House Okays Vet Pension Bill

Atom Guard Gag Order Is Bared

WASHINGTON, June 1 (UP)—Sen. William F. Knowland, R., Cal., charged today that guards at an important atomic center were ordered not to report security violations by plant officials.

Knowland voiced the accusations as the House-Senate atomic energy committee began investigation of charges that David E. Lilienthal has been guilty of "incredible mismanagement" of the $3,500,000,000 bomb and power project.

Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R., Ia., had just finished accusing the commission under Lilienthal's chairmanship of being unable to get and keep key men. Then Knowland introduced the new charge.

According to the Californian, what he called the master key file at the commission's Argonne laboratory was sometimes "left open and the guards instructed not to write up violations against officials."

It was at the Argonne laboratory near Chicago that the commission last winter lost track of several ounces of Uranium oxide. The commission says that it has since recovered all but one-eighth of an ounce of the atomic explosive which was missing.

Buys Town in Arizona As Vacation Ground

CHICAGO (UP) — Morris J. Goldstein bought a town in Arizona because he wants to repay his "debt to people everywhere."

Goldstein plans to change the town's present name of Bumblebee to Chicago. He's going to use the town site as a low-cost resort for needy fellow Chicagoans.

A onetime resident of an orphan's home, he says he knows what it's like to need a vacation while lacking the money to pay for one.

Teacher Ends Sit-Down Strike To Get Cancer-Treatment Funds

ATLANTA, June 1. (UP)—A middle-aged school teacher who believes she urgently needs treatment for cancer today agreed to call off a 50-hour sitdown strike and quit teaching in Georgia in order to collect retirement pay that will finance a trip to Mayo Clinic.

Dr. Willie Melmoth Bomar, a spry little home economics teacher with impressive degrees and a small income, has been sitting in the office of the Georgia Teacher Retirement System here since 10:30 a.m. Monday.

She had intended to sit right there until she got the money — deducted from her pay checks during the past year — or until she died of cancer of the chest and throat.

HISS JURY TO HEAR U. S. STORY OF PLOT

NEW YORK, June 1. (UP)—A government prosecutor told the jury in the Alger Hiss perjury trial today that the government would prove Hiss and Whittaker Chambers plotted in 1937 for Hiss to "extract" secret documents from the State Department for delivery to a Russian espionage agent.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Thomas F. Murphy said in his opening statement that Chambers would testify he and Hiss met with a Russian agent named "Colonel Bykov" in New York in 1937 and formed the espionage plan.

"Chambers would, under the plan, have someone photograph the documents and would deliver them to Bykov," Murphy said. Murphy said the government would prove the former State Department official and former president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace "lied twice under oath before the grand jury" when he testified he did not give the documents to Chambers and that he did not see or converse with Chambers after January 1, 1937.

STOCKS AT 14-MONTH LOW IN ACTIVE TRADING

NEW YORK, June 1 (UP) — Stock prices dropped around half a billion dollars today, reaching a new low for more than 14 months in the most active session in six weeks.

Today's loss came on the heels of yesterday's break of more than $1,000,000,000, which was the widest drop in prices since last November.

Selling was general early in the session as investors again showed their concern over world labor unrest, the stagnation of the Paris conference of ministers, and the declining industrial production in the United States, with talks of further unemployment.

Bolivia Decrees Mobilization

LA PAZ, Bolivia, June 1. (UP) The Bolivian government decreed general mobilization today to meet the threat of a nationwide revolt which officials said had been scheduled to start with last Saturday's tin mine strikes.

The mobilization alerted all citizens between 19 and 50 to stand by for a call to military service. A government announcement said the Ministry of Defense will call them by categories "in accord with requirements."

State Solons Clear Decks For Taxes

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., June 1 (UP) — House and Senate set a deadline on all other action today in an attempt to untangle their appropriations and revenue legislation in time for adjournment Friday noon.

The Senate voted to cut off introduction of general bills, including revenue measures, after 1 p.m. today and to set a time limit of 1 p.m. tomorrow on consideration of any legislation except measures sent across the capitol from the House.

The House voted to halt all business except revenue measures and messages from the Senate at 12:30 p.m. tomorrow. The action threatened to kill Gov. Fuller Warren's central purchasing plan. It is scheduled for debate at 10:30 a.m. but parliamentary delays can filibuster it to death in the two hours allotted.

The Senate's decision meant the upper chamber was waiting for the House to send it an appropriations measure — cut 10 percent in an across-the-board slash yesterday — and a revenue measure to replace the three per cent sales tax.

An appropriations bill already has been approved by the Senate and Senators were disposed to pass the three per cent sales tax to get all business out of the way by adjournment time.

$72 MONTHLY IS PROVIDED IN MEASURE

WASHINGTON, June 1. (UP) The House today passed a Veterans Pension Bill after amending it to multiply its benefits by about seven-fold.

The measure carried $72 monthly pensions for 65-year-old veterans of World Wars I and II provided they pass a test of need. A second proposed test—that of "unemployability"—was stricken by the House.

Passage of the bill followed two hours of mild debate that contrasted sharply with the days of acrimonious argument that preceded a House vote rejecting an earlier Veterans Pension Bill.

The bill now goes to the Senate, where its fate is doubtful.

The only dispute in the House today was whether or not to include "unemployability" among the tests of eligibility for the pensions provided in the bill.

The veterans committee wrote such a test into the bill after the Veterans Administration said failure to include it would boost the 50-year cost of the measure from $8,693,000,000 to about $65,000,000,000.

Fliers Eat Up the Miles Via Air by Day, Road at Nite

A Coral Gables and a Coconut Grove girl took off from Burlington, Vt., at 7 o'clock this morning in an effort to cop the $2,000 Rib-N-Rite International air race, which started in Montreal, Canada, at dawn, with Miami as a destination. The unique feature of the plane being used by the local girls is that it is a roadable type, and they propose to fly during the daylight hours and taxi along the highways at night.

Gladys Pennington, 2883 MacFarlane Avenue, Coconut Grove and WTTT Commentator Ellen Gilmour, 6750 SW Eighth Street, are entered in the race in an experimental Ercoupe, designed so that the wings can be detached or folded for highway travel. They have named the plane, "Miss Miami."

The girls wired from Burlington this morning, stating that they expected to be refueled by Bill Odum at Teterboro, N. J. at 8 a.m.

Rules for the race restrict contestants from flying after sunset and before sunrise, but say nothing about proceeding on the ground.

Goal is Amelia Earhart Field here, which is also the finish line for the $1,500 Jacqueline Cochran Transcontinental race now in progress from San Diego, Cal.

With a top speed of 60 miles an hour and a cruising speed of 35 on the road, the local girls figure to outdistance rivals by many hours.

Both girls are members of the executive committee of the air show and so believe they will be disqualified from competing for cash prizes and the trophy to be awarded.

"But," said Miss Gilmour, "we expect to have a lot of fun and don't want to be left out of the race."

W.U. Bandit Thwarted in 3rd Holdup

A lone, masked bandit, who on two occasions held up the Coral Gables Western Union office at 222 Alhambra Circle and escaped with a total of $1,108 made an attempt to repeat his previous success last night but was thwarted by the night manager, L. M. Brown.

The bandit, his face masked with a handkerchief, dark glasses and a long-peaked fishing cap, the same disguise he used twice before, approached Brown and a messenger and said "Hand it over!" He was armed.

When the manager refused, the bandit walked behind the counter and started to open a drawer. Brown threw the bottle and hit the grabbed an ink bottle from behind the counter. As he did so, the bandit apparently became frightened and ran towards the door. Brown threw the bottle and hit the bandit on the side of the head, but he succeeded in escaping.

His description was immediately broadcast over the police teletype system.

Brown told police that he was certain that the bandit was the same man who took $480 from him on April 20 and returned again on February 10 to hold him up for $628.

The bandit wore a yellow, sleeveless sweater and khaki pants.

Neighbor Routs Burglar Pair

An alert restaurateur, who investigated a noise in a business place next door, routed two burglars last night who were attempting to break into the Rich Plumbing Company on Dixie Highway.

Tom Jorgenson, operator of the Varsity Grill, next door, heard a window slam and went out of his back door to investigate. As he did so, he saw two men run into the bushes in the rear of the building. Police, who investigated, found the door screen cut and a sliding window in the door, dropped. They theorized that the noise of the dropping window scared the burglars and alerted Jorgenson.

THIEVES RANSACK AUTO, MAKE OFF WITH BIBLE

Police were pondering today over what type of a thief ransacked the car of D. J. Bollenger, 4130 SW Eighth Street, near the Gables Theater last night.

Bollenger reported that the car pilferer had broken into his car and stolen a black covered Bible.

South Miami Disposal Seen Critical

The garbage disposal situation at South Miami, "has reached a critical condition" Fred Stutz, director of the county waste division, reported to the county commission today.

Stutz's statement was made when he appealed to the commissioners for an appropriation of $18,000 with which to establish a new garbage disposal dump on the highway between South Miami and Homestead.

The director did not amplify his statement regarding the South Miami situation but added that the growers in the southern section of the county were disposing of cull fruits and vegetables along the highways and in open fields because the three rock pits operated by the county had reached their capacity.

Little hope was held out by the commissioners that such an expenditure could be included in the county budget which, they said, was not a county budget item but one which must be self liquidated by fees.

Stutz was advised to discuss the matter of patronage with officials of South Miami and Homestead and the growers to determine the amount of revenue which could be expected from patrons to justify the service.

Symposium Set By Hillel Here

The Hillel Advisory Council of B'nai B'rith will sponsor a Hillel Symposium night at their next regular meeting, Thursday, June 9th, 8:15 p.m. at Hillel Foundation, 3306 Ponce de Leon Boulevard.

Council president Walter C. Kovner has invited Miami Beach Lodge and chapter representatives to participate in the symposium which will feature Dr. Donald Michelson, Hillel director, as moderator.

Featured in the evening's program will be brief talks by college students who will describe their student programs to B'nai B'rith leaders and will tell of the cultural and social aspects of Hillel Foundations on more than 190 college campuses throughout the United States, Canada and Cuba.

MAY BUILDING HITS MARK OF $683,709

Building permits in Coral Gables for 1949 reached a total of $2,745,966 today as Building Inspector C. B. Strange announced that the construction total for May was $683,709.

While the May total was higher than the same month in 1948 when $456,951 was reported, the yearly total was running behind that for the same period last year, which equalled $3,540,641.

Included in the month's permits were 17 residences at $264,500; four stores (28 units), $130,000; one apartment (16 units), $134,000; one residential garage, $1,300; three duplexes, $61,000; one church, $35,000; one service station, $20,000; six additions, $9,100 and 41 miscellaneous permits, $28,809.

Winding up permits issued during May yesterday afternoon were three to Weido Homes Inc. for two $8,500 homes and one $7,500 residence to be constructed at 17, 23 and 29 Avenue Santander. They were designed by Edward T. Rempe, Jr.

A permit was also issued yesterday to L. C. Semes for a $10,000 residence at 919 Granada Groves Court. LeRoy K. Albert is the architect and J. E. Shaw the builder.

Leading off the June permits today is one for a $17,000 home issued to Stanley P. Fosgate for construction at 4209 San Amaro Drive. Thomas J. Kelly drew the plans.

Eugene W. Pasch was issued a permit for a $16,500 residence at 1405 Avenue Alegriano. Curtis E. Haley is the architect.

Barrett Funeral Set for Tomorrow

Funeral services for Robert Barrett, Coral Gables YMCA secretary who died of a heart attack yesterday morning, will be held at 10:30 Thursday morning at the Coral Gables Methodist Church, under the direction of the Gautier Funeral Home.

Following the rites, the body of the 31-year-old youth director will be sent to Lunenburg, Mass. for burial.

Gables Rent Decontrol Is Okayed

County OKs Water Firm Pump Station

The Consumers Water Company of Coral Gables today was granted permission by the county commissioners to erect a water pumping station at South Waterway Drive and Southwest 69th Avenue to improve the water service in that area.

The property is zoned for one-family homes and the water company asked that it be rezoned for industrial purposes. The county zoning board denied the request but recommended to the county commissioners that the special permit be issued for the pumping station.

The commission also granted a request of J. Wood and Ellen Hinckley to change zoning classifications on the south side of Bird Drive between SW 95 and 96 Avenues from two-family residences to special business.

Student's Foot Injured by Auto

A University of Miami student suffered an injured foot yesterday when a car backed over it on the main campus.

Treated at the University infirmary was Warren M. Barrington, 1208C Dickinson Drive. Erwin Charles Koff, 1213B Walsh Avenue, told police he was backing from a parking lot when he hit the other student's foot.

In another accident, two cars were damaged in a collision at Salzedo Street and Avenue Candia. Drivers of the cars were listed as B. C. Ruff, Hollywood, Fla. and E. G. Dorsey, 1541 NW 67th Street.

Governor Fuller Warren has signed the Coral Gables rent de-control resolution and forwarded it to the National Housing Administrator in Washington, automatically effecting de-control of this community, it was announced at city hall today.

The announcement was contained in a telegram, received by City

The official announcement of the signing of the de-control resolution was made to the Riviera-Times by young Jim Hartnett, son of the city commissioner, who is serving in the capacity of city manager as the Ponce de Leon High School Wheel Club takes over municipal offices for a day.

Commissioner Fred B. Hartnett from Dorothy McMasters, secretary to the governor.

Under the provisions of the federal law, signing of the resolution by the governor and forwarding it to Washington is the final step necessary to de-control Coral Gables.

The resolution was passed by the city commission after a public hearing, required by law.

The first copy of the resolution, sent to Tallahassee on May 9, was lost in the capital, necessitating the airmailing of a second copy last week.

Miss McMasters stated in her telegram that a copy of the transmittal letter was sent to City Clerk Edwin B. Poorman yesterday.

Plat Okayed

The county commissioners today approved the plat of Cammer Manor, second addition subdivision located between SW 18th and 20th Streets and 63rd and 64th Avenues. The property, located in West Miami, is being developed by the Stewart-Page Company.

Wheel Clubbers Take Over Gables, Give Department Heads the Day Off

Regular city officials got a "day off" today as youthful counterparts from the Ponce de Leon High School Wheel Club moved in and took over every office from mayor to superintendent of wastes.

Following a briefing from regular officials in the commission chamber at 10 a.m., the students went to their various departments, where for a day they had a hand in running their city government.

Wielding the gavel as mayor was John Leonardy, assisted by commissioners Don Ray, Peter Ray, Lewis Gresham and Peter Reiner.

Jim Hartnett took over as city manager while John Poorman moved in on his dad's job as city clerk.

Other "officials for a day" included Ronald Cordes, city attorney; Paul Parks, special bond attorney; Edward Brigham, municipal judge; Sergio Chavez, director of finance; Frank Little, tax collector.

Dudley Clarke, electrical inspector; Bill Merriam Jr., superintendent of recreation; Randy Malone, superintendent of parks; Lawrence Grimes, superintendent of waste; William Setz, garage superintendent; Buddy Hiers, purchasing agent; William Hill, pro-manager of Granada Golf course; David Murphy, pro-manager of Biltmore Golf course.

Charlton Cooke, Venetian Pool manager; John Isaac, Salvatore Park manager; John Alderson, zoning board chairman and James Fader, planning board chairman.

OUR TOWN

By AL HARUM

It's fun being scientific about food. Especially when you're a guest and there's no one around to issue an ultimatum about how many calories you may consume. Like my host, for instance. He counted his calories on the fingers of both hands. I had to wait until I got back to the office to use the adding machine.

AL HARUM

I'm full. But they tell me I'm full of things which are good for me, like minerals and vitamins and such. And they tell me I'm NOT full of things which are bad for me, like mustard pots, pepper boxes, curries, vinegar, coffee, wine, beer and meats. Yep, they fooled me. I thought I was eating breaded veal cutlet but it turned out to be glucose of flour, called protose.

Yep, I'm full—but everything looked so good and my host held on to the calorie table so that my appetite wouldn't be dimmed. Now that I have had the session with the adding machine I should either blush with shame for having consumed 993 calories of pretty food (and that doesn't include the stuffed tomato which looked like a newly plucked rose) or I should be sorry for my host whose caloric allowance I at least quadrupled.

But I'm full—and I don't care. Maybe one of these days I'll go over to the Miami Battle Creek and start shedding my paunch. My host says you can do just that and eat all you want—of the right things. Instead of looking at the right hand side of the menu for the prices you just look there for the calories.

Here's what I had, in case you're interested: tomato juice, cream of corn, relishes, one lovely (like a rose) stuffed tomato, roasted protose and potatoes with savita brown sauce, baked summer squash, buttered lima beans, cabbage and celery salad, postum and cream.

And here are the cold figures, a scientific analysis of the above: 140 calories of protein, 531 calories of fat, 332 calories of carbohydrate for a total of 993 calories; 31 units of calcium, 28 units of phosphorus, and 81 units of iron; 5,455 units of Vitamin A (Carotene), 298 units of Vitamin B (Thiamin), 1,449 units of Vitamin C (Ascorbic Acid) and 400 units of Vitamin G (Riboflavin).

So do you wonder I'm full!

World of Books

If the characters in a novel become convincing and believable, as they do in Pearl Buck's new work, Kinfolk (John Day, $3.50) the reader cannot ask too much more. The problems raised and the solutions found may not satisfy all logic, artistic demands or intellectual analysis, but the over-all effect is one of warmth and reality.

Dr. Liang Wen Hua and his family are the folk of Miss Buck's story. Dr. Liang is a Chinese intellectual, famed scholar and lecturer, calligrapher, teacher, poet and author in New York. His home and stability, his "creature comfort" depend entirely on his sturdy wife, who likes to scratch her scalp and clean her ears with a golden pin. His son James is a doctor. Daughter Mary is a plain, extremely earnest, honest and intelligent young woman. Son Peter is a fiery young boy, more "American" than Chinese. Youngest child Louise is a spoiled, lazy, comfort loving, beautiful girl, completely attached to American life and material facilities.

Given this family, Miss Buck proceeds to stir them up in a whirl of emotional crises. Tragedy resolves some of the individual problems. The greatest struggle, however, turns out to be that of James and Mary in China, seeking to get down in their Chinese roots and to live honestly among the peasants of their ancestral village.

In this May Book-of-the-Month Club selection Miss Buck has succeeded very well in creating a flesh and blood group. One of the most interesting end results is the sharply pointed question, what is an American, and what does it mean to be "American"?

It Says Here

Fire Captain "Top" Hardin was really galvanized into action the other day when he climbed into a city car and was about to start the motor when he saw a snake crawling into the window beside him... "Top" was out of that car quicker'n you can say "Smoke eater"... The Riviera-Times got its hand in on the municipal budget yesterday. When the mimeographing had been completed they were rushed to this office for stitching... Ray Westcott is sporting a pair of those new Nylon slacks... "Uncle" Dan Boone was having trouble with the air conditioning plant in his theater this week-end. He reports that it's functioning okay again... That was quite a little storm we had last night, wasn't it?

REMINISCING

By TRACY HOLLINGSWORTH

We were sitting in Sam Bailey's Boot Shop, in the Loraine Arcade, talking old times—Bill Urmey, of the Urmey Hotel, Sam and myself, when Bill remarked he had recently seen a friend of former years, and it was Jimmy Gilman, one time head of the former Bank of Bay Biscayne; which reminded him of a funny incident.

Hollingsworth

One summer Urmey made his plans to hie himself away to North Carolina, as usual, and in the rush of packing, picked up a check book from the hotel desk, and put into his suit case.

When he reached North Carolina, he began to write checks as when necessary—but he never once noticed the checks were on the Bank of Bay Biscayne, as he did not carry an account in that institution, being a director in the First National Bank of Miami.

Upon his return from the mountains in the fall, he received a call from Jimmy Gilman.

"Bill", said Jimmy, "Don't you think you had better come over here and get your account straightened out?"

"What account?" asked Bill. But he went to the bank wondering what it was all about.

Gilman calmly produced some $1,600 in checks signed by Urmey, who of course gave him a check on the First National. Then thanked him for not turning down any of the checks, after explaining his error. Of course Gilman realized the error when the checks began to arrive, but knowing Urmey was good for any check he might write on his own bank, he didn't want to embarrass an old friend.

"But them days are gone forever", Sam Bailey calmly remarked. And we three were then in agreement.

UP AND DOWN BROADWAY

By JACK GAVER
 United Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK (UP)—Now that he is playing the role of a detective in "Detective Story" at the Hudson Theater, Ralph Bellamy finds taht he is never off duty.

He was riding along Park Avenue in a taxicab the other night when two automobiles collided at an intersection. Bellamy had his driver stop and got out and ran to the scene. About the same time a prowler car arrived and the policemen in it recognized the actor, who has been visited backstage by scores of the police department since the play opened.

"Bellamy, call an ambulance and a wrecking car immediately," one of the cops said. The star ran into the Princeton Club on the corner and carried out the order.

Betty and Jane Kean, sisters who never before had appeared in the same Broadway show, this week took over leading roles in the revue, "Along Fifth Avenue." They replaced Nancy Walker, comedienne, and Carol Bruce, the singer.

The Kean girls are versatile players, being equally adept with a song or any sort of comedy. A few seasons back they established some sort of a record when Jane was featured in the New York company of "Call Me Mister" and Betty had the same role in the Chicago company.

The Scandinavian rights to "Mister Roberts" have been sold to Leland Hayward, the producer, to Albert Bonniers of Stockholm. Bonniers plans an immediate production of the Thomas Heggen-Joshua Logan play in Sweden.

Phyllis Kirk, who was seen here last winter in "My Name Is Aquilon," has been signed to a long-term film contract by Samuel Goldwyn. Right now she is in a touring company of Noel Coward's "Present Laughter," but she will leave that about June 15 to go to Hollywood and her first movie job in Goldwyn's production of "Beloved Over All."

Milton Berle, the television whiz who, oddly enough, never seemed to click in the movies, is going to have another try at Hollywood this summer. Warners will star him in "Always Leave Them Laughing," which sounds like type-casting because that is what Berle usually does.

The advent of warm weather, sending people to the country on week-ends, has caused two of the few Broadway shows that give Sunday performances to drop them in favor of Monday evening and mid-week matinee shows. The step was taken by "High Button Shoes" and "Born Yesterday."

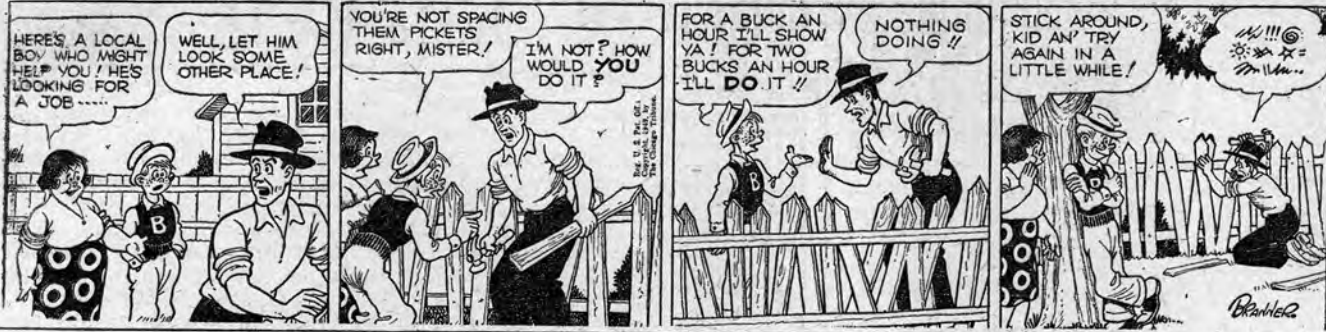

In addition "High Button Shoes" is lowering its price scale to a $3 top, exclusive of tax, for all performances.

IN OUR MAIL

Editor, Riviera-Times:
 Wish to thank you for your very gracious and flattering announcement of my eighty-fifth birthday anniversary. It brought forth a number of phone calls from friends and added much to the pleasure of the day. The same is true of the rhythmic lines of my unknown friend "Quertyuiop". May I assume that the charming Miss Angelina Blatz endorsed Mr. "Q's" sentiments?
 Yours truly,

CUTLERS FISH, LET BIG ONE GO

Intentionally letting a 140 pound tarpon get away wasn't easy, but Mrs. P. W. Cutler vows that she had to do just that last week.

Knowing that that particular over-grown fishie would be too large to have mounted in her home, the South Miamian settled for pulling in a 55 pound tarpon which does occupy a space in her living room now.

With her husband, Mrs. Cutler spent last week vacationing and fishing on Sanibel Island, located along the West Coast.

"Fishing there was wonderful," she enthusiastically exclaimed, adding that, in addition to her tarpon catches, her husband landed a 79 pound tarpon.

As a result of their good luck, the Cutlers, who reside at 121 Sunset Drive, plan to spend many more of their leisure hours at Sanibel.

Buy New Duplex

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thebault have recently purchased the duplex at 2615 Cardena Street, having moved here from Chicago, Illinois. The newcomers have three daughters, Collette, Charlene, and Carol.

Saunders' Arriving For Gables Visit

Arriving tomorrow from Lincoln, Nebraska will be Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Saunders and children, Sandra, Suzanne, and Tommy, and Mrs. Saunders' sister, Mrs. Marcella Carveth.

For the next two and a half weeks they will be the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Wiley, 1421 Douglas Road. While here, they will also visit in the home of Mr. Wiley's mother, Mrs. James E. Wiley Jr. of Greater Miami.

This will be the first visit to South Florida for the Saunders hosts, and, according to their hosts, quite a bit of sightseeing is in store for them.

Mrs. Spencer To New York

Mrs. Kay Spencer left recently for Staten Island, New York, where she will spend the summer visiting friends.

She makes her winter home at 4344 S.W. 13th Street with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Romney Spencer.

From New York

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Seigel have moved into the Gables area from New York City. They now reside at 3781 S.W. 26th Terrace.

Coral Gables Music Club Plans 35 Spectacular Booths for Fiesta

Elaborate plans are being made by members of the Coral Gables Music Club for assisting at the fiesta Saturday afternoon, when Miss Bertha Foster opens the beautiful new Musicians' Club of America for the inspection of the public.

The local club, under the chairmanship of Mrs. William D. Fuller, will have charge of 35 tables and booths containing good things to eat, flower arrangements, and antiques for sale.

The hours for the party, when guests may stroll about the six acre estate lush with tropical shrubs and old Spanish type buildings, are from four until nine o'clock.

A hearty sandwich supper may be had at the sandwich booth, which will be manned by Mrs. C. H. Neill, Committee women assisting her will be Mrs. Alice W. Thompson, Mrs. Jess M. Waynick, and Mrs. Louis Robert Nelson. Mr. Hill, of Tanners Grocery in Coral Gables, has donated a ham which will be baked by Mrs. Neill for this booth. Other hams will also be home baked and made into delicious sandwiches.

Mrs. Fred Grinham, chairman of the cakes, cookies and candy booth, will have as her assistants Mrs. C. T. McCreedy, Mrs. Earl DeNoon, Mrs. Mattie L. Buckner, and Mrs. Alfred E. Betts.

In charge of punch and good old fashioned ice tea will be Mrs. Andrew N. Houston, who will have as her assistants Mrs. W. G. Friedemann, Mrs. Phil J. Lawrence, and Mrs. William H. Ratterman.

Mrs. Clyde Higgins will have the gift booth and will be assisted in gathering gifts for this table by Miss Frances Scarbrough, Miss Lillian Braden, Mrs. Joseph Lee Logan, Mrs. R. Reynolds Clark, and Mrs. R. J. O'Steen.

Flower Booth

One of the most interesting booths on Mrs. Fuller's list of 35 entries, is the flower booth which, strange as it may seem, will be manned by four members who are Garden Club, not Music Club, members. The other three committee women in charge of the booth are members of both the garden and music clubs including the chairman, Mrs. George H. Dacy. In addition to her, flower booth workers include Mrs. George B. Arnold, Mrs. George M. Corrigan, Mrs. Virgil A. Ector, Mrs. R. D. Russell, Miss Nelle Welsh, and Mrs. Royce M. Powell.

"I am especially proud of this committee," Mrs. Fuller said, "for they are furnishing the flowers and making corsages, including those made from wooden roses, and they are furnishing the shrubs and plants for potted plants which will be for sale."

Mrs. J. Bruce Langdon and Mrs. Harry A. Joslin will man the stationery booth, and Mrs. Joseph A. Robertson will be chairman of finances.

Mrs. George Pawley, in costume, will tell fortunes, as will Princess Carciolo.

Composing a reserve committee will be Mrs. Russell Paige, Mrs. E. E. Penneck, Mrs. R. George Stoberg, and Mrs. Thurston Adams.

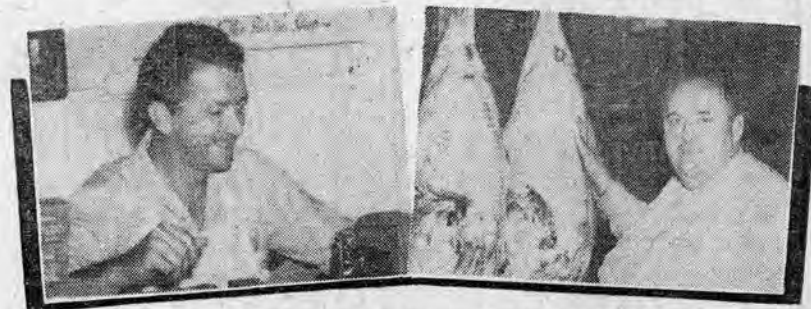

Program Varied

Throughout the afternoon a program of dances, by the ballet pupils of Princess Nina Carciolo, and other musical numbers will be given. There will be a fashion show at five o'clock under the direction of the House of Fashion, with models furnished by Carnegie Cline, Patricia Vance, and Coronet. At intervals, an old 'dinner' bell on the place will be rung to announce a new act or prize winner.

The program will also include Lucille Keyes singing a group of songs, and an auction of an order for a portrait painting by Violet Powell, artist of Coral Gables.

The six acre grounds of the Musicians' Club is situated at 150 NE 53rd Street.

Gables Club Women Make Further Plans

Executive board members of the Coral Gables Woman's Club will meet at the clubhouse at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow.

At this time, further plans for the community betterment program will be presented to the group by the club president, Mrs. J. Riley Staats.

Mrs. Douglas Reynolds will report on the results of the Tag Day held in the Gables last Friday, when $368.00 was collected by members of the Junior and Senior Women's Clubs for the benefit of the Coral Gables Youth Center.

During the luncheon to be held at the conclusion of the meeting, the following new members of the club will attend as honored guests: Mrs. Franklin Watts, Mrs. Charles H. Neighbors, Mrs. J. L. Anderson, Mrs. C. W. Munson, Mrs. J. J. White, and Mrs. William H. Selden.

Other new members to be honored include Mrs. Julius J. Pittman, Mrs. John Olsen, Mrs. William Yates, Mrs. John Noble, Mrs. Lassar Alexander, and Mrs. William B. Burress.

Cinnamon Toast Recipe is Easy

For a change in the routine breakfast menu, serve honey cinnamon toast.

Toast one side of bread. While still hot, butter the untoasted side. Spread buttered side with honey.

Sprinkle cinnamon on top. Then, place slices under broiler until the bread is well browned.

"Operations vacation" is the chief topic of conversation in many Coral Gables homes today. Mrs. R. E. Field of 1214 Lisbon Street has plans of joining the penny blanket derby, with a summer near Chimney Rock North Carolina, slated as her base of operations. Accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Roy Johnson, also of Coral Gables, and her three youngsters, Bobby, Jimmy, and daughter Toni, she will leave June 18 for the mountains where she has leased a cottage. The family, however, will not take off until Mr. and Mrs. Field celebrate their wedding anniversary come June 17. "After that we are off for the whole summer. My mother and I plan some side trips, including a motor ride to Laurel Falls and to a girls' camp near Clayton, Georgia. You know, I was in that camp as a young teen-aged girl and I still have a nostalgia for the place," confessed Mrs. Field.

Not so sold on vacationing away from Florida is Mrs. Edward Belcher. In talking with Mrs. Belcher Sunday night at the Simmonite party, she said, "You know, it's awfully hot on the New Jersey coast when the thermometer registers 100 degrees in the shade." . . . Also talking to Mrs. George Corrigan at the same party, we learned that the Corrigan's son Claud, his wife and infant son are in Washington, D.C., where he will serve in Navy intelligence for two weeks as a member of the reserves. While Claud is dutying, Mrs. Corrigan and the baby will visit her relatives in nearby Bethesda. "Just think," Mrs. Corrigan said, "they'll see the famous cherry trees in full deep pink bloom; something they've never seen before and will never forget".

Captain Willis Whiting, of Eastern Airlines, has found a house for his family in New Orleans, Louisiana, his new base, and the family will move this week-end. Therefore the Gables will lose, temporarily, the Whitings and the three attractive Whiting kiddies, Penny, Sara and Rockie, who have been residing at 1416 Avenue Medina.

Thrilled to pieces over the response Coral Gables Music club members made to her telephoned quest enabled ways and means chairman Claire Fuller to increase her planned four tables to 35 for the garden fiesta next Saturday at the Musicians club of America benefit. "I may have missed a few, however, Mrs. Fuller explained at our desk yesterday, "and if I missed anyone, due to their not being at home when I rang their phone, and they want to help, they may be dialing my number 4-1559". Mrs. Fuller also said among the donations were several articles of antique value from the Ann Wise antique shop, and that the paper cups to be used had been donated by W. T. Mixon of the Everglades Paper Co.

Taking off on a motor cruise June 6 will be Mrs. W. F. Caudell and her twin daughters, Jonnie Lou and Betty Jean, University of Miami sophomores-elect. The trio will visit in the mountains of North Carolina, Washington, D.C., and with kinsfolk in New York City.

Dr. Vollmer In Pittsburgh

Dr. and Mrs. Leo Vollmer, of 825 Avenue Sevilla, are in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania today, where Dr. Vollmer, Coral Gables dentist, will be the guest of, and address, the Pennsylvania State Dental Society when that venerable group meets tonight. Dr. Vollmer will use as his topic, "Modern Dentistry without Pain."

While in the eastern state, Dr. and Mrs. Vollmer will visit with friends and relatives before returning to the Gables next Monday.

Mrs. Bible To Preside

Mrs. C. D. Brown, 7734 S.W. 55 Avenue, will open her home tonight at 8 o'clock to members of the executive board of the Pan American Engineers' Wives' Club. Mrs. George Bible, president, will preside.

Riviera Times SCORECARD

By DON CUDDY Sports Editor

Tropical Park officials who predicted the vote would be close if they could muster enough votes to defeat the "Gulfstream Bill" are still holding their breaths. The senate defeated the bill that would give Jimmy Donn's Hallandale plant richer racing dates at Tropical's expense by a 19-19 tie vote yesterday but Gables Racing Association folks don't consider the danger of being legislated out of existence a dead issue.

Tropical Officials Haven't Stopped Worrying

"We'd feel a lot better if the legislative session were over," is the way Comptroller J. B. Langdon puts it. "Senator George Leaird did some fancy politicking on the bill and it's possible he has some more tricks in the bag our side hasn't thought about blocking yet."

Another Lean Season on the Horizon

Meanwhile Tropical officialdom is thinking in terms of "business as usual" at "The Friendly Track." Langdon, who is holding the fort in the off-season, admits the outlook is for another lean meeting with not more than 20 days of a good season.

"Everybody looks for a recession on a smaller scale but we don't anticipate taking another 20 percent drop in mutuels like last year."

Election Partly Blamed for Last Year's Drop

Langdon advances an interesting theory as to why Tropical took a worse nose-dive than Hialeah and Gulfstream. He fixes part of the blame on northern business-confusion following the presidential election: "The surprise caught businessmen flat-footed and by the time they recovered half of the Tropical meeting was over. Too, it's generally admitted the Season strated late due to a fairly open winter up north, so our drop can't fairly be compared with what the other tracks did."

Ponce Sports Awards to Be Given Friday

Innovation of the awarding of blankets to Ponce de Leon High school seniors who have earned varsity letters in three sports—was revealed by Cavalier athletic officials today.

The blankets, presented jointly by the Student Council and Lettermans' Club, will be given to the graduating three-sport men at the annual athletic awards assembly Friday at 9:30 a.m. The blankets will be red with a black block "P", the school colors.

Members of the faculty committee on athletics are scheduled to meet this afternoon to determine eligibility for awarding varsity letters in baseball, basketball, track and junior varsity baseball.

Trophies for the "Most Improved Athlete" and the "Outstanding Athlete" will also be awarded at the Friday assembly by the Student Council and Lettermans' Club.

Lombardo's Boat Broken Down

LAKE PLACID, N. Y. — The Henry Kaiser-owned boat Guy Lombardo hopes to drive to a new speed record was out of commission, today, its engine damaged "beyond repair" in a test run.

A new engine will be installed within two or three days so Lombardo can make his speed try here June 11-12. The record is 141.74 MPH set 10 years ago by the late Sir Malcolm Campbell.

Softballers Try Again On Postponed Games

Rain postponed for the second time a double-header involving National Air Lines-Gables First Christian Church and Aircraft Service vs. Baird Electric at the Youth Center last night. The games, a make-up for the May 12 date, will be played tonight with the Buccaneers and Gables First Christian leading off at 7:30 p.m., director Bill Wilcox announced.

Only one other game, between NAL and Carls Liquors, remains to be played to complete the first half schedule. It is scheduled for tomorrow night and the second half of the league will open Monday, June 6.

Savage-Mahoney Tops Program On Coliseum Mat

The flavor of Kentucky's "dark and bloody ground" is added to the Coral Gables Coliseum tonight with no less a picturesque name than Daniel Boone Savage topping the bill in a two out of three falls contest with Tom Mahoney.

The Kentuckian, another former professional football player turned to the mat, will be making his first Greater Miami appearance in several years to cope with Mahoney's special body slams and flying mares.

Fairbanks, Alaska sends the Wolf Man to grapple Bill McDaniels of California in the 45-minute, one-fall, semifinal affair. The opening tussle pits Nick Bacalis, ex-Chicago cop, who is a favorite of Gables mat fans, against Marty Nappa.

Poinciana Golf, Swim Plans Set

Sixteen golf clubs from South Florida have assured Coral Gables Biltmore pro Umps Clark they will enter teams in the mixed foursome Royal Poinciana Festival tournament at the Biltmore course on June 9.

Mrs. Lloyd Soulier-Bob Waldron and Mrs. J. Anthony Bir-Engene Richardson will represent the home course while Mrs. A. C. Randolph Jr.-Bill Gorman will represent Coral Gables' "junior partner" course, the Granada.

One partner remains to be selected for the Riviera team that will compete. Mrs. C. A. Harting-Henry Russell will be one twosome, while Mrs. Stephen Gibbs has not been assigned a partner by Pro Leonard Ott.

Other entries submitted today are Mary Rudick-Buddy Godwin, Miami Country Club; Mrs. Roscoe Hull-Hank Bowber and Elizabeth Rideg-Charles Rodes, Jr., Fort Lauderdale; and B. B. Lotspeich-Mrs. A. H. Wadell and Dr. W. F. Graves-Mrs. Jack Keefe, LaGorce.

Meanwhile John Rosasco announced a program of 15 events for the water carnival at Venetian Pool June 8 at 8:30 p.m.

Jack Harris, Dick Turner and "Jim" Fairbrother are scheduled for diving exhibition and novelty acts at the water carnival and a University of Miami team will stage a water ballet.

The third sports event scheduled for the festival is eight races in a motorboat regatta at Pelican Harbor Sunday at 1:30 p.m. which will kick off the festival. Sixty entries have been received for that event, chairmen in charge announced.

The first issue of the New York Weekly Journal, Nov. 15, 1733, contained an article on liberty of the press.

Snead Cops PGA—How Sweet It Is

By United Press
RICHMOND, Va. — Sammy Snead explained today that he won the National PGA Golf Championship with the right attitude and a borrowed putter.

"I expected to lose," said the come-from-behind West Virginia hill-billy. "You should always figure to lose. That makes it so much sweeter to win."

And sweet indeed was his win over Johnny Palmer by a 3 and 2 score in yesterday's match play final at the Hermitage Country Club. Palmer jumped to a two up lead the first nine holes of the 36-hole match, lost it and went two up again on the 16th. But Snead—who supposedly is a guy who quits in the clutch—came pouring in on until he won on the 24th hole.

Brilliant putting had a lot to do with it, and after the match Sammy flailed the air with his putter as he left the golden glow of his second PGA Championship sink in.

"I borrowed this," he said. "Heck, no, I won't tell you from whom. He might come and try to collect it. And, brother, this is one putter he'll never get back."

Six under par for the 34 holes of the tense match, Snead rapped them in from every corner of the green for his $3,500 triumph over chunky Palmer, an ex-air force gunner from Badin, N. C.

It was an up and down duel between these two grim competitors. Palmer leaped to the lead on the first nine, but came the 10th and Snead got into the fight.

Lopez, Seijas Hurl for Sox In WPB Pair

WEST PALM BEACH—Manager Pepper Martin of the Miami Sun Sox will send Vicente Lopez and Art Seijas to the mound tonight, hoping they will pitch the Sox back into second place against West Palm Beach in a double-header after last night's scheduled twin-bill was rained out.

Tampa, half a game up the ladder, also marked time last night while Havana stretched its Florida-International League lead to two and a half games by shutting out St. Petersburg, 2-0.

Miami Beach and Fort Lauderdale play a pair at Flamingo Park while Tampa plays at Lakeland and Havana remains at St. Pete.

Mrs. Randolph Scores 1-Up Win In Martin Tourney

Medalist Mrs. A. C. Randolph Jr. advanced to the second round of the Martin Trophy tournament at the Granada course today by defeating Mrs. Julia Green in the first round of match play, 1-up. Mrs. Randolph had a medal 98 for the championship flight qualifying Tuesday.

Tomorrow she draws Mrs. John Halifax, winner of the qualifying round putting prize with 28, who defeated Mrs. Fay Britt today, 2-up. Mrs. Fred Jones and Mrs. E. P. Stahl were the other two championship flight players to reach the semifinal round. Mrs. Jones defeated Marian Frantz, 1-up, and Mrs. Stahl's victim was Mrs. John Kavanaugh, 2-up.

In the first flight, Mrs. Rosamond Jordan scored, 5-3, over Mrs. Julia Mumma, Mrs. Grace Carver defeated Mrs. Norman Skeels, 5-4, Mrs. Robert Sullivan ousted Mrs. Mary Lou Mangels, 7-5, and Mrs. Richard Schmid routed Mrs. Cliff Jones, 8 and 6.

Consolation rounds in the both flights are also scheduled for tomorrow.

Double Ace Fails To Qualify in Open

DETROIT — Ray McGuire shot two holes-in-one yesterday in the Michigan qualifying round for the National Open Golf Tournament but still finished the 36 holes with a three-over-par 147 and failed to qualify.

CLINT CONASTER'S BAT SETS TEMPO FOR BRAVES

By United Press
NEW YORK. — The Boston Braves were making overtures at their second successive pennant today, thanks to melody-loving Clint Conaster, a guy who dotes on Brahms, Be-Bop and the tuncful tempo of base hits.

Conaster, currently on a one-man batting rampage, is a music lover whose timely hits these days are keeping the Braves at the top of the National League scale along with Brooklyn.

The 27-year-old Conaster, up to now almost unnoticed in the Boston outfield, has pounded out eight hits in his last 10 times at bat to sky-rocket his batting average to .342.

After clubbing Philadelphia pitchers for five hits on Memorial Day, Clouting Clint hammered three more blows against the Phillies yesterday, one of his hits being a homer, as he paced Boston to a 7 to 6 triumph. The victory kept the Braves in a first-place tie with the Dodgers, who beat the New York Giants, 6 to 4, in a night game.

Boston was forced to overcome

a five-run deficit before beating the Phillies.

The Dodgers, on the other hand, fighting to keep abreast of the Braves, were forced to go 14 innings before subduing the Giants.

The Brooklyn triumph came about through the combined efforts of outfielder Carl Furillo, who slammed his second homer of the season in the 14th frame, and pitcher Jack Banta, the winning hurler.

Gil Hodges of Brooklyn and Jack Lohrke of the Giants also hit homers. Larry Jansen, who pitched 13 innings and was relieved by Dave Koslo after Furillo had homered and Roy Campanella tripled in the 14th, was the loser.

No other major league games were scheduled yesterday.

Churchill Downs Sale is Rumored

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Sale of Churchill Downs race track to a non-profit corporation seemed assured today.

Directors of the American Turf Association, operators of the Downs, voted unanimously yesterday to effect the sale, which would turn over all future profits of the track to the University of Louisville medical school. As a non-profit organization, the Downs would not be subject to taxes.

Comeback

"All roads lead to Rome," or anyway, all tourists in Italy eventually turn up in the Eternal City, and the Italian capital is regaining its prewar popularity. Here, Parisian tourists tempt fate, by placing their hand in the "Mouth of Truth." Legend says a person can prove the truth of what he says, and if not true, the mouth bites off the hand.
