THE ADMIRAL'S BROOM.

(NEW VERSION.)

Van Tromp was an Admiral brave and bold,
The Dutchman's pride was he,
And he cried "I'll reign on the rolling main,
As I do on the Zuyder Zee!" (twice.)
And as he paced his quarter deck,
And looked o'er the misty tide,
He saw old England like a speck,
And he shook his fist and cried: (twice.)
"I've a Broom at the mast!" said he,
"For a Broom is the sign for me,
That the world may know, wherever I go, } (twice.)
I sweep the mighty sea!"

Now Blake was an Admiral true as gold,
And he walked by the English sea;
And when he was told of that Dutchman bold,
A merry laugh laughed he. (twice.)

He cried, "Come here, you Dutchman queer,

To-day you must fight with me;
For while I ride on the rolling tide,
I'll be second to none!" said he. (twice.)

"I've a whip at the fore, you see!
For a whip is the sign for me,
That the world may know, wherever we go,
We ride and rule the sea!"

A Kaiser he looked from his ships at Kiel,
And a swaggering Kaiser he,
And he cried, "John Bull, your nose I'll pull,
For I mean to be lord of the sea!" (twice.)

Then John rose up and shook himself
And cried with a mighty joy:

"If you want to pull the nose of John Bull,
You'll have to come out, my boy! (twice.)
For I still have a whip" said he;
"For a whip is the sign for me,
If you'll give me the chance, I'll make you dance, } (twice.)
And I'll thrash you off the sea!"

Then John, he gathered his merry men all,
And he bottled the Kaiser tight,
And he cried, "Come out and strike your flag
If you won't come out to fight,
If you haven't the pluck to fight."
But the rat of a Kaiser he scuttled away,
And his Admirals all looked black,
As they struck their rag of a shameless flag
To the glorious Union Jack. (twice.)

And as long as the sea shall call
That flag shall never fall;
It has won the sea for you and me, } (twice.)
And we'll keep it free for all!

② Then he cried "Come here etc

So he blazed away
at the Dutchman
till he made his ship to fall
Then he hoisted a whip to the mast of his ship
and cried "I've a whip at the fore"
and cried "I've a whip at the fore"

So he cried Ho! ho! and away we'll go
Come aboard merry men with me
And we'll drive this Dutchman down below to the bottom of his Zuyder Zee.
His broom may be trim & gay
But we'll haul it down today
When he says he'll sweep the
The mighty deep
'Tis a game that two can play
