

Red Radio Voice in Berlin Silenced by TNT Blast

REPRISALS ARE EXPECTED AGAINST WESTERN POWERS FOR ACTION BY FRENCH

BERLIN, Dec. 16. (UP) — French army engineers dynamited two huge antenna towers of Soviet-controlled Radio Berlin today, silencing Russia's number one propaganda voice in Germany for two hours. Reprisals against the Western powers were expected.

The French action had in it some of the decisive quality which observers here have come to expect only of the Russians. It appeared to have been taken without consultation with American and British authorities, who said they were surprised by the act.

On Nov. 20, Brig. Gen. Jean Ganeval, French commandant in Berlin, informed Russian authorities by letter that the two towers—one of them rising more than 400 feet in the air—constituted a hazard to the Anglo-American airlift hurdling the Russian surface blockade to Berlin.

Hiss Pleads Not Guilty To Spy Probe Perjury

NEW YORK, Dec. 16. (UP)—Alger Hiss, who was a State Department adviser to President Roosevelt at Yalta, pleaded innocent today to a charge that he committed perjury by denying that he supplied secret government documents for delivery to Russia.

Hiss pleaded innocent to both counts of perjury on which he was indicted yesterday by a grand jury investigating Communism and espionage.

Federal Judge John W. Clancy set Jan. 24 as a tentative trial date.

Hiss' counsel, Edward McLean, agreed to the government's request for $5,000 bail.

Xmas Trees Ruled Illegal

TOKYO, Dec. 16. (UP)—The Japanese government today ordered the removal of Christmas trees from railway stations on grounds they violated a law forbidding the state to encourage any particular religion.

The Dai Nihon Buddhist Association complained that the trees in the Tokyo Central and other stations were "Christian" and illegal.

Government Troops Break Chinese Red Encirclement

NANKING, Dec. 16. (UP)—Nationalist armies broke the Communist encirclement of the 12th army group above Nanking today, government sources reported, but other Red forces far to the north tightened their noose around Peiping.

The government-controlled Central News Agency said rescue columns from the south drove through the last 12 miles of Communist-held territory and linked up with Gen. Huang Wei's 12th army group this afternoon.

Huang Wei lost nearly half his 95,000 men during the 16 days he was encircled by the Communists southwest of Suhsien and about 130 miles north of Nanking.

Increased Powers Urged For U. S. Defense Secretary

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16. (UP)—A Hoover commission "task force" urged today that the Defense secretary be made virtual dictator of the armed forces with power second only to the president's.

The commission's committee on national security made the recommendation in a 211-page report. The committee is composed of 14 official and industrial leaders headed by Ferdinand Eberstadt, former chairman of the Army-Navy munitions board and one-time vice chairman of the War Production Board. The commission of which it is an arm is studying plans for modernizing the executive branch.

Toothy Christmas

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 16. (UP)—It isn't even Christmas yet, and Spike Jones said today that he already has more front teeth than any one man could use.

The bandleader and vocalist George Rock recently introduced a song called, "All I Want for Christmas is My Two Front Teeth," and Jones said that they were snowed under with letters, each enclosing two front teeth.

White House Xmas Tree Bows to Video's Demand

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. (UP)—The White House Christmas tree will sacrifice some old-fashioned traditions this year in the interest of television.

William C. Hills, head of the decorating committee, explained that the tree has to have special "make-up" for Video "just like a woman."

In the past, the 35-foot tree in the White House "back yard" has sparkled with only red and green lights. This, said Hills, is because all presidents, Republican or Democrat, have been "old-fashioned about trees."

But the television people had a sad time of it last Christmas, he said. The red and green lights showed up as dull grey glows. In answer to their pleas, the decorating committee has agreed to a third bulb, plain white.

Hodge-Podge of Weather Experienced by Nation

By UNITED PRESS
The nation was hit today by a weird hodge-podge of weather that included both springlike and sub-zero temperatures, rain, fog, sleet, snow, and a miserable mixture the weather bureau described as "grapefruit."

The grapefruit, a combination of snow pellets, sleet and frozen rain, covered New York City with 2 1/2 inches of yellow slush. Pavements were slick and air travel was stopped.

St. Louis and Indianapolis yesterday enjoyed the hottest temperatures on record for Dec. 15. But Los Angeles, which usually boasts of its mild weather, shivered at 39 degrees. That was the lowest temperature of the year and only three degrees above the record low for that date.

Five-Nation Group Probes 'Invasion' of Costa Rica

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16. (UP)—A five-nation commission was scheduled to leave here today for Costa Rica to investigate charges that that country has been invaded from Nicaragua.

The State Department has furnished a plane for the trip. The investigators, including a U. S. representative, will go first to San Jose, Costa Rica, and then to Managua, Nicaragua.

The fact-finding commission was authorized by the council of the organization of American states. Costa Rica had appealed to the council under the recently-ratified Rio mutual defense pact.

3 Ponce Girls Win Powers' Favor

JOAN WOOTEN

PAT ROBERTS

ANNE MEYER

Three Ponce de Leon High School girls had their heads in the clouds today. Out of 12 calendar beauties, one representing each month of the year, they had been selected as outstanding by no less than John Robert Powers, the king of the model agency executives. Selected for first, second and third place from the calendar girls were Joan Wooten, Pat Roberts and Anne Durling Meyer. The calendars, which were published as a project of the National Forensic League at Ponce, will be on sale Saturday at Roal, Althea's, Daniels, Yrene, Alan Abess, Turner-Raigan, Dorothy Ann, Coral Coy Shop, Valencia Dress Shop and Berkley Limited. In addition, the Cavallettes, in uniform, will sell them in the business district today. The attractive calendar presents two pages and a cover. In suitable photographs, the calendar girls carry out the theme of the month they represent. Photography was by Riviera-Times staff photographer

Robert B. Binner, with gowns furnished by the stores where the calendars will be sold. Hair styling was by J. Baldi and Tomas. In addition to the three Powers' selections, the other calendar girls include Miss Charmaine Senn, Miss Laurene Williams, Miss Peggy Berry, Miss Virginia Woolley, Miss Mickey Flannery, Miss Roselyn Albury, Miss Laura Copeland, Miss Betty Lou Pullman and Miss Janey Kestler. Miss Wooten, the No. 1 Powers selection, was born in Jacksonville and moved to Coral Gables in 1946, when she entered Ponce de Leon as a freshman. Arrest Order Given by Kimbrough

Open Betting At Coliseum Brings Action

Safety Director William G. Kimbrough today warned members of the "gambling fraternity" whose open betting turned last night's Curly-Basora fight in the Coral Gables Coliseum into a ringside Monte Carlo, that police have been given orders to arrest and prosecute any future bettors in the local sports arena. Kimbrough said that his men have been watching the situation and that he is prepared to crack down if Coral Gables' anti-gambling laws continue to be ignored. The "fast money gentry" moved in on the Coliseum last night and set a fast pace of betting for stakes ranging as high as several hundred dollars on a round. Even before the main event was under way, the gamblers were warming up on the preliminary matches, passing greenbacks back and forth and openly placing bets on rounds, the "full go" and even on punches. The bets ranged in size from five dollars on a point to as high as several hundred dollars on a round, and the bettors made little or no attempt to conceal their bets as they changed hands when the wagers were decided by the fighters in the ring. Kimbrough said today that such practices would absolutely not be tolerated, and anyone attempting to wager at future fights had better be prepared to face arrest and the full prosecution of the law.

Gables Rotary Play Host to District Head

MORTON McDONALD

The Rotary Club of Coral Gables tomorrow will welcome Morton McDonald, Governor of the 167-B District of Rotary International, which includes 25 Rotary Clubs along East Coast of Florida from Deland and Daytona Beach to Key West. McDonald is president of The Abstract Corporation in DeLand and is a member of the Rotary Club of DeLand.

McDonald will visit the Rotary Club of Coral Gables to advise and assist President Roy Bovard, Secretary Herb Crowder and other officers of the Club on matters pertaining to Club administration and Rotary service activities. He is one of the 180 District Governors of Rotary International who are supervising the activities of some 6,600 Rotary Clubs which have a membership of 320,000 business and professional executives in 80 countries and geographical regions throughout the world.

Wherever Rotary Clubs are located, their activities are similar to those of the Rotary Club of Coral Gables because they are based on the same general objectives—developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community-betterment, understanding and peace among all the peoples of the world. Each year, this world-wide service organization continues to grow in numbers and in strength. During the last fiscal year, 323 new Rotary Clubs were organized in 35 countries of North, South and Central America, Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Islands of the Pacific.

Physician Takes Own Life; Wife Finds Body in Tub

BULLETIN
Dr. R. M. Rasmus, 55, of 638 Avenue Madeira took his own life by shooting himself in the temple with a .38 caliber revolver, this afternoon according to a report by Det. Lieut. A. M. Bishop.

According to Bishop, Mrs. Rasmus was sitting on the back porch drying her hair and heard a shot. She ran to the bathroom and found her husband in the bathtub, the bullet wound in his temple. A neighbor called police, who found him dead on their arrival.

The body was released to the Philbrick Funeral home by Constable George Hardie. The deceased left no note.

Grove Plan to End Slums On Agenda for Tonight

The Coconut Grove Citizens' Committee for Slum Clearance will meet to frame a master plan for re-zoning the Grove's colored section at 8 p.m. tonight in the American Legion Hall, MacFarland Street near South Bayshore Drive.

The rezoning recommendations will be presented to the Planning Board at the City Hall 7:30 on Monday.

"These recommendations will represent the wishes of the majority," said Mrs. Vladimir E. Virrick, leader of the slum clearance group, "and tonight's discussion will present a final opportunity for all interested citizens to have their viewpoints presented."

To secure a background for the rezoning proposal, the meeting will hear reports by the standing committees of the Citizens' group. The committees and their chairmen are: Re-zoning, Alfred Parker, head of the regional chapter of the American Institute of Architects; Sanitation, Dr. Franz Stewart; Exorbitant Rents, Mrs. (Please turn to Page Three)

Lee Schusterman, a University of Miami student, told police today that he and three other students had rented a house at 1517 Avenue Malaga and that on December 6 they took in a roomer.

He said that the roomer has been missing since Monday. Also missing is a $135 wrist watch and $8 in cash.

Galloping Jewelry

Bus Driver Tommy Hall thought that he had found a piece of unique costume jewelry on city hall lawn today, when he spied a silver grass-hopper.

When he reached for it, however, the "jewelry" jumped. It is believed that the insect was on the Christmas tree atop the city hall rounda when workmen sprayed it with aluminum paint.

Girl Student Draws $60 Fine On Driving Count

A University of Miami student who caused an automobile accident in which four cars were involved and who didn't have a driver's license was fined $60 in municipal court last night and had her driving privileges suspended for six months.

Found guilty of reckless driving and causing an accident was Miss Deana Rosen, 1248 Dickinson Drive, who was involved in the collision Monday at Bird and Le-Jeanne Roads.

Travelling charges against Arthur Shapiro, 5513 Avenue Fontana, were dismissed by Judge William Brown.

E. J. Johanson, Ponce de Leon Hotel, was found guilty of being drunk and disorderly, resisting arrest and trespassing. He was fined $45 and costs.

Murray F. Wittichen, 1024 Avenue Asturia, who struck a parked car when he said lights from an approaching car blinded him, was fined $20 for reckless driving and causing an accident. Edgar Lipey, 6750 SW Eighth Street, the owner of the parked car, was fined $10 for improper parking and contributing to an accident.

Robert L. Franks, 2931 SW 19th Terrace, was fined $10 for driving without a driver's license.

Pigeons Constitute Airport Hazard

CLEVELAND (UP)—The biggest hazard for pilots using the new downtown airport here is not high wires or fog blowing in off Lake Erie. It is pigeons.

The airport manager, Jack Doyle, says the birds find the new air strip ideal for maneuvers and mass formation landings. It is no laughing matter to a flier.

When a bird bounces off a light plane's whirling propeller, the prop usually gets the worst of it. If the plane is coming in for a landing, the pilot easily can lose his life in the resulting crash.

"We have tried poison corn," said Doyle. "It is effective but slow."

The most practical method yet discovered of clearing the area of pigeons is for Doyle to get in the airport's jeep firetruck and race up and down the field with siren screaming before a plane landing or taking-off.

Symptoms of poison ivy usually appear in 12 to 24 hours after exposure.

The busy flight line of the Naval Air Station at Pensacola will roar into action shortly as Naval Aviation Cadets jump into their fast, sturdy SNJ trainers and taxi out for a practice hop. Pensacola Naval Air Station, the "Annapolis of the Air," is the focus of the recently reactivated Naval Aviation Cadet training program, which is open to healthy, single young men between 18 and 25, with at least two years of college. Upon graduation they are commissioned ensigns in the Naval Reserve, or second lieutenants in the Marine Corps Reserve, are awarded their wings and assigned to two years' active duty. Vets Urged To Exchange Certificates

World War II veterans holding unused certificates of eligibility for GI Bill education or training issued before September 1, 1948, who are planning to enter training for the first time after January 1, 1949, should exchange them immediately for a new type certificate.

The certificates may be exchanged in person or by mail at any Veterans Administration office, V. S. Parker, Miami regional manager said.

VA is urging the exchange because of new registration techniques that will be used after January 1, 1949, to safeguard the interests of veterans and the government.

After January 1, 1949, the extent of entitlement for training of each veteran enrolling with an old certificate must be verified by VA before tuition and subsistence payments may be made. In verifying entitlement, VA must assign each enrollee a claim number and set up the initial index record for the veteran.

By exchanging the old certificates before entering training, the veteran will enable the VA to dispose of these actions well in advance. This will make possible more prompt and accurate service to the veteran after this training starts.

Change to Aid Vets

Surrender of the old certificates will provide these additional advantages to the veterans now holding them: (1) The veteran will be assured that all the training time to which he is entitled is shown on his certificate; (2) Early training restrictions of the original law that may be shown on the oldest certificates will be removed; (3) The claim number that will be assigned will afford a speedy identification in all future dealings the veteran has with the VA; (4) The different types of certificates issues as stop-gap measures to speed certification for training following the rapid demobilization of the armed forces will be eliminated and replaced with a single standard form used throughout the country; and (5) The new certificates will be accepted by schools and VA without question. Old certificates are not acceptable until verified.

PO Recalls Rapid Progress Since First Xmas Card

As patrons swamped the local Post Office yesterday with their holiday mailings, Acting Postmaster Valliere found time to recall the continuing progress in United States postal delivery service since the first Christmas cards were dispatched by Benjamin Franklin, father of the American Postal System.

Back in those dim, candle-lit days nearly 200 years ago the hearty colonists were fewer and farther between than cities are today, and mailmen were rare pioneers willing to blaze new trails afoot and on horseback over a comparatively few scattered miles of rugged terrain encompassing the post routes, Acting Postmaster Valliere said.

From that inauspicious start sprang the overland mail as a result of the Gold Rush of '49, followed by the Pony Express in 1860, linking east and west with what was the fastest mail delivery the forefathers of that era could conceive. Then came the railway mail service connecting virtually all crossroads of America.

The next innovation that has brought this nation the world's fastest, modern postal delivery service was the airplane shortly after the turn of the century. Down through the years air mail facilities have expanded to such an extent that today it is commonplace to wing letters and parcels to all parts of the globe.

"In this Air Age," added Acting Postmaster Valliere, "the speedier air mail and air parcel post service, which envelopes more than 300,000 route miles of domestic and international airways blanketing every sector of the world, is available from our city at the lowest rates in history."

"When you consider that patrons may still be assured of their greeting cards and packages being delivered in ample time for Christmas by the simple expedient of air mail, whether they be going 500 or 5,000 miles, then the progress made in our postal delivery service is nothing short of phenomenal," Valliere concluded as he again turned his attention to the deluge of Christmas mail.

Mrs. Virrick expressed the belief that a successful re-zoning plan will prove to be a leading factor in the campaign to eradicate substandard living conditions in the area.

It was the Coconut Grove Citizens' Committee for Slum Clearance, formed in August 1948, which spearheaded the drive that resulted in the recent passage of two Miami city ordinances making installation of interior plumbing mandatory.

VETERAN DIES WHILE DRIVING TO HOSPITAL

A veteran of World War I died in his automobile on the way to Pratt Veterans Hospital early this afternoon, Gables police reported. The dead man is Ghavont Hawoutnian of Fort Lauderdale, who passed away in his car on Dixie Highway while asking directions to the hospital. Hospital attaches attributed his death to a heart attack.

Blood-Stained Clothes Clue To Guam Murder Mystery

AGANA, Guam, Dec. 16. (UP)—Military authorities hoped today that blood-stained trousers and undershorts found in a barracks might lead to the rape-slayers of the "most beautiful girl of Guam," Ruth Farnsworth, 27-year-old civilian Navy employee.

But investigation of a blood-stained shirt which also was found had determined that its owner was not involved in the brutal attack on Miss Farnsworth. The stains had resulted from a minor accident in which the serviceman was involved, it was learned.

Maj. John Copeland, of London, O., chief of the Guam police, said no arrests were anticipated immediately, but indicated that two men, who were not named, were involved in the investigation as a result of discovery of the blood-stained clothing.

OUR TOWN

Lest We Forget

By Jim Moore

The news that the Babcock and Lamont Company is contemplating the building of a 1 1/2 million dollar hotel on Biltmore Way in Coral Gables has been received in Our Town with a great deal of enthusiasm.

There has existed for quite a long time a definite need for such a building, and it is hoped that those who propose it will see it through to completion.

However, the erection of this edifice will not remove the far greater need for additional "regular" hotel facilities that are keeping literally thousands of potential visitors from this community.

Ever since the Biltmore was taken away by the government along with the Casa Loma and the San Sebastian was turned over to the University, those who know have chanted the urgent need for a hotel.

Therefore urging that an adequate hotel be built here is not a new thought. It is brought up again at this time so that the civic leaders who have been working toward that goal will not be lulled into thinking that it has been accomplished with the apartment-hotel announcement.

We need a hotel with a minimum of 200 rooms that will cater to folks of moderate means who wish to come here for a few days or a couple of weeks at the most. I would imagine that parents of students at the University could pretty well keep it filled while the University is in session.

There are people interested in such a hotel for the Gables. Let's not let them lose interest.

"PEARLED HIGHWAYS"

From the enchanted sands of Ponce de Leon,
 To Balboa's golden shores;
 From the blue ridge of the Old Dominion,
 To murmuring pines by Oregon Seas;
 Is a haven of meekness and humility,
 Oh, Patriots hear the litany of Cathedral Hills;
 One flag, one land, one symphony.

From Plymouth's holy altar,
 To the heroic Alamo;
 Is sacred ground for freemen,
 From the majestic spires of Alaska, crystal crowned;

To the sweet song of Evangeline;
 Where Mardi Gras abounds,
 From the fields of Abraham and Quebec,
 To the vale of the Aztecs and Chapultepec,
 Is a rendezvous for the dignity of man.

From Hawaii, gemmed signal tower of the Western seas,
 To the zephyr kissed isles of the Antilles;
 Is a pearled highway to the heart of Columbia,
 Armed ardors of liberty, recording the pulse of nations.

Kings yet lurk in the byways,
 Tyrants are afield,
 The yellow man has the yellow sea;
 But this, by the grace of God, shall be
 A heritage, foy of, and by the free.

No mysteries here hidden lie,
 No curtain to blind the searching eye;
 Free thought, free cross, free enterprise,
 No prince in imperial glaucous,
 Nor sovereign unrestrained shall dictate peace or pact.

Or undermine—We hold these facts,
 No challenge, or spread of fears;
 No alliance, or torrent of tears;
 Legions of the land, squadrons of the seas, argosies
 of the air
 Endure forever, America the fair.

The World of Music

NEW YORK, (UP)—The 100th anniversary of the death of Frederic Chopin, the great Polish pianist-composer, will be observed next year with a nation-wide series of events in his honor.

The celebration is being sponsored by the Kosciuszko Foundation of New York, headed by Dr. Henry Noble MacCracken, president emeritus of Vassar College.

The foundation has set up a Chopin centennial national committee whose members include Howard Hanson, Deems Taylor, Arthur Rodzinski, Douglas S. Moore and George S. Dickinson.

The committee will encourage commemorative events, educational programs, concerts and recitals. The series will start on Feb. 22, Chopin's birthday, and will reach a climax by Oct. 17, the centennial date of his death. One of the early events will be an all-Chopin program to be given by Robert Casadesus, French pianist, at Carnegie Hall on Feb. 25.

Georges Fahrah of Beirut, Lebanon, who is headed as a pioneer in a new school of Oriental music, will offer his first symphonic program in the United States on Jan. 6. He will present a group of his own works at the Brooklyn Academy of Music on that date.

Fahrah aims at a new version of an ancient music—symphonized Oriental music. According to advance notices, he believes a new and beautifully Oriental music can be created by adapting it to western techniques, symphonizing the monotonous of the old lyric songs.

Franz Schubert's "Overture for String Quartet," written 137 years ago, was heard for the first time when it was presented this week by Thomas K. Sherman's Little Orchestra Society at Town Hall in New York.

The existence of the manuscript long has been known, but it has lain in the files of a Vienna music publisher since 1811. Schubert, then 14 years old, had composed the piece for his brother, Ferdinand.

Miklos Gaffni, young Hungarian tenor, has returned from a tour of Australia during which he gave 27 performances in Australia and New Zealand and two in Noumea, New Caledonia. Gaffni is now on a cross-country tour of the United States.

Hollywood Film Shop

By PATRICA CLARY
United Press Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—The only pollster who as far as movie producer Maxwell Shane knows was right on the election was one who did his questioning dressed as a chicken-buyer.

That is the principle Shane now is applying to the question of who likes what movie how much.

"People in Hollywood have no perspective on movies," Shane said. "I prefer to ask the man on the street. He has 'innocence of eye.'"

"Innocence of eye," Shane explained, means that you haven't seen so many movies that you know what cliché is coming next.

Shane just finished a movie called, but not for long, "The Amboy Dukes." Most movie producers thereupon hit themselves to Palm Springs. Shane garbed himself as Hollywood's approximation of a chicken-buyer and hit the road.

"I wanted to find out how people liked the title 'The Amboy Dukes,'" he said. "They don't."

Title Undecided

He hasn't decided yet just what they will like, so he can't give you the new title.

He also wanted to find out how to sell the picture, which is about juvenile gangs in Brooklyn.

"I think enough of my findings," he said mysteriously, "to slant our campaign along the lines which my 'barnyard poll' indicated."

"Too many important movie decisions are based on the reactions of characters around Hollywood who have lived and talked movies for years. I'd rather have the opinion of a man who goes and pays 50 cents at the neighborhood theater and doesn't know anything about how pictures are made."

"I hope I never fall into the trap of basing my picture judgment on what people in Hollywood say about pictures."

"No matter how well they mean, they are so conditioned by merely living in Hollywood that they just aren't normal."

Dual roles are popular in these days of Hollywood economy, but Glenn Ford doesn't believe in them.

The system gives the studio two actors for the price of one and economizes on costumes, makeup and chairs on the set. It also gives the actor a double set of cleopuses.

Ford's the only actor we know of who turned that attraction down.

"I want people to leave the theater wishing they'd seen more of me, instead of less," he said.

Furthermore, he thinks audiences would do better to concentrate on what he's doing, instead of how he's doing it.

"When an actor appears opposite himself," says Ford, "the audience can't think about anything except how in heck did they do that?"

Ford was supposed to play two parts in Columbia's "Bonanza"—that of Jacob Walz, the man who stumbled across Arizona's fabulous "Lost Dutchman" gold mines 77 years ago, and Barry Storm, a prospector who's been looking for them for the last 11 years.

How It Started

Now Ford is just playing Walz. William Prince plays Storm.

"It takes more than one actor," Ford said, "to make a good picture."

The economical dual role started back in the silent days when a short-reeler technician found out how to mask half a film, take a scene, wind it back, and expose the other half.

Mary Pickford started things out playing "Little Lord Fauntleroy" in kneepants and his mother in skirts. Later she played a grand lady and her cockney maid in "Stella Maris" and won an award for the maid's part.

Recently we got two Bette Davis in "Stolen Life," two Olivia DeHavillands in "Dark Mirror," two Betty Grables in "Lady in Ermine," two Paul Henreids in "Hollow Triumph."

The champion in this kind of acting is Victor Moore. In one scene of "Battleship Blues," he played himself, his two brothers, his aunt and his sister.

Time to Retire
PISA, Italy (UP)—Vittorio Sasseti, 38, was in his small barber shop when the postman handed him a letter. He read it, then closed the door and nailed on the door a sign: "For Sale." The letter informed the barber that an old guitar which his late father had given him in 1941 for 30 lire (5 cents) was an authentic Stradivari valued at $100,000.

Berkshires Yield Fossil
PITTSFIELD, Mass. (UP)—A 1,000,000-year-old fragment of fossilized bone found on a Wilhamstown farm has been identified tentatively as the tibia of an extinct species of horse. Scientists said the find was the first of its type made in the Berkshire Hills where pre-historic geological upheavals destroyed most relics.

Successor Lauds English's Record

When State School Supt. Colin English turns over the reins of the State Department of Education on January 4 "he will have completed a 12-year term noted for its great progress in education in Florida," superintendent-elect Tom Bailey said today.

"Although many factors enter into the improved educational picture in Florida," Bailey said, "English should receive much of the credit for providing the necessary and spirited leadership."

"As Florida's State Superintendent of Public Instruction since 1936 he has led the state school system through some of its most trying days. And from a system rated as one of the lowest in the nation, he has helped it grow into one of the best in the country," the superintendent-elect declared.

Bailey said Florida's system of public education is now the pattern for many other states and the state's reputation for an excellent education system is now nationwide.

In a summary of English's 12-year term as Florida's top schoolman the State Department of Education has listed four major gains made in the last 12 years. These are:

1. The quality of classroom instruction has improved. The state school department says the courses now offered Florida school children are more comprehensive and the teaching methods are better.

2. Better "supporting facilities" such as school buildings and training aids are in use in the schools. Expansion of the school bus, school lunch, and school building programs are named by the department as "great education gains." And Florida's system of textbook selection and purchase—with books bought at the lowest price they can be had anywhere in the nation—is mentioned in the education report.

3. Educational funds are more wisely spent, according to the school department. Money for education is spent where it will do the most good, they say.

The department points to the lessened bonded indebtedness of the counties, budget control and internal accounting measures, and the financial solvency of local school boards.

There is now more money available for education, too, the educators point out. And during the last 12 years the state has never failed in its financial obligation to education and all legislative appropriations have been met, they say.

4. The Minimum Foundation Program enacted into law by the 1947 legislature represents the greatest single gain in Florida education history, the school department declares.

The bill, based on the principle of "equal opportunities for all school children," raised the state's contribution to education from $18,000,000 a year to a top of $40,000,000 for 1947-48 and a top of $42,000,000 for 1948-49.

The department says all the resources of the State Department of Education were thrown into the Citizens Committee program. But, they point out, the greatest credit for the bill goes to the legislature, the civic groups and the newspapers of the state who joined in the fight.

In addition, the department reports, no major program of education presented in the last 12 years has been defeated.

And Florida now has two "firsts" in education.

Florida's teacher salary average of $2,682 leads the south and ranks 13 in the nation, according to a survey made by the Missouri State Teachers Association.

"Florida teachers, aided by the 'learn more-earn more' provisions of the new school bill, are now among the best trained in the south and in the nation," the department reports.

And the state is getting the "cream of the crop," in teachers as they come from other states to teach in Florida schools.

More than 78 per cent of the state's teachers now hold four-year college diplomas, according to the education department. And superintendent-elect Bailey has estimated 90 per cent of the teachers as college-trained in four to five years.

In addition, Florida leads the nation in the percentage of students in the school lunch program. More than 33.3 per cent of all Florida school children get their noon meal at school, a U. S. Department of Agriculture survey shows.

"Great progress" has also been made in school building planning and construction during the last 12 years, the report continues.

"Although $200,000,000 worth of school building construction and repair is still needed the capital outlay provisions of the new school bill and the establishment of the state-aid principle of helping counties build and repair schools has been of great assistance," the report says.

And the schools are safer too, the department declares.

Building control measures and the assistance of specially-trained department of education personnel have contributed to school building safety, the educators say.

This goes for school buses too, the report goes on, pointing to a record of not one fatal accident due to school bus or driver negligence in the last eleven years.

Progress in vocational services, programs for nursery schools, kindergartens, junior colleges, summer programs, and courses for exceptional children and adults are all listed in the school report.

'Special Title' Xmas Cards Used

One unusual feature of the 1948 Christmas cards is the considerable increase in both the number and variety of "special title" cards addressed specifically to individuals.

Most of this year's deluxe Christmas cards, with their heavy ribbons, gleaming ornamentation, and delicate art work, are special title greetings, although you can find these attractive individualized cards in all price ranges.

As befits a sentimental season, the majority of these special title cards are for relatives. The most popular special title cards are those for Mothers, one of which opens to reveal a red-and-white candle of expanding fan-fold paper webbing. Sweetheart cards run a close second, just ahead of cards for Wives and Husbands.

There are both sentimental cards and humorous cards this year for practically every degree of relationship, from grandparents down to nephews and nieces, grandchildren, the in-laws (even mothers-in-law and mothers-in-law-to-be), and godparents.

On the social side, you can send an assortment of fuzzy kittens bearing Yuletide wishes "From Our House to Your House" or a metropolitan version titled "From Our Apartment to Your Apartment." There are also greetings "To A Fine Neighbor."

For friends who owe you a letter, there's a clever card with an Indian inquiring, "How? Long time, no hear!"

Santa and the Stork meet atop the chimney on an ingenious combination card for people celebrating Christmastime birthdays. There are similar cards for Yuletide wedding anniversaries, and a Christmas card with fill-in blanks for inviting celebrants to the traditional holiday eggno party.

Career girls will hardly overlook the Christmas card "To A Wonderful Boss"—especially at Christmas—bonus time.

Among the more unusual special title Christmas cards this year are greetings for your pastor, physician, dentist, nurse, postman, and milkman. There's even a Yuletide commentary on the high cost of meat—a card picturing the family butcher busily slicing bologna and doing out frankfurters for the traditional Christmas feast!

Spider Plague Hits
DARWIN, Australia (UP)—A poisonous red-backed spider plague has invaded a Northern Territory settlement 145 miles inland from Darwin. Reports say clammy, wet season heat has driven thousands into the settlement, where they are crawling into beds and clothing. One mother, while bathing her baby, was bitten under the arm and a flying ambulance took her to Darwin to save her.

No Profit There
GEORGETOWN, Colo. (UP)—Ellis P. Lupton was successful when he ran for the state house of representatives. After the election, he filed a campaign expense report with the secretary of state. The report showed Lupton spent $1,187 to be elected to the job which pays $1,200 a year.

Jaycee Auxiliary Honors New Members Tonight

Xmas Gifts Are Exchanged By Housekeeper Members At Annual Holiday Fete

For the first time since the war years, when the club went "all out for others," members of the Housekeepers Club exchanged gifts during their annual Christmas party held at the clubhouse this afternoon at three o'clock.

Music Teachers Plan Bayfront Xmas Program

Coral Gables members of the Miami Music Teachers' Association will join in sponsoring a program of Christmas music in the Bayfront Park Bandshell Tuesday evening at eight thirty o'clock.

C. Wilfred Smith and the choir of the Riverside Methodist Church will lead the singing, and Charles McVey will play a consonata electronic organ.

Interspersed in the carol singing will be individual musical numbers. The program will be open to the public.

each guest she invited, were collected in a little red sled, pulled by Santa's little helper, Michael Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hart Morris, and placed under the Yuletide tree to be distributed later. The tree, incidentally, was decorated by members of Girl Scout Troops 6 and 38 which are sponsored by the club.

Greeting guests at the door were Mrs. A. E. Gutteridge and Mrs. George Bliss Wells, who were in charge of arrangements for the party, and Mrs. DeWitt C. Jones, Mrs. W. T. Price and Mrs. W. T. Foster.

In charge of the guest book were Mrs. J. Clayton Berrian and Mrs. William N. Cheyney. Name badges were distributed by Mrs. C. L. Butler and Mrs. W. W. Young.

During the afternoon, Madame Mary Lenander led the group in the singing of Christmas carols, and Miss Audrey O'Barski, of the Hildegarde School of Dancing, presented a group of dance numbers, accompanied by Madame Lenander at the piano.

Refreshment hostesses for the party included Mrs. L. W. Larson, chairman, Mrs. W. F. Milton, Mrs. Charles W. Bell, Mrs. Lawrence Brown and Mrs. Homer C. Sweeney.

Mrs. Donald Dutcher, Mrs. William Kidd Jr., Mrs. John Galbraith and Mrs. Ben Turner, officers of the Jaycee Auxiliary will be on hand at tonight's reception to welcome many new members into their organization.

A. A. U. W. to Witness Christmas Play Tonight

"Christmas Spirit In Many Lands," an educational play written by Miss Martha Luella Shaw, will highlight the American Association of University Women's meeting tonight at eight o'clock at Merrick Demonstration School.

This play, under the direction of Miss Shaw, assisted by Miss Don Cox and Miss Frances Sams, teachers at Merrick, will include 70 fourth and fifth grade students in the same school.

Before the curtain opens for the first act of the play, the audience will be led in carol singing by Mrs. Charles H. Baker accompanied by Mrs. Ed. H. Williams at the piano, Carol Harding, a fifth grade student at the organ, and 15 members of the flute orchestra.

Actors in Play Characters of the play will be Mary, Martha Hodson; Joseph, Jack Cheatham; Wisemen, David Witherspoon, Kenneth Wilson, Sam Scheffsky; Shepherds, Frank Smith, Caleb Smiley and James Metz; Angels, Barbara Root, Joan Davis, Jane Wheeler, Diane Snary, Judy Boone, Sally Gaskin, Sandra Baile, Linda Vinal; American Scene, Thomasine Morris, Rhoda Ware, Peter DesJardins; Spanish Scene, Claire Malone, Mary Frances Stanton, Larry Medlin, Paul Shippe; Netherlands Scene, Hilda Flenor, Vanessa Barth, David James, Gene Grubb; English Scene, Ned Williams, Barbara Todd, Charles Virgen, Tommy Mahoffin, Richard Todd, Noel Preston.

Mrs. Nicholas Hodson, president of the AAUW, will welcome all guests prior to the evenings entertainment. She will introduce Mrs. Thomas Hagan, chairman for the evening. Decorations are in the hands of Mrs. R. B. Reed, chairman assisted by Mrs. Henry Kenah, Miss Roberta Reed, Mrs. Dan O. Patton and Miss Nina Drew. Presiding at the tea tables will be Mrs. Chauncey H. Laughlin assisted by Mrs. Seldon Stewart, Mrs. Thomas Hagan, Mrs. Ruby Carson and Miss Violet McDougal.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis who have been seasonal residents for a number of years, bought their new Gables home very recently. They are originally from Boston, Massachusetts.

Newlyweds Buy Home in Gables

Newlywed newcomers to the "City Beautiful" are Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Swerdlin. Following their September 12 marriage in Miami, the Swerdlins decided that the Gables was the best place for them to live. Thus, they bought, and moved into, a home at 3231 Monogro Street.

Asked what she likes most about our town, Mrs. Swerdlin, who lived here, for a short time, with her parents prior to her marriage, hastily replied, "the shopping district."

"I find shopping here so easy and pleasant," she explained.

MacVeany Sisters Head for Home

Arriving Tuesday from Havana, Cuba, where they are students at the Colegio del Sagrado Corazon, will be the Misses Eileen, Sheila and Marsha MacVeany.

The girls, who are the daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur P. MacVeany, 1109 Coral Way, will be at home with their parents until they return to school the eleventh of January.

W. D. Fullers Planning For White Christmas

A few "firsts" will be chalked up when the W. D. Fullers, 4531 S.W. 62 Avenue, take their annual vacation beginning next week.

With Altoona, Pennsylvania as their goal, the Fullers will leave Wednesday to spend two weeks with Mr. Fuller's father, Charles I. Fuller.

"This will be the first Christmas in thirty years that my husband has been able to spend with his father, and it will also be the first time in thirty years that he has been with him on his birthday, which is New Year's Day," Mrs. Fuller explained.

This will also mark her first visit to the north, having been born and reared in the "deep" South of Alabama, and she's really looking forward to seeing snow.

"I want to experience some real cold weather for a change," revealed Mrs. Fuller, and added that she wouldn't mind slushing around in ice and snow since she knew that she would soon be returning to a warm climate.

While they're away, Mr. and Mrs. Fuller hope to find some more antiques to add to their recently started collection.

"We became interested in antique furniture, to put in our new home, a few weeks ago, and already our house is beginning to look like the original 'Old Curiosity Shoppe,'" Mrs. Fuller laughingly explained.

"Guess we'll really have to go into the antique business, if we find too many things that interest us while we're on our vacation. After all, we did build the house to shelter ourselves; not umpteen dozen ancient clocks," she added.

The party will be given by the Mothers' Class of the Sunday School, of which Mrs. D. W. Lodge is the teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. May of Coral Gables and Fort Lauderdale will be spending the Christmas holidays with Mrs. May's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Betto-Cchini of Chicago, Illinois.

Daniel Home Scene of Reception

New members of the Coral Gables Jaycees Auxiliary will be honored at a reception tonight at the home of Mrs. William A. Daniel, 412 Avenue Villabella.

President of the auxiliary, Mrs. John Galbraith, will stand with the hostess to greet the guests as they enter at the eight o'clock hour.

Mrs. Ben Turner will be at the door to pin upon each new member, her name card, which will facilitate a way of getting acquainted.

Mrs. Walter Cunningham is general chairman of the party. She is being assisted by Mrs. William B. Lovett and Mrs. Galbraith.

To Use Orchids A new note in Christmas decorations, for the refreshment table, will be achieved by the use of orchids in an arrangement designed by Mrs. Daniel.

Alternating at the punch bowls will be the officers of the auxiliary, Mrs. David H. Hendrick Jr., Mrs. William R. Kidd Jr., Mrs. (Please turn to Page Eight)

Tall Tales Xmas Fish Pond Is Planned

Tall fishing tales will be swapped next week by small-fry members of the kindergarten and nursery Sunday School departments of the Coral Gables First Presbyterian Church as a result of the novel way in which they will exchange gifts at their Christmas party Tuesday afternoon.

Instead of relying on St. Nick to dole out their presents to them, the youngsters will fish for their gifts in a miniature "fish pond" when they meet at the church at three thirty o'clock for the party.

Refreshments will be served, and the tiny guests will play appropriate Christmas games throughout the afternoon.

The party will be given by the Mothers' Class of the Sunday School, of which Mrs. D. W. Lodge is the teacher.

Lacks Arrive Here Friday From Kentucky

Arriving tomorrow from Paducah, Kentucky will be Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lack. Accompanying the Lacks will be their son, Buddy who is a student at the Columbia Military Academy in Columbia, Tennessee.

The out-of-towners will spend the forthcoming holidays with their daughter and son-in-law, Major and Mrs. W. Carroll Latimer, at 931 University Drive.

Buddy, accompanied by his father, will return to Columbia soon after New Year's, while Mrs. Lack will remain here with the Latimers for a couple of months.

Double Treat in Store For Alice Coppock

Double treat in store for Alice Coppock, Ponce de Leon High school freshman, will be a trip to Jacksonville and celebration of her birthday Monday at the annual Keystone Camp Christmas house party.

Alice and Ellen Ozon, will leave Saturday and will be the guests, along with a score of other campers, of Mrs. Anson Ives, owner of the North Carolina camp, in Jacksonville. Alice and Ellen will stay with Claire Chestnut for the four day period, returning Tuesday.

They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lorin E. Coppock of 910 Madrid Street and of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Ozon, 803 Avenue Malaga.

Mr. and Mrs. Watt To Have Ohio Guests

Holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Watt, 4500 S.W. Fifth Street, will be the William Beavers from Springfield, Ohio.

Dr. Beaver, who is a professor of biology at Wittenburg College in Springfield, and his wife will arrive Monday to visit the Watts.

Besides the Beavers, Christmas day dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Watt will include Mrs. W's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James O. Lefel, who reside in the Gables, and the hosts' son, Jimmie.

Moving May Be Exciting to Some But It's Pain in Neck for Kirklands

Moving to different places may be exciting to some folks, but to the Thomas Kirklands it has become a pain in the neck. That's one reason why they've decided to settle down in our town.

"Of course, there are other reasons why we selected the Gables for our home," Mrs. Kirkland explained, adding that the clean atmosphere which prevails in our town, and the friendliness of the people here aided them greatly in the selection of their future home.

Originally from Columbia, South Carolina, the Kirklands came here from Bronxville, New York, where they have been living for the past two years. Prior to that, they lived for fifteen years in Panama and Peru, South America.

With the purchase of a home at 3516 Durango Street, the new Gableites say that they hope to remain here for quite some time.

Mr. Kirkland, who is vice-president of the Pan American-Grace Airways, and his wife have two children, William and Thomas. The latter attends Episcopal High School in Alexandria, Virginia.

"He's coming home Tuesday to be with us until after New Years," said Mrs. Kirkland about Thomas.

Believe-It-Or-Not, Stuff That Turkey With Brazil Nut Dressing for Zest

A "kernel," as any moron will tell you, is the most important officer of a regiment, and you'll be just that in the opinion of your holiday dinner guests if you'll take a few culinary cues and brighten up your Christmas menus with Brazil nut stuffing, chips, onions, and salad.

If you really want to make your dinner-sharers not happy, just try all four tasty dishes at one meal.

For a trimming to set off your holiday table in fine style, Brazil nut stuffing just can't be beat, not even with a Mixmaster.

Melt one-fourth of a cup of margarine, add two tablespoons of finely chopped onions, and cook over a medium heat for three minutes until the onion is yellow, but not brown.

Add three cups of soft bread crumbs, one-half of a cup of ground Brazil nuts, one-half of a cup of finely diced celery, two tablespoons of chopped parsley, and one-third of a teaspoonful of pepper.

Cook about five minutes over medium heat, hot heat if cooking by candle, and stir constantly. Add one-fourth of a cup of water. Should yield three cups of stuffing, enough to fill even the American eagle.

Incidentally, this recipe may be doubled for a five pound chicken or duck, and tripled for a ten pound turkey. The latter information will be of special information to those of you who still have part of your Thanksgiving gobbler left to restuff for Christmas.

For any "nibblers" you might have around the house, try brewing up a batch of these chips from those triangular shelled nuts from the Amazon.

Cover one and a half cups of shelled Brazil nuts with cold water and bring slowly (an easy stunt for the candle-cookers) to a boil. Simmer, or rather let the nuts simmer, for two or three minutes.

Drain them and cut into thin lengthwise slices. Spread the "kernels" out in a shallow pan and dot with two tablespoons of butter and two teaspoonfuls of salt.

Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for fifteen or twenty minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove from oven and don't count on eating over two cups full of chips 'cause that's all this recipe is supposed to yield.

Now for the "Soups" American nut baked onion dish. First, select a kind-hearted, sympathetic maid who doesn't mind peeling onions and enjoying a good cry at the same time. Give her a good sharp kitchen knife and tell her to peel twenty-four small onions (about one and a half pounds).

This done, take over yourself, and place the tear-producers in a baking dish with three tablespoonfuls of butter, one-half of a cup of sliced Brazil nuts, one tablespoonful of sugar, three-fourths of a teaspoonful of salt,

'Buttons and Bows' KEY WINTER FLOWERS
 "FRILLS and flowers" like the present hit-song pines for, naturally form the No. 1 theme of both personal flowers and household decoration this winter holiday season. Current favorite is the "Buttons and Bows" corsage (above), reports floral stylist Alyn Wayne of Florists' Telegraph Delivery Assn. A bright ribbon bow also sets off the gilded birdcage in the floral tablepiece (left). Carnations, pine and holly berries are used in this seasonal novelty. Youth interest, too, is important during the holidays. For this FTD's expert employs a styrofoam "candy cane" in the beautiful mantel or table arrangement shown here, with eucalyptus, frosted bells and candles.

Smart new individual coiffure designing by our MR. TOMAS will enhance and complete your holiday festivities.

Basora Decisions Curl

Texan Thrills 4,500 Crowd At Coliseum

Jose Basora pounded out a unanimous ten round decision over the Texas terror, Jimmy Curl, last night, and 4,500 people doubted the Puerto Rican's superior punching ability when they left the Coliseum sock emporium.

Before a full house, both fighters thrilled the crowd with their rock 'em and sock 'em warfare with Basora's superior power deciding the contest.

With the brawl fairly even until the fourth round, Basora rocked Curl with a series of right hooks to the ribs and head dropping him for two nine counts.

The fifth chapter showed Curl at the advantage as he opened up Jose's left eye and staggered him with left hands to the body.

Throughout the eighth and ninth cantos Basora repeatedly rocked Curl with short left and right hands to the head as Jimmy was visibly tired with the steam gone from the only weapon, his left hand.

A hard hook to the ribs dropped the San Antonio lad again and spelled finish for Curl even though he survived the count.

At the conclusion of the contest Curl collapsed in his manager's arms as he returned to his corner.

Curl proved to the fight crowd that he has the moxie as he took the best that Basora had to offer and came back for more. Basora had too many guns for him however and was superior on the inside.

The winner has been promised a bout with Jake LaMotta here this winter.

Curl weighed in at 166 with Basora one half pound lighter.

The eight round semi-final showed Cannonball Canovas, 155½, fighting out of Havana, pounding out a unanimous decision over rough Irish Johnny Kilcoyne (Please turn to Page Ten)

Florida Recreation, Wildlife Theme of Sportman's Show

When the first Miami Sportsman's Show opens at Dinner Key January 20th-29th, there will be visualized for the vast visitor population as well as home folks, the true picture of outdoor recreation and wildlife of this tropical area, according to plans announced by Grove Theis and Kay J. Kennedy, directors of the event under the auspices of the American Veterans Committee.

While primarily a trade event to display the latest in equipment and gear for all kinds of sports activity there will also be entertainment features and the greatest display of community, club, civic, and educational participation in the great outdoors.

A standard casting tank will dominate the big hall on which leading casting experts will demonstrate their skills. The Florida Game and Fresh Water Commission will have a big exhibit showing live native animals, fishes and birds. The Girl and Boy Scouts will have full encampments showing practical tropical woodcraft and field craft containing many helpful hints for adult campers and trippers. Tennis and golf pros will give clinics.

The Audubon Society, the South Florida Sportsman's Club, the Miami Beach Anglers Club, the various fishing tournaments will have displays. Moving pictures of sports and of outdoor life and wildlife will be almost constantly running. A statewide Skish Tourney will be held right in the building, the first time at any sportsman's show.

Sigma Chi Wins U-M Intramurals

Al Powell's penalty kick in the first overtime gave Sigma Chi a 1-0 victory over Pi Lam to win the University of Miami soccer championship in a contest play at the Intramural Field. Sigma Chi had advanced to the finals with a 1-0 win over the Busters. Pi Lam stopped Sigma VD, by the same count.

The entire contest was well-played with both sides having numerous chances to score. Good goal tending stopped each side cold until Powell put the ball past Al Marcus.

Hickman Here Today, Squad Is Due Sunday

Completion of Coach Andy Gustafson's South All-Stars football squad for the Mahi Shrine game Christmas night was expected with the signing of the 25th member, Farley Salmon 160-pound Mississippi quarterback today.

Meanwhile, Yale University's Herman Hickman, coach of the North squad, was due to arrive at 4:40 p.m. today via Scaboard after announcing the signing of his last player, Bobby Hatch of Boston College, yesterday. Members of both squads are expected to start arriving here over the weekend for the five days of practice preceding the charity game.

The South squad will train at Quarterbacks' Field while Hickman will brief his charges at Miami Beach's Memorial Park, Gustafson said today.

Salmon has not confirmed acceptance of his bid to be the third quarterback on the all-star squad, although Gustafson said he expected him to late this afternoon.

The South roster for the game will be:

Ends—Robert Hood, Alabama, 195; Jim Cain, Alabama, 205; George Barney Poole, Mississippi, 220; and Lewis William Duncan, Duke, 200.

Tackles—Ernest Settembre, Miami, 245; Hugh Johnson, Kansas, 202; T. Ray Richeson, Alabama, 220; and Randlette Lawrence, Navy, 200.

Guards—Al Phillips, Maryland, 220; Philip Poole, Mississippi, 200; Mario DeMarco, Miami, 202; and Ed Dew, South Carolina, 190.

Centers—Gene Kinney, Maryland, 200; and John Gilbert, Florida, 190.

Quarterbacks—George Blanda, Kentucky, 205; Joe Brown, Georgia Tech, 185; and Farley Salmon, Mississippi, 160 (probable).

Halfbacks—Pete Williams, Navy, 170; Earl Howell, Mississippi, 180; Jerry Tibler, Mississippi, 185; James Leavitt, Virginia, 193; and Claude Harrison, South Carolina, 182.

Fullbacks—Zealand Thigpen, Vanderbilt, 178; Frank Ziegler, Georgia Tech, 175; and Lynn Chewning, Hampden Sidney, 205.

USC Boasts Pivot Reach

With Jimmy Slaughter posing a six foot, nine inch problem, the University of South Carolina basketball squad is next on the list for the University of Miami Hurricanes who wound up their pre-collegiate competition against the Y.M.H.A. five in Miami Beach Wednesday night.

Aside from Slaughter, the Gamecocks have no towering players to bother the not-too-big Miamians as none of the other starters on Coach Frank Johnson's team are over the six foot mark.

Henry Martin, veteran forward and leading scorer on the team last year is only 5 feet 11 but the other three first stringers, Estes Kitchens, forward and John Skaesi and Keith Cribb, guards, are 6 footers.

Tallest Hurricane is Mackey McDonald who is about 6 feet 3. Abe Friedman, fine set shot artist, is 5 feet 10.

South Carolina and Miami tangle in the Coliseum both Friday and Saturday nights at 9 p.m. The freshmen will play Orlando Air Base at 7:45 p.m. each night.

A Shot in the Arm for Boxing

One rose does not make a summer—but that Jose Basora vs. Jimmy Curl fight at the Coliseum last night might well put the boxing game back in business in these parts.

It was Curl who rang the bell in the noggin of some 4,500 hysterical fight fans. Curl, the cocky, despised, blowhard never gives a damn what the crowd thinks of him. Curl, that rare specimen in current fistic circles who couldn't back his boast of a third-round knockout against the tough-as-whang-leather Basora but fought until he dropped trying—and then got up and fought some more.

Such Fights Are Investment in Public Confidence

The wise boys said before the fight that if Curl didn't win this one he was washed up as South Florida's "Golden Boy". Scorecard even tracked down a widespread rumor late yesterday that Curl was being washed up to go into the tank in the third heat. "Can't say that I will never be suspicious of the fight game after that scrap—but I sincerely believe that neither of those two specimens would decide anything except with their dukes in the way of earning an honest if hard dollar.

Elsewhere on this page are the facts of who hit whom with which and what happened then. But you can't be objective about seeing Curl, hurt badly, climb off the deck three times and train a salvo of punches on Basora that after the seventh round had nothing except his heart in them.

Curl Gave Amazing Display of Fortitude

Look to the victor and you see a good if not great fighting machine. But no mortal could cope with Curl's fortitude; his second trip to the canvas was from sheer exhaustion and not a Basora punch; and at the final bell he fainted attempting to make it back to his corner.

But He Can't Scrub Up Game Alone

All the boxing commissions in the world and campaigns to clean up the sport cannot compare with the thrill Curl gave the crowd last night. To be sure there was such shady elements as heavy-betting money passing freely throughout the crowd (with Coral Gables policemen on duty ignoring the situation) and some dirty-work in the semi-windup that raised quite a ruckus. But you couldn't expect Curl to wipe out all of the unsavory things by himself—although he tried.

Ernie Seiler is Making a Last-Ditch Battle

All is right with the world again—the Orange Bowl's Ernie Seiler is out haranguing criticism of the people who make the wheels turn right into the ground . . . for the information of you football fans who don't think Texas has a chance against Wally Butts & Co., Ernie will change your mind . . . Hialeah's Everett Clay doesn't miss any bets in publicizing his race course—national sports writers covering the Orange Bowl game will have a special trip arranged to say hello to Citation, something I plan to do on my own hook as soon as possible . . . The Hurricane's double-header basketball program at the Coliseum on December 28-29 is being underwritten by the Orange Bowl for $2,000 . . . The event which will get Coral Gables the most national publicity out of the Festival week will be the sportswriters' golf tournament at the Riviera . . .

Platt, Canadian Champ is U-M Net Prospect

Donald Platt, 17-year-old Toronto Canadian junior tennis champion who will play in Eddie Herr's Orange Bowl tournament would like to enter the University of Miami . . . Incidentally, Gables youths planning to play had better get a move on their entries—deadline is Saturday . . . Mayor W. Keith Phillips didn't get to see FHSAA Executive Secretary Lafayette Golden in Gainesville last weekend in regards to reinstating the four Ponce tennis players in time for the state tournament, but he's got Senator Bill Shands working on the deal . . .

Notorious 'Semi-Pros' Erased by Tennis League

The South Florida Tennis League has a better claim to fame than their fine junior development program, according to Charley Shaw, publicity chairman. They have eliminated semi-professionalism in this area's amateur net ranks completely—where previously this section was notorious for winking at the USLTA rules. Rigid checking of each tennis club's roster has forced many players off the fence . . .

Jockey R. J. Martin Tries Again

Jockey R. J. Martin, who was ruled off the track at Bowie for rough riding a year ago and was generally loused up, is making a "comeback". He now lives with his mother at 4579 S.W. 15th Terrace, is back in training and has reformed enough to be about to march down the aisle with Miss Philadelphia of 1947, Jane Crossett, soon. More power to him . . .

Hardeman is Third Back On Youth Bowl All-Stars

By unanimous selection Paul Kilcoyne, triple-threat Polecat back, and Don Herndon, Cobra's league-leading scorer, gained backfield positions and co-captaincy honors of the 1948 Junior All-Star team of the Coral Gables touch football league.

The selection board, composed of the league's team captains, chose fourteen players by naming seven to first team berths and seven to the second squad. Rotary placed four men on the star aggregation; the Wildcats and Cobras three apiece; and the Polecats and Snags two a pair each.

Running down the All-Star's first team: Backs—Co-Capt. Kilcoyne (Polecats) kick run, pass and loop's second high scorer with 48 points; Co-Capt. Herndon (Cobras) also triple-threat and league's leading tally-man with 66 markers; Dick Hardeman (Wildcats) good back.

The first string line: Center—Jack Sage (Wildcats) dependable pivot; Ends—Jay Ehly (Rotary) lanky pass-scraper; Wallace Pewley (Cobras) loop's third high scorer with 46 points; Dick Minnich (Rotary) all-around end.

Bill Usery (Cobras) good snapper; Bill Usery (Cobras) good snapper; John Qigley (Snags) snappy end; Murrey McClane (Wildcats) speedster. Backs—Don Taylor (Rotary) sharp passer; Jack Foster (Snags) powerful runner; George Shave (Polecats) good defense and offense; Dale Minnich (Rotary) scabback.

This All-Star team will meet the league-champion Polecats in the second of three games in the Coral Gables Youth Center Youth Bowl football classic on December 27th at the Youth Center field. Kilcoyne and Shave, of the Polecats, will play for the champions and their berths on the star team will be filled by second-string choices.

'Cane Quintet Breezes Past YMHA, 61-46

The means of producing a free-scoring University of Miami basketball quintet produced the desired result last night when the Hurricanes coasted to a 61-46 practice victory over Miami YMHA at the Miami Beach High school gymnasium. Mackey McDonald and Bob Campbell found the range to break into double-digit scoring ranks, with 19 and 10 points respectively, to make a good improvement in the Hurricanes' ragged performance of Tuesday night.

Cocher Hart Morris said he will stand pat on his starting lineup of Campbell and Captain Abe Friedman at forwards, McDonald in the pivot and Tony Ferrara and Jerry Weinstein in the backcourt when the Hurricanes open their 24-game intercollegiate campaign against South Carolina at the Coliseum Friday and Saturday nights.

McDonald loomed as an even bigger point-getter last night as he dropped nine field goals from the pivot and one charity toss. Fifteen of his markers were telled in the first half to give U-M a 40 to 17 margin.

The box score:
 U-M..... 61
 YMHA..... 46

Orange Bowl Event is Set For Dec. 30th

Selection of the Riviera Country Club as the site for the first annual National Sportswriters' Golf Tournament to be held Thursday, December 30, was announced today by the Orange Bowl Committee.

Ben Jacobs, press director for the Orange Bowl group which will sponsor the event, said that between 40 and 50 newspaper and radio sports writers have indicated that they plan to participate in the tournament.

Tournament committee members for the event will be Bill Wallace, golf writer for the Miami Daily News, Everett Clay, Hialeah press director, Don Cuddy, Riviera-Times Sports Editor and Jacobs. Preliminary plans for the tournament call for awarding prizes for low gross scores and also for selected places in the order of finish.

The Riviera event will highlight that day's entertainment plans for the visiting writers. Hialeah Park will tender a breakfast for the scribes at 8 a.m., the tournament will start at 9 a.m., a luncheon will be served at the Riviera and a dinner and cocktail party is scheduled for that night at the Columbus Hotel roof.

Marchons II the Horse to Beat in Caldwell

By FRED CELESTE
 Riviera-Times Handicapper

Marchons II, the great Argentinian thoroughbred, will be seeking his fourth straight U.S. stakes victory as he draws a bead on the $7,500 Gov. Caldwell Handicap at Tropical Park Saturday.

The South American horse, undefeated in this country, goes postward under the fairly light impost of 116 pounds. The mile and a sixteenth favors Marchons II whose unstoppable performance thus far definitely rates a call in the field of 18 nominees. The invader has shown that he is ready by his early morning prep. He was clocked in 1:41 for the mile in his final workout over a distance.

P. L. Grisson outfit has run up a string of 11 victories so far this year. Sun Herod will be heavily backed come Saturday and merits the consideration. He's definitely in the race if he has been thoroughly tightened.

Bug Juice totting 117 pounds may make amends for his failure to win in his most recent effort. The Juice, victim of a seemingly poor ride, couldn't concede 11 pounds to Cat Bridge in the Bradley. However, she has shedded some of the impost and her class cannot be discounted.

First Nighter, one of the better 3-year-old eligibles has been tabbed to carry only 112 lbs. by Racing Secretary Francis Dunne but his workouts have had the clockers whistling and the two-time '48 stake winner may be the dark horse.

Of the remaining 13 entries, only a well-conditioned Faraway with a feathery 109 pounds appears to have much chance of breaking into the money. Mayram weighted at 110 and a recent victor at Tropical appears to be slightly over her head as does Cat Bridge who is slated to tote 116 pounds.

Other entries and weights include Colum, 111; Secnav, 110; Realitor, 109; Approval, 107; Gay Spark, 108; Bright Sword, 114; Manichea, 104; Play Tag, 107; and Frere Jacques, 112.

State AAU Cage Dinner Key Plans To Be Discussed

Dates and arrangements for the Florida state AAU basketball tournament to be held at Dinner Key, Coconut Grove, will be discussed at 10 a.m. Friday at a conference between Miami city officials and representatives from the YMCA Gold Ball tournament in the office of Knox Eldredge, Miami city public welfare director, Lloyd Butler, special events manager, announced today.

Butler said the conference will also take up plans for a five-game international series between the winners of the state AAU tournament and Havana, Cuba.

Butler also announced that the dates of March 21-23 inclusive had been agreed upon for the state AAU boxing tournament, also to be held in Dinner Key, after conferences with Ben York, state AAU president.

The eight winners of the boxing tournament will represent Florida under state sponsorship in the national tournament to be held in Boston the first week of April.

In a good supporting card Hy Meltzer, 141½, from New York City decided Danny Stepanovich, 141¼, San Antonio in eight rounds.

Julian Luke, 114, Jacksonville, and Jackie Patton, 117½, Miami, fought a four round draw.

In the opening four Frank Wetzel, 156, Philadelphia, had too many guns for Rocky Rhodes, 155, Jacksonville and earned a TKO at 1:45 of the opening round.

Marco, 'Glades New Areas Metropolitan Fishing Tilt Boundary Extensions Made

Changes announced in the boundaries of the 14th Annual Metropolitan Miami Fishing Tournament, due to get under way January 2, will bring two new areas into the contest—the Everglades and Marco districts.

The 1949 limits, just released, state that "competition is limited to fish caught in waters bounded by the following: on the north by a line due east and west through Sunny Isles Pier; on the east by a line due north and south through Great Isaac Light; on the south by a line due east and west through Sombroero Light; on the west by a line due north and south through Spanish Harbor Channel, and extending in a north and northwesterly direction to a line due north and south through Bridge Number 36, (Collier County), on the Tammiami Trail, to and including the area from Lake Trafford south."

This also means that northern limits have been cut, because of the fact that towns just north of Miami and Miami Beach are now operating tournaments of their own.

Monks Toil to Rebuild Destroyed Italian Monastery

CASSINO, Italy (UP)—Stone by gray, granite stone, the tireless monks atop Montecassino are rebuilding for the fourth time the most famous monastery in Christendom.

It was destroyed through what the monks insist was a "ghastly mistake" of American airmen in World War II. "The excuse given for the bombing of our monastery was that the Germans were using it for an artillery observation post," explained the quiet monks.

"But in the bombardment more than 500 innocent civilian refugees were killed. We dragged 370 bodies from the rubble of that corner alone." They pointed to a cleared area which had once been a convent, but which now resembled a market place.

Funds Run Out "If we had funds we could rebuild the monastery in eight or nine years," the monks said. "But now the work has almost stopped. We have no more funds. By working sporadically as we must, it may take 15 years or more. But," they shrug their patient shoulders, "it has been rebuilt three times before. We can do it again."

The Lombards wrecked the monastery in 520, 61 years after St. Benedict founded it. In 642 the Saracens captured and sacked it. In 1343 an earthquake all but leveled it. On Feb. 15, 1944, American bombers wrecked it more completely than ever before.

The monastery and the village of Cassino on the side of the mountain below it were of vital

Pink Automobiles Latest in Fads

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—Now it's pink automobiles. What's more, two Philadelphia women say the strawberry-colored cars make their driving easier.

This is how Mrs. Parker Smith and Mrs. John Gerth figure it out: Men drivers, anxious to ogle the startlingly-painted cars, give Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Gerth the right of way.

Milwaukee Bad Place For Aged Shoplifter MILWAUKEE (UP)—Frank P. Holslander, 74, Mesa, Ariz., ignored the advice of a friend to stay away from Milwaukee.

He had cause to regret it when police arrested him for shoplifting in a department store. "I'm getting so old I can't even do a decent job of shoplifting," Holslander lamented to Detective Captain Adolph Kramer. "Maybe it's just as well if you send me up again."

Vegetable Eating Dog Attains Ripe Old Age

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (UP)—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Schmidt own a 20-year-old dog named Neddo. Twenty years in a dog is the equivalent of 140 in human life.

The Schmidts credit a vegetable diet with Neddo's longevity. She eats tomatoes, red beets and onions, raw or cooked potatoes, carrots, cabbage and egg plant. Her favorite dishes are cauliflower and celery.

Three years ago Neddo gave birth to a litter of four. Pioneers Carry On BAKERSFIELD, Cal. (UP)—The first baby girl in three generations was welcomed by the Woody family, descendants of pioneers who founded a community of the same name near here.

Night Life for Germans Returns to Nazi Nuernberg

NUERNBERG (UP)—Night life for the Germans has returned to Nuernberg.

After three bleak years when all the lights in the town were turned off early, and the only alcoholic beverage on sale was watered beer, this one-time center of Nazi party gaiety is coming back into its own.

Three night clubs, featuring tea dances three afternoons a week and dining, wining and dancing nightly, are operating.

They all observe 11 o'clock closing hours, ordered by the Nuernberg military post, but from early evening until that hour, champagne flows and the German black market operators and their girl friends, mostly secretaries in American military installations, whoop it up.

Food Is Scarce

The operators and successful business men are the only ones who can afford the night club prices.

The food is excellent; stuffed goose, fancy fish, potatoes, soup and salads. Wild venison and tough veal and beefsteaks also are served. No ration points are asked.

Americans have taken to patronizing the clubs, some of which are in the basements or ground floors of still bombed-out buildings.

Likewise, stores have opened up. In the Bahnhof, small shops are featuring leather goods, porcelain, clothing material, shoes—anything one could want if they have enough money to pay for it, which most of the Germans haven't.

Travel Easier

Traveling used to be a horror, with hundreds of hungry Germans going into the country to forage for food, jammed into the railway cars like cattle. Now it has become a pleasure.

There are few passengers. Few can afford to travel, since railroad prices have not come down. Diners have been opened on most trains, with good food at fairly reasonable prices, but still out of reach of the pocketbook of the average German.

Vegetable and fruit stands have opened up all over town. They are on every corner, with farmers eagerly seeking to sell cucumbers, tomatoes, potatoes, plums, all kinds of fresh fruit and vegetables, for pennies.

It has all come about since currency reform. The ordinary German is certainly much better off than he was during the first three years after the war. The food is there for him to buy. If, after he

Christmas Spirit Pervades the Atmosphere As Students Get Ready for Santa

(Edited by the Students) Christmas spirit and decorations pervade the whole atmosphere at South Miami School this week. This Friday the pupils and teachers will begin their much-anticipated two weeks vacation, and this is our opportunity to extend the seasons greetings to all and very best wishes for a very Merry, Merry Christmas.

The first graders have been invited to a Christmas program this Friday and will be leaving at 10 o'clock for Shenandoah Park. After the program there, they will have a picnic party and return to our school at 1 o'clock. These children are to be commended on the fine way they behaved and performed in their first public appearance on the school stage last Tuesday and Wednesday.

The very lovely Christmas pageant presented by the primary grades under the direction of Miss Sara Wynne and assisted by the other primary teachers on Tuesday and Wednesday nights was just the kind of program we had all longed to see. The teachers had done a truly remarkable job in planning and carrying out such a beautiful pageant, and deserve unlimited praise.

Receives Tree Mrs. Dietz third grade received a genuine Christmas tree from a classmate spending the holidays in Michigan. After enjoying their beautifully decorated tree in the room, this class will send it to a needy family. All the children in this room took part in the Christmas pageant, and also have been very busy making Christmas gifts for both mother and father, making over 250 stockings with the stick of gum for the Junior Red Cross, and decorating their room with cut-out Santa Clauses.

In Miss Webb's fifth grade room, the pupils have made a scene showing the Wise Men, shepherds, and angels pointing to the star of Bethlehem. "Bugs" Covington drew most of the outline, with Sue Travis, Margaret Latschew, Susan Hays, Stephanie Sikes, and Harold Schappel drawing the shepherds and angels. This class made Christmas Carol booklets, and has filled a Christmas stocking to be given by Santa to the pupil voted the best citizen on Friday afternoon when they have their Christmas "Tree".

Learn Xmas Story After learning the Christmas story taken from Luke 2:8-16, they boys and girls from Mrs. Floyd's room decided that a board mural should depict the Nativity Scene. Three committees volunteered to do the mural. James Morris acted as chairman for the Wise Men Scene. His helpers were David Hays and Marilyn Fischer. Barbara Stang headed the committee to draw the Manger Scene. Brooks Leffingwell and Charlotte Conway assisted. Janet Heirs, David Atwood, Paulette Matthews, and Jo Ada Williams drew the Shepherd Scene. The class enjoys the colored mural as a setting for all the Christmas carols and stories. Patricia Garrison, David Eckel, and Rae Whittaker have made a snow study in cut-out work to cover the bulletin board.

The three sixth grades are playing "White Christmas" and many of the carols in 2 part harmony on their tonettes. Mrs. Bland's sixth grade room has been busily decorating for Christmas also. They have made some very attractive pine cone decorations to be used on their doors at home. The center of attention at the present time in this room is a fine spruce tree donated by Mrs. Shaffer.

The football team from this sixth grade class is excited and happy to have been the victor in the trophy game by a score of 20-7.

A very exciting game was played after school hours Tuesday afternoon between Squad 1 of the second period Physical Ed. Class, and Squad 1 of the third period Physical Ed. Class. The squad from the third period class captained by Terry Kelly defeated the squad from the second period class captained by Bob Horton after a very close game by a score of 44-38.

Mrs. Mildred Perry, Visual Education Chairman, and all other teachers which to take this opportunity to express thanks to our P.T.A. for purchasing a new film strip projector. This gift was a much needed one, and is sincerely appreciated. The first and second grades are enjoying a movie on "Common Animals of the Woods", and another entitled "Circus People and Circus Animals". The third and fourth grades are seeing "Eskimo Children" and the fifth and sixth grades are seeing "Christmas Carol" this week. The film, "Science and Superstition" was shown to seventh and eighth grade science classes, and everyone enjoyed seeing "Heidi".

Officers Elected Mrs. Mason's seventh grade homeroom class has elected new officers for the next six weeks of school. They are: president, Carolyn Shafer; vice-president, Shirley Deaver; secretary, Lee Jackson; treasurer, Nancy Jackson; reporter, Joanne Fossey; sergeant-at-arms, Fred Griffith; monitors, Louisa Rankins and Pearlabelle Clark.

This room is beautifully decorated in the Christmas theme with a very attractive drawing done in colored chalk by Carolyn Shafer and Robert Hudson occupying the entire front board, and a lovely Christmas tree standing at the back of the room. Marilyn Rogers, Shirley Deaver, Shirley Horne, Norma Jacobs, and Peggy Sapp devoted some of their after-school time to completing the decorations of this room.

Every Room Decorated But, then, every room in the school is artistically decorated in the Christmas theme. The colored lights in Mrs. Phillips eighth grade homeroom and the lighted Christmas tree shining through the large glass window spotted with homemade snow flakes makes a very picturesque-looking room. Bells intermingled with pine branches make a very attractive frame for the Christmas tree and wreaths in the back of Mrs. Schwarzenbek's seventh grade room. Varied Yuletide posters border the blackboards in this room, and Mrs. Perry's eighth grade homeroom has a very life-like drawing on Santa himself on the front board. Mrs. Brown's seventh grade has a startling mural done in blue and silver of the Three Wise Men, and Mrs. Wirkus' pupils are very proud of their gorgeously lighted spruce Christmas tree. Mrs. Faust's classroom has a lovely colored drawing of the Christ child in the manger.

And our Cafeteria has several festive Christmas trees lest we ever forget that this wonderful day will soon be here. On Thursday at 2:15 p.m. the teachers all gathered in the Cafeteria for the purpose of wishing a very Merry Christmas to our principal, Mr. Hayes, and our secretary, Mrs. Clarke, and also to each other. Gifts were presented to Mr. Hayes and Mrs. Clarke, and the school personnel joined the teachers in a very short Christmas party.

Many of the teachers and pupils have made extensive plans for their holidays. Mrs. Ruth Brown will visit in Jacksonville, Savannah, and Washington D. C. Mrs. Edith Mason is thrilled to have her family from Mississippi and Texas coming to her home here for the occasion. Mrs. Alma Jane Schwarzenbek will be busy moving into her new home located at 3321 La Playa Boulevard in Coconut Grove. Mrs. Iris Solie and family are eagerly anticipating a visit during the time by Mrs. Solie's brother and family; Billy and Myrtle Thompson will trek all the way to Houston, Texas, with their family to spend the vacation with relatives. . . . And so the exciting of hour of dismissal for Christmas recess is drawing near. . . .

THE SOUTH MIAMI SCHOOL NEWS will not appear during the next two weeks. In closing, we would like to wish everyone a very happy holiday vacation.

Police arrested a man on a drunkenness charge after he had been found tearing up Canadian money and stuffing it down a drain. "Just paper," he insisted. When he was put in a cell he began to sing in a loud voice. He said his name was Stephen Foster. It turned out it was, but he was no relation to the composer.

University Tests Hearing of Students EVANSTON, Ill. (UP)—Northwestern University is testing the hearing of each of its 2,300 new students. The tests are conducted in the audiology department of the university's school of speech. Prof. Raymond Carhart, who is conducting the program, said the tests not only would help in detecting faulty hearing among students, but the results would serve as the basis of research on hearing in general.

'Bodies' Seen in Hudson Keep Police on Run By WALTER LOGAN United Press Correspondent NEW YORK (UP)—Patrolman Gerard Devine is glad to see cold weather set in. People on upper Riverside Drive keep their windows shut and don't see bodies floating in the North River. "It's awful in the summer," he said. "They keep their windows wide open and sit there all day long looking at the river. Some of them use binoculars all day long. Drives us nuts. "They see bodies floating in the water and we rush up there and find a tree trunk or a barrel or something. They see people getting in trouble in small boats and we rush up there and find a new Navy buoy or something." Devine is a member of the harbor precinct, a unit of the New York City police's emergency service division. He works out of Pier A at the lower tip of Manhattan Island up the Hudson as far as Yonkers, maintaining a regular patrol and answering emergency calls. Busy on Sundays "Let somebody really fall in the drink," Gerard said, "and chances are some patrolman will telephone us before the people with the binoculars see what's actually happened. But if it's a false alarm they telephone all day long, especially on Sundays." The harbor precinct maintains a regular patrol, at irregular hours, throughout the dock area on New York's 578 miles of waterfront. Police launches cruise slowly up and down the river on both the New York and New Jersey side looking for trouble. They can glide into a slip and spot any irregular activity before culprits are aware of their existence, and consequently have cut thefts from the waterside to a minimum. "Anything that happens on the pier itself is the business of the land police," they explain. Devine was in a patrol boat, the 'Deaf-Dumb' Beggar Talks Too Much TACOMA, Wash. (UP)—It was good while it lasted, but . . . Daniel B. Carman, 49, a transient stopped pedestrians here and handed them a note saying, "I am deaf and dumb. I am a veteran of World War I. I need help. Please help me." Police didn't bother him. Later an officer dropped into a cafe. He was surprised to find the "deaf and dumb" transient arguing with the proprietor about the price of a meal. Carman was booked for disorderly conduct.
