

Officers Comb Florida Keys for Wounded Bandit

100 MILE SEARCH LAUNCHED FOR BURGLAR WHO ESCAPED FROM KEY WEST HOSPITAL

KEY WEST, Fla., March 31. (UP)—Florida highway patrolmen and Marion county officers today systematically combed 100 miles of the Florida keys behind a road blockade for a wounded burglar who escaped from Galey Memorial Hospital here last night.

Officers were looking for David Matthews Laphers, 24, of Daytona Beach, wounded early Tuesday morning while burglarizing a Key West cafe, and two men, whom they believed aided his escape.

Although Laphers was handcuffed and chained to his hospital bed, nurses became alarmed and called for a guard last night when he requested that the light in his room be turned out at 7 p.m. and that the door be shut.

Dr. A. Heybrich, resident physician at the hospital, said that Laphers had told nurses during the day that "I'm leaving here tonight."

Sheriff Berlin A. Sawyer discovered the escape on a routine visit to Laphers' room shortly after 8 p.m. A metal pin had been broken from the chain connecting Laphers' handcuff to the bed.

The Highway Patrol threw up a roadblock at Jewish Creek, 100 miles north of here at the northern end of Key Largo. It was believed that Laphers might still be wearing the handcuff.

Country Awaits Churchill Talk Tonight at MIT Fete

BOSTON, March 31. (UP)—Winston Churchill, affable and biting an unlighted cigar, nodded and waved to a vast throng of Bostonians today as he arrived to make a long-awaited speech in which some thought he might propose political union of the Western world.

Guarded by more than 100 police, Secret Service agents and a Scotland Yard inspector, the wartime prime minister was hustled through 3,000 curious persons in South station.

Churchill will remain in seclusion until tonight when he addresses the Massachusetts Institute of Technology's mid-century convocation in Boston Garden.

His hour-long address at 9 p.m. (EST) will be carried to the nation by three national radio networks and four television systems. Short wave stations will beam it abroad to the rest of the world.

Churchill himself refused to disclose in advance the subject of his speech, but it was obvious the address would be of paramount importance since it was the major reason for his first visit to the United States in three years.

Truman Holds to Tax Rise, Still Bans Cut in ERP

WASHINGTON, March 31. (UP)—President Truman today held fast to his demand for a tax increase and anti-inflation legislation, even though Congress seems in a mood to let both requests die. He also opposed Senate efforts to cut foreign recovery funds.

Mr. Truman told a news conference that it would be much more dangerous for the government to operate in the red than to boost taxes. He said Chairman Walter G. George (D., Ga.), of the Senate finance committee is all wrong in saying that a tax increase would plunge this country into a depression.

And the chief executive said his anti-inflation program, which includes standby wage-price control powers, is just as necessary now as when he asked for it last January. He said his January request for inflation curbs has been one reason for recent price drops.

March Marches Out Amid Snowstorms and New Cold

March roared out like a lion today as a heavy rain and snow storm swept the Midwest, heading toward the Atlantic coast, and below normal temperatures chilled the Far West.

The leading edge of the midwestern storm was over lower Michigan and Indiana, moving up the Ohio valley toward New York and New England.

Behind it, the storm left heavy snow blanketing the Great Plains, inches of rainwater that flooded viaducts, and gorged streams which threatened to rise out of their banks and flood miles of farmland.

North Platte, Nebr., was digging out of 15 inches of snow that was piled into towering drifts in a 60 mile an hour blizzard late yesterday. Goodland, Kans., had nine inches, Valentine, Nebr., six inches and Denver five inches.

Czech Trial Data Reveals Him Moscow-Trained Agent

FRANKFURT, March 31. (UP)—A partial transcript of the secret trial of a convicted Czech spy today revealed evidence that he also was a Moscow-trained agent of the Soviet secret police.

The evidence was made public when Gen. Lucius D. Clay reduced to five years the 20-year sentence of Franisek Klecka for spying on American occupation forces in Germany.

The action followed by two days the sentencing of two American soldiers in Czechoslovakia to 12 and 10-year terms on espionage charges.

Parts of the transcript were deleted by the director of Intelligence for security reasons. The remainder made public for the first time some details which led to Klecka's conviction Feb. 17 in a closed trial before an Army tribunal at Munich.

Defense Calls Birmingham Aggressor in Taylor Trial

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 31. (UP)—Defense attorneys today attempted to prove that the city of Birmingham "prepared to be the aggressor in dealing with" Sen. Glen Taylor (D., Ala.), when he was arrested here last May.

Taylor's attorney, Morel Montgomery, also was permitted by Judge George Lewis Bailes to ask a witness whether he was prejudiced against the Negro race or any white persons who associated with Negroes.

Previously Judge Bailes had refused to allow the segregation issue to be brought up in the dapper senator's appeal trial on a disorderly conduct conviction.

Yugoslavia Tells Foreigners To Register with Militia

BELGRADE, March 31. (UP)—The government today ordered the registration with the militia of all foreigners in Yugoslavia.

By order of the regime of Marshal Tito, each foreigner in Yugoslavia today received travel documents which must be used for travel inside the country or when leaving it.

The move appeared to be a precaution against the infiltration from neighboring Cominform countries of anti-Tito elements.

VIDEO LENS FOCUSED ON GABLES ACTIVITIES FOR APRIL 10 TELECAST

PRODUCTION PREPARED FOR SHOW TO COVER BROAD CITY SCOPE

Camera crews from Television Station WTVJ moved in on Coral Gables yesterday afternoon as they began recording scenes to be telecast during the Riviera Times, WMIE Television Show, to be presented at 8 p.m., Sunday, April 10 at the Country Club of Coral Gables.

Yesterday the cameramen focused their lenses on the Venetian Pool, capturing its beauty and activity on film as one feature of the big television broadcast "Cavalcade of Coral Gables" which will be featured on the air that night.

The pool will be but one of the familiar Coral Gables scenes that visitors to the free show will view on the video screens that night at the Country Club. There will be special dance numbers, a University of Miami travelogue, golf match, Youth Center pictures, boxing matches, football, Pratt Hospital scenes and interviews with city officials.

In addition, Coral Gables television dealers will have the latest models in sets on display and operating that night. Visitors may stroll through the exhibits and view the Cavalcade of Coral Gables on numerous types of receiving sets.

Technical experts will be on hand to explain any of the features of television to those who attend the show. It will mark the first Television Show ever presented in Coral Gables to the general public.

Eighteen Band Students Win Honors at Ponce

Fifteen band students and three baton twirlers were adjudged first in the annual Ponce de Leon High school band solos and ensemble contest according to an announcement today by Judge Major James B. O'Neill. The winners will be eligible to enter the annual spring festival to be held in May in Jacksonville.

Rating first place in solo work were:

David Bothwell, Shirley Stephenson, Joan Phillips, Nancy Renninger, Elinor Day, Eileen Leinecker, Victor Johnson, Irving Willmott, Peter Hunter, William Johnson, Tom Frazier, Edith Gasche, Dorothy Diehl, Kathleen McLaughlin, and Caye Yaech.

Second ratings went to Harry Macey, John Devitt, Tom Mayes, Barbara Gregory, John Wolff, and Tom Lewis.

In the ensemble class, first place went to the clarinet quartet (Please Turn to Page Three)

Sex Talk Scheduled At Local School

Miss Nina McAdams, supervisor of child guidance for Dade County will speak on "Sex Education for the School Child" at 1 p.m. Friday at the Coral Gables Elementary School Auditorium, sponsored by the PTA.

Mrs. Paul Brinson, president, stated today that the talk will be of paramount interest to parents of all school children and they are urged to attend.

Ten Chosen For 5 Posts On Chamber

Primary Ballots Readied for Mail Tomorrow

Ten members of the Coral Gables Chamber of Commerce were nominated today to fill five vacancies on the board of directors in the April elections.

Listed by the nominating committee were Morton Engel, Engel's Men's Shop; H. George Fink Jr., architect; Frank N. Holley Jr., Holley Stores; Warren Lehman, Realtor; T. E. Checker Norman, Norman's Gulf Service; M. L. "Mike" Neber, Model Laundry; James W. Rankin, Coral Way Cafeteria; Lyle Roberts, building contractor; Charles B. Tutan, Tutan Motors Inc. and Dennis B. Welsh of the University of Miami expansion office.

With the exception of Tutan and Holley, none of the nominees have served on the board before.

Those elected will serve with hold-over directors Dr. A. D. Amerise, George A. Chatfield, Warner B. Daniels, Malcolm B. McDonald; Denis V. Renault and E. D. Rogers. Retiring president James A. Henderson, under the by-laws, becomes an advisory director.

Primary ballots will be sent out tomorrow, and it will not be necessary for members to return them unless they wish to make additional nominations. During the seven days following the mailing of the primary ballots, any five members may make additional nominations by petition.

Seven days after the primary ballots are sent out, the final ballot will be mailed. The canvassing committee will count the votes seven days after the final ballots are received.

The new board will be organized in May and officers will be elected at that time.

Plans Complete For Army Day Rites in Gables

Coral Gables members of the Army Day committee were notified today that plans for the observance are so well in hand that it will not be necessary to hold the committee meeting scheduled for Friday. The announcement was made by Erling Ayers of South Miami, general chairman.

The observance will get underway at 10 a.m. Sunday when members of the Military Order of the World Wars, Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion, Guard of Honor, auxiliaries and military personnel gather at Pratt Veterans Hospital for church services.

On Tuesday, April 5, the program includes a parade on Flagler (Please Turn to Page Three)

Wilkes Services Slated for Friday

Funerary services for George L. Wilkes, 59, of 3828 Grand Avenue, Coconut Grove, who died in Jackson Memorial hospital yesterday from injuries suffered in a fall on March 18, will be held Friday at 2 p.m. at the Philbrick Coral Gables chapel.

Wilkes was a resident of Miami for the past 18 years, coming here from his former home, Adele, Ga. He is survived by his wife, Mattie, one daughter Catherine, three sisters, Mrs. Lula Wright, Mrs. Pearl Eubanks, and Mrs. Ruth Hall, and a brother, Lee M. Wilkes, all of Miami.

Riviera Times carrier boys are sworn in as city officials for a day as the climax of the annual "Mayor for a Day" contest. Taking part in the city hall ceremonies yesterday were, left to right, "City Manager" Paul Barrette, "Finance Director" Russell Kimbro, "Mayor" Cecil Vaughn, "Safety

Hawaiian Roast Pig Recipe Has Luau Planners Baffled

CRANDON PARK COCONUT FESTIVAL DRAWS AID OF ISLAND CHEFS

Concerned over conflicting reports on how properly to conduct North America's first luau in connection with the Coconut Harvest Festival May 14-15 at Crandon Park, Jerry Donovan, county parks special events director today sought authentic advice direct from Hawaii. Donovan's inquiry was prompted, he granted, by Dade County Commissioners who emphasized that the luau was to be an annual spring-time event for South Florida that it must be up to South Pacific standards.

"One Hawaiian chef informed me the recipe we planned to use to roast pigs for our luau wasn't according to the way he learned to cook the porkers," said Donovan. "Then along came another native expert who said the book data we had was authentic, so we decided to get the advice of an unbiased authority."

He explained he has rushed a request for assistance from J. C. Walker, president, Honolulu chamber of commerce.

"If we get the sort of information I'm expecting, I believe we can outdo any luau ever staged in Hawaii," Donovan said. "I told Walker that Dade County was going to stage South Florida's and North America's first luau on the lush 1,000-acre tropical (Please Turn to Page Three)

San Amaro Drive Paving to Start

Work will be started tomorrow on the surfacing of San Amaro Drive from Campo Sano south to Miller Road, and its widening to a 30 foot width. City Manager William T. McIlwain said today.

The work is being financed by the University of Miami as the street skirts the west side of the main campus. McIlwain said that no assessments will be made against owners of abutting property to the west.

Right Crime But Wrong Place, Negro Admits in Police Court

Confusion over municipal boundary lines was blamed for his dilemma last night by a Negro bolita ticket seller, who appeared in municipal court.

Judge William Brown asked James Lee Clarit, who had been arrested in the Gables Negro district, "Is this the first time that you ever sold bolita tickets in Coral Gables?"

"Yes sir, your honor," Clarit replied, "I just got a little mixed up on the boundary lines. I thought I was still in Miami."

Clarit's confusion over city lines cost him $150 plus $5 court costs.

Morris S. Pearce, 245 30th Street, was fined $15 for reckless driving, causing an accident and having no driver's license.

$1,780 Ring Reported Stolen

Miami police today were asked to check pawn shops for a diamond ring valued at $1,780, stolen from the home of Mrs. Charlotte W. Summers, 3660 SW 26th Street.

Mrs. Summers told police she kept the ring in a jewel box in a locked steel cabinet and had not worn it since last January.

FIRST DECONTROL MOVE FOR RENTS IN AREA IS MAPPED BY MIAMI

FLOYD SUGGESTS ALL COMMUNITIES JOIN IN HEARING

What may be the first step to decontrol rents in the Greater Miami area is expected to be taken at next Wednesday's meeting of the Miami city commission, it was learned today.

While the idea that the Miami city commission make the first move was advanced by Commissioner R. C. Gardner, Mayor Robert L. Floyd has suggested

WASHINGTON, March 31. (UP)—Rent Director Tight E. Woods assured tenants today that the new rent control law does not mean "a general rent increase for all tenants."

Woods said in a statement that the new law's provision for a "fair net operating income" for landlords is a liberalization of present regulations which grant financial adjustments.

"This provision," he said, "will take care particularly of any small landlords who may not be obtaining an adequate net operating income. The law leaves it up to the housing expediter to determine what is a fair net operating income."

that Coral Gables and other municipalities be invited to participate in the first public hearing, should the city commission favor Gardner's proposal.

Gardner has bitterly criticized rent controls under government supervision and today said that he will ask that a public hearing be called under the new rent control law.

Should Mayor Floyd's suggestion meet with approval and the public meeting called on 10 day's notice, citizens of other municipalities and their governing bodies would attend.

Coral Gables residents, at such a meeting, would address their objections or approval of rent control to their own commission, which could act on the matter.

Under the new law the city commission could vote to decontrol or continue rent ceilings and request the governor to place the (Please Turn to Page Three)

'Jackpot' Gal Gets $300 Start On Pyramid Gold

Pyramid clubs are not busting up for Mrs. William B. Nash of 39 Avenue Santillana — yet. The comely, brunette wife of a Pan American Airways pilot who reached the top of the Davidson Pyramid and an estimated payoff of $2,048 last night reported today that about $300 had been delivered to her apartment.

Today her husband is making the rounds of host-collectors, who were unable to deliver their $5 bundles, to pick up the rest of the fortune.

But the biggest thrill in hitting the jackpot for Mrs. Nash was the number of people who swarmed to her apartment to see if there really was such a thing as a payoff. People from all over South Florida, some who came to give her the money, some to help celebrate her jubilation, and others—scuffers—who came out of curiosity. Mrs. Nash said it may be two or three days before all of the money she has coming in is because some meetings of her pyramid were delayed last night.

And even if that $2,048 pile never completely materializes, Mrs. Nash is satisfied.

Youth, Hurt in Crash, Comes Home

By DOT THAGARD of the Braden Dawsons of 544 Avenue Madeira who was injured recently in an automobile and cycle crash, is home from the hospital, and though still confined is progressing nicely.

Another convalescent home from the hospital and doing very well is Roy Nowlin who resides with Mrs. Nowlin at 730 Avenue Madeira. Roy is up and around although he is having to take it slow and easy.

Young Bill Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Howard Jr., of Avenue Zamora has been home on Spring vacation for a brief respite from his heavy schedule at Georgia Tech in Atlanta. Bill drove back to school Sunday with Bob Ingalls of Miami, a classmate of Bill's at Tech.

Rockford, Illinois is missing more residents who have decided to try out the climate in our area, 702 Avenue Madeira, is known to the Illinois folk as "Rockford's summer spot in the dead of winter". Latest visitors to the Buske residence are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Estell. Mr. Estell is vice-president of the Woodard Governor Company in Rockford, makers of governors for diesel engines. The Estells drove here in their new Nash for their short vacation. So the itinerary is in use again as Clara and Edythe show their guests the sights of "Our Town." It seems as though every make of new car so far, has visited the Buskes homes. The sisters should have no trouble making up their mind when they want to purchase a new jalopy. They can look to the performance of their guests' cars through the winter in order to make up their minds.

Each man-hour of farm labor now produces two-fifths more production than before World War II.

MIAMI MOVES TO DECONTROL AREA RENTS

matter in their hands, if he approves their decision.

The state legislature also has the right to decontrol rents for the entire state, by an act of the legislature, but such a proposal has not been discussed openly by legislators, who generally feel that such matters should be left in the hands of the municipalities.

From Washington, the United Press today released a "nut-shell outline" of the provisions of the new law. Here's what it does:

Extends rent controls in modified form for 15 months through June 30, 1950.

Permits cities, towns or villages, after 10 days' notice and public hearings, to remove controls entirely if the governor of the state gives his okay. The states themselves could take over rent control by setting up machinery, or decontrol rents by legislative action.

Assures landlords, "so far as practicable," a "fair net operating income."

Gives the Federal Housing Expediter authority to draw up any regulations he thinks necessary to control evictions. The expiring law only spelled out cases in which landlords could evict and required 60 days' notice.

Gives the Housing Expediter authority to sue overcharging landlords for triple damages on behalf of tenants. The expiring law left it up to the tenants to bring suit.

Permits the Housing Expediter to recontrol areas formerly under control. The Expediter would need the local rent boards' recommendation for recontrolling areas decontrolled before today, but not for those decontrolled from now on.

Restores rent controls on trailer camps used as permanent homes.

Permits the housing expediter to lift controls on anything he considers "luxury" housing if it is to be converted to smaller units.

recreation area on Key Biscayne.

"Our research staff has managed to gather a substantial amount of general material on Hawaiian luaus," wrote Donovan.

"We have had offers of aid from native Hawaiians residing here to assure the authenticity of our South Sea cookery as well as tunes, but, since we have no precedent near at hand on staging luaus, we should greatly appreciate it if your organization would furnish us with some special details.

"To your knowledge, what was the largest attendance at a community luau in Hawaii; at Wai-kiki Beach?" asked Donovan. "Is there any preferred or recommended ceremony in connection with a luau on a community-wide basis?"

A colored picture postal card showing a wide expanse of beach at Crandon Park accompanied Donovan's request for information.

Sneak Thieves Strike in Grove

Miami police today warned Coconut Grove residents that sneak thieves are operating both day and night in that area.

George Willis, 3635 Avocado Avenue, Coconut Grove, reported to police that someone cut the screen in his front door and stole a wallet containing $9.75 and other valuables from a bedroom in which the Willis were sleeping.

Mrs. William P. Ivan, 3604 Avocado Avenue, saw a man standing in their bedroom and Mr. Ivan chased him out of the house but lost him outside. The thief had entered by cutting the screen in the front door and escaped before stealing anything of value.

A daylight robbery occurred in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Ordway, 3457 Devon Road, while the Ordways were in the kitchen. The thief walked off with $20 in cash and jewelry valued at $77.50.

WALL STREET TRADING

2 P. M. PRICES OF LEADING STOCKS

By United Press

NEW YORK, March 31. (UP)—Stocks turned irregular at the start of today's trading session. Cotton was 1 to 6 points higher. Bonds steadied.

St. Louis Southwestern (Gotton Belt) Railroad advanced a point in one of the widest early price changes. Generally price changes were small.

A few blocks appeared at the start, including 1900 Northern States Power at 1 1/8 up 1/8; a block of 2000 N. Y. Central at 12-1/8, unchanged; 6900 shares of Radio-Keith-Orpheum changed hands at 9, up 1/8.

Fractional gains were scored in Southern Pacific, Curtiss Wright, Standard Oil of California, Farnsworth and West Penn Electric.

General Motors, Bethlehem Steel, Hudson Motors, Radio Corp., International Paper, U. S. Steel, International Nickel, Anaconda, Richfield Oil, Paramount, American Smelting and United Aircraft were all easier.

Trading was quiet, with the pace considerably slower than in the previous two sessions. Prices held around their initial levels after the first few minutes.

DADE COUNTY ROUNDUP

Holt Plans Palestine Trip

By ARTHUR PEAVY
 Riviera-Times Staff Writer

Circuit Judge George Edward Holt today announced that he will visit Palestine during the month of May as an observer for the American Christian-Palestine Committee.

I. R. Goodman, chairman of the Greater Miami Zionist Emergency Committee, said that Judge Holt will sail from New York on the Queen Mary, April 20.

Judge Holt will be a member of a party of 50 prominent persons who will make the trip. The party is expected to be in Palestine for approximately two weeks.

Miami's building permits for 1949 reached $11,327,355 today when the total value of building permits for the month of March reached $8,710,978.

Last year, for the first three months, the building permits for Miami totaled $19,963,193 but, according to W. H. Peace, building inspector, this included a number of large projects.

Peace stated that with the exception of these large permits, taken out in January 1948, the trend of building in Miami is about the same as last year.

FRIDAY LAST DAY TO PAY COUNTY TAXES

Tomorrow, April 1, is the last day for the payment of state and county taxes and the filing of applications for homestead tax exemption.

Coral Gables residents, who have not filed applications for homestead tax exemptions, must go to the office of Tax Assessor J. Newton Lummus Jr. on the second floor of the Court House and to the ground floor office of County Tax Assessor H. Ernest Overstreet for the payment of state and county taxes. Lummus' office will be open until 8 p.m. today and tomorrow.

Under the state law, no applications for homestead tax exemptions can be filed after April 1 and taxes not paid by that time will be subject to penalties. City Tax Assessor Thomas C. Blount estimated yesterday that a total of 379 Gables residents had not filed for the tax exemption. He also warned business firms that April 1 is the deadline for filing personal property tax returns at Coral Gables city hall without paying a 10 percent tax penalty.

OUR TOWN

Go East, Young Man

By Jim Moore

If the Coral Gables cops have ever wondered why a drunk will climb into one side of a squad car without protest and balk like Hades about entering from the other side, I now have the answer. And if you've wondered why junior, when just learning to walk, toddled manfully in one direction until he flopped, then crawled back, I have the answer to that, too. It seems cruel to say that babies and drunks are alike, but according to one expert, they are in one respect. It's a matter of equilibrium. The expert, according to our United Press service here at the office, is Dr. Christian A. Wolf, founder of the International Hearing Institute.

Explaining his theory, Dr. Wolf says, "To walk, babies must adjust themselves to the rotational speed of the earth eastward in the northern hemisphere, and westward below the equator.

"Children walk in an easterly direction first in the northern hemisphere, but to return westward they resort to crawling on all fours. Usually it takes 60 days longer before a child will walk in both directions, and even then not as well as going east."

"An intoxicated person, lying down and facing east, will need little help to get him on his feet. He will walk east."

"Often an intoxicated person will refuse to get into a cab or police car if he must enter westward. But if the vehicle is facing in the opposite direction, the same person will usually walk in by himself."

That ought to give members of the elbow-bending fraternity a tip to be sure of their bearings before they step away from the bar after that last night cap.

Carl Singleton, who makes a practice of sending out little souvenirs through the mail to advertise his liquor store, could also take a hint from Dr. Wolf.

Next month he could send out a miniature compass.

analyze the soil for its relationship to agriculture. He said that a complete breakdown of the chemical contents of the soil will be made with special emphasis on the fertilizing qualities of the samples. Also, he plans to make studies on nitrogen-fixing bacteria and other special types of microbes which might prove useful in industrial fermentations.

The project should turn up some interesting data. Burkholder further plans to determine the effect of centuries of agriculture on soil.

He said that comparative analyses will be made between soil of remote areas that has never been tilled, and soil that has been used continuously for farming by the Indians and white settlers for hundreds of years.

Science at Work

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal. (UP)—From the soil of South America may come new drugs to help man fight off disease.

One country, Venezuela, already has contributed a drug-soil from which chloromycin was developed. The drug is now being used to combat such diseases as typhus and typhoid fever.

The isolation of the drug was made by Dr. Paul R. Burkholder, Eaton professor of botany at Yale University, and now he is preparing a search for new antibiotics in the South American soil. He has sent an assistant, Richard A. Benedict, Brooklyn, N. Y., to South America to collect some 5,000 samples of soil.

Each will be surveyed for the possibility of molds that will produce new drugs.

Benedict will cover the entire South American continent as well as Central America, getting samples from Buenos Aires to Mexico City. He expects to be gone for two months or more.

Government officials and private agencies in Latin America are co-operating in the project and will assist the Yale men in collecting the necessary samples. Furthermore, the U. S. Department of Agriculture has arranged to handle the entry of the soil samples through the custom offices in this country.

Dr. Burkholder said that once the samples have arrived at Yale, he will start tests to isolate promising microbes which may produce new drugs. In addition to the test for new drugs, Burkholder plans to

Key Says Wylie's Right on Florida

By RUSSELL KAY

While Chamber of Commerce secretaries, public officials and health authorities of the state are screaming and tearing their hair in righteous indignation over the article by Philip Wylie "Florida Polluted Paradise" which appeared in the March 29th issue of Look magazine, I cannot concur with their views, for after reading it I feel that instead of condemning the author, we owe him a debt of gratitude for publicizing facts and arousing public opinion on a subject that needs to be spotlighted.

There isn't anything in Wylie's article that I can justly find fault with, for he is simply telling in a more readable and interesting form the same story that our own health officials have been telling us in pamphlets, lectures and news releases for a long time. If you ask me, Wylie let us off easy. If he had searched the files of the State Board of Health or the American Waterways Association, he could probably have found plenty of photographs much more obnoxious than those he used, such as I myself have seen exhibited from time to time. Even the map showing polluted areas in this state, published in connection with the article was officially issued by our own State Board of Health.

No one, whether a native Floridian or a visitor to the state equipped with ordinary eyesight and a normal sense of smell, needs either a Board of Health or a Philip Wylie to tell them that certain areas in this state are highly and dangerously polluted. The unfortunate thing is, most everyone knows it and as Wylie points out, we haven't cared or done anything about it. The thing I cannot understand is why our public health officials are so indignant over the article when for several years they have been yelling the same story to the house-tops and complaining because no one would listen. Apparently, it is all right to discuss such things among ourselves, but is all wrong to let such information get bandied about elsewhere.

Speaking before the Tampa Junior Chamber of Commerce last week, Dr. A. P. Black flayed Wylie and his "Look" article terming it "vicious," completely unfair and for the most part untrue. If this is the case then in my humble opinion, the same would apply to statements concerning pollution of Florida water, made over and over again by Dr. Black and other health authorities in my hearing.

Those condemning Wylie attempt to justify their position by pointing out that Florida is no worse than many other states in the nation from the standpoint of pollution. This is no doubt true and Wylie made that clear in his article when he writes:

"The dwellers of many big American cities, may furthermore recognize in this account facts which remind them of their own Philadelphia, say, or Los Angeles, or St. Louis. All states are guilty. The shocking condition of Florida, sanitationwise, healthwise and in many other ways, reflects the shocking condition of the mind of Mr. and Mrs. and Miss America. Florida is merely the quintessence of national shortcomings. And Floridians alone cannot be blamed when their own newspapers call their own bays 'open cesspools'."

The fact that other states and areas are in the same boat doesn't lessen the evil and, as a forward looking state, Florida should take the lead in relieving the situation. It can't be done by sticking our heads in the sand like ostriches and trying to ignore it. The sooner we recognize and admit this shortcoming the better off we will be and publicity such as Wylie has given it, while extremely unpleasant, is nevertheless the most effective means of getting people aroused and insuring action.

Florida has shown that when once aroused she can do something about a problem. When the people became fully informed regarding schools it wasn't hard to provide for better ones, which we did.

The same will happen in the case of health and sanitation when we come to realize that present day practices are primitive and actually dangerous. If Wylie has succeeded in making us mad, he has accomplished something. It will probably take more articles of the same character to arouse us to a point of action but if it spurs us to the point of doing something about it, we are much better off than would be the case if we must wait for a serious and deadly epidemic to force such action.

When Florida can again point to crystal clear lakes and streams and take pride in emerald and turquoise bays and inlets, I dare say Wylie will be more than glad to publicize the fact. If you must throw mud at the gentleman at least take it from our polluted waterways.

Return of Cardiff Giant is Demanded

By ROBERT MUSEL

United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK (UP)—When P. T. Barnum foisted the Cardiff Giant on the public 60 years ago he chuckled "there's a sucker born every minute." Michael Fitzmaurice is out to prove that Barnum was wrong.

"My great-grandfather may have been a sucker," Fitzmaurice said in the mellifluous tones that have made him a leading radio performer, "but old P. T. will find that the strain toughened when it reached me. I want the Cardiff Giant back. It belongs to my family."

And setting his handsome chin he called for his attorney, Parnell Callahan, who has been instructed to demand the big concrete figure from the New York State Historical Museum at Cooperstown, N. Y.

Fitzmaurice realizes that he is stirring old circus ghosts by trifling with the memory of one of the greatest hoaxes of all time, but every time he thinks of the small salary his great-grandfather got for his fabulous creation he boils.

Invented Callopie "Wesley Jukes was my great-grandfather," he said, "and anybody who has ever seen a circus has heard his handiwork. He invented the steam callopie, also the illusion of a woman cut off at the waist and the famous robot chess player who beat so many champions 70 years ago."

"I think," he added, "I am violating no family confidence by revealing that the robot chess player was worked by the suction by an operator who sat where he could watch the chess board. Great grandpa also used compressed air for his celebrated robot orchestra, Gideon's Band.

"Now the story about the Cardiff Giant is this. Barnum was hard up for ideas and asked great-grandpa, who worked for him, to think of something. So the old man suggested they ought to 'discover' the mummified body of a prehistoric giant. Barnum thought it was a great idea and grandpa fashioned a phony mummy out of concrete and buried it secretly on a farm in upstate New York, where a farmer allegedly found it while plowing.

Earned Thousands "Barnum then announced he had acquired this fantastic property at great expense and exhibited it for years, amassing many thousands of dollars. After that it was given to the museum without even consulting the Jukes family. We feel it belongs to us although—confidentially—darned if I know what we'll do with it. It's a matter of principle."

Fitzmaurice, who is 38 and married, feels strongly about the case.

"Maybe I'll use it for a plaything for my kids—when I have kids," he said.

Note to Fitzmaurice: you're giving lots of publicity to Barnum's old circus, Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey, which comes to town next month. Are you sure P. T. wasn't a little bit right?

Reviewing the New Books

Neither the United States nor Russia has many real friends in the world, an English writer reports, and in a war they would have to fight it out pretty much alone.

The U. S. is a much less sinister force than the Soviet Union, according to Robert Payne's book Report On America (John Day, $3.50). But America shares Russia's habit of making enemies.

"The countries that have elevated naked power to the heights of efficiency, more ruthless and more destructive than any power that has yet existed, will be faced with a silent and hostile world only too happy at the thought that the giants will destroy one another."

Discussing relations with Asia, Payne betrays himself by repeating an old lie that American newspapermen in Asia are "often powerless to have their reports published without the whole tenor of the report suffering" by being "edited in the New York offices." Such editorial perversions have perhaps occurred, but for every news story Payne can cite there can be shown a thousand stories in the sense that the correspondent meant them.

Opining that Asia is undergoing "the greatest revolution that has ever occurred," he claims that it "continues almost unnoticed by our daily press. There is no reason why that revolution should not be accomplished for the most part peacefully, as in Indonesia."

That reasoning sounds strange at a time when U. S. headlines tell of fighting in Indonesia, and when rival editorialists battle about American policy in Indonesia, China and Japan.

For a long evening or two of reading. The Great Betrayal, by Dorothy Gardner (Doubleday, $3) will repay the historical novel fan.

It's the story of Col. John Chivington, "a golden-haired giant in a uniform of pale blue . . . a man who looked like a god and acted like a savage," and the battle of Sand Creek, an Indian war episode that reflects no credit on the paleface and his relations with the redskins.

The author weaves in a love story or two, a couple of "whodunits" and a lot of pioneer color and background of the early days of Denver during the latter part of the Civil War.

Cheese Big Industry OTTAWA (UP) — Canada will get around $15,000,000 for the cheese it ships to Britain during 1949, the agricultural department announced.

No Thoroughfare

BROOKLINE, Mass. (UP)—In addition to one-way streets, this town has a no-way street. The 100-foot-long cut-off has a "No Right Turn" sign at one end and a "Do Not Enter" sign at the other. Town officials are thinking of grassing over the unused street.

Hollywood Film Shop
 By PATRICIA CLARY
 United Press Staff Correspondent
 HOLLYWOOD (UP)—A Danish-born actor is the man who keeps a few of Hollywood's homes from looking like "early Hallowe'en."
 It's only a few, unfortunately. Carl Neubert, interior decorator, says most actors are sure they're artists in every field and they won't admit it takes somebody else to iron out their decorating problems.
 "One famous foreign star, and I won't mention her name," he said gallantly "itemized every penny and supervised every brush stroke in her rooms and drove my staff crazy."
 "I gave up the job finally, so she stole a few of my ideas, added some from her friends and some of her own, and wound up with an excellent sample of Cecil De Millean."
 Neubert came to Hollywood 10 years ago to try to break into acting. But friends who saw how he fixed up his own house kept him busy fixing theirs.
Better Than Acting
 After advising 50 of them, he said goodbye to acting and started advising for money.
 "A producer gave me my oddest assignment," he said. "He always had insomnia and he wanted all his furniture lacquered black. Even his sheets were black. He says he sleeps much better now."
 Another just-arrived female star waved a check under his nose and gave him carte blanche.
 "I don't care what you do to the joint, honey," she purred. "Just fix it up so that when my friends walk in they should only drop dead."
 Many Hollywoodites like homes just like the ones in Buffalo or Duluth. They don't go for slinky drapes and satin chaise lounges. But they all have rumpus rooms.

Bars Popular
 The furnishings usually include a bar, television set, recording unit, movie projector and ping pong table or dart board. They also include old scripts, still pictures and fan letters.
 Among Neubert's clients is one of his former girl friends, Martha Vickers, actress. He decorated her bedroom and dressing room in early American style.
 Some of his work uses handmade furniture tooled by George Montgomery, Dinah Shore's actor husband. He did Bob Hope's bedroom over in various shades of blue. The job was Mrs. Hope's Christmas surprise for the comedian, who was away entertaining in Berlin.
 Neubert also has decorated the homes of the Dan Daileys and Dan Duryeas and lent his Danish modern touch to the Tarzana home of Swedish actress Viveca Lindfors.

REMINISCING

By TRACY HOLLINGSWORTH

Last night, I started to read the current issue of Good Housekeeping. Why? I don't know, because I am not a "housekeeper," but the magazine always appeals to me. There was an article about Reminiscing, by Louise Redfield Peattie.

The writer had one paragraph in which she opens with, "It is deeply worthwhile to listen to the reminiscence of old people." Now I am not old nor even elderly, so why should folks class as "old" people who "Reminis." Any one reaching the ripe age of even 20 can Reminis. However, she was writing about sitting on her grandmother's lap and heard her tell of those things of the past.

How many of us have done the same thing—memories—some real and yet some "make believe," but with a tinge of facts. It is like when as children we used to listen to Fairy tales read to us, and actually believe them to be actual. The young boys of today are playing "cops and robbers," with play guns. Somebody "Reminisc," or else the idea came from the comic sections of the newspaper, or the radio. In future years, they may tell their grandchildren how they killed Jesse James, or rather his counterpart—all imagination for entertainment. Bed time stories, or fairy tales.

Naturally, but unfortunately, young children actually believe the tales their elders tell, purely from an entertainment point. Of course as they grow older, they realize some of the impossible things described. But when a child, it sounded good, sitting on your grandfather's lap, just before going to bed.

Soroptimists Will Be Hosts for Regional Meeting

Antilla To Be Headquarters For Visiting Delegates

Soroptimist Club of Coral Gables will be hosts to the first conference of 1949, Southern Region of the American Federation of Soroptimists Clubs, Saturday and Sunday at the Antilla Hotel.

Dr. Ruth Clouse is president of the Gables club. Distinguished guest of honor will be Mrs. Getrude Geary Huit, East St. Louis, Illinois, president of the Federation who will also be the conference speaker.

DR. CLOUSE

Registration is Saturday and the first business meeting will take place at two thirty o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Coral Gables Elks Club.

Mrs. Helen Durkee, West Palm Beach, regional director, will be hosts at the luncheon which will take place Saturday at the Country Club of Coral Gables, honoring Mrs. Huit.

The banquet will take place at seven o'clock Saturday night at the Antilla Hotel.

Other entertainment planned includes Sunday morning breakfast at the Barcelona Restaurant, with the Miami Springs-Hialeah Club entertaining the delegates, and luncheon Sunday at the Coral Gables Elks Club, with the Coral Gables Elks as hosts.

Mrs. Huit, who is a prominent lawyer in East St. Louis, will discuss the extension of the Four Point Plan aimed toward a better world, when she speaks at the banquet gathering. The four point plan was set up at a convention of the Soroptimists International Association at Harrogate, England in 1948.

Mrs. Huit is a member of the National Association of Women Lawyers of Illinois State Bar Association, the American Bar Association and the American Association of University Women. Delegates to the regional conference will come from Atlanta,

New Members Pen Women's Honor Guests

Mrs. W. Dickey Oglesby and Mrs. J. Lawrence Kelley, Gablesites, will be among new members and patrons to be honored tomorrow afternoon by the Miami Branch of American Pen Women.

The group will gather at the home of Mrs. Raymond A. Ross, 2100 South Miami Avenue, at two thirty o'clock. An executive board meeting will take place at one thirty o'clock.

Mrs. John W. Goggin, program chairman for the day, will present Mrs. Lucile Keyes, who will sing a group of ballads, accompanied at the piano by Eleanor Clark Linton. Mrs. Goggin will also distribute annual awards.

New members and patrons of the club will form the receiving line, while Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Gilford M. Hall, and Mrs. Harry I. Marshall will greet guests at the door.

During the tea hour, which will follow the meeting, Mrs. Edwin J. Barker, branch president, will preside at the tea service, while Mrs. Rosebud Clephane, first vice-president, and Mrs. Isaac S. Diller, second vice-president, will have charge of serving punch.

Other officers of the group who will assist in the dining room will include Mrs. C. Roy Angell, Mrs. J. Riley Staats, Mrs. Walker Gibson, Mrs. Ralph L. Engle and Mrs. Carrie B. Yeiser.

New Englanders Get Sun-Tan

Busy acquiring a suntan to take back home with them to Westhaven, Connecticut are Mrs. Marie Youngs and daughter, Agatha.

The Connecticut residents are the guests of Mrs. Youngs' sister-in-law, Mrs. John F. Ridolf, and Mr. Ridolf, of 131 S.W. 52nd Court.

Visiting here since the first of February, Mrs. Youngs and Agatha will return to Westhaven a week from today.

Dr. Greer, Family Move to South Miami

Choosing South Miami over Coral Gables, Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Greer are now residing, along with their six weeks old son Mike, at 601 N. Sunset Road.

The family formerly resided at 624 Avenue San Esteban. Dr. Greer is a veterinarian.

Chalk up another mark for Coral Gables career gals, because Dorothy Gale and her mother-in-law, Frances, (Mrs. Lawrence E. Gale, 928 Avenue Alargino) are opening their own hosiery shop on Miracle Mile. For Dorothy, bride of a year or so, who is the former Dorothy Richard of Lakeland, it will be a first venture in business, since she and Frederick (Fritz) Gale were married right out of college. For Frances, it will be an old story and she will bring to the partnership years of experience in managing and buying. Mrs. Gale's father, her brothers, and her husband made hosiery their life work, and she also owns another shop in Orlando, and has for the past ten years.

Arriving Sunday evening via motor car from Ann Arbor, Michigan, will be five University of Michigan students, headed by Don Holcomb, son of Attorney Lyle D. Holcomb and Mrs. Holcomb of 3009 Alhambra Circle. All members of Beta Theta Pi fraternity at Michigan, Don's visitors will be James Bremer of Milwaukee, Dave Karges of Evanston, Illinois, Henry Steck of Owosso, Mich., and Jim Benard, of Vassar, Mich. It will be the first venture into the semi-tropics for the four middle-westerners, and "they intend to make the most of their week's stay," quipped Mrs. Holcomb, who is busy making social plans for her houseguests-elect. Don has planned fishing on the Keys, as well as a little venture into the Everglades to see what goes. Then, too, the men hope to do a little dancing at the Country Club of Coral Gables.

Miss Mary Lou Weiland and her classmate at Duke University, Miss Ann Davis of Roanoke, Virginia, have been attending a round of parties since their arrival to spend the Spring holidays with Mary Lou's parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Weiland. Tomorrow Mary Lou will entertain at a swimming party at the Riviera Country Club. Saturday Miss Jeanne Mixson will honor Mary Lou, and Ann, with a dessert bridge at her home, 5900 Granada Boulevard.

Wearing an orchid given to her earlier in the day at radio station WBAY, Mrs. Walter Ashby looked especially attractive last night as she attended a consular dinner with her husband, Costa Rican Consul Ashby, at Erving's. The party honored Dr. Gabriel Saravia, of Columbia, and Carlos Zambrano, who is leaving soon for his post in Belgium. The orchid in question, was bestowed upon Mrs. Ashby by George Campbell in his salute to gracious women on his "From the Man's point of View" radio-interview hour. Mrs. Ashby is already deep in plans to assist the Alianza Inter-American Club in sponsoring the next Philharmonic concert, April 26, at the Country Club of Coral Gables. "We are going to have Cecelia Duenas, of Bogota, Colombia, as our soloist that night," Mrs. Ashby told us, "and we'll have a real Cuban rumba orchestra for dancing, following the concert in the patio." Incidentally, Mrs. Ashby complimented her friend of long standing, Mrs. Frederick J. Kessler, of Havana, Cuba, with a luncheon at the Country Club of Coral Gables yesterday. Other guests of Mrs. Ashby's were Mrs. J. Fritz Gordon and Mrs. M. B. Garriss.

Mrs. William B. Powell Sr., has been invited to show her pastel portraits this afternoon from four until six o'clock at the home of Miss Bertha Foster, Belle Isle. The afternoon party is the last in the series of "at homes" Miss Foster will give this season. Member of the Coral Gables Woman's Club, the Gables-Grove Artists, and the Greater Miami Art League, Mrs. Powell paints under the name of Violet Powell.

Church Unit Sets Meeting

For their regular monthly luncheon meeting, members of the Women's Council of the Coral Gables First Christian Church will convene at the church tomorrow morning at ten thirty o'clock.

Following a program, which will be presented by Mrs. John W. Messer, luncheon will be served by Circle Number One.

Mrs. G. D. Miller, president of the council, will preside.

Pi Kappa's To Stage Annual Dance

"Salute to Betty Co-ed," Pi Kappa Phi fraternity's first annual party and dance, will take place Friday night at the Ritz Ballroom (opposite the Fronton), with dancing scheduled from nine to one o'clock.

Committee members announce the party as its first open affair since the active chapter was chartered two years ago at the University of Miami.

President Straton Klements cordially invites all members, visiting Pi Kappa Phi's, their friends and the public to join in this first annual event.

"Miss Betty Co-ed" will, by popular vote, be chosen from candidates by the various fraternities on campus, and she will be crowned and presented with many beautiful gifts donated by the following Coral Gables merchants according to favors committee man Larry Adams:

Valencia Dress Shop, Daniels Women's Apparel Shop, Bootery, Coral Coy Shop, Madeline Joan Shop, City of Coral Gables, Lee Allen Beauty Salon, Coral Way Flower Shop, Holley's Five and Ten, Howard's Gifts, Althea's, Eugene Mumpower Inc., Gables Seed Store, Coral Gables Bakery, Taylor Sport Shop, Turner-Radigan, Carroll's Jewelry, and Norman's Gifts.

Other committeemen assisting in the arrangements are Kenney Nolen treasurer; Robert Grabdahl, secretary; Marty Rich, dance; and Charles Behrens, tickets.

Tickets may be purchased from members, at the University, or at the door Friday night.

Music Teachers Plan New Date

Originally slated for April 2, the regular monthly meeting of the Miami Music Teachers' Association will take place April 9 instead. The meeting has been called for eight o'clock in the evening at the music conservatory, 3900 Biscayne Blvd.

Featured on the program for this meeting will be a talk on "Tanglewood" by Jean Bedetti, cellist, who formerly played with the Boston Symphony.

Miss Bertha Foster will report on the convention of the Florida Federated Music Club held at White Springs, March 14 through 17.

Teenagers Will Dance At Cotillion Club Fete

Shining up their dancing shoes for a session of "tripping the light fantastic" tomorrow evening are Gables sons and daughters who belong to the Coral Gables Cotillion Club.

With membership limited to seventh and eighth graders, the club was originated to give boys and girls of this school age thorough training in the art of ballroom dancing and attendant social graces, and to provide an opportunity to practice these at parties planned especially for them.

Directors of the club are Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Nowakowski, who formerly taught dancing at the University of Wisconsin.

Friday evening's dance session for seventh graders will take place between the hours of seven and eight thirty o'clock, while the one for eighth graders will get under way at eight thirty and will last until ten o'clock. Both dances will be held at the Coral Gables Woman's Club.

Refreshments will be served throughout the evening. On hand to see that all goes well, will be a group of mothers of the young club members.

Son Expected

BOY'S NAME DISCARDED IN FAVOR OF CECILIA

Although they were expecting a boy, Mrs. Leo Ciccone says that her husband, just to be on the safe side, picked out a girl's name, two months prior to the birth of their first child.

"It's a good thing he did, too," declared Mrs. Ciccone, "because I don't think our daughter would have cared to go through life with the name 'Don' or 'Jack' or even 'Bill'."

Weighing in at seven pounds and eight ounces, Christine Cecelia Ciccone, as the new baby has been named, was born on March 16 at the Coral Gables Hospital. She resides with her parents at 3143 Grand Avenue in the Grove.

Dr. Morgan will remain in the upstate city for a week, during which time he will conduct revival services at the MacDowell Baptist Church. The Rev. Dr. George Apel, pastor of that church, conducted revival services at Dr. Morgan's church last month.

Refreshments will be served throughout the evening. On hand to see that all goes well, will be a group of mothers of the young club members.

Baptist Pastor To Conduct Revival

Leaving tomorrow for St. Augustine will be the Rev. Dr. Frank C. Morgan, pastor of the South Miami Baptist Church.

Dr. Morgan will remain in the upstate city for a week, during which time he will conduct revival services at the MacDowell Baptist Church. The Rev. Dr. George Apel, pastor of that church, conducted revival services at Dr. Morgan's church last month.

No Meter So No Nickel, Girl Convinces Police

ROCKY MOUNT, N.C. (UP)—Grinning police let a pretty girl off on a clear traffic violation, agreeing that she should have been excused.

The girl was brought into court on a ticket for overtime parking. The complaint said her car was found parked in a metered space, but that no nickel was dropped in the meter.

"But there wasn't any meter there when I parked," the defendant stammered.

Officers investigated and found that the meter had been installed just after she left her car in the space.

SOUTH MIAMI SCHOOL NEWS

Strenuous Rehearsals Are in Progress For 'Planting of the Rice' Dance

(Edited by the Students)

Junior High pupils will take part in the Bayfront Park Exposition. Strenuous rehearsals have been held daily for the dance, 'The Planting of the Rice', under the direction of Mrs. Hazel Nowakowski preparatory to the performance in Bayfront Park. Students selected for this program are Joan Shafer, Woody Boone, Marilyn Carroll, Peggy Sapp, Hank Vancer, Nancy Jackson, Betty Jo Stalmaker, Billy Thompson, Shirley Koval, Myra Lay, Lance Campbell, David Harris, Carolyn Shafer, Bob Horton, Franklin Newham, Clay Vickers, Tommy Morris, Patsy Geiger, Barbara Soar, Sue Spence, Angus McNair, and Bobby Brooks.

Also, appearing in a future program are several of the first graders from Mrs. Blair's class. The following pupils will dance the Minuet at the next P.T.A. meeting, April 7th: Barbara Rice, Patsy Bethel, Virginia McGinn, Claudia Hauri, Marquita Collins, Patricia Boyden, Terry Danton, Charles Battle, Edward Vann, Edward Buzzell, Jimmy Shafer, and Jimmy Durham.

The Second Grades enjoyed a special treat last Friday when they met in the auditorium for their daily music class. Mrs. Forbes' room presented two special songs in Southern dialect, "Snowball" and "Shortnin Bread". The songs, with several solo parts, were sung with great expression and poise, and even though a befuddled back stage buzzed Betty Johnson causing much excitement, the children like all good trouper, knew that the Show Must Go On! So, they brought the program to a successful conclusion by asking all the others in the class to join them in singing two Florida Favorites "Suwanee River" and "The Mockingbird".

Collecting Shells

Another project with the Florida theme is the shell collection that the students in Mrs. Dietz' third grade class are gathering from the Beach and Keys. Already these pupils have a fair representation of Florida Shells with Trent Woods, Alper Browne, Fred Rival, Susan Turner, Kathryn Arendt, Bruce Powers, and Joan Becher having started their collections. Mrs. Bliss very generously loaned her shell collection to this room which is very prominently displayed.

The students are gathering a shell collection for Alvin Brown, and sending all the materials to him so he can catalogue them. Alvin is now at home studying under the supervision of a Home Bound Teacher, Mrs. Vita Butcher because of a broken arm. This very thoughtful class have also sent their classmate letters and samples of art work.

The pupils in Miss Webb's fifth grade all enjoyed making sand pictures as their most recent art work for which Dolores Robinson received first prize with her painting of a pink hibiscus, Frank Woods and Sue Travis won the next two prizes. Additional prizes were awarded Carolyn Hicks for her painting of a tree, Susan Hays for the hibiscus she painted, Dolly Bates and Diane Scanlon for their paintings of a hibiscus, and Frances Sawyer and Donald Cleveland for their daisy paintings. Among the pupils in this room entering the music contest sponsored by the Junior League in Miami are: Dolly Bates, Susan Hays, Margie Murphy, Sue Tavis, Harold Schappel, Patricia Maynard, Phyllis Sickle, Gordon Donaldson, Stephanie Sikes, Linda Vinial, Elwanda O'Neal, Carolyn Hicks, and Noel Johnston.

In Music Contest

Pupils in Mrs. Bland's sixth grade taking an interest in this Music Contest are Eleanor Horton, Virginia Iland, Cathleen Brown, Janice Caldwell, and Suzanne Lamb. Classmates, Allan Solie and Tommy Linder, are working on the Poppy Poster Contest. An interesting debate was held this week by these sixth graders on the subject "Is English or Arithmetic the more important subject?" Janice Caldwell spoke on English and Sandra O'Connor spoke on arithmetic. The class voted sixteen to thirteen that, as a result of the debate, they would choose arithmetic as the more important.

In the junior high department Mrs. Perry, eighth grade mathematics teacher announces the purchase of a mechanical drawing device known as the "Hoot-Nanny". Paper discs for drawing and six colored pencils came with this device which is a circular table turned by a geared crank at the side. It is said that the machine will make twenty two million different designs, and already the pupils by making original designs are determined to see if this claim is possible.

The homeroom class of Mrs. Perry has initiated a very worthwhile drive to beautify further our school grounds. Joy Vitello suggested that each child in the homeroom contribute a potted plant if at all possible, and one of the school custodians would care for the plants. We like this plan which will certainly increase the attractiveness of our school's exterior and later furnish cut flowers for the classrooms. This class heartily extends their project to include anyone interested in bringing a plant for our school's grounds.

Speaks on Philippines

A very enlightening talk was given to Mrs. Morrison's geography classes Tuesday by one of the pupils, Hank Vander, on his native home in the Philippine Islands. He discussed his home life prior to the war, his experiences during the Japanese invasion, and his journey to, America via Hong Kong, Shanghai, Kobe, and Honolulu. As the entire situation was viewed from a classmate's standpoint, it was received most enthusiastically by all of the pupils.

In their study of geography, Miss Bault's third grade pupils are working on a Pueblo Indian Village. The little village is quite picturesque, made of clay, and complete even to the making of crops from colored paper.

Still another section of our world was illustrated in Mrs. Griffith's fifth grade room when Nettie Craig arranged for the play, "Rumba Class", with Sylvia Asplund as the teacher of the Rumba Class. This was enjoyed by all the classmates during the meeting of their club, "The Good Deed Club", last Friday. This class recently lost two classmates, Joel Dimmette and Marian Goodrich, but are making new friends with Deborah Deane who recently transferred from Coconut Grove. Reporters Nettie Craig and Sylvia Asplund have many personal items in their column this week covering the weekend activities of other members of the class... Jackie Bennett's birthday party Sunday, Edward McNair and Del More enjoying the quiz show, "Teen-Time", Richard Edwards visit to the Monkey Jungle Saturday, John Fiske's fishing party to the Keys, and Gloria McCoy swimming party at Crandon Park.

Officers Elected

In Mrs. Mason's seventh grade, officers were chosen by their classmates Tuesday afternoon at a class meeting. Rick Smith, was chosen president; Shirley Horne, vice-president; Joanne Fossey, secretary; Shirley Deaver, treasurer; sergeant-at-arms, Hank Vancer; reporter, Pat Eldredge; monitor, Lee Jackson, Janice Mayo, and Nancy Knight.

Seventh grade students in Mrs. Schwarzenbek's homeroom elected Carol Benefield, president, Marvin Evans, vice-president, Kendall Jackson, secretary, Lew Schlegel, treasurer, Betty Martin, program chairman, Frank Bowman and Carolyn Baker, reporters, and Oris Glisson, chaplain.

Nation's First Hospital Honors War Workers

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—The Pennsylvania Hospital, founded in 1761 by Benjamin Franklin, has cared for the sick and wounded of every major war in which the United States has engaged, beginning in the pre-Revolutionary period with combatants in the French and Indian War.

The nation's first hospital now has honored its members who served overseas during World War II the 36th Station Hospital. Another plaque was placed on the wall beside similar ones representing every other major war in our history.

College Girls Agree Unanimously Men Need Some Pushing

NORMAN, Okla. (UP)—A campus survey shows University of Oklahoma co-eds agree almost unanimously that the days when a man could pursue his lady love without any help from her are over—if they ever existed.

As Mary Limber, a psychology senior, put it, "For every man there's a woman and it's the job of the woman to find her man."

But the co-eds insist that chasing a man has to be a subtle job to succeed.

For instance, June Parrack, who believes a girl must do three fourths of the work in courtship, said, "The boy likes to feel he is doing all the pursuing, so the girl must make him feel it was his idea."

It's a Habit

GLOVERSVILLE, N.Y. (UP)—Robert Silvers was brought before Justice of the Peace Edward Wurz, who fined him for speeding. Twenty minutes later, Silvers was back in Wurz's court. He paid a second fine for driving too fast.

Ponce Coach Issue Faced by Trustees

PAGE EIGHT THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 1949

By DON CUDDY Sports Editor
For all the skullduggery and gnashing of teeth ament the fouled-up boxing situation in Florida it's interesting to note that the Sunshine State ranks rather highly as a place where men may square off for cash, glory and lumps.

Florida is Sixth-Ranking Boxing State
New York is the capital of boxing. Pennsylvania and Illinois swap off as runnerups and then comes California and Massachusetts. After those four worthies it's tough to pick a commonwealth where the manly art is more popular than Florida—and boxing in this state revolves right around where we sit in Coral Gables with the best indoor arena available.

Sport Hangs By Skin of Feeble Teeth
Yet boxing at times seems to be literally hanging by the skin of the very feeble teeth of state supervision. One of Governor Fuller Warren's campaign promises was favorable to rewriting the fight code so it would make some sense.

Gables Favors Municipal Regulation
Some factions want a state commission but Coral Gables has gone along with its state Federation of Municipal Boxing Commissions in advocating that power to regulate the game be vested in cities where fights take place.

For those of you who just came in here's the current set-up: Boxing exists by virtue of an amendment to a law that made the sport illegal. The amendment makes boxing possible where auspices are granted to an organization (usually a veterans' group), which generally is accepted as a chance for the American Legion, etc., to get a slice of the gate receipts.

City Fight Commission's Legality in Doubt
Organizations are naturally willing to accept the cash but have proven themselves incompetent toward their "responsibilities". So in seven of our cities the fathers have taken a hand. Actually, every time a city-appointed commission passes a ruling on fights they're off base. The promoters, sponsors and everyone else connected with the game realizes this and could win a court battle for an injunction against municipally-blessed orders.

Promoter's Ticklish Spot Wrecks Confidence
But there's a saying among boxing folks that once that battle is won, the war is lost—because to cover-up the unconstitutional amendment mentioned above Florida would have to bar the sport again.

The only solution seems to be a state secretary for boxing with deputy commissions in each effected city.

Boxing is not dead, as some are prone to claim. Outside of the World's Series and Army-Navy game is there an event more publicized than a championship fight? But it needs some shoring up here to restore confidence.

Premature Publicity Is Scored

The muddled waters of the Ponce de Leon coaching situation may clear a little tonight when the school board of trustees meet to act on Principal Harry N. Rahn's recommendation for teachers' contracts.

One extra matter that may come under fire, according to school board officials, is the release of "premature" publicity on appointments to teaching and coaching positions before the trustees have taken action.

Rahn explained this morning he does not expect a reversal on his recommendation of Joe Krutulis as football coach and Johnny Noppenberg, who relinquished the reins of Cavalier football after last season, as athletic director.

He added that one additional appointment of a combination assistant football coach, baseball coach and sociology instructor may be made to complete the picture.

His statement implied that Clarence Dreppard, who has taken over the Cavalier baseball squad since Krutulis began spring football drills, will not coach the Ponce nine again next year but will continue to mentor the basketball squad.

The action of the trustees expected tonight will not be final until reviewed by the school board of public instruction, which has its next scheduled meeting April 6.

3 Teams Join Youth Center Softball Loop

Three teams have already made definite bids to enter the Coral Gables Youth Center Men's Softball league and a full complement of eight is expected before the organizational meeting set for April 8, Director Bill Wilcox said today. Ware Laboratories, Aircraft Service Corporation and First Christian Church is the trio set to start the double round-robin schedule on April 18. Several of the teams from last year are expected to claim their berths before the end of this week.

Reconditioning of the Youth Center field with mud fill over the rock base is expected to get underway early next week in order to be ready for play on the inaugural night. Four doubleheaders will be scheduled each week, once play starts.

Beachcomber Tries Hot Box In Comeback

Paul Sutherland's famous racer, Beachcomber, will return to action at West Flagler Kennel club after a lengthy layoff. He will test his flying racing legs against the Hot Box pack in the feature ninth race.

Beachcomber, prior to his layoff, made several daring bids to rack up win No. 66, but each time was nose out at the wire in sensational finishes. The brilliant canine will try the feat again tonight, running against seven of the top greyhounds on the West Flagler oval.

This assignment will be no easy one for Beachcomber. Southern Harmony's early speed is expected to be troublesome to the Sutherland racer, while My Lucky Lad, one of the Flagler tracks' top-notch stretch runners may be tough to whip when the sownow comes on the home stretch.

More than 280,000 Americans were killed in action during World War II. During the same period, 607,000 persons died of cancer in the United States.

'Flip' Rosen May Replace Gordon for Tribe; Braves Find Batting Eye, Nip Cards, 12-11; Giants to Remain in Phoenix Four Years

By United Press
TUCSON—Second baseman Joe Gordon of the champion Cleveland Indians began a "short vacation" today in order to strengthen his throwing arm which X-rays revealed to be weak and strained.

Either Al (Flip) Rosen or Roberto Avila will be at second base for the Indians today when they meet the Chicago White Sox here.

Team physicians ordered the rest for Gordon and informed manager Lou Bourreau the veteran second baseman would be out of action for some time. Gordon is believed to have developed the arm trouble during recent exhibition games.

The Indians notched their 11th victory in 18 games yesterday when they tamed the White Sox, 8 to 4, as Mike Garcia and Gene Bearden limited the Chicagoans to nine hits.

ST. PETERSBURG — Making their final Florida appearance of the spring, the Philadelphia Phillies today were scheduled to meet the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Phils, who break camp after today's game, scored a 7 to 4 victory over the Washington Senators yesterday. Bill Nicholson, with a two-run homer, and Willie (Puddin'head) Jones, with three hits, led the Phils at the plate.

Novak Joins Hurricanes For Opener

Three Hurricane football players are expected to bolster U-M baseball hitting and pitching departments, Coach Eddie Dunn said today as he prepares to open his compact 20-game collegiate schedule against Florida Southern on the Main Campus diamond at 3 p.m. tomorrow. The teams are also slated for a game at the same time on Saturday.

Andy Novak, fleet outfielder who has been a varsity regular for three years, will be in the garden for the first time this season tomorrow against the Dreadnoughts. Probably pitcher Ralph Fieger and Catcher Al Carapella will not see action in the Southern series, but Dunn hopes to use both during the season. Carapella will have a tough assignment cracking the backstop corps but his long-ball hitting may win him a spot in the lineup at a different position.

Fieger, a big right-hander, is beginning to find the plate and if he continues to improve will give Dunn another right-hander to work with.

Denny Hambleton, another third-year veteran will open on the mound against Southern tomorrow. He may get some support from southpaw Tony Palo, a sophomore ace, who is expected to be over sore-arm trouble for relief duty.

Bob Caffray Leads U-M Natators In NCAA Meeting

Captain Bob Caffray, Dick Fetterman and Charles Small will represent the University of Miami in the National A.A.U. swimming meet in Daytona Beach starting today and continuing through Saturday.

They will swim as a team in the 300 meter medley relay and each will enter individual races. Caffray will compete in the 220 and 440 yard free style events, Fetterman in the 150 yard hack stroke and Small in the 200 yard breaststroke.

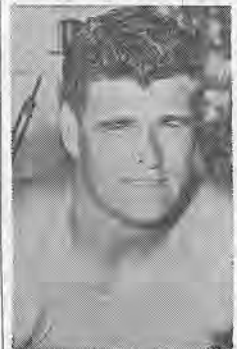

U-M Sends 3 to NCAA Art Saay's Chance Fades To Recapture Boxing Title

Heavyweight Art Saay, the only boxer in University of Miami history to win a national title, probably will not get a chance to recapture the NCAA crown he lost last year, Coach Billy Regan revealed today.

Regan said he will take three members of the Hurricane squad, Carl Bernardo, Captain Art Davis and Saul Cantor, to this year's tournament at East Lansing, Michigan, April 6-9, but that, because of Saay's record of three wins against five defeats the ex-champ probably will not be considered for the tournament.

Bernardo stands a good chance of annexing the crown in the 175-pound division, after losing only two fights in as many campaigns, registering eight wins and two draws this year, and capturing the Southern championship.

Regan also set his lineup today for the Catholic University meet at the Coliseum tomorrow night that will close the U-M schedule. The Washington, D. C. team ranks as one of the top college ring aggregations in the country and holds a victory over Syracuse,

ART SAEY... title repeat hopes fade which conquered Miami in December. Mickey Demos will represent the U-M in the 125-pound division; Saul Cantor fights at 130-pounds; Andy Spano, Jim Bernardo; Davis at 145-pounds; Harold Boylston at 155-pounds; Bernardo at 175-pounds; and Saay in the heavyweight division.

Cavs Tighten Leaky Infield For Beach Tilt

The Ponce de Leon baseball team will attempt to climb back into the win column at the expense of Miami Beach when they tangle with the Typhoons on the Cavalier diamond tomorrow at 3.

Coach Dreppard has been prepping his lads on the art of turning ground-balls into outs in an effort to tighten the leaky Cav infield which booted Bud Fisher's one-hit stint at Lake Worth Tuesday, 3-2.

In their last outing the Typhoons were handed a one run defeat by Miami High, the Stings coming from behind to gain the edge.

Fisher will be Dreppard's choice to do the tossing for the Cavaliers, with captain Bernie Barnett behind the plate.

Softball Opens

Last major sport on the sport slate, softball, opens today at the Main campus field. Over 50 organizations have entered the round-robin meet which ends with the U-M playoffs in May. J. M. Kelsey, intramural director, has arranged the conference into seven loops with each team playing seven games

SAM Beats AEPi For U-M Volleyball Championship

In the tightest and best-played match of the year, Sigma Alpha Mu fraternity defeated AEPi, 15-13, 9-15, 15-10, to win the 1949 intramural volleyball championships at the University of Miami.

The contest was run off before a full-house at the Main campus athletic field.

AEPi got some consolation when their team won the B' division volleyball title, whipping Sigma Chi in a play-off contest, 15-7, 15-8. The two clubs deadlocked at the end of the season with seven wins and one loss apiece and the extra game was called.

Riviera Finishes Second to Shores In Club Tourney

Riviera Women's Golf Association's first team defeated Biltmore WGA 21 to 14½ yesterday as hosts to the final round of the Miami Herald inter-club trophy championship but Miami Shores walked off with the cup with a total of 27½ points for the three-day handicap tourney.

The Miami Shores players also captured Class Two and Three plaques with 35 and 13 points in each division. Biltmore defeated Riviera 11 to 10 to become runners-up in Class Two with 15 points to Riviera's 13, and Riviera's eight points in Class Three was unchallenged for second place since the Biltmore did not field a team.

Members of the Riviera "first" team were Mrs. C. A. Harting, Mrs. S. B. Gibbs, Mrs. Joseph Popez, Mrs. T. J. Cook, Miss Catherine Clarke, Mrs. C. Murray Stoddard and Mrs. Frank A. Slack.

In regular Ladies' Day play at the Riviera yesterday, Mrs. L. J. Griffin won the nine hole tournament (one-half handicap) with a 60-21½—38½ and Mrs. C. H. McDevitt won the nine holes low net play with 61-24—37. Prize for nearest the pin on No. 9 was won by Mrs. S. B. Gibbs at 12 feet. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. D. H. Reynolds and Mrs. Edgar Thompson.
