

Best Kind of parents

- a) give when you don't have to (give freely)
- b) not competitive - give not because someone give you or will give you - but because you want to.
- c) cost of gift - not important

Best gift may cost nothing at all - Kind word - praise, forgiveness (Caring - caring - Hebrew School - men)
 Children - no money - can give these kind

Gift best

ex - "Thank you" - give a nice name or daddy / my mother's parents helps someone work Kiss - hug - when needed

Gift - may be not doing something

- a) mother see child dash - not - hitly
- b) child - keep quiet - know mother upset // help mother after work
- c) Kiss / hug / father is most needed

Talmud - 1102 23 - best gift is

- one given when it is most needed -
- a) medicine for the sick
 - b) water - travel or desert
 - c) food - starved person out of work
 - d) job
 - e) recommendation - invitation or dinner, mail helpfully new American really don't need rags, material things - for many already - what they need - old-fashioned love, attention, & care, concern

P3 Any time - is a good time to say "I love you" but esp good time when person is sad.

Conclusion when you consider your present list, think - what does the person need most -
a) not just toy - clothes - jewelry but what do they need to make them happy - or make them feel loved or unwanted - Give them that - ~~that~~ + you know what that will happen -
+ God will smile
They will never forget you -
+ God will smile.
