DREAMING OF HOME AND MOTHER.

Poetry and Music by J. P. ORDWAY, M. D.

VOICE.

PIANO.

The first system of music features a voice line with a whole rest and a piano accompaniment. The piano part consists of two staves: the right hand plays chords and the left hand plays a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes.

The second system continues the musical notation. The voice line has a whole rest, and the piano accompaniment continues with chords and eighth notes.

1. Dreaming of home,
2. Sleep, balmy sleep,
3. Childhood has come,

The third system includes the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the voice line.

dear old home! Home of my child-hood and Mother;
close mine eyes, Keep me still think-ing of Mother,
come a-gain, Sleep-ing I see my dear Mother,

Oft when I wake 'tis sweet to find, I've been dreaming of home and mother.
Hark! 'tis her voice I seem to hear, Yes, I'm dreaming of home and mother.
See her loved form be - side me kneel, While I'm dreaming of home and mother.

Home, dear home, childhood's happy home! When I played with sis-ter and with brother;
An - gels come, soothing me to rest, I can feel their presence as none other;
Mother dear, whisper to me now, Tell me of my sis - ter and my brother;

'Twas the sweetest joy when we did roam, O - ver hill and thro' dale with mother.
For they sweetly say I shall be blest, With bright vis - ions of home and mother.
Now I feel thy hand up - on my brow, Yes, I'm dreaming of home and mother.

CHORUS.

Sopr. Dreaming of home, dear old home, Home of my childhood and mother, Alto.

Tenor. Dreaming of home, dear old home, Home of my childhood and mother,

Bass.

Oft when I wake, 'tis sweet to find, I've been dreaming of home and mother.

Oft when I wake, 'tis sweet to find, I've been dreaming of home and mother.
