EDITORIAL COMMENT

The featured poem this week, "Fractions", strikes a responsive cord in the heart of every one of us. As the little fellow needed the help of Dad in the problems of arithmetic, so will he need the larger help of a father in the greater problems of life he soon will meet. Too many times Dad fails him in both, but the first excusable, the second never!

The Community Church will seek to honor Education next Sunday, and has through the columns of this paper extended an invitation to all who study, and those who teach to be present at the service.

* * * * *

One of the cornerstones of American Independence and Progress, the School receives all too little attention from most of us. As it is molding the America of the future, and perhaps the World, we need to have a care of who we give it to. Miami Shores has been blessed with an unusually capable teaching staff for its school in recent years. May it ever be thus.

* * * * *

A youngster recently caught a ride with a local man to town, upon being questioned as to his mission there, he replied that he was going to the Library for books. Why can't we have a library here? It would need to start in a humble way, but in a few years it could be made a great institution of good. Let's hear some suggestions.

* * * * *

The school has a library of small proportions, but it is limited to the students and closed during the greater part of the months when youngsters have the most leisure to read -- and grown ups too.

* * * * *

We are mighty glad to hear that work has begun on the Community Center project. If the Town Council sees fit to call on us, folks, let's help put it over. It will mean much to the future of the Town, and will be a valuable asset to display to winter visitors to induce them to purchase or build homes here.

* * * * *

A mighty big question for the future of Miami Shores will be decided soon in the form of the Electric Light and Power project. We hope that whatever is done it will be the real will of the people and to that end urge everyone to read over the Engineers' Report on file in the Town Hall and be present at the hearing one week from Monday.

FRACTIONS

He sprawled upon the table, and he twisted in his chair,
He sat and fumbled sadly with a tangled lock of hair;
He muttered and he spluttered and he gazed about the room,
A puzzled little fellow in a cloud of darkest gloom.
Then I softly asked him: "Sorry, what's the cause of these distractions?"
And he shook his head and answered: "Aw, gee whiz! We're into fractions!"

Oh, the time was I was like him; once I wore that troubled look,
Once I chewed my bit of pencil and I fumbled with the book,
Once I sprawled upon the table and was floundering about
In a labyrinth of darkness and a dreadful mire of doubt;
And I chuckled as I saw him reproduce my troubled actions
When my youthful head was bothered by the mystery of fractions.

ARE YOU GIVING HERCULES
ONLY HALF A CHANCE?

You might as well bind up one arm of Hercules and expect him to do a real job worthy of his strength, as to expect electricity to do a complete job when your house is inadequately wired.

If your house has a few outlets as shown in the above plan, you are not getting the full benefit of your electric servant.

A proper electric wiring system that provides adequately for light, heat and power, coupled with standard made appliances, will enable your electric servant to function 100 percent.
