THE DANUBE RIVER.

To be played in moderate time, but with great variation, according to the sentiment of the words.

HAMILTON AÏDÉ.

Tempo di Mazurka.

The piano introduction consists of two staves in 3/4 time, key of D major. The right hand features a rhythmic melody with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of quarter notes. The piece begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#).

The first system of the vocal line includes the lyrics "Do you recall that" and is accompanied by piano accompaniment. The vocal melody is written on a single staff with a treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is on two staves (treble and bass clefs). The lyrics are positioned below the vocal staff.

The second system of the vocal line includes the lyrics "night in June, Up on the Danube river? We listend to a" and is accompanied by piano accompaniment. The vocal melody continues on a single staff, and the piano accompaniment is on two staves. The lyrics are positioned below the vocal staff.

The third system of the vocal line includes the lyrics "Ländler-tune, We watchd the moonbeams quiver. I oft since then have" and is accompanied by piano accompaniment. The vocal melody continues on a single staff, and the piano accompaniment is on two staves. The lyrics are positioned below the vocal staff. The tempo marking "a little slower." is placed above the final measure of the vocal line.
