

Miss Maggie
G. J. J. J.

MY HEART IS THINE

Written by

PARK BENJAMIN ESQ

Composed and Respectfully Inscribed to

Miss Martha Dungan,

BY

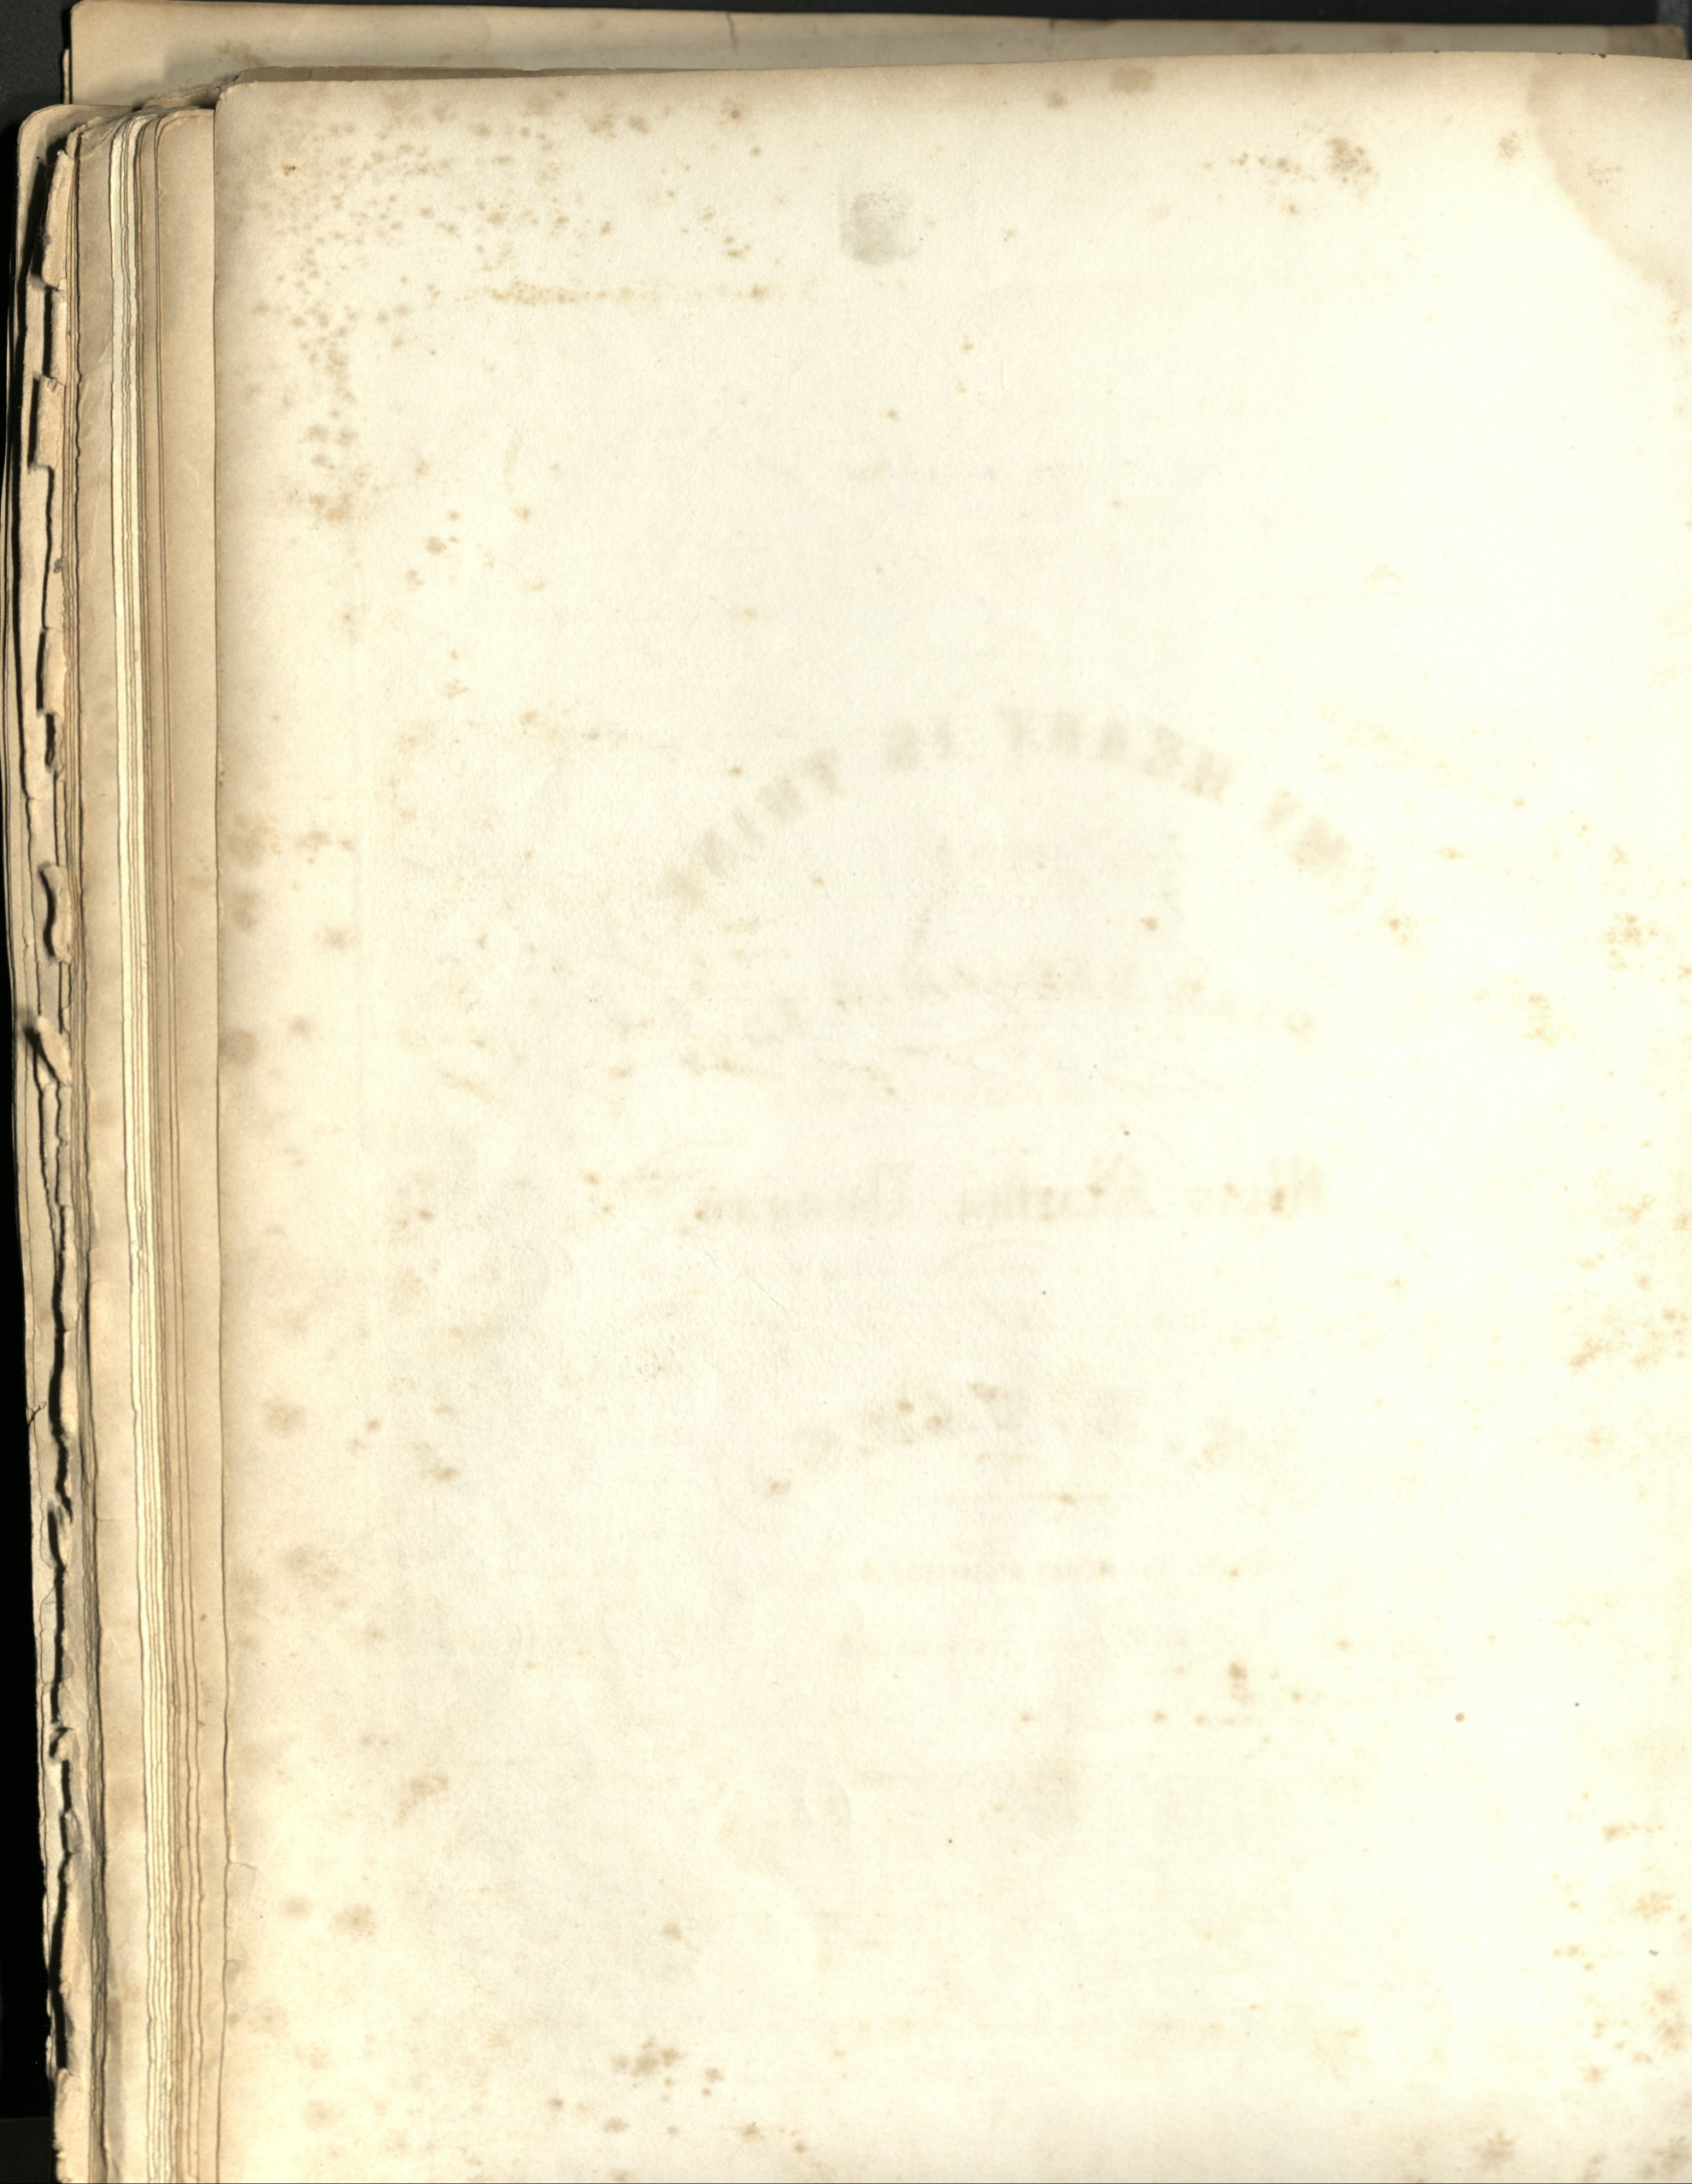

B. B. T. M. O.

Gillingham

Published by HENRY M^cCAFFREY Baltimore.

Philadelphia, LEE & WALKER.

25 Cts. Net.

MY HEART IS THINE .

Poetry by PARK. BENJAMIN Esqr.

Music by E. E. ULMO .

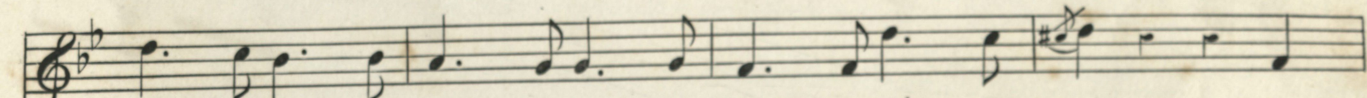

Andantino.

VOICE.

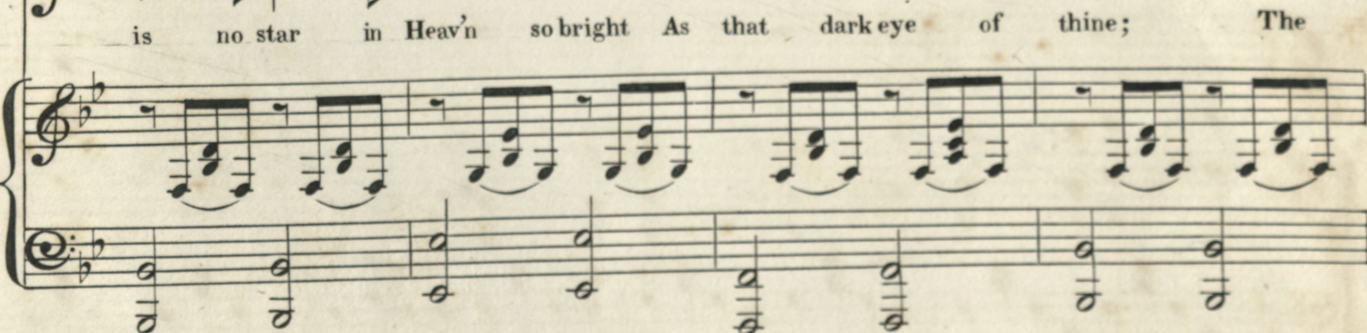

PIANO.

f Cres Ritard.

There

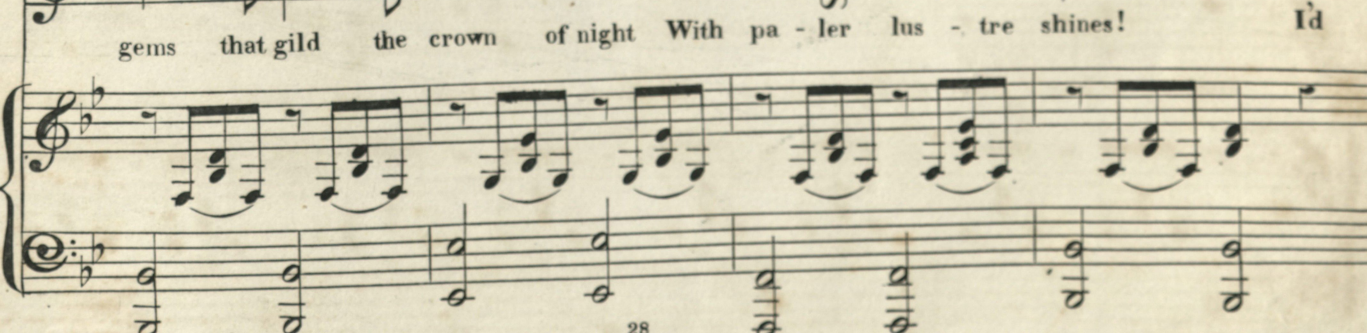

is no star in Heav'n so bright As that dark eye of thine; The gems that gild the crown of night With paler lus-tre shines! I'd 28

leave the fair - est thing of art To gaze upon that face Calore. Lento. And A tempo.

fault - less form, whose ev - ry part Is re - do - lent of grace.
Lento.

Thy

res.

step is like the wild gazelle's, As firm, and light, and free; And beau - ty, like a spir - it, dwells, En - chanting girl, with thee! I love oh, who could ev - er view That face and form di - vine; Nor Calore. Lentando. A tempo.

feel, when first that smile he knew, His heart was whol - ly thine!
 Lento.

eres. Ritard.