Rita, Late, Gives Aly Jitters; 'Illicit Union', Says Vatican

VALLAURIS, France, May 27. (UP)—Rita Hayworth was late and Prince Aly Khan fumbled the ring at their marriage today before millionaires and peasants packed into Vallauris town hall.

The onetime dancing girl from Brooklyn and the millionaire prince said "oui" to a Communist mayor and slipped gold rings on each other's fingers in a five-minute ceremony that climaxed a two-hemisphere romance.

The screen actress bride was radiant in an ice-blue, nearly ankle-length afternoon gown that its designer, Jacques Fath, said cost about $1,000. She arrived eight minutes late in a gray Cadillac convertible behind a police escort of a jeep and two motorcycles.

Aly, who one day will succeed his father, the Aga Khan, as spiritual ruler of 12,000,000 Ismaeli Moslems, had been waiting with increasing nervousness for 10 minutes. The ceremony began immediately.

For a breathless instant, Aly's fingers trembled as he tried to

'ILLICIT UNION'

ROME, May 27. (UP)—Movie actress Rita Hayworth's marriage to Indian Prince Aly Kahn is "an illicit union in the eyes of the Roman Catholic Church," a high Vatican source said today.

slip a slim gold band on Rita's finger. But he recovered quickly and the double ring ceremony proceeded without another flaw.

"... We pronounce, in the name of the law, that you are united in marriage," Communist Mayor Paul Derigon, a railway worker by trade, said.

Then Rita and Aly locked lips in the first kiss of their married life. It was a scene that would have done credit to Hollywood.

Forty-odd guests of the couple rushed forward to claim the traditional kiss from the bride.

Reds Clamp Blockade On Berlin Rails

BERLIN, May 27. (UP)—The Russians reimposed a total rail blockade on Berlin today, two weeks after the year-long isolation of the city by land had been ended by Four Power agreement.

Soviet authorities announced that "for the time being" they would be unable to handle trains from Western Germany to Berlin on the Helmstedt Line, the only direct railway across the Russian zone from the west.

The new squeeze on Berlin stemmed from a strike of rail workers in West Berlin, now rounding out its first week.

The Soviet-controlled railway administration pulled switchmen and other workers off duty in West Berlin Tuesday in an effort to break the strike of 16,000 non-Communist workers demanding payment in West marks instead of Russian backed currency.

The new Soviet move tied up passengers, military, mail and freight trains between Helmstedt and Berlin. But the Russians allowed some American and British passenger trains through yesterday after the Western Powers had protested that one of them lacked foodstuffs and drinking water.

Five trains proceeded at snail's pace into Berlin yesterday through switch blocks from which Soviet strikebreakers had been pulled earlier.

They were four American and British passenger and mail trains with 140 persons aboard and a German freight train which spent 79 hours on the tracks from Helmstedt.

5,000 CHINESE PRISONERS FACE RED ARMY SERVICE

SHANGHAI, May 27 (UP) — Thousands of Chinese nationalist army prisoners marched in ragged file through the streets today, symbol of the collapse of Nationalist resistance in Shanghai.

Well-disciplined Communist troops were in control of all the city. Their prisoners, marching along just behind the recent "last ditch" bridge line from the northern districts, were believed en route to indoctrination centers where they probably will be inducted into the Communist army.

The prisoners were estimated to number some 5,000.

Eisler Stalks Out of Court A Free Man

LONDON, May 27. (UP) — Britain's Chief Magistrate threw the U.S. extradition case against Gerhart Eisler out of court today, and the stocky Communist agent walked out of the Bow Street Court a free man.

The Chief Magistrate, Sir Lawrence Dunne, held in dismissing the case that the offense for which Eisler was convicted in America could in no way qualify technically as perjury in Britain.

Eisler was convicted in the United States of making false statements in passport application and of contempt of Congress. He jumped bail of $23,500 when he fled as a stowaway aboard the Polish liner Batory.

The extradition proceedings here were based on the allegation that Eisler was a fugitive perjurer. The contention was ruled out, and he was freed.

"In my opinion," Dunne said in dismissing the case, "it is abundantly clear that in no circumstances can that offense for which Mr. Eisler was convicted in America be brought under the technical head of perjury in this country."

Eisler swaggered defiantly from court. Flanked by four policemen to shield him from a howling crowd of Communist sympathizers outside the courtroom, he turned to a reporter and said:

"I hope the United States suffers several more defeats like this one."

HOUSE GETS TAX MEASURE; HASTE URGED

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., May 27 (UP)—The House received an appropriations bill more than $12,000,000 under the Senate measure today and Gov. Fuller Warren told the legislature, in effect, to get to work and complete its business in the next six days.

In a letter addressed to the legislature, Warren said he was opposed to the special "revenue" session demanded by a growing number of legislators and said he hoped the solons would carry out their "constitutional duty."

He reminded the legislators that the constitution requires them to provide revenue to defray state expenses.

Prowler Spotted

Mrs. E. B. Elliott, 161 Sunrise Drive, reported to Gables police today that when she returned home at 9:30 last night her maid informed her that a young man, about six feet tall, had walked to the porch and looked into a shell, where the house key is usually kept, then left. The maid said he wore a white T-shirt and brown pants.

The sale of the Antilla Hotel, 1111 Ponce de Leon Boulevard, the first hostelry built in Coral Gables, to Lee Kay Wilson of Miami was announced today.

The sale was completed yesterday when title to the property was turned over to Wilson by Benjamin Turner, attorney for Ray Brown, the former owner.

Turner said the sale price was $155,000.

The transaction is subject to a 10-year lease on the property held by the Stewart Hotel Corporation, operators of the hotel. The lease has eight more years to run.

GABLES BUS LINE SCHEDULES TWO STOPS IN MIAMI

The Coral Gables interurban busses to Miami will begin, Sunday morning, to make two stops in downtown Miami instead of one, Chester A. Smith, superintendent of transportation announced today.

The busses will follow the same route to Southeast Second Avenue and Fourth Street, then proceed east on Fourth to Southeast Third Avenue, north on Third Avenue to Southeast First Street, where a stop will be made to pick up and discharge passengers. The busses will then travel west on Southeast First Street to the regular terminal at Burdine's, where the second stop will be made.

Gimme Trend Deplored By Smathers

Rep. George Smathers warned members of the Coral Gables Chamber of Commerce last night that group "gimmes" are comprising "an ulcer of selfishness that is eating away at the United States."

The congressman, speaking at the Chamber's annual dinner at the Country Club of Coral Gables, stated that the selfish clamoring of special interest groups for government funds threatens to destroy the very democracy that we have fought so hard to create and preserve.

Smathers, introduced by Toastmaster Dutch Shulenberg as "the future president of the United States", said that our government was in imminent danger" and cited our $251,000,000,000 deficit that causes every man, woman and child in the United States to owe $1,800 of the public debt.

The Congressman said that the nation can be saved only if Congress accepts its responsibility and puts into effect the recommendations of the Hoover Commission and if "we the people limit the demands of ourselves as individuals and as groups upon our government."

Over 280 persons were present to hear Smathers and to see E. D. Rogers take over the helm of the civic organization from James A. Henderson. Entertainment was provided by Jim LeGate and staff entertainers from station WIOD.

2D TRY MADE TO REZONE GROVE SLUMS

The Coconut Grove Slum Clearance Committee today will make a second attempt to obtain sufficient signatures of qualified voters on their petitions to compel the Miami city commission to rezone the Negro section of Coconut Grove.

City Clerk Frank Correll Thursday afternoon informed Mrs. Elizabeth Virrick, chairman of the group, that the petition submitted 10 days ago was short 528 names of the 10,135 necessary to force the city commission to act.

The commission rezoned the Negro section but not according to the wishes of the Slum Clearance Committee.

S. Miami Apartment Fire Endangers Negro Section

A defective oil stove was blamed for a fire that destroyed a two-story frame Negro apartment house in the rear of 720 North Second Road, South Miami, this morning. A Coral Gables fire truck, a Dade County unit and volunteers were called upon for assistance in extinguishing the blaze which endangered the crowded Negro section.

South Miami Police Chief E. W. McKinney blamed delay in reporting the blaze for almost complete destruction of the $5,000 apartment owned by S. E. White, Negro. A grocery store in front of the apartment, owned by White, was also damaged slightly as the flames spread.

McKinney said an oil stove on the ground floor of the apartment house apparently started the fire about 8:30 a.m. and that the fire had spread to the roof by the time firemen arrived, three minutes after being notified.

It took one hour to bring the fire under control with the assistance of volunteers and other units.

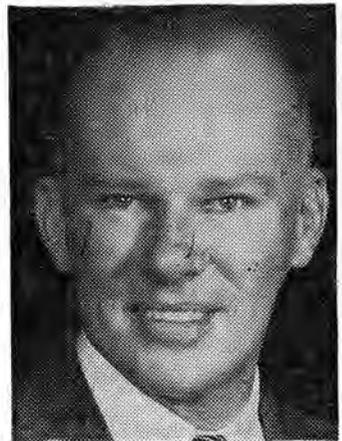

No injuries were reported, several residents of the apartment being able to evacuate in time.

WOMAN BEATEN, POLICE HUNT FOR NEGRO

Coral Gables police, using squad cars and blood hounds, launched a manhunt, shortly before 2 o'clock this afternoon, after a woman was beaten and choked by an unidentified Negro at 6312 Avenue Leonardo.

Five Gables cars, and blood hounds rushed from Miami, were being employed in the search that embraced an area with the Leonardo residence as a focal point.

The address clerk at the telephone company stated that the telephone at that address was listed in the name of Alfred Blumberg.

What They Say About SILENTITE WINDOWS

"SILENTITE Windows in my home were put to the severest test possible. My home was in the direct path of a hurricane . . . and the windows stood up to everything claimed for them. Not a rattle . . . not one pane of glass broken. They have given me the same perfect service year after year."

"In every home I've ever lived in before, the windows fit so loosely that when the wind blew, it sounded like the windows would drop out. At other times, they were so tight you could not open them. With SILENTITE windows we hear no noise and they can be opened at any season of the year by my five-year-old child."

See the new modern SILENTITE Window . . . the new insulated, fully weatherstripped window unit now! Easy to install, no cutting or shaving necessary . . . can be purchased at prices slightly higher than regular double-hung windows. Let us explain SILENTITE'S many advantages to you.

By ARTHUR PEAVY

During 1949-50 Dade county and the various municipalities within its limits will spend close to $1,000,000 publicizing this area in an effort to bring visitors and conventions to the area and to promote industry and good will.

PEAVY

That's a lot of money and is being paid by the taxpayers of the entire community and not by some small group of citizens banded together for the benefit of the public's welfare.

The city of Miami is asking for more than $500,000 in its new budget for publicity; the city of Miami Beach more than $250,000; the county will have a publicity budget of more than $50,000 and even Coral Gables will spend more than $10,000 during the next year to promote good will and tourist travel.

All this adds up to constructive development of the entire Miami area, participated in by all of the taxpayers of the community. It's build-up for the benefit of all.

But what is the use of spending all of this money when every week over the radio and through the Miami newspapers there is a well planned concentrated effort on the part of a small group, which, no matter what their motive, is doing inestimable damage to the community and its future.

This group is known as the Crime Commission of Greater Miami, sponsored and financially supported by a small group of "leading citizens".

Every Saturday night the air waves of the local radio stations are clogged with the report of the commission, reports which consist for the most part of aged FBI records of men who have criminal records (some of them many years ago) who have finally come to the Miami area to make their homes and in some instances engage in legitimate business ventures.

Every Sunday morning the Miami newspapers repeat the radio broadcast, word for word, and hundreds of thousands of these Sunday newspapers are sent out of the county and out of the state, painting the picture of crime, graft and corruption in Dade county.

If such conditions exist in Dade county shouldn't this information be presented to the county, or for that matter federal grand jury? If these men are crooks and gangsters or mobsters shouldn't they be indicted, tried and punished? Trial by radio and newspaper is not the American way.

These radio programs and newspaper stories have a familiar ring to them. It doesn't seem more than a year ago that The Herald featured several pages, with pictures of some of these men and their palatial homes in the Miami area. The current program seems more of a rehash of what The Herald has already printed and given widespread publicity.

Most of the county and municipal budgets are being studied at the present time and these publicity request may be cur-

OUR TOWN

By JIM MOORE

You've met 'em, just as I have. I'm talking about those folks who shudder as another birthday draws near and look upon advancing age as if it were leprosy or something equally as terrible.

Just the other day I heard a fellow in his thirties say, with emphasis, "I don't want any social security. When I get to be 65, I hope somebody shoots me and gets me out of circulation."

But you'll usually find, as the birthdays go by and the thirties become forties and so on, that that period we call "old age" keeps advancing too. And then the "shoot me when I'm 65" expression gives way to something like "you're just as young as you feel."

JIM MOORE

Know what I mean?

However, I think that there is a lot to that "just as young as you feel" business. In fact, I think I have some walking, talking proof of it. From time to time, on this page, you've enjoyed the whimsical verses of John L. Beers. I've had readers tell me that, while they've never met the gentleman, that they feel like they know him because of his verse.

Tomorrow, Mr. Beers will chalk off his 85th birthday and the twinkle in his eye is just as sly and merry today as it was when he was counting his years in the 'teens. True, Mr. Beers has a little leg trouble now and has practically had to give up golf, but aside from that he's sound as a dollar. He drives his own car North every summer and drives it back again in the Fall. He hops about town, keeping up his interest in things and people and recording his observations in rhyme.

How does it feel to be eighty-five? Mr. Beers has put those feeling into verse, too. So today, as the readers of this page join me in wishing "Happy Birthday" to a grand guy, we'll turn the rostrum over to Mr. Beers and let him speak for himself:

AT EIGHTY-FIVE

At eighty-five the storms of life,
 The trials of this mundane strife,
 Lie mainly in the past;

And here and there along the way
 One's known a sort of special day,
 Or friendship true and fast.

The evils one may well forget,
 Nor waste a thought in vain regret
 O'er scars that may survive,
 For out of memory's ample store
 What good things one may ponder o'er,
 When one is eighty-five.

J. L. BEERS

tailed and progress seriously hampered, should those who approve the budgets take the attitude that it is useless to spend thousands of dollars on five days of the week for promotion only to have it slapped down on Saturday night and Sunday morning.

It is generally conceded among newspaper men that the most efficient board operating in Dade county is the county budget board which approves the budgets of the county commissioners and the school board. These men, who receive no compensation, not even expenses, and wouldn't accept pay if it was offered, are working from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. daily while they are approving the budgets. Now there is a movement to enact a law to toss the Miami water board budget in their laps. That's riding a good horse too hard.

It Says Here

Jim LeGate has a way of putting things that we like. We like, for instance, his comment at the Chamber of Commerce dinner last night. Jim said that he understood that the federal government was going to investigate the city commission because this year's budget was only $20,000 and there will be no hike in taxes. "In these times", quipped Jim, "that's considered un-American" . . . Incidentally, you folks who missed the C of C shindig really missed something. It was the best annual dinner ever staged, and that's no exaggeration . . . Mrs. Danny Amerise made a lot of the men happy last night by giving them a tiny variety of orchid for a boutonniere . . . How come every mceee you ever hear seems to work Earl DeNoon's name into his patter? . . . Here's an odd one. When they started to remove the floral decoration from the tables after the banquet, it was discovered that someone had gone down the line and removed all of the red roses, not touching the other flowers . . . Frank Sessler is planning his shots already for the next Senior-Junior Chamber golf tournament . . . Nomination for one of the keenest wits in town: Mrs. W. Keith Phillips.

Boss Sold Out

NORRIS, Tenn. (UP)—Business was a little too good for Erwin Ettenger, secretary of Norris Properties, Inc., which bought this entire town from the Tennessee Valley Authority and is selling the houses. Ettenger discovered one of his salesmen had sold Ettenger's own house. The salesman explained that "it was on my list, so I sold it."

Gablesgrams

By HELEN REYNOLDS, SOCIETY EDITOR

Old Sol and heavenly fried chicken vied for first place at the Coral Gables Garden club's annual picnic held yesterday at the Country Club of Coral Gables, and Old Sol won. He won so successfully that he had many hatless garden clubbers deserting beautifully appointed tables to seek the shade. And there is no shade at high noon in the country club patio, except that arranged uncertainly by the tall graceful ever-moving coconut palm fronds.

The Garden Club's speakers' table, at which installation took place, was beautifully decorated with spring flowers. At each incoming officer's place was a pottery 'deer' filled with yellow and rose colored zinnias, white candy-tuft, and blue delphinium. Mrs. George C. Simpson presided as outgoing and incoming president, having been elected to succeed herself. With a rose colored frock, she wore a large black straw trimmed on the underside with a bunch of spring flowers.

Mrs. Walter Wiprecht Jr., installed as first vice-president, wore a tan chambray, with a hugh bow of the same material at the right front hip line, and large cartwheel of matching straw. Second vice-president Mrs. Kenneth Goodrich wore a pretty summer pink and white veil, while recording secretary Mrs. Francis Graham was in gray eyelet, and Mrs. O. C. Corbin, the only new officer, who was elected to the office of treasurer, was in pink pique with white eyelet edging on neck and brief sleeves and pockets. Mrs. George Corrigan, first director, was the installing officer. Absent were Mrs. William T. Hilles, re-elected auditor, and Mrs. Leonard C. Olson, re-elected corresponding secretary, both of whom are out of town.

Receiving gardenia corsages were chairmen of committees and directors of the garden club who walked to the speakers table as their names were called to receive the gifts, contained in a hugh garden basket, from Mrs. James Llewellyn. In giving her report, the president praised the work of the garden club, its projects, and especially the work of Mrs. Walter Wiprecht Jr., and Mrs. Francis Graham, chairman and co-chairman of arrangements for the picnic luncheon.

Among guests of members were Miss Pearl Currell of Albany, Georgia, the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Mixson, and Mrs. William Cox, who was the guest of Mrs. William E. Richey. Mrs. Cox, wellknown club woman, is president of the Dade County Federation of Women's Clubs. Wearing a very pretty iris corsage she said, "You know, this corsage was given to me Wednesday night by the Junior Housekeepers when I installed their officers. That day marked my last installation for the year, eleven in all, and three on that day; the Dade County Federation, which had its final quarterly session and installation at noon; the Lions Auxiliary, and the Juniors."

Miss Dundas' Class In Spring Recital

Marking her final piano recital for the season, Miss Hope Dundas presented a group of Gables lads and lassies in a series of solos and duets at the Miami Conservatory last evening.

Pupils of the Gables piano instructor who participated in the recital included Rhoda Ware, Carol Flowers, Sandra Leigh, Eddie Lunsford, Gail Dio Guardi, Judy Weiper, Pat Malcomb, Ivan Judy, Bernard Lyons, Ann Jensen, Cotton Pite, and Linda Lee Garden.

Other "ivory pounders" in last night's show were Judy Nimnicht, Joe Berry, Marianne Singer, Marcia Monroe, Judy Russ, Peter Jardine, Lillian Beck, Jacque West, Nancy Russ, and Jean Williams.

Riviera Times SCORECARD

By DON CUDDY Sports Editor

Sundry complications have delayed Andy Gustafson's forage into the north country for prospective University of Miami students who can play a little football until Monday. The itinerary for the Hurricanes' head coach lists such citadels of gridiron prowess as Youngstown, Ohio (from whence Gus will be delighted to import a facsimile of that town's most famous citizen, Frankie Sinkwich), Washington, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Newark and New York.

Hurricane Coaching Staff Takes Annual Safari

While Andy works the cities, aide Tragedy John Eibner will be snooping around the corn pone belt whilst Eddie Dunn bails out his mining lamps to interview the smaller than usual quota of underground farmers. Walt Kichefski is set to do his persuading around the dairy barns of Wisconsin and the midwest.

It doesn't seem that Orange Bowl sod will get that Hurricane green for some time without quite a few strains of imported brown and know-how.

Fencers, Too, Want U-M Varsity Recognition

About a week ago Scorecard said University students were out to develop their own specialized sports into varsity calibre - mentioning jai alai and water skiing as two examples. Yesterday the fencing enthusiasts let me know that there will soon be a Hurricane rapier team.

Jim Foulis' Son, Dave, Adept at Parry and Thrust

Dave Foulis, son of Biltmore golf pro, Jim, tied for the U-M championship in parry and thrust with Pete Gringas in the annual tournament held earlier this week. Each won six bouts and lost one.

Baseball is Rooting for Pepper Martin

Every Sun Sox fan will be rooting for Manager Pepper Martin tonight when he takes the mound seriously for the first time in 25 years. Most pilots would resign themselves to blaming a shaky mound staff for the predicament but they didn't make Martin in that mould.

Senate OKs Curb on Radio Spot Race Track Results

FCC Probe Seen Aimed At This Area

TALLAHASSEE — The Senate gave final legislative approval today to a petition which asks the Federal Communications Commission to make a thorough investigation of radio station dissemination of horse and dog race results.

Already cleared by the House, it seeks to have the FCC prohibit the use of radio stations to make broadcasts recounting race results immediately after a running. It states that "certain" stations in Miami are making such broadcasts, rendering the recently-enacted anti-bookie wire service bill ineffective.

Ware Pulls Baird Plug, 5-1

Error Costs Air Service's Jimmy Day Perfect Game

An error in the second inning prevented Aircraft Service's Jimmy Day from registering a perfect game in the Youth Center Men's Softball league last night. Second baseman Fred Grave's fumble of Bob Meyers roller allowed the only man on base.

Day faced only 22 Coca Cola hitters, struck out eight and walked none as his mates knocked Gibson in the first inning with eight runs and were not much kinder to reliever Bill Swift, whom they collected 13 runs from in the third inning for a 21 to 0 victory. Day helped his own cause with a pair of timely doubles.

Bill Peacock spaced five Baird Electric hits to give Ware Laboratories a 5 to 1 victory in the nightcap. The winners got two runs in the first on one hit, another in the fifth on a home run by Jack Pierce and two more in the sixth frame. Baird got its only tally when Bill Dillon scored on Steve Owen's triple in the fourth.

Front-running Carl's Liquors is scheduled for a double-header against Gables First Christian in the last night of the first-half slate of the league. The first game starting at 7:30 p.m. is a replay of a Carls forfeit that was not allowed.

Martin Bails Out Pitching Glove for Sox

Venerable Pepper Martin walks in where younger men have been folding—the starting pitcher's post for the Miami Sun Sox—tonight for the first game of a double-header against St. Petersburg.

The 44-year-old manager, more famous as a third baseman and outfielder of the St. Louis Cardinal "Gas House Gang" days, will be taking the mound seriously for the first time in 25 years. He broke into organized baseball as a hurler in the Class D Oklahoma State league and has not been active since 1945.

The Sox need someone to take up the slack in their sloppy mound staff. Theoretically Vincente Lopez is the only rotation-eligible for the second game with St. Pete and Art Seijas may be needed to give both Martin and Lopez relief.

Last night the Sox lost their third-straight to Miami Beach, 8-4, enabling the Flamingos to get into fourth place in the FIL standings. The cross-bay series has dropped Miami from first place to three full games behind Havana and two astern of Tampa.

'LITTLE WEAKNESSES' CAUSING TIGER SLUMP; ROLFE EYES TRADING-HELP FROM YANKS

NEW YORK—Red Rolfe, who got that old championship habit with the New York Yankees, was downcast today over "the little weaknesses" that have shown up as his Detroit Tigers hit a six-game losing skid on their first eastern road trip of the season.

"We lost six tough ball games," he said. "In almost any one of them a hit here or an inning or two of tight relief pitching there would have won it for us. Three of them we lost in extra innings. Another we were ahead, 7 to 0, in Philadelphia and our pitching went haywire and we lost, 15 to 7."

Rolfe said he definitely would like to have second baseman George Stirnweiss of the Yankees, who has been forced out of a regular job by rookie Jerry Coleman.

"Either of the Yankee first basemen, Dick Kryhoski or Jack Phillips would help us, too, but not for what we'd have to give up in exchange to get any one of those three fellows," Rolfe said. He admitted there has been a lot of discussion involving a possible deal with the Yankees, whereby the Tigers could strengthen one or both of their big weak spots, first and second base, but that Yankee manager Casey Stengel "couldn't do it—he couldn't take a chance."

"I'm hoping we can get going a little better when we get back home," he said. "But watch us next time around. I think we'll be tougher then."

Rolfe's soliloquy on the Tigers came after the game with the Yankees was rained out.

The Red Sox came from behind with four runs in the eighth, two on a single by Ted Williams, to defeat the Browns, 7 to 5 as Mel Parnell was knocked out of the box for the first time this year after pitching seven complete games. Tex Hughson, who relieved Parnell, was the victor.

U-M Cagers Play Penn 2 In OB Series

University of Miami and University of Pennsylvania basketball teams will meet in a two game basketball series in the Coral Gables Coliseum Dec. 29 and 30 of this year, Director of Athletics Jack Harding announced Friday. The game will be part of the Orange Bowl festival.

The teams met two years ago in a single game during the Festival, Penn coming from behind to win in the second half 53-46. Last year, Miami and Princeton broke even in a two game series.

When Penn played here two years ago, the game set an attendance record which stood until the first Western Kentucky game last winter.

Harding and Coach Hart Morris are now working on a basketball schedule which they hope will prove even more attractive than the one a year ago when the Hurricanes, winning a majority of their games, broke all of their existing attendance records.

Portis Bomb Favored in Hot Box

Tonight's main diversion at the Biscayne dog track will center upon the ninth event and offers Portis Bomb a chance to score for the Fred Whitehead Kennels. He ran second to Beach Comber Wednesday night when Beachy tied the track record of 28.2 seconds.

Very rugged contention in this affair will make Portis Bomb step the limit. Some Guy, Georgia Pistol, Evasive, Clever Sister, Marcine, Mr. Esquire and Cam Shaft have been selected to step out and they certainly figure to do a lot of stepping.

Merchants Start Day Against FPL

Righthander Tommy Day, a former Ponce de Leon High school ace who was the mainstay of the Coral Gables Merchants in the latter part of last season, will make his first start this year on the hill tomorrow against Florida Power and Light. The game is scheduled to get underway at 3 p.m. at University Field, University Drive at Apricale Street.

The Merchants play a second game Sunday on the same field against Stevens Market of Hialeah. Another former Cavalier, Bob Minnick is ticketed as starting hurler in the Sunday game. Bud Fisher, Ponce's one-man mound staff, will handle relief chores in both games which may also see either first baseman Ray Hamilton or short-stop Angelo Mandis doing some relief chucking.

Two former University of Miami players are expected to give the Merchants added plate power starting with this stand. Chuck Kelly will probably break in at second base and Don Cobb in the outfield.

REDS CLAMP RAIL BLOCKADE

British Court Frees Isler

—Story on Page Two—

View Pat Hall (seated) and Georgia Clancy add to the view of Zuma Beach, Calif., in pair of attractive swim suits. Designed by Cole of California, Pat's two-piece cotton is done in a pretty plaid, with a flattering apron skirt atop the shirred trunks. Georgia wears a one-piece wool challis suit with strapless bodice and shirring at the sides of the trunks.

'What's Up?'

Gravy, a 33-pound cat, tries to appear unconcerned about the brazen fledgling robin, Chuck, perching on his ear at the Greenwich House's first pet show for children. Their young owners are from a New York tenement district.

Gunnery Champs The Navy's Pacific Fleet gunnery champions count their hits in an aerial sleeve target after a practice gunnery mission. Ammunition fired by each pilot is tipped with a different color of paint and when the projectiles pierce the target they leave a trace of color, enabling the pilot to determine his number of hits, or score. These experts, at Alameda, Calif., are (left to right) Lt. (j.g.) James Riggan, Ensign Jack L. Snyder, Comdr. Robert G. Boyd and Lt. Comdr. John Rickabaugh.

Built for Three Louis Richard takes his wife and daughter, Yvonne, 4, for a spin in Southampton, England, on the three-wheel contraption he took 18 months to build from spare parts. The machine has detachable saddle seats that can be used at picnics. Its average speed of 15 m.p.h. will be improved on when Mr. Richard fits it with a one-horsepower motor.

Mourned

Former Defense Secretary James V. Forrestal (left), who committed suicide at Bethesda Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Md., is seen conferring with President Truman in November, 1948, during the President's postelection vacation in Key West, Fla. The President expressed himself as "inexpressibly shocked and grieved" by the tragedy.
