COLLISION IS LOCATED 20 MILES WEST OF GABLES; VICTIMS TAKEN TO JACKSON

By UNITED PRESS
A Tamiami Trail Tours bus and two automobiles smashed together on the edge of the Everglades swamp northwest of here today injuring at least 10 persons, the Highway Patrol reported.

Details of the accident were not available immediately. The Patrol said it occurred on the Tamiami Trail 20 miles west of Coral Gables.

Jackson Memorial hospital listed the more seriously injured as Jesse Davis, 41; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jaquette, Indiantown, Pa., and Eva Shirah, 72, St. Petersburg, Fla.

Harriet Jones, 19; Barbara Conrad; Subanne Summers, 18; Betty Green, 19, all of Miami and Aaron Kidd Jr., 21, Punta Gorda, Fla., were less seriously hurt, the hospital said.

House Puts Rent Control Up to Local Government

WASHINGTON, March 15 (UP).—The house voted tentatively today to give local government units the power to discontinue rent controls in their areas. The action is subject to a possible roll call vote later.

By a teller vote of 198 to 150, the House agreed to the "local control" proposal offered by Rep. John Bell Williams, (D., Miss.). Under it, a state legislative or any county or local governmental unit could take its area out from under Federal rent control by simply adopting a resolution to that effect and notifying the Federal Housing Expediter of its action.

Food for Thought

TUCSON, Ariz., March 15. (UP).—The World Intercollegiate Hamburger Eating championship passed to the University of Arizona today, thanks to two husky football players who stowed away 17, spices.

John Fowler, 20, Balboa, Cal., and Jim Young, 18, Beverly Hills, Cal., ate the burgers in an hour and a half in a contest sponsored by the university newspaper.

Senate Group Votes Nix On Wallgren Appointment

WASHINGTON, March 15. (UP).—The Senate Armed Services Committee voted 7 to 6 today to block the nomination of former Sen. Mon C. Wallgren to be chairman of the National Security Resources Board.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D., Va., joined six Republicans in voting to "table" the nomination. Six Democrats voted for Wallgren, former Senate colleague of President Truman and later Governor of Washington.

This action will make it impossible for the Senate as a whole to pass on the nomination, unless a Senate majority should vote to take the matter out of the committee's hands. The committee's vote was a more severe defeat for Mr. Truman than a single adverse report on Wallgren would have been. An adverse committee report automatically would have gone before the Senate for final decision.

Missing Super-Fort Crashed With Nine, Army Reveals

MANILA, March 15. (UP).—An American B-29 super fortress missing since March 1 with nine men aboard crashed atop a 4,600-foot mountain 25 miles northeast of here, Clark Field officials announced today.

The announcement said a search plane piloted by Lt. E. S. Banks sighted the crashed superfort and that there was no sign of life around it. A ground party was dispatched to the scene immediately.

The B-29 arrived in the Philippines from the Davis-Monthan Air Base in Arizona to refuel the record-breaking, globe-girdling United States Air Force B-50 Lucky Lady II.

It was reported missing after refueling the round-the-world plane somewhere in sea off the Philippines.

Mute Evidence

ATLANTA, March 15. (UP).—Miss Leile B. Campos, who described herself as a "virtuous, unmarried deaf mute," filed suit today for $50,000 against Glendon B. Grizzard, also a deaf mute, because he "talked" too much. Charging that he was too fast with the finger talk, he talked too much to her, then too much about her.

By "fevered promises and proposals of marriage" he persuaded her to succumb to his charms. Then he laughed at her, withdrew his promise of marriage and taunted her on the streets. The suit is scheduled for trial in April.

Oil Explodes as Blaze Sweeps Base in Oakland

OAKLAND, Cal., March 15. (UP).—A general alarm fire devastated Pier Four of the Oakland Army Air Base early today, rocketing scores of oil barrels skyward to explode in flaming bursts.

The fire broke out at 12:02 a.m. (PST). Flames, shooting 500 feet into the air, were visible for miles around San Francisco Bay as firemen fought for three hours before bringing them under control.

Salt Water Fishing Control Nixed by State Group

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 15. (UP).—The Florida Commercial Fishermen's Association today unanimously disapproved of a proposed constitutional amendment to create a state commission to regulate salt water fishing.

The plan for creating a Salt Water Fisheries Commission along the lines of the State Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission was proposed to the group by President Ralph G. Cooksey of the Florida Wildlife Federation.

Association members voted down the proposal after heated discussion against it.

Civic Reformer Besieged By 'Clean-Up Drive' Bids

NEW YORK, March 15. (UP).—Civic reformer Clendenin Ryan was inundated today with appeals from individuals and groups asking him to bring his clean up campaign to their cities after he completes his drive against Mayor William O'Dwyer and the alleged political power of gangsters.

More than 1000 letters and telegrams have poured in on the wealthy crusader's National Foundation for Good Government since he announced his intention to fight corruption wherever he finds it.

Associates of Ryan, now embroiled in a bitter dispute with the O'Dwyer administration over a plot to tap the wires of city officials, said the letters and telegrams came from Chicago, Seattle, Pittsburgh, Los Angeles, Miami, St. Louis, Boston and elsewhere.

FIELD HOLDS AT SIX; TWO 'UNCERTAIN'

Filing Deadline
Tonight; Marshall
Drops Out

The field of city commission candidates remained at six today, as City Clerk Edwin B. Poorman reported at 2 p.m. that no additional office-seekers had filed with him since yesterday. However, one potential candidate told the Riviera-Times this afternoon not to scratch him yet, and another called to ask that his name be removed from the "potential" list.

Today is the last day for candidates to file, and if no applications are received the field will include Fred E. Hartnett, Andrew T. Healy, Thomas C. Mayes, Robert Newman, J. R. Younger and R. C. Willey.

L. W. Larson, who has been named as a "potential" stated at 2 p.m. that he was not ready to make an announcement one way or another.

"I am waiting for something that hasn't come through as yet and I don't want to commit myself at this time," he told the Riviera-Times.

Richard A. Marshall telephoned the newspaper to state that after giving deep thought to the matter he had decided not to run for the office.

Burton Engleberg, 1534 Avenue Mantara, was fined $10 for running a stop sign.

Wilhemina J. Robinson, 823 Cortez Street, was fined $10 and costs for running a stop sign and had an additional fine of $5 suspended for failure to have a current driver's license.

TODAY'S THE LAST DAY TO CONFESS TO UNCLE SAM

Today is the last day for some 50,000,000 taxpayers to file their 1948 Federal Income Tax returns.

Unless the returns are in the mail by midnight, taxpayers will be subject to penalties ranging up to 25 percent of their liability.

Internal revenue officials estimated that, of the 50,000,000 taxpayers, about four-fifths will receive a total of $2,000,000,000 in refunds because levies withheld from their salaries exceeded their total tax bill.

Automobile Inspections Begin Today

April 15 Deadline
Set for Owners
To Get Stickers

Gables police today began automobile inspection for the period beginning April 15, when current inspection stickers expire.

The inspection station, located at the corner of Salzedo Street and Avenue Giralda, will be open from 8:30 until noon and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on weekdays excepting Saturday when the station closes at noon. No cars will be inspected on Sundays.

It is estimated that over 5,000 automobiles will require inspection stickers. Car owners who do not obtain them by the April 15 deadline are subject to arrest and fine.

Safety Director William G. Kimbrough today urged all automobile owners who can possibly do so to come in early to avoid a last minute rush.

"If they will come in now, we can take care of them in a few minutes," he stated, "but those who wait until just a few days before deadlines are usually forced to spend long periods waiting in line, which is neither pleasant for them nor the inspecting officer."

County Defers Action on Zoning Classification

The county commission today deferred action on the application of Henry M. Malone to change zoning classifications at Galloway Road and S.W. 76th Street, which would allow him to manufacture sausage at that location.

Members of the county zoning board had recommended that the application be denied but the matter was deferred until Commissioner Preston B. Bird, who is in Washington, can make an investigation. The area is now zoned for agriculture.

The application of J. F. Dussalt to establish a dry cleaning plant in a residential section on Galloway Road north of Miller Drive was denied.

Members of the commission approved the application of E. P. Fripp to convert a residence into a church building at the southwest corner of Bird Road and S.W. 97th Avenue.

PANTY THIEF FOUND GUILTY ON 5 COUNTS

Greater Miami's panty thief today was found guilty in Court of Crimes on four counts of petty larceny and one of vagrancy. He will be sentenced tomorrow by Judge Wayne C. Allen.

Miami police recovered more than 50 pair of ladies' panties stripped from clotheslines in recent months when they arrested Charles William Tenny, 25, in a hobo jungle near South Miami Avenue and 14th Street.

At the time of his arrest, Tenny was wearing a pair of light blue ladies' pants and was sleeping on a pallet fashioned out of others, Miami Detective Lieutenant H. G. Howard reported.

Victims were four women residents in the southeast section of Miami bordering on the Coconut Grove area.

Draws $50 Fine

Julius T. Schelvy, 56, of 3214 Grand Avenue, Coconut Grove, today was fined $50 and costs in Miami city court for keeping and operating gambling equipment. He was arrested last Thursday afternoon at 2988 Grand Avenue.

U. of Miami Will Move Law School To Newly Leased Riddle Building

The University of Miami Law School will move from its present quarters on the University's North Campus to the recently leased J. P. Riddle Building at LeJeune Road and Alhambra Circle, it was revealed today by Dean Russell A. Rasco. The move will be made in three weeks.

A total of 886 law students, representing 40 states and five foreign countries will join with the faculty of 30 in establishing the new quarters which formerly housed the J. P. Riddle Inter-American College.

"The biggest headache," Dean Rasco commented, "is the transferring of nearly 40,000 volumes from the Law School library, one of the ten largest in the South, to the Riddle building about a half a mile away from its present location. It will take a 'Philadelphia lawyer' to figure a way to do it."

Swollen enrollments causing unprecedented taxing of facilities are the reasons behind the change to the new site, where the situation is expected to be considerably eased, Dean Rasco explained.

The Law School now comprises 11 percent of the entire student body at the University.

"We should just about reach our peak next year when we expect an all-time record enrollment of 1,000," the dean stated.

The University's Marine Laboratory is expected to move into the building now occupied by the Law School.

Red Cross Drive Nears $2,000 Mark

Workers Report
On $8,500
Gables Quota

The Coral Gables total in the Red Cross drive for funds has reached $1,932 of its $8,500 quota, it was reported today following a recapitulation of reports turned in to campaign headquarters.

The total represents a gain of $859 in contributions since the last report was made a week ago.

The Gables is divided into four divisions: residential, under Mrs. H. O. Vance; retail under Eugene Mumpower and James Rankin; industrial under Edwin P. Longhurst and unclassified business under William Swain.

The drive workers in the business division have just gotten started on actual solicitation work following the handing out of workers kits at a meeting at the La-Sevilla Restaurant on Friday morning. The solicitors will be busy this week, contacting local business firms and industrial organizations.

Good progress is being reported in the residential campaign, where workers have been busy for quite some time contacting contributors in their homes.

The county campaign has reached a total of $88,317 or 29 percent of the goal.

Workers have been asked to keep in close contact with their division leaders so that reports may be kept up to the minute.

YEP, THAT WAS RAIN!

The rains fell on Coral Gables this morning, bringing another temporary respite from the spell that had kept lawns brown and the fire department busy extinguishing brush fires.

The United Press reported that showers fell in scattered sections of Florida, extinguishing a woods fire that had been raging since March 2 along the Deland-Daytona Beach Highway and other fires. However, no relief was reported in the tinder-dry Everglades near the Broward-Palm Beach county line.

Charity Angle Gets Leniency For Elks Club

Revocation
Stayed Upon
Good Behavior

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UP).—Six private clubs in greater Miami including the Coral Gables Elks Club may continue to serve liquor even though they were found guilty yesterday of operating slot machines in violation of state beverage laws.

Beverage department director Lewis Schott revoked the Clubs' licenses for one year and then promptly suspended the revocations after the organizations promised "future good behavior."

Schott warned, however, that their licenses would be suspended automatically if slot machines or gambling devices were found on their premises again.

The Clubs involved were in addition to the Coral Gables Elks Club, the Miami Elks Club, The Miami Moose Club, the Bali Post of the Amvets, Harvey Seeds American Legion Post and the Variety Club.

"Officers of the clubs submitted evidence that all funds raised by the slot machines were used for constructive charity," Schott pointed out.

Lawrence Tremblay Solo Feature of Concert Here

He has been first clarinetist with the Philharmonic, the Opera Guild, the University Symphony, and the Firestone Hour, "Harvest of Stars".

STUDENT DUO DENY CHARGE

Gables police today were holding two young men for questioning on an attempted burglary and a third man suspected of car pilfering as detectives investigated four breaking and entering cases.

The two men were spotted at 1:20 a.m. this morning by a patrol car which was cruising north on Salzedo Street. The men were standing on the south side of Avenue Andalusia near the rear entrance to the Miracle Theater. The officers turned the car around to return and question them when they disappeared.

Two other cars were summoned by radio and the police began to search vacant lots in the vicinity. Officer James Bergen spotted the two, crouched in some bushes at the rear of a building which fronts on Miracle Mile. They started to run but stopped and surrendered when Bergen drew his gun and threatened to open fire.

Questioned at police headquarters, the men said that they were law students at the University of Miami and that they "didn't mean anything by running". They said that they had been to Miami and were returning home.

Later, police checked buildings on Andalusia and found a screen cut and a washroom window forced at O'Connor, Weller and Company, 348 Avenue Andalusia. (Please turn to Page Six)

County to Confer With Gables on Chapman Plans

The county commission today formally adopted a resolution agreeing to submit to the city commission of Coral Gables any plans it may have for the development of Chapman Field into a public park.

The Coral Gables city commission is expected to rescind resolutions seeking acquisition of Chapman Field in favor of county acquisition when it meets at 8 p.m. in city hall.

Last week the city commission agreed to withdraw its application to acquire the property from the government in favor of the county's claim.

Under the terms of the resolution the city commission must approve the park plans and any changes to be made in the master plan must be approved by a majority of the members of both commissions.

A portion of the 980-acre tract is located within the city limits of Coral Gables, which had plans to develop the area for park purposes.

County Parks Superintendent A. D. Barnes is negotiating with officials of the University of Miami to have the University withdraw its application for the property in favor of the county.

CORAL GABLES

COUNTRY CLUBBER

By Grace Carver

The talk of the club this week is the Shamrock Fashion Show on Wednesday evening. The newest and most glamorous designs in clothes for both men and the gals will be modeled by club members for The University Men's Shop and Allen Abess of Miracle Mile. The buffet will be served from 6:30 to 8:30 the night of the show so the performance can start at 9 o'clock and there will be ample time for dancing. It will be a gala formal evening and more than likely many of the guests will be glamorous enough to be modeling their own costumes. We hope you have your reservation by now; if you haven't, call Ciro right away.

Northern visitors are continuing to enjoy the club. Dr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson had Mr. and Mrs. Albert Garr of Cincinnati, Ohio, as their guests Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lee (they have just come to Florida to make their home) entertained the Robert Strange's of Charleston, W. Va., at dinner and dancing. Vee Lee is a former member of the club and upon moving down here the first thing they did was to make an application for membership at the club.

Next Sunday evening the final episode of "The Power God" will be shown and we are sure right will prevail and the heroine and hero will live happily ever after. Don't miss this thrilling chapter of our serial. The feature picture is to be "A Pair of Silk Stockings" starring Constance Talmadge. How many of you can remember when the Talmadge sisters were all the rage and you never missed a picture they were in? The movies are lots of fun and the comments and boos of the audience are really a big part of the show.

With an actor like Ray Milland playing attorney for the U.S. Army Advocate General's department, and an actress with the sultry beauty of Florence Marly, it is difficult to lose complete interest in our plot. However, it is all based on the rather uncompromising assumption of Ray Milland that a Nazi general is innocent of the war crimes generally attributed to the brutal. How often do we find the Nazi general innocent of the crimes laid at his door? Need we say more?

Thus Milland builds up a complete case of injured innocence only to find it crumble due to its basic fallibility. Unfortunately, the audience must suffer along with this tissue of evidence and a minor love story that threads its way through the tale.

After his magnificent performance in "The Lost Weekend," there seems to be no sufficient reason for Milland's presence in this film now at the Coral Theater. Possibly it would have been wiser for us to give a "sealed verdict" to the production.

Amidst a series of mad dashes from Amazon country to civilization "Angel On the Amazon" makes its appearance at the Gables Theater.

This film which in script, as in action resembles the serials of jungle goddesses and head hunters, depicts a young and mysterious girl, Vera Ralston, who gains the interest of George Brent, adventurer, when they meet in a Brazilian jungle. Constance Bennett is in love with Brent, but unselfishly aids him in his search for the girl he desires. It seems that Vera Ralston is cursed with eternal youth, and through some incident in the past, finds it psychologically impossible to grow old.

Allied Youth High School Group Aims and Objectives Are Explained

Allied Youth with a chapter at Ponce de Leon High school, is a national education organization, operating from headquarters at 1709 M Street, N.W., Washington 6, D. C., and reaching high school students all over the country. Although its central interest is a program of alcohol education and alcohol-free recreation, much of its work is character and personality-building. It believes that sound character and integrated personality are among the most valuable assets a young person can have in avoiding the pitfalls of drinking.

Allied Youth is positive. It aims to help adolescents find satisfying substitutes for drinking, and ways of meeting the social pressure of drinking. It develops the inner disciplines and personal resources necessary to meet the tensions and pressures of modern life without using the crutch of alcohol. It shows youth how to have fun and excitement through a wide variety of social and recreational activities that do not involve the use of alcohol.

Non-political, Allied Youth is not trying to pass laws or bring back prohibition. Non-sectarian, it welcomes into its membership young people of every faith and of no faith. Scientific, it rejects whatever "facts" cannot be confirmed by the best modern authorities.

Allied Youth enjoys the friendly cooperation and support of the National Education Association, the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, and many other religious and secular groups. But it is unaffiliated with any of them, and its policies are determined only by its Board of Trustees. The names of Dr. E. M. Jellinek of the Yale School of Alcohol Studies; Dr. Richard B. Kennan of the National Education Association; Dr. Daniel A. Poling, editor of Christian Herald; and Roscoe Drummond, Washington chief of the Christian Science Monitor, testify to the breadth and stability of its governing body.

Housed for 10 years in the NEA building; Allied Youth has been particularly close to the nation's leading educators. Such names as Dr. A. J. Stoddard, Superintendent of Schools in Los Angeles; Dr. George F. Zook, president of the American Council on Education; and Dr. John W. Studebaker, former U. S. Commissioner of Education, loom large on Allied Youth's National Sponsoring Committee.

Allied Youth's Executive Secretary, W. Roy Breg, and its staff of field representatives are available to speak in high school assemblies anywhere in the nation, or at meetings of educators, churches, or women's clubs. When talking to high school students, these representatives discuss the alcohol problem as it affects teen agers and tell how young people from Texas and Canada and from Maine to Hawaii have found a solution to the drinking problem through Allied Youth.

Granted student interest and sympathetic support of the school administration, Allied Youth establishes a "post" or social club in the school through which to carry on its program. By establishing a fellowship of young people who do not believe it is necessary to drink to "be smart," and by promoting a recreational and social program for the school and community, this Allied Youth Post helps break down social pressure in favor of drinking. Undergirding it all is a program of education, carried on through group discussions, through trips to visit alcoholics clinics, courts, or meetings of Alcoholics Anonymous, and through a program of publications from national headquarters.

These include The Allied Youth, a monthly magazine featuring articles on alcohol as well as a broad range of subjects of interest to teen agers ($1 a year), and Alcoholfax, an educational service for schools, libraries and youth leaders offering digests of current material on the alcohol problem ($5 for the school year).

Serving as a clearing house on problems of alcohol education, Allied Youth frequently receives inquiries through the U. S. Office of Education and the National Education Association. It offers its services to all schools, churches, and youth groups.

Chinchilla Breeding Urged As Security

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Married couples should take up chinchilla raising as a hobby because it's a pastime that will pay the wife's expenses after her husband dies, speakers at a chinchilla growers convention urged.

Delegates added that wives are helpful during the establishment of a chinchilla ranch because they can stay home to take care of the valuable fur-bearers.

A survey by the California Chinchilla Ranchers Club revealed 95 per cent of the 2,000 American growers earned their living in other ways but raised the costly fur-bearers to supplement incomes.

Almost all ranchers hoped, however, to turn their minimum investment of $1,200 for a breeding pair into a business that would give them old age financial security, the club said. Females bear about four babies a year, and the pelt of a full-grown chinchilla in good condition is worth around $75. A live breeding male is worth up to $500.

All 50,000 chinchillas in the United States are descended from 11 animals brought to Ingleswood, Cal., 26 years ago from the South American Andes Mountains.

One of the largest humans on record was a North Carolinian, Miles Darden, who weighed more than 1,000 pounds.

They're Volunteers

By Jim Moore

The usual reports have started coming in from the workers who are contacting business firms in the current Red Cross Drive.

Fortunately, the reports to which I refer are in the minority. But it is unfortunate that we have to hear them at all. I refer to the very few persons who are in business who treat the Red Cross workers with discourtesy and sometimes downright meanness.

From the way some of these guys act, you'd think the Red Cross solicitor was getting the money for which he asks. You'd think someone was paying him a fat salary just to listen to insults.

The Red Cross worker is a volunteer. He is taking time off from his own business to do his civic duty. He is working for a proven worthy cause. He deserves to be treated with cordiality and respect.

If you can't give as much as the amount on your prospect card; if you can't give anything at all (which may be true in a very few cases); tell the solicitor that, but tell him in a courteous, friendly manner. He is a fellow businessman and can understand your problems.

But don't snap his head off like some people have done.

Hollywood Film Shop

By PATRICIA CLARY
United Press Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Arleen Whelan really means it about putting her marriage ahead of her career. She only makes movies when her husband takes business trips.

That means two movies a year. The rest of the time Miss Whelan stays home and keeps house.

"I realize that my career has suffered through my marriage," she said, "but I have no regrets. If I had to do it over again, I'd follow the same pattern."

Miss Whelan started making movies 10 years ago, but she wasn't half as good, she admits, as the parts they gave her.

"When I finally began to learn something about acting," she said, "I couldn't get a job anymore."

So Miss Whelan made USO tours, landed on Broadway and starred in 1943 in "Doughgirls." Movie producers, who used to look the other way, now waved fat contracts at her. But the contract she took was offered by Hugh Owen, Paramount eastern sales manager. His was a lifetime deal with no options.

Marriage Comes First

"I wanted to continue my career, of course, but only if it didn't interfere with my marriage," she said. "So I decided that twice a year, when my husband has to make a long tour of the eastern film exchanges, I would rush to Hollywood and do a picture."

The last one she did under that arrangement was Paramount's "Dear Wife." She plays the other woman who tries to break up Bill Holden's and Joan Caulfield's marriage.

"I'd like to make more pictures, and I wish my husband's work were in Hollywood," she said. "I like it here and my parents still live here. But as long as he's stationed in New York I intend to spend my time there except when he's traveling and I'd be alone anyway."

Miss Whelan doesn't feel that as a good wife she can take stage parts either.

"My husband gets up early and works all day. I'd be sleeping late and working late every night," she pointed out. "On Saturdays, his day off, I'd be doing a matinee and night show. We wouldn't even get in a golf game together."

STAMP NOTES

Argentina has released another commemorative for the "Reunion of Pan America Cartographers." The stamp is a 45 centavos air mail which depicts Atlas shouldering the world.

Spanish Morocco has issued a new series of air mail stamps which has eight stamps in the set. The designs show various views of Morocco with planes in flight overhead. The values will range from 10 centimes to 8 pesetas.

The colors are as yet unannounced.

His Honor Offers Tip

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (UP) — James Smith told a district court he couldn't pay the $50 in fines due on his 10th through 19th parking offenses this year. Judge Ralph S. Spooner suggested that Smith sell his automobile to raise the money.

Mental Cases Pile Up

OKLAHOMA CITY (UP)—Oklahoma's mental health director says many patients in the state's six mental hospitals will become chronic cases because of a lack of personnel to care for them. Dr. Charles F. Obermann reported the hospitals discharged only 355 patients last year while 1,424 new ones were admitted. The institutions now have a total of 9,041 patients.

Behind the Scenes in U. S. Business

By REYNOLDS KNIGHT

NEW YORK—Of the making of books to scare people about the world's food supply there is no end. At least three books have been published within the past year that wagged their heads sadly over the inability—some day—of the earth to feed its human occupants. Certainly these books have a message for all of us. Certainly too, the U. S. needs to practice every type of soil conservation that has proved useful. But sometimes it's difficult to scare easily where the U. S. is concerned. This is because of the magnificent job done by the American farmer. The latest figures tell the story. U. S. population has increased 12 per cent over the last eight years. But farm production during that period has increased more than 35 per cent. Better soil use, crop rotation, fertilizers, insecticides, irrigation and above all, mechanization, are among the reasons for this astounding increase in our farm productivity. Perhaps the greatest reason of all, however, is the American system, which provides an incentive for a man to produce more. The profit motive even spurs him to practice conservation.

MORE VEGETABLES—If you're an average American you are eating 486 pounds of vegetables and fresh fruits this year, compared to 470 pounds a decade ago. Couple that with the fact that there are about 18 million more people to feed now than before the war, and it's obvious that farmers will have to expand and speed up their vegetable production and marketing if the demand is to be met. The National Junior Vegetable Growers Association is setting out this year to do just that. Its annual production-marketing contest is offering $6,000 in awards, provided by A & P food stores, to young farmers making the best records. Prof. Grant B. Snyder of the University of Massachusetts, adult advisor to the association, says this year's program will especially emphasize improved production practices and more efficient marketing methods. The NJVGA, which has grower-members all over the country, has made its program open to all boys and girls between 14 and 21.

THINGS TO COME—Television sets for rent. An enterprising New England store started the idea as a means of promoting sales of sets, but many believe practice will spread. . . . All kinds of new gadgets were shown at Radio Engineers' exhibit last week. Most noteworthy: a single transmitter to carry radio, television and telephone signals. It can be done right now, but is not likely to be practical for some years. . . . Scope of television will be extended by new device for telecasting stations receiving programs for relaying. It automatically beams the pickup antenna accurately toward any remote program source so that program can be picked up through microwave. . . .

The Underwood people have just announced a new typewriter which automatically spaces words so that each line is exactly even. Similar to linotype machine which "justifies" this line of type. . . . Two more new checkwriters have just been announced. One is an electric portable, the other is a hand-run model. . . . Product of the week: an electric fan that comes housed in a case suitable for use as an occasional table.

STRETCHING TIN—The American farmer is not the only member of our system to increase his offering. The American Can Company points out that the can manufacturing industry last year turned out an estimated all-time record total of 28 billion of the shiny containers—or about 200 cans for every living American. This production achievement demonstrates the ability of U. S. industry to adapt itself quickly, through "technological progress" to unpredictable world events, and to keep on producing and improving the American standard of living. Tin has been scarce since 1941, and the government still controls its use. This could have meant a drastic drop in income for farmers and a sharp change in America's eating habits. But fast work by can industry metallurgists, in collaboration with the steel industry, made it possible to keep can production high. Before the war, standard can manufacturing processes called for use of 32 pounds of tin for every ton of steel. Now cans require less than 20 pounds of tin per ton of steel. With Asia, the principal source of tin, still in turmoil, this "technological progress" means that U. S. crops can still be processed normally and U. S. pantries stocked as usual without draining either the nation's stockpile of tin or the consumer's pocketbook.

BITS O' BUSINESS—From all over the country came the private prophets (as distinguished from government seers) last week to gather in New York and peer into the future. These were members of the National Federation of Financial Analysts. For the most part they are chiefly concerned with the future course of the stock market. But they also analyze the future of business in general and some important industries in particular. Naturally, they were not in agreement about the future. Of the four principal speakers, three were moderately pessimistic. They expect business to slacken a little more over the near future, though no one of them expects a severe depression. They seemed to feel that the government, in carrying out its anti-inflation program, will contract the volume of business somewhat and thereby add a little to unemployment. The minority view was taken by the fourth speaker, who looks for quite a sharp rise in stock prices this year and an accompanying sharp improvement in business volume.

Only Partly Honest

ST. LOUIS (UP)—Mrs. Mary Williams complained to police that the conscience-stricken burglar who returned $160 short-changed her by $40.

Party Unattended

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (UP)—A stove in a freight car used to keep champagne from freezing started a fire that touched off a machinegun explosion of corks and caused $2,000 damage to the consignment.

Ticked to Sleep

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UP)—E. T. Sullins uses an alarm clock to permit him to sleep at night. Sullins had a whimpering puppy which kept him awake. Now he put his clock in the box with the pup and the ticking lulled the animal to sleep.

Small But Efficient

LOS GATOS, Cal. (UP)—Mrs. Ella Hillman and her son John owe their lives to their seven-pound Pekingese, Ching-Ching, who smelled smoke when they didn't and ran barking around Mrs. Hillman's bed until she was aroused. The house was on fire.

It Says Here

One of the prospective candidates informed us yesterday that he had been approached by a group who offered to finance his campaign if he'd agree to be a Charlie McCarthy for them alone if he was elected. We're happy to report that he told 'em "No" . . . Congratulations to the Soroptimists for their very successful Country Fair. Incidentally, in addition to the money, the Youth Center gained a portable stage and a beautiful curtain that had been used during the fair. . . . The Kiwanis Club inaugurated something new today—a brief round-up of last minute news read to the members via the Riviera Times. . . . What's this we hear about Svea Haynesworth cogitating on going into business?

Food Bills Don't Wait

BOSTON (UP)—When Salvatore DeMare, 24, arraigned for non-support of his family, explained that he was a tomato packer "and this is the dull season," Municipal Judge Jennie L. Barron said: "There's no reason for you to wait for the tomatoes to grow before going to work."

Writes Own Bible Story

POMONA, Cal. (UP)—Charles Gardner, 79, blinded 40 years ago in a Nevada mine explosion, is looking for a publisher for his "Biography of the Bible." Gardner typed the 13-chapter book himself in two months. It is a spiritual interpretation of the Bible.

IN OUR MAIL

Editor, Riviera Times:

Why Rent Controls Alone?
 Will somebody tell me why real estate owners are being picked out alone of all factors making for a higher cost of living?

In my opinion the essential elements in making ends meet in order of importance and necessity are as follows:

- (1) Food.
  - (2) Clothing.
  - (3) Fuel, at least in all cold climates, perhaps not in a place like Miami.
  - (4) Means of transportation.
  - (5) Shelter. Possibly this should follow clothing in priority.
- Of all the above, everything except shelter has almost doubled in price.
- In food the Federal government collects taxes to pay subsidies to farmers to keep prices up, collects more taxes to send farm products to foreign countries at these inflated prices and the consumer pays again when he buys food at the artificially inflated prices.

Clothing is beginning to show signs of coming down, but still is sky high compared to 1941, for same quality.

Coal, fuel oil, etc., have been climbing higher and higher with no government efforts whatever to keep price down. This makes railroad costs, utility costs, etc., higher, even disregarding the poor unfortunates who live in cold winter regions and have to pay the increased costs directly.

Means of transportation. A large percentage of our workers could not carry their work out without some sort of motor transportation. Automobiles have doubled in price in ten years.

As a property owner I had necessity for plumber services twice in past year, for minor jobs. After a long delay the plumber declined to come around. He worked about two hours on job and had a helper who worked about eight hours besides. Some piping and accessories worth about $20.00 was required in each case. My bill was about $100.00 in each.

It happens that before I retired I was a principal executive in plants with as many as 12,000 employees. As such I had a far more difficult task than my plumber but I did not get a net of about $50.00 a day or around $18,000 a year for my services. The same thing applies to carpenters, or other services I have used.

I do not happen to have property which is a rental source of income but I have many friends who have and I also have friends who are living in apartments at ridiculously low rentals which they admit are so and of course will stay there as long as Federal laws legalize it.

It is obvious that for political reasons practically all Federal agencies are taking the side of renters instead of real estate owners in any arguments. Even when a Federal court composed of three Federal judges of long service decided that a rental decontrol decided by a local rent control board was just, the bureaucrat at top tried to tell them they did not know what they were talking about. Some ordinary Milwaukee citizen would have been hauled up for contempt of court for a similar statement.

Read the article in Readers' Digest, Feb. 1949, entitled "No Vacancies," for what will happen here eventually.

So far as I am concerned put on rental controls, PROVIDED same is done on other items I have to buy. Compel automobiles, food, plumbers, carpenters, etc., to go back to 1941 prices.

A TAXPAYER

Editor, Riviera Times:

For sometime you have been carrying my name in your paper as a potential candidate for the office of City Commissioner. It is true that several friends and neighbors, knowing something about my past experience and interest in civic matters, have endeavored to persuade me to run for City Commissioner, but I feel that I have not been in the community long enough nor do I know sufficient people, that know enough about me, whereby I could expect to be elected, therefore, have decided to refrain from running at this time.

At the present time through the Riviera Property Owners Assn., I am interested in bringing together a county-wide Federation of Civic Groups for the purpose of uniting as many citizens in the county as possible to combat the increasing expenditures which have been made for the past few years and contemplated for the future.

When taxes in a community increase as they have been doing with evidence of continual increases, it is most certainly time that every tax paying citizen arise to the issue, and unite, by joining forces to fight the expenditure of any dollar that can be saved. I shall continue along with this organization with the hopes that we will be ready countywide by the time the county budget committee is ready to present their figures to the county commissioners.

In preferring not to run for City Commissioner at this time and since I am interested in the City of Coral Gables as a whole, and more particularly the Riviera section, where I am living, and doing what I can to hold down both city and county taxes, with the thought in mind that perhaps at the next city election; if it is the peoples wish, I will go out for City Commissioner. Therefore, perhaps I should give a little past history which I feel the citizens of any community are entitled to. At least they should make it their business to know all they possibly can about any candidate that might be running for any public office. This man should be capable, honest and certainly interested with sufficient time to do the job or should not seek it. As a matter of information, the writer decided some four years ago; anticipating that our wars would be over, to dispose of his various interests in the middle-west, and come to Coral Gables, Florida to locate for the future, having been a seasonal visitor to this area on several occasions. During the disposing of my various interests, I traveled to a number of other locations in the U. S. and decided that the most ideal and cleanest community of them all appeared to be Coral Gables.

During the war, I operated in Iowa—six large vegetable canning plants, packing from some 3,000 acres of sweet corn, 600 acres of tomatoes and various other crops. At the same time I operated a hemp mill in Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, where we produced fiber for rope for the government from a crop of over 2,000 acres of hemp. In another section, I operated six large farms doing a general farming business having no connection with the canning. In Iowa and Nebraska I also operated three hotels and two apartment houses. In Missouri a furnace factory and in Chicago a brush-duster & mop business. In order to operate these various industries it required 12 to 15 hours daily with a working force of 815 employees. Since that time, I have disposed of all interests excepting the hemp mill in Wisconsin. I have retired, moved to Coral Gables, and purchased my home and am enjoying living in this area.

I feel I have had sufficient business experience to handle the management of most any line of endeavor I would undertake. I also feel that a man running for City Commissioner should have qualifications and time such as enumerated above. He should be free and unencumbered from any specific livelihood duties.

I wish at this time to refer to your column "Our Town" wherein some week ago you wrote on the "Qualification" that might be considered as a good thing for a City Commissioner. I read your article with interest and am entirely in agreement with the nine thoughts you present to the citizens in your article. (1) In that a Commissioner should have pride in his community which makes him believe that his town is the best town. (2) Believe in the future of his community and most certainly anyone can see the future development of Coral Gables. (3) He must most certainly agree in the principle of careful planning, a rigid zoning, wholesomeness, and appreciation of beauty and making Coral Gables, a different and better city than any other. (4) You refer to the unselfish desire to serve the community rather than to aspire to office for personal gain or glory, in this connection my only hope is that the citizens of Coral Gables will not permit dirty politics to enter the picture and that her commissioners will always serve in an unselfish manner, looking only to that which is best for the city as a whole. (5) You refer to "Previous Service to the community in some line of civic endeavor, which enlightens a man to a higher degree as to what is required and the tempo of his city." (6) Unless the candidate is interested in serving his community as a whole, he should withdraw. (7-8-9) I believe I have already expressed my views on these items, that it is absolutely necessary that a man acquaint himself with Municipal Administration and a willingness to devote sufficient time with an unqualified desire to serve in order to make good.

I see that this note I intended to write has grown to quite a volume, however, I pass it on for what it is worth and if there is any part or the whole of it that you desire to use you may feel free to do so.

Yours very truly,
 J. LeROY FARMER

GABLES GRAMS . . . . .

by Helen Reynolds

April is challenging March as a party month as new hosts mark dates on the social calendar. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Marion Dolan have issued invitations to an "at home" from four until six o'clock, Sunday March 20, at their home, 1817 Granada Boulevard. We'll wager guests will get full measure of pleasure of viewing the Dolan gardens, where tropical fruits and shrubs vie with every kind of annual and perennial that grows. The Dolans are among few of the pioneer Gableites still living in the same home they built in the lush expensive 1925 boom times. Their walled gardens, adjoining the native rock home on the plaza, are large.

Sunday afternoon, April 3, has been chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Graham for—as their invitation read—"drop in for cocktails and buffet." The hours are from five until seven o'clock, and the place, the large attractive home on Anderson Road at Avenue San Esteban.

Then to keep the record a reminder. Mr. and Mrs. John Halifax have invited a large group for cocktails and supper at five o'clock, Saturday March 26, and the next night, March 27, is the party Mr. and Mrs. Ben Turner will give at the Robert Page home, 2814 Granada Boulevard.

Mrs. Florence Canby, who has made Coral Gables her winter home for a number of years, and Mrs. Florence Brown, whose late husband was a member of the Century Club of Coral Gables, have entered into business. They have purchased an old Colonial home in Hendersonville, North Carolina. Mrs. Canby is leaving this week for Hendersonville, and will be joined by her "partner", Mrs. Brown in about ten days. The ladies plan to operate "Colonial Hall", as they have named the large ten bedroom (and as many baths) home, on an entirely new plan. Guests will find a houseparty atmosphere aided and abetted by the serving of hors d'oeuvres, via the tea cart method, in the living room before dinner. The ladies have engaged the "best cook" in North Carolina to preside over their kitchen, and guests may step into the kitchen for a midnight snack, if they feel so inclined. There are large flower gardens surrounding the home including a vegetable garden.

Miss Rose Horn will have as her guests at the style-show buffet tomorrow night at the Country Club of Coral Gables, Mrs. Don Mohr and her daughter, Mrs. Edward Borjessen, of Port au Prince, Haiti. The visitors have taken an apartment on Avenue Phoenicia. Mrs. Borjessen is here to keep a date with the stork, which by the way, will be at the New Doctor's Hospital.

Mrs. E. E. Pennock, recording secretary of the Florida Federation of Music Clubs, who is in White Springs attending the 32nd annual convention representing 225 clubs in the state.

Mrs. Monroe Hostess to Visiting Kin

No stranger to our town is Mrs. H. J. MacNeill who is currently visiting her cousin, Mrs. Charles W. Monroe, and Mr. Monroe at 3600 Toledo Street. From New Rochelle, New York, Mrs. MacNeill has visited in the Gables many times. She arrived last week to visit the Monroes until the first of April. Prior to her return to New York, she will be joined here by her husband. Since her arrival, numerous courtesies have been extended to her, and several have been planned during the remainder of her visit here.

Gables Daughter Is State Delegate For Beach Chapter

Mrs. Harold F. Machlan, Gableite, has been selected by the Biscayne Chapter of the DAR, of which she is a member, to represent them as a delegate at the State DAR convention to be held March 31. Friday afternoon, at two thirty o'clock, the local group will meet at the Miami Beach home of Mrs. George Ritter. Mrs. Machlan will assist Mrs. John Frazure in pouring tea, which will be served at the close of the meeting.

John Spears

"Because they just knew their 'soon-to-be-born' baby was going to be a boy, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Spears, 5261 S.W. First Street, selected 'his' name well in advance of 'his' birth. 'We planned to name him John Patrick Spears; the John for my husband's father, Capt. John Spears of Liverpool, England, and also for my brother, Dr. John Tanous, resident surgeon at Jackson Hospital. The Patrick was chosen in honor of St. Patrick's Day,' explained Mrs. Spears about her first son. Weighing in at six pounds and twelve ounces, just the son that the Spears' ordered was born on February 26 at Jackson Memorial Hospital. 'We felt so lucky to get a son, when we wanted one so badly,' exclaimed Mrs. Spears.

Ellen Knight

"Very happy over the birth of a sister," according to their mother, are Donald and Allan Knight, young sons of Attorney and Mrs. George L. Knight, 4500 Ingraham Highway. Latest addition to the Knight family is baby Ellen Lee Knight who was named for both her maternal and paternal grandmothers. When she arrived on February 22 at St. Francis Hospital, Ellen balanced the scales at eight pounds even. "We wanted a girl, and Donald and Allan did too, so everyone is happy now," Mrs. Knight explained.

William Quesenberry

William Fitzhugh Quesenberry III is the name given the second child born to Mr. and Mrs. William F. Quesenberry Jr., 6089 S. W. 38th Street. "That's a long name for such a little boy, but I suppose he'll grow to fit it," quipped young Mrs. Quesenberry. Putting in his first appearance in this world at the Jackson Memorial Hospital on February 18, baby "Bill" weighed seven pounds and six ounces. "He's just what we ordered," confessed his mother. Other member of their family is two-year-old Belle.

John Daniel Faust

Feminine decorations and furnishings were used throughout the brand new room which the Robert Fausta added onto their home in preparation for the birth of their second child. "That's how sure they were that their new baby was going to be a girl. But those feminine pink blankets, etc., had to be replaced by blue ones for that seven pound ten ounce son who was born to them on February 28 at the Coral Gables Hospital. He's John Daniel Faust, but already his parents and friends are calling him "Jackie." According to Mrs. Boulah E. Fink, maternal grandmother of the baby "Jackie" is almost as proud of his nine-year-old brother, James, as James is of him. Mr. Faust, who is the owner of the Faust Roofing Company, and his family reside at 3501 Percival Avenue. Mrs. Fink's home is at 333 Avenue Catalonia.

Nicki Engleman

Determined that his second child be named for him, Nickolous Engleman "tagged" the recent addition to his family "Nicki". Weighing in at seven pounds and eleven ounces, Susan Nicki Engleman, as is the full title of the newcomer, was born on February 28 at the Coral Gables Hospital. The Englemans, who have another daughter, Ines, reside at the Ponce de Leon Hotel, of which Mr. Engleman is the manager.

Susan Kapner

"They're not the slightest bit jealous over their new sister," declared Herman Kapner about his older daughters, Carolyn, Judith and Elaine. On the contrary, the girls, according to Mr. Kapner, are unusually proud of her. She's Susan Joan Kapner, and she was born on February 24 at Jackson Memorial Hospital. At birth, she tipped the scales at six pounds and twelve ounces. Mr. and Mrs. Kapner and family reside at 119 Avila Court.

2 Youths Held in Theft Attempts

(Continued from Page One) not far from where they first spotted the men. A check is being made today to determine if anything is missing.

The third man was arrested by Officer F. F. Brooks in the parking lot at the Coliseum, where several license plates were loosened last night and the window in one car, belonging to Ed Hassen, smashed. The suspect is to be questioned further today.

At 2:25 this morning Officers H. C. Roberts and J. B. Steiner heard the burglar alarm ringing at Pate's Service Station, 3866 SW Eighth Street. They found the glass in the door broken and as they were investigating, the owner, Pate, drove up and said that he had been trailing a car, with two men in it, that had been driving by his place and he thought "casing it". Three squad cars searched the area but could not locate the car.

They also discovered the east window in Mack's Service Station, next door, had been smashed, but the burglars had evidently been scared off by the arrival of the police.

George Lazos, operator of Leo's Delicatessen, 50 Avenue Aragon, also informed police yesterday that burglars had smashed a rear window and unlatched the door to steal two five-pound cheeses, valued at $5 and pork loins and steaks valued at $22.60.

Falls from Airplane But Not Very Far

ATLANTA (UP)—When people get curious about his plaster cast, Richard L. Sawyer dismisses their questions with a nonchalant: "Oh, I fell out of an airplane." He not only survived the accident but didn't know he was hurt until three days later when X-rays showed two broken vertebrae.

Pressed for details, Richard will admit that his fall was not as spectacular as it might have been. Richard is 11. The plane he fell from while playing in the cockpit was an abandoned war plane, parked on the ground.

But the millennium has arrived. The jail has been closed for lack of business and converted into a post office.

"Now we don't even have a policeman—just a night watchman," one of the veteran residents observed.

Saey Stopped, DePaul Beats U-M Boxers

CHICAGO — University of Miami's heavyweight Art Saey was TKO'd by Bill Shertler in 37 seconds of the second round to give DePaul University a 4½-3½ collegiate boxing upset here last night.

Shertler beat Saey with his own punch, a left hook, dropping the former NCAA king to the canvas twice in the first round. Referee Tom Keneally's decision to halt the match in the next chapter gave the Demons their decisive point.

Only Captain Art Davis in the 145-pound division and John Donohue, 165, earned winning points for the Hurricanes. Davis decided Pat Fleming and Donohue scored against Bill Kolker.

Three bouts were draws. Miami's Andy Spano was held to a draw when he opened a cut over the eye of Jimmy McGehee in the 130-pound class; Ed McGehee split with DePaul's Don Amidee in the 155-pound class; and Carl Bernardo, Miami, was held to a draw with Roy Kelly in the 175-pound scrap.

Allapattah Upsets Pro-rect-U, 31-29 In Men's League

Allapattah Merchants, holding down last place in the Coral Gables Men's Basketball League, pulled one of the most stunning upsets of the season by coming from behind to trip Pro-rect-U Jalousies 31 to 28 in the only game played last night on the Ponce de Leon court.

Pro-rect-U, previously humbled only by Louise Lairds last week, saw their fast-breaking game slowed down to a 20-14 in-termission lead and then were unable to hold off the set shooting of Allapattah's Dick Blutch and Bob Faro, who rang up 10 points apiece, the reversal being decided by two more successful free-throws by the Merchants.

Missouri Dasher And Chief Cleaner Futurity Choices

Trials in the $4,500 Futurity Stake at West Flagler Kennel club continue tonight at the neighborhood oval with two more eliminations on the schedule.

Greyhounds from the Phoenix, Arizona track; West Palm Beach, West Flagler and Biscayne Kennel Club will be represented in tonight's heats to be run off as the seventh and eighth events.

In the seventh race, Chief Cleaner, a powerful running Flagler feature race star, is favored to romp home in front of Askalo, of Phoenix; Doc Pic, of West Palm Beach; Straight Edge and Miami Bound, of Biscayne, and Alaskan, Bardo, and Trapper, a trio of West Flagler entrants.

Formation of a somewhat exclusive club known as 'Coral Gables Anglers' has been kicking around between some of our towns better-known sportsmen for a couple of months now.

It will probably be sometime this summer before they come out as a formal organization.

Yacht Basin OK May Sprout Coral Gables Anglers

Which serve to do it should be a sportsman's club without equal in this part of the country. Bebe Rebozo's attempts to have a yacht basin created on the waterway may result in a swank clubhouse for the members right here in Coral Gables or else they'll have a deluxe camp down at Dr. M. H. Tallman's 144-acre estate on Plantation Key, complete with lodge house and cabins on a colony style, with an office here.

Exclusiveness Has Attracted Intensive Interest

Some plans for the club originally discussed have already been discarded, according to Dr. T. L. FitzGibbon, one of the charter members. But they give an idea of what the outfit is aiming for and it has attracted some rather influential men who are a little piqued with other fishermen's organizations (remember that about 27 percent of the membership of the famed Miami Beach Rod and Reel Club is made up of Gables residents).

Membership Would Be Limited to 500

At first the plan was to incorporate when membership reached 100. That first hundred (and the others who follow them) will be a highly screened group, with membership to be closed at the 500 mark. Dues will be $50 per annum plus tax and another $50 bond which will make the member part owner of the proposed club house, a site for which has already been selected should the yacht basin materialize, etc.

SCORECARD

Clarance Dreppard took over officially as baseball coach at Ponce de Leon High school today to relieve Joe Krutalis for full-time duty with the spring football squad.

Dreppard, who will send Ponce into the first game of the season against South Broward Friday on the Cavalier Field, has been varsity basketball coach at Ponce for two seasons.

More than 60 candidates reported for the first day of practice Monday and Krutalis said he expects at least 10 more to report today for the six-weeks of fundamentals and indoctrination of the T-formation which the Cavalier grid team will use in the fall.

Cavalier backs will be added most of spring practice by two former University of Miami players, Carl Mosso and Joe Krull, who started yesterday working with the ball carriers and will be with the team for at least three or four days each week during the spring drills, according to Krutalis.

While his appointment to succeed Johnny Noppenberg as head coach at Ponce has not yet been confirmed by the school board of trustees, Krutalis yesterday expressed optimism over the turnout for the squad and the spirit of the players.

Two sophomores, Henry Palmer and Anton Brice, look like the best prospects to handle the key under-the-center quarterback chores for the Cavaliers until lettermen Jimmy Welch finishes the baseball season.

Krutalis also praised the kicking of Jim Estaver, another monogram-winner who will return for another campaign. Estaver booted exclusively for the Cavaliers last season but may be shifted to a guard berth this year.

Unbeaten Miami, Penn State Clash For Mite Crown

Oddity of schedule-making will bring together two unbeaten teams in the final game to determine the championship of the Youth Center Mite league when Penn State and Miami clash at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Penn State, led by Freddie Brown, has registered eight wins without loss by being the best defensive club in the loop while the Miami entry, paced by Ronnie Muzzi, figures as the highest-scoring quint of the circuit.

Gold Cesta Stake Opens Last Half

The annual Gold Cesta Stakes eliminations moves into the last-half of its play tonight with the team of Astiga-Vizcaya scheduled to start from the last-place handicap post. It will be the climactic match of a nine-match schedule starting at 8 p. m. at the Biscayne jai alai fronton.

Osa-Quintana, leaders through the first half of the eliminations with 13 points, will be at the No. 2 post tonight. Erdoza-Salsamendi in the second-place ranking just four points back of the leaders, will be at the favored No. 1 lead-off position in the fifth match of the round-robin elimination schedule.

Astiga-Vizcaya are ranked third in the eliminations with a total of seven points and need only a win tonight to share honors as favorites for one of the coveted four semi-finals' berths.

Major League Roundup:

Sain Makes Distance Bid Against Bosox; Yanks, Cards Catchers are Casualties

By United Press BRADENTON — Johnny Sain, the bellwether of the Boston Braves' mound staff, today put in a bid to become the first major league hurler to travel the full nine-inning route this spring.

The tobacco-chewing Arkansas right-hander, who posted a record of 24 victories and 15 defeats while pacing the Braves to the National League pennant last year, asked Manager Billy Southworth for permission to go the route against the Boston Red Sox Saturday.

Southworth gave his consent but pointed out that Sain would be relieved the moment he gets into trouble.

The Braves traveled to Tampa today for a game with the Cincinnati Reds after trampling the St. Louis Cardinals, 5 to 0, here yesterday. It was the third straight setback for the Cardinals, who collected only five hits off the slants of Vern Bickford and Glenn Elliott.

Winless Bengals Meet Phils CLEARWATER — The Detroit Tigers still were seeking their first victory of the spring training season as they sent pitchers Freddy Hutchinson, Saul Rogovin and Lou Kretlow against the Philadelphia Phillies today.

ST. PETERSBURG — Both the New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals were lacking catching strength as they met for the third time today in their spring training series.

Gus Niarhos joined his fellow padman, Yogi Berra, in the infirmary when X-rays taken yesterday showed he had a broken toe on his left foot. Berra still is nursing a bruised knee, suffered last Friday when he smashed his car into a tree.

The Cardinals, meanwhile, lost catcher Del Rice, who dislocated a bone in his right thumb during yesterday's 5 to 0 setback by the Boston Braves.

Field House Fund Drive Begun at U-M

A start on the University of Miami's field-house on the main campus will be made from funds allocated from the gate receipts of the annual U-M spring football game in the Orange Bowl on March 25, club president Eri Roman announced today.

The plan is to devote a certain amount of the receipts of each athletic contest was first proposed in the Riviera-Times over a month ago.

Athletic Director Jack Harding said this morning that the first aim of such a project will be to acquire dressing quarters for varsity and intramural athletics on the main campus in order to make use of practice field facilities which will be available there by 1950.

He said that the proposed athletic lay-out is now under grass, but that it will take at least until the spring of 1950 to have the sod ready for use by the sports program. That will mean another season of use for Quarterbacks' Field, located on Riviera Drive between Avenues Cadima and Fluvia.

Actually, Harding added, no plans for the field house have been made because a goal of funds needed for the building to house varsity basketball, boxing and other activities has not been given to the architects so they may begin work on the structure design.

Among the teams expected to return for the third year the league has been conducted under the auspices of the Youth Center is Carl's Liquors, Elk's Club, Coral Way Market, Coral Gables Jaycees and David Brothers. Delta Air Lines and Pan American Airways were also represented last year.

Heavy interest in the league has been shown, Wilcox reported, but no entries have been accepted to date. Preference will be given to teams with Coral Gables sponsorship.

Consistency Needed with Distance

Andy Novak, a reserve flanker on the University of Miami gridiron team last fall, is being groomed to fill the punting shoes of the Hurricanes all-time kicking great, Harry Gaul.

The Bradenville, Pa., flanker has been moved up to the first string by Coach Andy Gustafson to play end opposite Ralph Fieger and each day the fleet pass-snagging wingman has been given a stiff dose of work in the punting department.

Monday, Novak was kicking the ball literally out of the park. A number of his boots went as far as 60 or more yards in the air. However, Gustafson believes his new kicker still needs a lot more consistency before he can become a first-rate punter.

How far Novak has progressed in his kicking will be seen by Gablettes under actual game fire a week from Friday night, March 25, when two Hurricane eleven's battle it out in the annual Quarterbacks Club spring clash in the Orange Bowl. Novak is scheduled to play with the Green team and is a sure bet to gain a starting berth at end.

"We'll have a lot of new boys out there next fall," Coach Gustafson said this morning. "However, the boys this spring have shown great fire and determination and their attitude has been far better than last spring. Their fight and spirit should help make up a lot for their inexperience." A greater part of next fall's squad will be made up of boys from the unbeaten Freshman eleven of last fall.

Starting today only nine more days of spring practice remain. The spring drills will end with the Quarterback Club game.

Field House Fund Drive Begun at U-M

A start on the University of Miami's field-house on the main campus will be made from funds allocated from the gate receipts of the annual U-M spring football game in the Orange Bowl on March 25, club president Eri Roman announced today.

The plan is to devote a certain amount of the receipts of each athletic contest was first proposed in the Riviera-Times over a month ago.

Athletic Director Jack Harding said this morning that the first aim of such a project will be to acquire dressing quarters for varsity and intramural athletics on the main campus in order to make use of practice field facilities which will be available there by 1950.

He said that the proposed athletic lay-out is now under grass, but that it will take at least until the spring of 1950 to have the sod ready for use by the sports program. That will mean another season of use for Quarterbacks' Field, located on Riviera Drive between Avenues Cadima and Fluvia.

Actually, Harding added, no plans for the field house have been made because a goal of funds needed for the building to house varsity basketball, boxing and other activities has not been given to the architects so they may begin work on the structure design.

Among the teams expected to return for the third year the league has been conducted under the auspices of the Youth Center is Carl's Liquors, Elk's Club, Coral Way Market, Coral Gables Jaycees and David Brothers. Delta Air Lines and Pan American Airways were also represented last year.

Heavy interest in the league has been shown, Wilcox reported, but no entries have been accepted to date. Preference will be given to teams with Coral Gables sponsorship.
