Six Trying For North Miami Mayor's Job

Diversified Cooperative Training Program

By JOHN McGRATH

Since approximately 20% of the high school graduates enter college, most of the remaining 80% will seek employment immediately after graduation. Few of these will have any training or work experience, or sufficient information and advice about available jobs, thus creating a problem to the employer and employee.

The part-time cooperative training program is an added service in our educational system which provides for student guidance in the selection of an occupation, and for placing him in part-time employment as a student learner.

The student starts his school day one hour earlier. This enables him to leave school at 11:30-12:30, getting him on the job at least by 1:00 P.M. The program is open to both boys and girls.

Here are some of the types of jobs that our students had last year:

Sales, Window Display, Auto Mechanic, File Clerks, Radio Repair, Secretarial, Advertising, Nursing, Receptionists (Doctors and Dentists).

This year we have some very fine girls and boys who have as yet not been placed on a job. If you have an opening and wish to train a student your way so that when he graduates from high school you have a well-trained employee, please contact Mr. McGrath, Miami Edison High School. Phone 78-6751.

Dr. R. N. Commings Files For North Miami Mayor

Dr. R. N. Commings has entered his name on the ballot for Mayor of North Miami. He was born in Akron, Ohio, May 10th, 1912. He went to school in Akron and attended the University of Akron, prior to entering Kirksville College of Osteopathy and Surgery, Kirksville, Missouri. He graduated in 1935 from K.C.O.S. and later served as an Assistant to Dr. A. C. Hardy, Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialist at K.C.O.S. He has had Post-Graduate work in Detroit, Cleveland and Philadelphia hospitals.

Dr. Commings has lived in Miami since 1937 and has been in practice in North Miami over two years. He lives with his wife, Jean, at 12760 N.E. 11th Avenue, and has his office at 635 N.E. 125th Street.

He is a Charter Member of the Optimist Club of North Miami, a member of the American Osteopathic Association, the State Osteopathic Association, State Trustee of this District and Past-President of the Dade County Osteopathic Society.

If elected, Dr. Commings plans to have a closer unified cooperation between the Citizens of North Miami and the Officials in Town Hall. One of his policies would be that when difficulties arose, a roundtable discussion would be had between the parties or areas affected.

KIMBALL OUTLINES WELFARE PROGRAM

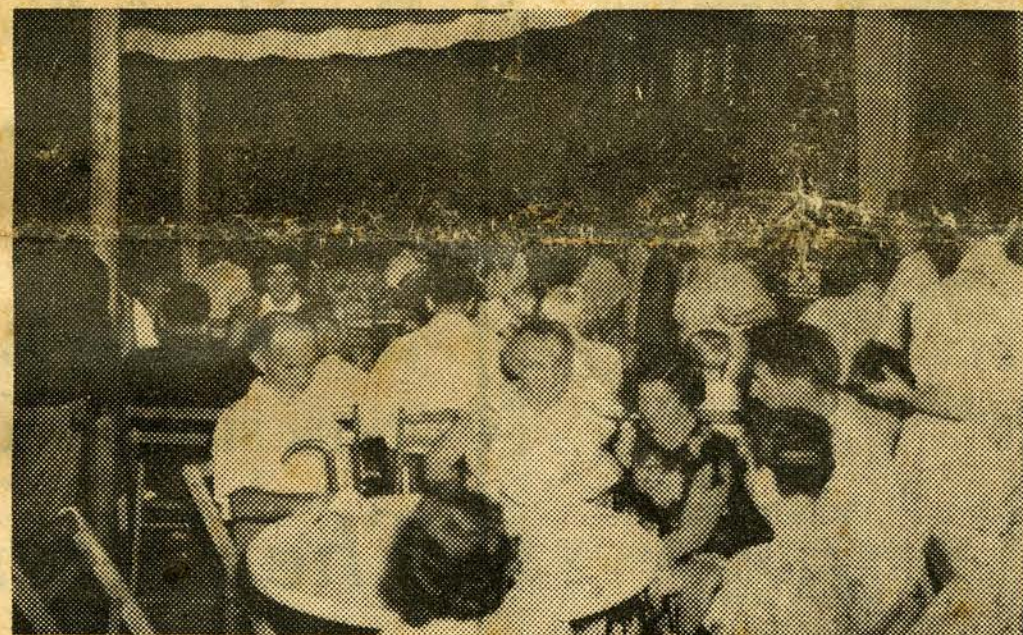

Leonard Kimball, candidate for Mayor of North Miami, in his recent campaign speeches told his audiences that he will work for a municipal welfare program to help any distressed and needy residents of North Miami, if economic conditions grow bad.

Kimball said: "Conditions are getting tougher all the time. If there are residents of North Miami who will need help now or in any future business recession, I propose to fight for these people in the town, county, state or national government. The ways and means must be found to provide food, medicines, medical attention, legal aid and other help. It is the business of the town government to be interested in the welfare of its citizens."

Martha Metz, Postmaster of North Miami, underwent a gall bladder operation at the Victoria Hospital last week, and, according to her daughter, she is doing well; but if you do not see her at the Post Office, you will know the reason.

Fred Metz, her husband, is still in Veterans Hospital in Coral Gables, and is now sitting up in a wheel chair. He is expected to come home soon.

Two File For Tax Collector; Two For Town Clerk; Five For Council At Press Time

The registration ended Wednesday, but the REVIEW goes to press on Tuesday, so the latest registrants are therefore NOT included in the list that follows. However, the following citizens, up to press time, have filed for the elective jobs:

E. May Avil Files For Re-Election

Miss E. May Avil, Town Clerk of North Miami since 1932, has filed for re-election to that office. In reality, Miss Avil has worked for the town since 1931, when she started work in the Town Clerk's office in a clerical capacity.

Miss Avil has been an officer in the North Miami Youth Foundation since its foundation, and she has worked diligently with all committees appointed, checking on innumerable details, assisting with Christmas baskets and remembrances to worthy and needy citizens.

Miss Avil, together with other women of the town, has been responsible for the North Miami Public Library with all the library facilities.

The citizens of North Miami will vote at the coming election for or against the town taking over this library.

E. May Avil was born in Philadelphia, where she attended the Collingwood High School. She then went to the Trenton Normal School for Teachers, and taught school in New Jersey after graduating. She came to Florida with her family in 1921, and attended the Southern Business College. She is a member of the State Finance Officer's Association, and a member of the Dade County Municipal Finance Officers Association, composed of all finance officers in Dade County. Miss Avil lives with her mother, Mrs. Nona Avil, at 14610 N.E. 6th Avenue in North Miami, and has been a property owner for many years.

J. Houston Gribble Files For Re-election

J. Houston Gribble, who has worked for the Town of North Miami long before it was incorporated in 1926, has filed to have his name entered on the October 4th ballots to be returned to the office of Town Tax Collector and Assessor.

Mr. Gribble was born in Florida and his grandmother and mother were also born in Florida. He graduated from the Miami Edison High School and attended the University of Florida in Gainesville. He is married and has two children, Billy and Margaret, Mrs. Richard De Maria. All his family are native Floridians from Sumpter County. He was first elected Tax Collector of North Miami in February, 1932; two years later, the tax collector's and tax assessor's offices were consolidated, and he has held the combined office since.

Houston Gribble organized the town's first Volunteer Fire Department and served as its Treasurer. Before he was elected to the Tax office, he held many different jobs in the Town Hall. He is the only native Floridian working in the Town Hall.

DISC 'N THAT

village book store

After months of ardent wooing on the parts of both Victor and Columbia, Decca has turned to LP—33 1/3 RPM records. This is great news for you lucky people who own a machine that is equipped to play the microgroove disc. Now, not only Columbia's fine classical and popular artists are available on LP, but also such performers as Bing Crosby, Al Jolson, Guy Lombardo, and Carmen Cavallaro—artists who record exclusively for Decca. VBS now has in stock some of these recent Decca LP releases and is receiving more every day.

MGM has a new wax which is sure to be a hit—that is, if we can believe that up-and-coming deejay, Art Marcus. Bill Farrell's MGM recording of "Circus" gets A.M.'s vote of "fabulous". Incidentally, the backing of this record is "Through A Long and Sleepless Night", a lovely and haunting ballad taken from the musical score of the movie, "Come To The Stable", recently shown in Miami theatres.

'N THAT: Maybe it's catching, but two leading female vocalists not so long ago cast aside their respective spouses. Doris Day received a divorce from former Kenton saxist, George W. Weidler, and Capitol recording artist Margaret Whiting came to a parting of the ways with CBS vice-president, Hubbell Robinson, Jr. The latter obviously figures.

Stop me if you've heard this one, but it seems that on release of his Columbia waxing of "Four Brothers", Woody Herman was approached by a top bassist with this question: "Man, who's that bass player? Where'd you get him? He's the most . . ." The Herdman's reply was the priceless, "Oh, that's just our manager, Walt Yoder. Just our manager. He fills in on bass when we need him."

HURRICANE CAUSES SLIGHT DAMAGE TO QUAIL, TURKEYS

Hurricane damage to central and south Florida's quail and turkey was "only slight" this year, O. Earl Frye, the State Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission's chief wildlife biologist, reports.

In some isolated sections, 20% damage was estimated, Frye said, but over-all harm was negligible.

Frye attributed the slight damage to the comparative lack of rain with the hurricane.

He pointed out that in the big blows of 1947 and 1948, there was much rain, and the quail and turkey damage was correspondingly heavy.

Fulford P.T.A. Plans Active Season

All persons interested in Fulford School and the children of the community are urged to join the P.T.A. The first meeting was held at the school on Tuesday, September 13th at 7:30 P.M.

Tentative plans for the year were made at the Executive Board meeting held at the home of Mrs. Jerry Tombley, 298 N.E. 160th Street on Friday, September 2nd. Mrs. Howard Carlson, president, presided at the meeting. Six regular P.T.A. meetings are planned for the year, these to be on the second Tuesday of September, October, December, February, April, and May. Plans are under way for the Halloween celebration to be held October 28th. (Mark this date on your calendar—it promises to be an evening you won't want to miss.) As a project, the P.T.A. plans to landscape the school grounds, this to include a patio for outdoor meetings.

Although there has been no regular meeting of the association during the summer, the officers and committees have been active. Mrs. Carlson has announced the following committee chairmen:

Roommothers, Mrs. Ben Genshaft; Program, Mrs. Frank Wolin; Study group, Mrs. Leif E. Braksve; Publications, Mrs. Ross Wagner; Ways and Means, Mrs. Jerry Tombley; Budget and Finance, Mr. W. "In Unity There Is Strength"

North Miami Community Library

In the August 11th issue of the REVIEW there appeared an editorial about this North Miami Community Library. But in the minds of many, this may be sidetracked because of the important issues involving the candidates for the elective offices.

The citizens will vote on October 4th for, or against, the Town of North Miami taking over this library. The REVIEW believes that an affirmative vote is justified. The present North Miami Community Library is the result of hard work on the part of Miss E. May Avil, Town Clerk and Library Chairman, and a group of ladies, assisted by civic clubs.

Besides Miss Avil, there have been many hours of work given without cost by such civic-minded women as Mrs. Mildred Mahood, Mrs. Edna Forbes, Mrs. Sara Morwood, Mrs. Sally Taigman, and Mrs. Alma Anderson. Since the war, Mrs. Edla Luden and her twin sister, Mrs. Alma Anderson, took over the task of cataloging and listing all the books, each book requiring about a dozen steps.

To date, 3,327 books are listed; they range from children's books through reference books. All the best fiction is available. Between 800 and 1000 books are taken out each month.

The North Miami Community Library is a MUST, just like the North Miami Youth Foundation. The community should get back of it and not leave its future to a few sincere civic-minded women. VOTE YES ON THE LIBRARY FOR NORTH MIAMI.

Among The Top Ten!

North Miami, in the first seven months of 1949, rates among its first ten cities in Florida in building permits issued. The Town Hall houses a big corporation!

How Stammering Was Overcome

Here's a story of stammering. Most dictors today are connecting stammering and stuttering with a fear complex, and this story would seem to bear them out.

Freeman H. Hubbard, of Kingston, New York, says that for more than twelve years his big worry was a bad case of stammering. It started with a minor hesitation before he was nine years old, and gradually became more distressing. Sometimes when he wanted to ask for a streetcar transfer he had to write the word "transfer" and show it to the conductor. He became so self-conscious about his handicap that he would walk miles to see someone rather than attempt a telephone call.

He got excellent marks at school, but, due to his speech trouble, he was flunked again and again, and it required six years for him to complete a four-year course.

This was a dreadful state of affairs. The doctors said his vocal organs were perfectly normal, but he gradually lost control over them from misuse. His family regarded his case as hopeless; they pitied him, apologized for him, and some of them even shunned going out with him. Did he suffer? Of course he did, so much that he began avoiding all social gatherings.

Then there came a turn. An uncle gave him a copy of "Self Reliance" by Ralph Waldo Emerson. In it, he read: "What I must do is all that concerns me, not what people think!" All of a sudden, he realized that it was Fear that was holding him down. He had allowed this common enemy of mankind to dominate his life, to create in him a feeling of inferiority.

Since sheer necessity for a silent occupation had led him to develop a better-than-average facility in writing, he boldly decided to become a newspaper reporter. This would force him to meet and talk with people. Well, that was just about the hardest job he could have picked, but he had tried practically everything else—and failed.

He wrote to The National Underwriter, a large Chicago insurance weekly. He was hired sight unseen!

He says: "Nothing I can remember was ever so painful as my first interview. I wished a trapdoor would open up and let me down. I am certain that it was painful to my interviewers, too, but almost without exception they showed me great kindness, and by and by interviewing ceased to be an ordeal. My speech became more fluent, and today, thank God, I can deliver public speeches without the slightest hesitation."

Yes, just one more instance of how Fear might have thoroughly wrecked a man's life.

With the P.T.A.'s, church, and civic organizations on their mark, getting set to go again, we should all realize the vital importance of cooperation. As an illustration, look what happened in Chicago. The Windy City was handed a sharp lesson in the interdependence of a modern community; when one cog fails to function, the whole machine wobbles. Chicago's obstinate cog was its gasoline supply. In no time at all the whole city felt the effects and things were virtually at a standstill. Think it over and realize, maybe for the first time, how important you, as an individual, really are in any function. Whether it's home, civic, or world affairs—(Papa says those are wonderful words, coming from anyone as recalcitrant as me) Look who's pointing!! says I, Yeah? -- Yeah!! and that was that! (said she).

We have a request from Bellingham, Washington, for our SUBURBAN REVIEW. Lily Brundage wants to keep up with news of the home folks. I was for sending her all the back copies, but the Editor didn't think it necessary. She's only been gone a couple of months.

The Jack Normans are back from an Illinois vacation. . . . Ditto the Wm. Langs, the Mumas, W. F. Allstons, Joe Garfields and David, the John Ritters, the Guy Baileys (not all from an Illinois vacation though). . . . This could go on and on as practically everyone is home again. . . . Saw Mr. Mackenzie too - - so I guess they're back. . . . Best wishes and a get well quick to Tanya Ballman. . . . Mrs. Gerard Raap's father, Mr. A. H. Plough, passed away August 26th in Greensburg, Pennsylvania. . . . Also the father of Mrs. Charles Vanderfort in Pennsylvania. . . . Sure glad to see Mrs. Ray Sappenfield out and around again. . . . Congratulations to little Nanette Peach, who won blue ribbons in Kentucky horse shows ("Shore shows she can ride, "pardner"). . . . and Mrs. M. A. Shofman, can shoot - - - golf

Miss Nord, Mr. Little Say Vows By Candlelight

Miss Juanita Evelyn Nord and Mr. John Vernon Little were united in marriage September 3rd, in Plymouth Congregational Church, Rev. Donald Douds, of Miami Shores Community Church, performed the double ring candlelight ceremony. The ring of her late maternal grandmother is now her own.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Nord, 1751 N.E. 145th Street. Mr. Little is the son of Mrs. Ruth Little, 231 N.W. 3rd Street.

Mrs. J. V. Little

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white duchess satin. A round yoke of net, with bertha edged in lace, complemented the fitted bodice and long skirt extending into full train. A Juliet cap of lace held the veil of illusion. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Carolyn Nord was maid of honor for her sister. Her full skirted faille taffeta gown was in sapphire blue and her bouquet was of pink carnations.

Miss Ethel May Little, the bridegroom's sister, wore a similar dress of orchid as bridesmaid. Miss May Alexander and Miss Bonnie May Kindig bridesmaids faille dresses were fashioned the same, Miss Alexander's in day yellow and Miss Kindig's in chartreuse. Their colonial bouquets were of pom-poms in contrasting colors.

Coral Shepard, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was white ruffled taffeta, and she carried a satin colored basket of rose petals.

Richard Nord was best man. Ushers were Robert A. Nord and Clifton W. Whitmore, Jr. Frank See was soloist, and Miss Kathleen Norris was organist.

The mother of the bride wore sand-colored crepe, with blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore deep rose chiffon, with lace bodice. They both wore orchid corsages.

Miss Verna Rogers kept the bride's book at the reception, following in the church garden. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Willis Shepard, Mrs. Hal Johnson, and Mrs. Harry Ritter.

The bride and groom left for a motor trip through the Great Smokies, before going to Rochester, New York, where they will live.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vanderlike, 10008 N.W. 5th Avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty Jane, to Lloyd A. Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Douglas, 220 N.W. 25th Avenue. The wedding will take place next July. The bride-elect is a graduate of Miami Edison. Mr. Douglas, a Miami High graduate, is now studying mechanical engineering at Polytechnic Institute, at Tennessee College. He served two years in the Marine Corps during the war.

Horace Mann P.I.A. Rummage Sale Tomorrow

Plans have been completed for the Horace Mann Junior High P.T.A. rummage sale, starting tomorrow, September 16th, through Saturday, 17th. The sale will take place at the corner of N.W. 95th Street and 7th Avenue. Available quarters could not be found in time for a pre-school sale as had been planned. These rummage sales are a pet project of the P.T.A., as they do more good for the people than they do for the budget.

Judge Stanley Milledge and son, Allan, 170 N.E. 93rd Street, are taking a real he-man vacation. They are climbing the Appalachian Trail through the Carolinas. The trip will take about two weeks. They will then go to Chapel Hill, N. C., where Allan will enter his sophomore year.

Miss Ruth Lafferty and Allan's sister, Sarah, are going to Chapel Hill, for the first North Carolina football game of the season. They will attend the weekend parties and dances.

Judge Millage will spend his time at the Chapel Hill law library. He will then take the girls to Wellesly College, before returning home late this month.

The Womans Auxiliary of the Miami Shores Community Church held another of their ever-popular covered dish suppers Wednesday evening, September 14th, in the church social hall, 9823 N.E. 4th Avenue. It is not necessary to be a church member to join in these informal suppers. Their purpose is to encourage good will and fellowship throughout the community. This "Welcome Home from Vacation" supper is the first one for the fall. Plans are being made to have one each month. The feeling of friendliness established around the smorgasbord style suppers make them tremendously popular. The only requirement is you bring your own table service (plates and silverware). Bring the whole family for an evening of pleasant fun and food.

Miss Nancy Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Martin, 342 N.E. 104th Street, just returned from Lexington, Kentucky. Nancy was bridesmaid at the wedding of her room mate, Miss Betty Jean Combs. Prior to her week in Lexington, she also visited friends and relatives in Atlanta and Panama City. She leaves soon for her senior year at Agnes Scott College, Decatur, Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Baglione helped celebrate the 75th birthday of Mrs. Baglione's mother, Mrs. L. Cataliotte, while visiting in Oyster Bay, L. I. They just returned to their home, 10816 N.W. 2nd Avenue.

The Wm. H. Conrads, 540 N.E. 55th Street, are taking a vacation in Washington. They drove up along Skyland Drive through the Great Smokies.

Mrs. R. F. Davis and son, "Bunny", have moved to Gainesville, Georgia. Bunny is a student at the University of North Carolina.

that is! Mrs. Frank Baglione's little niece, Regina Cardinanele was baptized Sunday, August 28th. My folks say that when I was christened, the pastor got confused and instead of saying - "Well! that is a baby"—(standard comment to please everyone), exclaimed heartily - "Well! is that a baby!"

While we're sort of on the church subject, some friends of ours actually feared for their lives during the last hurricane. When the house they were in started rocking on the foundation, they all started to pray - all but one man, a deacon. When his wife, in amazement, asked him why, he said - "No, I've prayed enough, I figure right now the Good Lord is so busy taking care of people who never prayed before, he won't have time to bother with me!"

Mary Ann Marler, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Marler, of Uleta, has returned home after being in the Crippled Children's Home at Umatilla, Florida, for the past fourteen months.

Roy L. Marler, 68 N.W. 169th Street, in Uleta, will achieve a long-cherished ambition this week when his song composition, "Payday In Heaven", is released on record by Acme Radio and Record Corp., as set to music and sung by "William Moore and His Country Cousins", exclusive recording artists for Station WBAC, Cleveland, Tennessee.

BROWNE RETURNS FROM VACATION IN PHILADELPHIA

David A. Browne, of the North Miami Upholstery Shop, has just returned from a ten-day vacation trip to Philadelphia. While there, he visited his relatives. His nephew, Robert Cassidy, returned with him, and he will enter Edison High as a senior.

MENU of the DAY

By Elizabeth B. DuPuis Collins Appliances Inc.

Guava Upside Down Cake

Many times I've surprised my friends by serving Guava Upside Down Cake—and I've enjoyed their surprise at the real goodness of this Florida dessert. It is only a variation of our favorite Pineapple Upside Down Cake—this is the recipe I follow:

- 2 tbsps. butter of margarine
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1 small can crushed pineapple, drained

1 cup stewed guavas, drained cake batter to cover

Melt butter in 10-inch heavy skillet. Add sugar, stewed guavas, and pineapple. Allow to simmer while making cake batter or until juice is quite thick. Cover with cake batter, bake in preheated oven at 350° for about thirty minutes. Invert on cake platter while still warm.

To prepare the stewed guavas, be sure to use ripe fruit which should be peeled, cut in half, and all seeds removed. Use 1½ cups fruit, add 1 cup sugar and a little water. Cook for about twenty minutes.

For the cake batter above, I suggest any good sponge cake or tender cake recipe. This is the one I use:

- ½ cup Crisco
- ¼ cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 2 cups sifted cake flour
- 2½ tsp. baking powder
- 1 tsp. salt
- ¾ cup juice from guavas and pineapple.

Dr. Framm stated that the optometric profession currently was emphasizing the need for conservation of vision through periodic examination of children's eyes, correction by visual training, and prescribing of spectacles where necessary.

Constant rubbing of the eyes; fatigue or listlessness after prolonged reading; marked aversion to light; frowning or scowling; holding reading matter very close to eyes; redness or irritation of eyes; squinting; holding head to one side while reading; aversion to games requiring considerable use of eyes; and a dislike for reading.

Needlecraft News by Nancy Baxter

CHRISTMAS might seem far away for you at the moment, but it's coming—you can count on that. Before long you'll be caught up in the rush and hurry of pre-holiday preparations. So if you're wise you'll start to work right now particularly if you intend to make many of the gifts yourself.

Let's start at this early date with the male side of the gift list. Men present the biggest problem when it comes to gift-giving because the choice is limited. Clever questioning, however, will give you a few leads as to their preferences. You know you can give a girl pretty little luxuries that she'd never buy for herself but which would warm her heart when received as a gift. However it's entirely different with the menfolk (bless 'em). They like only articles that they need and can use.

Naturally you'll want your gift to be something they'll like and will be proud to wear. Nothing will so endear you to their hearts as hand made—preferably hand-knitted—articles of wearing apparel. So if you know how to hold knitting needles you can really shine with your neatly knitted socks or sweater.

Find out the favorite color and style—some men like short sleeved sweaters, others long; some V-necks, others high, round necklines. In socks, too, their tastes differ. The gift will be doubly appreciated if it meets individual specifications. Above all don't think that it takes years of practice to enable you to make knitted articles. You can learn as you make something practical and attractive.

Here's a sweater that's warmly regarded by outdoor enthusiasts. It allows freedom of motion, and is warm with-

Is Our Lord still on earth?

When Saul was knocked off his horse, before he became St. Paul, he heard a voice saying to him:

"Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?" And he said, "Who art thou, Lord?" And he said, "I am Jesus whom thou persecutest" (Acts 9:4-5).

Now, as far as he knew, Saul had never persecuted Christ. Our Lord had been put to death several months before, as everyone knew, and from the Bible we know that He had gone up to join His Father in Heaven. And yet Saul was accused of persecuting Jesus, when all he had done was to throw Christians into jail.

Saul later found out that Our Lord had once said, "As long as you did it to one of these, my least brethren, you did it to Me" (Matt. 25:40).

So, after careful thought, and directed by the Spirit of God Himself, he finally wrote: "Now you are the body of Christ" (I Cor. 12:27). "Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up those things that are wanting of the sufferings of Christ, in my flesh, for His body, which is the church" (Col. 1:24).

That's pretty plain. It means that the Church is the body of Jesus. What else can we take out of those words?

But if the Church is His body, it must act as He acted. It must forgive sins. It must make its home with the poor, rather than with the rich; it must cry out against oppression, wherever it be; it must speak as one having authority; it must refuse to be overawed by the people it would have; it must have a kind of ancient youth, an unlimited supply of energy, which must grow with maturity; it must have life in abundance to give away; it must have a permanence which resists persecution; it must be cordially hated by the powerful ones of this world; it must do and say, throughout the ages, everything that Jesus did and said.

We Catholics believe devoutly that our Church is the mystical body of Jesus. We believe that our Catholic Church is the abiding presence of the Savior in our midst. Each of us thrills at the knowledge that we are a part of that body, a cell, sharing our faith with the hundreds of millions of our brothers, living and dead, and enjoying the interplay of other-worldly energy between the Head and members of that body.

For further information on Catholic beliefs, write to: 313 N.E. 92nd Street, Miami 38, Florida.
