A TOP NOTCH CONDUCTOR.

DR. MICHAEL B. DRESSMAN has made great strides in the music world. Some of his accomplishments include a Masters of Music award, director of (The Band Of The Hour) at the University Of Miami also conductor at the National Bands Of America Festival. His musical experience as a music educator and band director goes back some 30 years and as far as we are concerned we would like to have him as our conductor for the next 30 years. Dr. Dressman generously gives of his time and talent with the thought in mind to make every concert memorable. His musical selections are always with our audiences in mind. He comes to The North Miami Concert Band with great expectation and is working hard to make this band one of the best in the state. Unlike the other bands in Florida, we rehearse year round hoping to keep tuned up for the upcoming concert season.

We thank you once again for your patronage and hope we will see you at the very first concert.

Sincerely Yours,
Flo Dreyer
