

Young & Spence

Young & Spence

Mary J. Chambers

Good-bye to thee

BALLAD

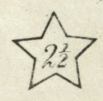

COMPOSED & ARRANGED

BY

E. MACK.

PHILADELPHIA

Published by MARSH 1102 Chestnut St.

Ent. according to Act of Congress Ad. 1850 by Marsh in the Clerks Office of the Dr. Ct. of En. Dr. of Pen.

1854

1854

1854

EVER THINK OF ME.

OR

FAREWELL TO THEE.

Words By E.O.

Music By E.MACK.

ANDANTE.

Fare-well beloved a long fare-well to thee; I seek a-gain my native land where dwell un-

-chang - ing friends who ev - er think of me; They call me home beloved, fare thee well! they call me home be - loved fare the well!

3. Fare - well a last fare - well beloved to thee; May

2. Fare - well be - loved we part as strangers now; Fond joy a-round thee; weave her blissful spell, And un-decaying friendship ev-er be Thy happy hop- es are fled, as bright leaves from the dell; Past dreams must be forgotten, for the vow Of by-gone por-tion farewell Oh! fare-well Thy happy por-tion farewell Oh! fare well.

years is broken fare-thee well, Of by-gone years is broken farethee well.