.

Coach Jack Kaspar withdrew all entries in the running events for the meet earlier this week when it was learned that most of the point-getters would be unable to enter due to participation in a school opera.

Steve Bellows is the most likely blue-ribbon entry for the Cavaliers in the pole vault. Bellows is capable of clearing 11 feet, which tops the best efforts of Greater Miami competition by several inches.

Other consistent performers entered in the meet are Ed Ingram, high jump; Bob Connor, broad jump; and Jay Lake, who will hurl the javelin in competition with members of the 12 other schools expected to enter teams.

Senator Richard B. Russell (D), of Georgia, will be holding the press conference on the air when he faces the question barrage of four experienced Washington newsmen on "Meet The Press" over Station WKAT (MBS) at 10:00 p. m.

Pendemonium of a non-political sort takes over in the nation's capital tonight as Spike Jones and his musical madmen, accompanied by Dorothy Shay, the Park Avenue hillbilly, move "Spotlight Revue" to Washington, D. C. The show will be broadcast over Station WGBS (CBS) at 10:30 p. m. Robert L. Ripley, "Believe It or Not" man, will be the guest of Bill Stern on "Sports Newsweek" over Station WIOD (NBC) at 10:30 p. m. Stories to be told on the show will include one about a dead man who scored a run in a baseball game, another about Babe Ruth hitting 125 home runs in one hour, and one about an all-around athlete and singer, Chauncey O'leott, who wrote "My Wild Irish Rose."
