

Ex - Bar mitzvah - happy time - excite - laugh - some sadness - some s.f. not there - or a friend was in hospital

Ex - young lady at wedding - seems really happy for her girl friend getting married or man named Jack - points to young lady in love w/ Jack - like or marry him herself - she smiles - like or cry -

Ex - clown - his job is to make people laugh - paints face - bumpy pants - funny hat - big shoes - does tricks - people laugh - clown may not be happy at all -

nobody can be happy every day - + clown he is like funny every day!
Sometimes when I see a clown making people laugh I wonder what is he really thinking inside? How is he really feeling?

no person - mother or father - boy or girl - is always happy + some days sad + happy in same day - happy in morning + sad at night or sad in morning + happy at night.

Sometimes I'm sad + I know that sometimes you're sad.

Why the Clowns Laugh - When They Really Want to Cry

Division

The line between laughing + crying is very thin. Sometimes you cry when you are almost laughing + sometimes you laugh when you really want to cry.

story - Boy slipped on banana peel - hurt his knee - started cry + friends saw him slip - thought it was funny - started laughing - soon boy ^{who was} crying - started laughing w/ others - able to see funny part of the accident - knee still hurt - went enough to cry but he was laughing.

people cry at wedding
+ see mother + see friend
+ bride -

Sometimes things that happen to people - so silly - even tho they are sad - they make us laugh. Sometimes things are so sad that if we didn't laugh we couldn't stand them at all.

for ex - visited home where old man died - sat around valley - how sad - then - soon started valley - remembered good things in person's life - some of them + life warm + happy - some even funny - soon people smile - + after that laughing - life is not only sad - or only happy - I think mixed up - bec. of power of memory

Whenever you're sad it's nice to talk to someone about it.
+ when you talk about being sad - a miracle sometimes takes place - you begin to feel better - + better -

+ after a while, you begin to smile + even laugh.

So remember - if you're sad - don't be afraid to talk about it if you see someone else is sad try to help them. ^{ASK them to talk about it.} or to play w/ you.

When people help each other - + love each other - things seem to get better somehow.
That's the way God meant it to be.
He meant for us to help each other.
