THE FAIRIES HAVE NEVER A PENNY TO SPEND.

The fairies have never a penny to spend,
They haven't a thing put by,
But theirs is the dower of bird and of flower
And theirs are the earth and the sky.
And though you should live in a palace of gold
Or sleep in a dried-up ditch,
You could never be poor as the fairies are,
And never as rich.

Since ever and ever the world began
They have danced like a ribbon of flame,
They have sung their song through the centuries long
And yet it is never the same.
And though you be foolish or though you be wise,
With hair of silver or gold,
You could never be young as the fairies are,
And never as old.

Lightly and with elegance.

VOICE.

PIANO.

The first system of music features a voice line with a whole rest and a piano accompaniment. The piano part begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and a 6/8 time signature. It starts with a piano (p) dynamic and includes an 8-measure rest followed by a melodic line with a ten. (tension) marking. The bass line consists of chords and eighth notes.

The second system continues the piano accompaniment and introduces the vocal line. The voice part begins with a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic and sings the lyrics "The fair - ies have nev - er a". The piano accompaniment continues with a piano (p) dynamic.

The third system continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The voice part sings "pen - ny to spend, They have-nt a thing put by,..... But". The piano accompaniment includes a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic marking.

(1st Verse.) Have you forgotten how we used to stand
Beneath the sunset by that silent deep,
Hearing the lovely mystic voice of night,
That called our hearts unto the gates of sleep?
Then like two children weary of the day,
Unto those flowery moon-lit fields we'd creep,
To sweet forgetting and remembering,
To dreams, to peace, beyond the gates of sleep!

And swank enough for thirty,
But tho' at times 'e can yarn with the best.
'E's inclined to turn up shirty:
But the man who can give and take a joke.
An out and out rampager,
Is that workin', worritin', cussin' ole bloke,

Drenched with dew at morn and eve,
Birds that sing amid the pine-tops,
Calling to the autumn breeze:
Come again, oh summer sunshine,
Come and kiss the dying year.

(1st Verse.) At Brixham, which is Devon way,
A-nestling to the sea,
You'll see a fisherman old and gnarl'd
Who knew Dan Peggotty;
Old Silas Oak is what he's called,
And when the bells are ringing—
When the red boats all draw in their nets—
You'll hear old Silas singing:

(Refrain.)
"O! be nigh on ninety seven,
Born and bred in dear old Devon,
And folks may be as old as oi
In other parts of England.
The Cornish seas are wide,
But in Devonshire they're wider,
So if you'd live as long as oi
Try Devonshire Cream and Cider."
