

R. W. Webster

6 M

SUNG BY
MR. AUGUSTUS REED,
WITH PRIMROSE'S GREAT MINSTRELS.

Jessie John

Clay

WHEN THE BELL IN THE LIGHTHOUSE RINGS (Ding Dong)

WORDS BY

ARTHUR J. LAMB

Author of "ASLEEP IN THE DEEP."

MUSIC BY

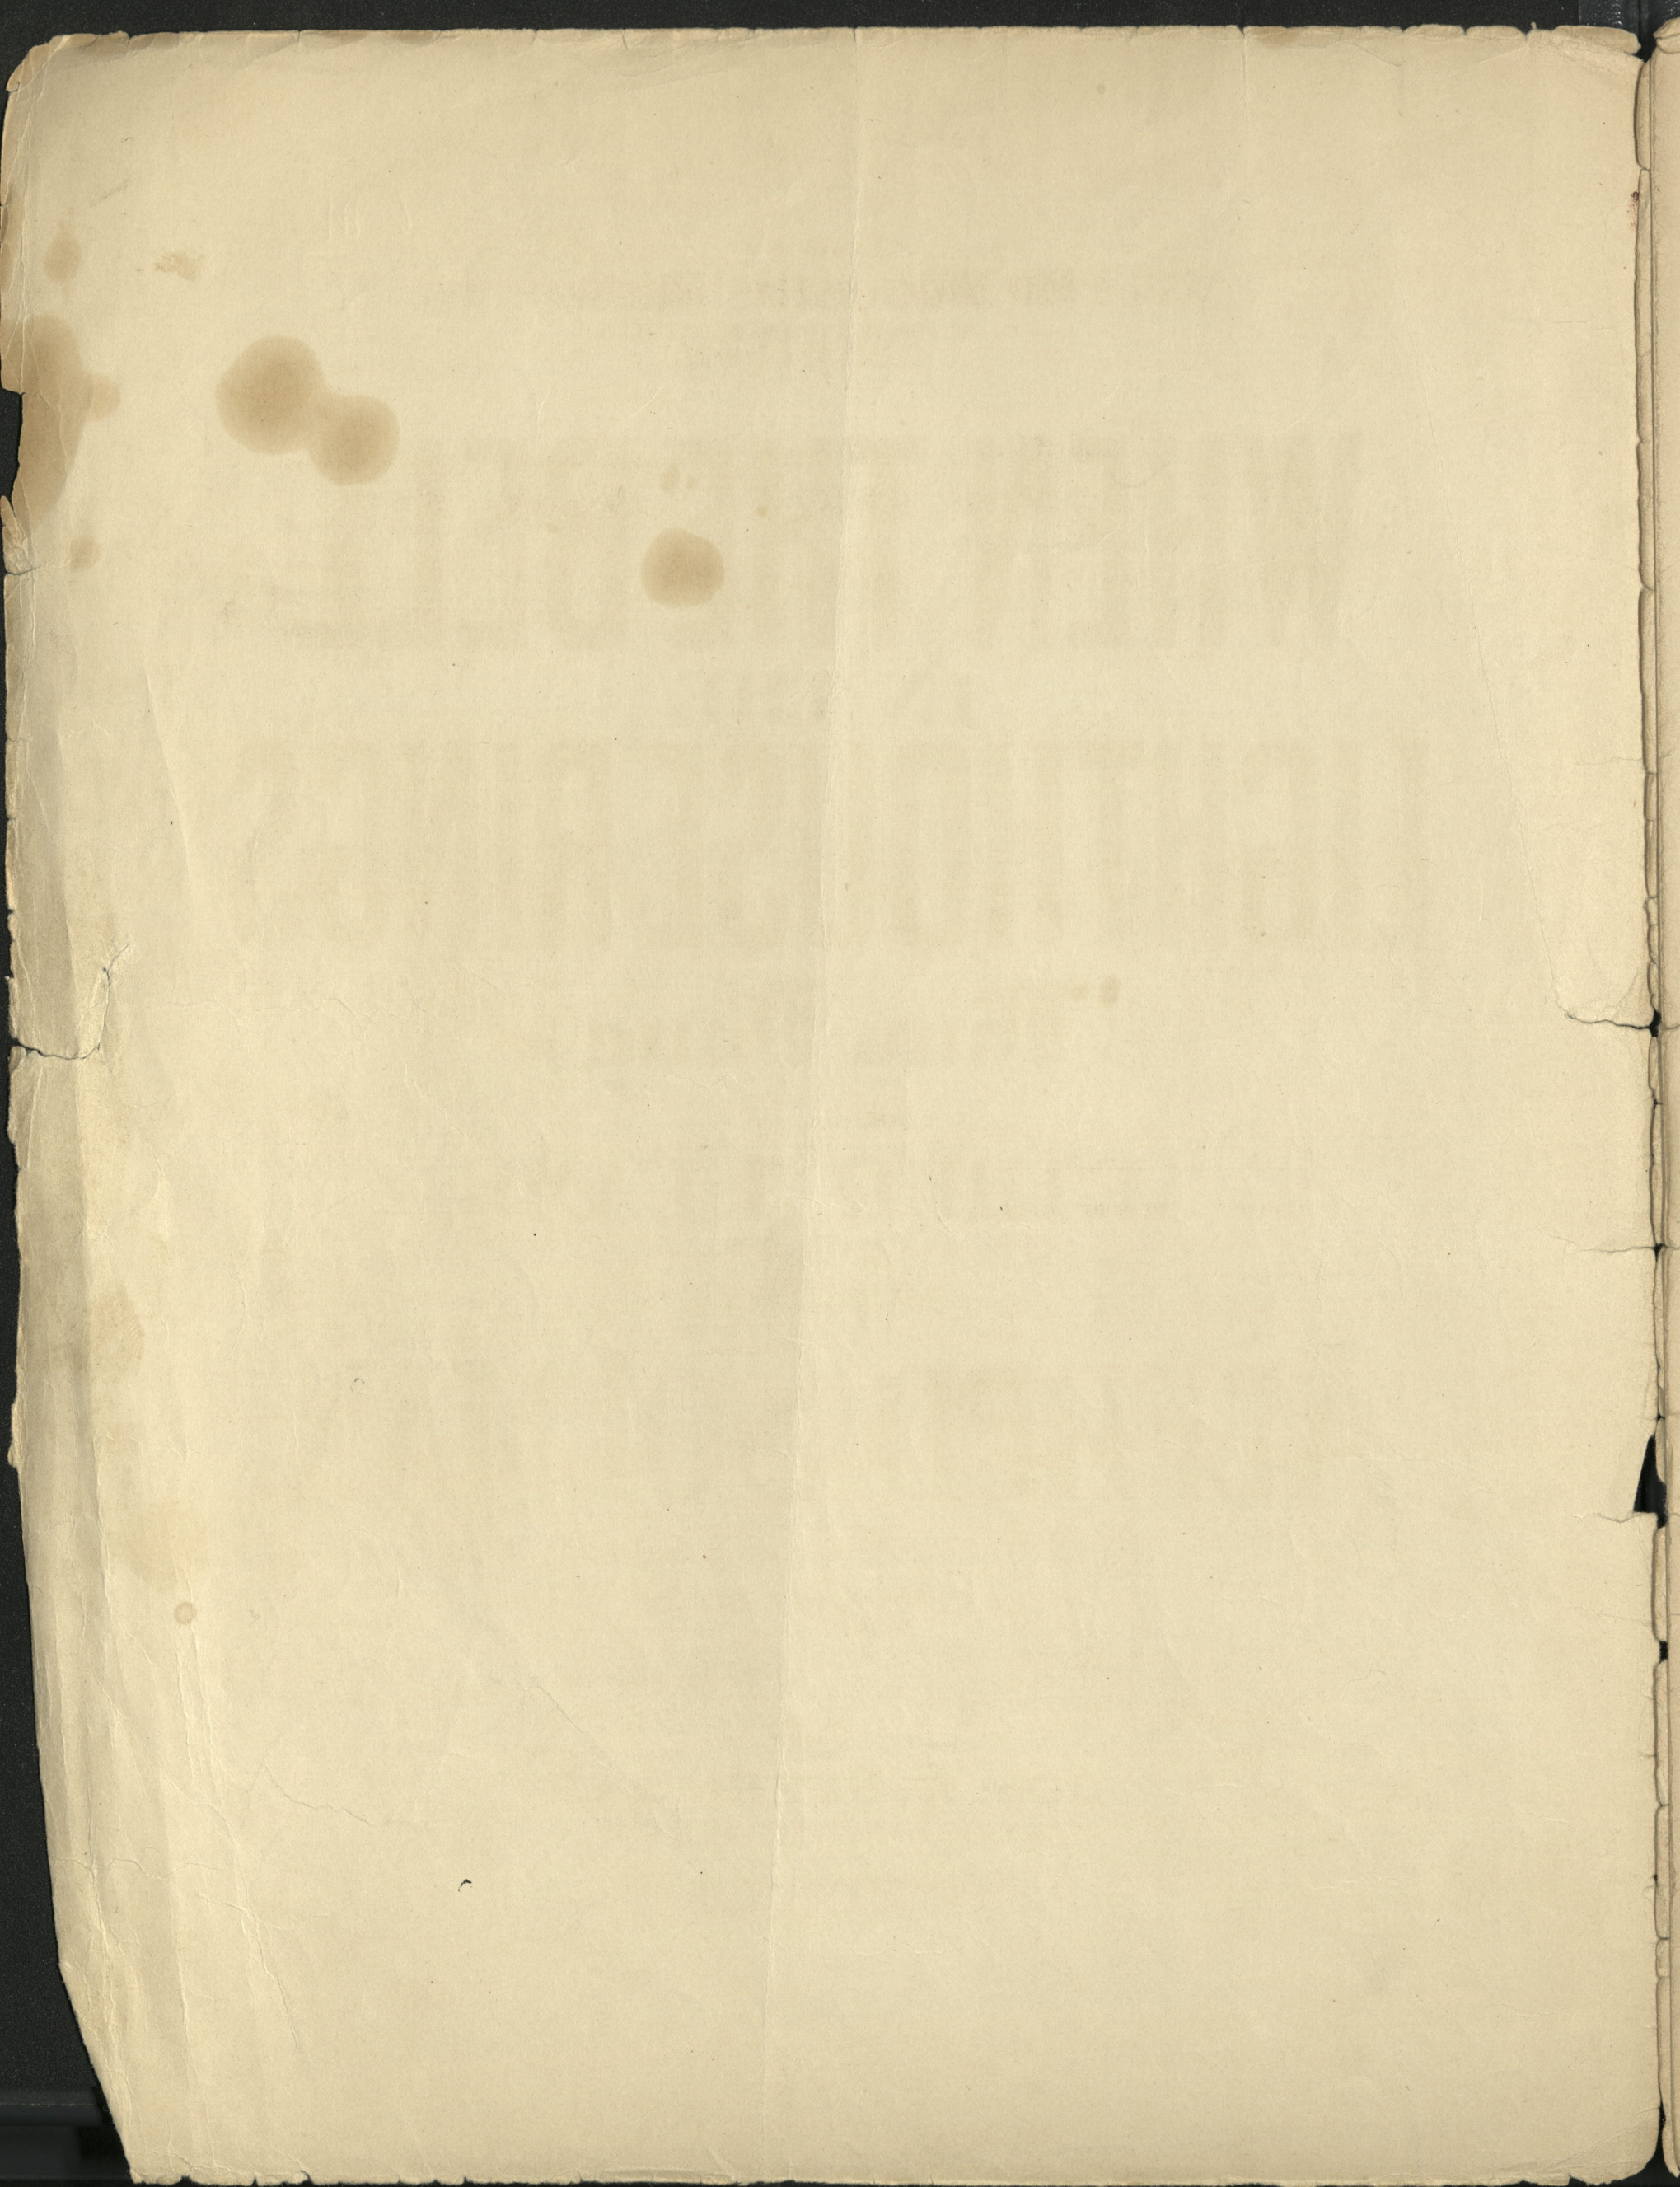

ALFRED SOLMAN.

Price 50 cents.

FOUR SHILLINGS.

PUBLISHED BY
JOS. W. STERN & Co
34 EAST 21ST STREET - NEW YORK.

Copyright MCMV, by Jos. W. Stern & Co.

When the Bell in the Lighthouse rings

Poem by ARTHUR J. LAMB.

Ding, Dong.

Music by ALFRED SOLMAN.

Moderato.

Piano.

mf maestosamente

cresc.

Just a
For a

f

glance in your eyes my bon - - - nie Kate, Then day is to come my bon - - - nie Kate, When

p dolce

o - - - ver the sea go I; While the joy in our heart shall reign; And we'll

Copyright, MCMV, by Jos. W. Stern & Co.
British Copyright Secured.

sea - gulls cir - cle a - round the ship, And the laugh to think of the dan - gers past, When you

bil - low - y waves roll high. And rest in my arms a - - gain. For

o - - ver the sea and a - way my Kate, A - back to your heart I will sail my Kate, With far to the dis - tant west; But love that is staunch and true; In ev - - er and ev - - er a thought I'll have, for the storm or in calm there's a Star of Hope, That is

las - - sie who loves me best:
al - ways to shine for you:

Bells.
C#
pp Bells

Refrain.

con spirito

When the bell in the light - house rings ding dong, When it

a tempo

il basso marcato

clangs with its warn - ing loud and long; Then a

f

sail - or will think of his sweet - heart so true, And

mf di - min - en - do

long for the day he'll come back to you: And his

cresc.

love will be told in the bell's brave song, When the

il basso marcato

bell in the light - house rings ding dong.

poco rit.

ding! dong! ding! dong! When the

f poco rit.

Lento ben marcato

bell in the light house rings ding dong, ding dong, ding dong!

dim.

Bells

Bb C# D Bb

F#