Are We Forgotten when We're Gone.

Words and Music by MAJ. J. BARTON.

Arranged by S. L. TYLER.

Introduction for piano. The music is in 2/4 time with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The right hand features a melodic line with grace notes and a trill (tr) in the final measure. The left hand provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes.

Piano accompaniment for the first two verses. The right hand has a melodic line with dynamics dim. and rit.. The left hand plays a rhythmic accompaniment of eighth notes. The piece concludes with a repeat sign and two endings: "1. Are" and "2. Are".

Vocal line and piano accompaniment for the lyrics. The vocal line is in a soprano or alto range. The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern as the introduction. The lyrics are:

we for-got-ten when we're gone? Are all life's hopes and dreams in vain? Do we for-got-ten when we're gone? The void we've left can no one fill? Or
